SB No. 111

Present law provides for the enumeration of miscellaneous fees by clerks of court in civil matters.

Proposed law retains present law and further provides that any clerk of court that establishes procedures for the filing, receipt, or issuance of any of a list of certain documents involved in the filing of civil matters by electronic means shall establish fees for the filing, receipt, or issuance of electronic documents that shall not exceed the fee that would apply if the document was received, filed, or issued in paper.

Proposed law further provides that exhibits up to eight and one-half inches by fourteen inches, including but not limited to attachments, transcripts, and depositions, shall be two dollars per page.

Proposed law also provides that all paper exhibits larger than eight and one-half inches by fourteen inches, shall be five dollars per page and all other exhibits shall be five dollars per exhibit.

Effective August 1, 2014.

(Amends R.S. 13:841(A)(intro. para.) and (2)(c) and (d))
