Provides for confidentiality of information relating to the execution of a death sentence

Present law provides for the manner of execution of a death sentence. Proposed law retains these provisions of present law. Provides that the name, address, qualifications, and other identifying information of any person or entity that manufactures, compounds, prescribes, dispenses, supplies, or administers the drugs or supplies utilized in an execution shall be confidential shall not be subject to disclosure, and shall not be admissible as evidence or discoverable in any action of any kind. Provides that the same confidentiality applies to any person who participates in an execution or performs any ancillary function related to an execution and shall include information contained in any department records, including electronic records, that would identify any such person. Adds a reference to proposed law in the Public Records Law.
