Digest of Bill as Finally Passed by Senate

Abstract: Provides relative to the business practices of used motor vehicle dealers.

Present law provides that for purposes of certain laws pertaining to used motor vehicle dealers, that "motor vehicle" means any motor-driven car, van, or truck required to be registered pursuant to the Vehicle Registration License Tax Law, which is used or is designed to be used, for the transporting of passengers or goods for public, private, commercial, or for-hire purposes and, including motor homes, motorcycles, all-terrain vehicles, recreational vehicles, travel trailers, boat trailers, ambulances, buses, fire trucks, conversion vehicles, wreckers, semitrailers, hearses, and marine products, as any of the terms are defined in certain present law pertaining to motor vehicles.

Proposed law provides that for purposes of certain laws pertaining to used motor vehicle dealers, that "motor vehicle" also means any vehicle manufactured for off-road use and issued a manufacturer's statement or certificate of origin, as required by the Louisiana Motor Vehicle Commission, that cannot be issued a registration certificate and license to operate on the public roads of this state because, at the time of manufacture, the vehicle does not meet certain safety requirements, which is used or is designed to be used, for the transporting of passengers or goods for public, private, commercial, or for-hire purposes.

Present law provides that a "used motor vehicle dealer" means any person, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, or other entity who, for a commission or with intent to make a profit or gain of money or other thing of value, buys, sells, brokers, exchanges, rents with option to purchase, auctions, offers, or attempts to negotiate a sale or exchange of an interest in used motor vehicles and who is engaged wholly or in part in the business of buying and selling used motor vehicles, whether such motor vehicles are owned by such person and whether the motor vehicles are sold from a dealership location or via any form of advertising, including but not limited to the Internet.

Proposed law provides that auction shall be a retail or public.

Proposed law provides that "motor vehicle" means any motor-driven car, van, or truck required to be registered pursuant to the Vehicle Registration License Tax Law, R.S. 47:451 et seq., which is used or is designed to be used, for the transporting of passengers or goods for public, private, commercial, or for-hire purposes, including but not limited to motor homes, motorcycles, all-terrain vehicles, recreational vehicles, travel trailers, boat trailers, ambulances, buses, fire trucks, conversion vehicles, wreckers, semitrailers, hearses, and marine products, as any of the terms are defined in present law.

Present law provides that the used motor vehicle commission may revoke or suspend a license, issue a fine or penalty, or enjoin a used motor vehicle dealer, dealer in used parts or used accessories of motor vehicles, used motor vehicle auctioneer, or salesperson for a change of condition after the license has been granted resulting in failure to maintain the qualifications for licensure, including but not limited to the use of false, misleading, or unsubstantiated advertising in connection with his business.

Proposed law repeals the provision of law relating to false advertising as change in condition following licensure for which a license can be revoked for under present law and provides that the used motor vehicle commission may revoke or suspend a license, issue a fine or penalty, or enjoin a used motor vehicle dealer, dealer in used parts or used accessories of motor vehicles, used motor vehicle auctioneer, or salesperson the use of false, misleading, or unsubstantiated advertising in connection with his business.

Proposed law adds a nonexclusive list of what shall be considered false, misleading, or unsubstantiated advertising in connection with his business.

Present law provides that every used motor vehicle dealer who accepts a deposit or a down payment from a consumer shall provide the consumer with a purchase agreement statement containing the following:

- (1) A complete description of the motor vehicle subject to the purchase agreement, including the make, model, year, and vehicle identification number.
- (2) The purchase price of the vehicle.
- (3) The amount of the deposit or down payment.
- (4) A statement identifying whether the funds received by the dealer are for deposit or down payment.
- (5) Any conditions necessary to complete the sale.

Proposed law repeals present law.

Present law provides that every used motor vehicle dealer who accepts a deposit or down payment for a purchase agreement conditioned upon the consumer's ability to obtain financing of the remainder of the purchase price shall return the deposit or down payment upon a determination that the consumer does not qualify for financing. If no determination is made regarding financing within 20 days of the receipt of the deposit or down payment, the deposit or down payment shall be returned to the consumer at the end of the 20 day period.

Proposed law repeals present law.

Proposed law provides that in every transaction between a used motor vehicle dealer and a customer in which the purchaser provides a deposit on a used motor vehicle, the used motor vehicle dealer is required to provide a statement that the deposit given is on an agreement to purchase, and not an actual sale. The agreement shall clearly state that no transaction has actually occurred, and no sales documents have been completed. The deposit is merely intended as a hold on a vehicle.

Proposed law provides that in every transaction between a used motor vehicle dealer and a customer in which the purchaser provides a down payment for the purchase of a used motor vehicle, the used motor vehicle dealer is required to provide, either on the bill of sale, or by separate agreement, a statement that the sale is conditioned upon certain identifiable events, such as financing or obtaining state-mandated compulsory automobile insurance.

Proposed law provides that in every transaction between a used motor vehicle dealer and a customer in which the customer provides either a down payment or a deposit for the purchase of a used motor vehicle, the used motor vehicle dealer is required to complete a disclosure statement containing the terms and conditions of the transaction, including but not limited to:

- (1) The amount of the deposit or down payment.
- (2) Whether the money given is either a deposit or a down payment.
- (3) The terms and conditions for return or forfeiture of the customer's deposit or down payment.

Proposed law provides that if the dealer allows the customer to take delivery on a vehicle which is the subject of either a deposit or a down payment, a pre-delivery sale disclosure statement from the dealer and the customer must include the following:

- (1) A condition report which clearly identifies any noticeable damage to the vehicle before it is released to the customer.
- (2) A statement that if the dealer withdraws from the agreement to purchase, the customer will be responsible only for damages beyond normal wear and tear occurring during the customer's use of the vehicle which may be deducted from the deposit or down payment.
- (3) A statement that if the customer withdraws from the agreement to purchase, the customer shall be responsible not only for damages occurring during the customer's use of the vehicle but also for usage of the vehicle at a day rate not to exceed $25 dollars per day and thirty-five cents per mile, which may be deducted from the deposit or down payment.
- (4) A statement that if the customer either withdraws from the agreement to purchase or fails to return the vehicle at the expiration of the term of agreement, the dealer may seek repossession of the vehicle by any lawful means.
- (5) A statement that if the dealer withdraws from the agreement to purchase that the dealer must give written notice, by certified or registered mail, to the customer at least five days prior to taking repossession of the vehicle which may be done by any lawful means, and only upon return of the deposit in accordance with proposed law.

(Amends R.S. 32:781(5) and (13)(a)(i); Adds R.S. 32:792(B)(17) and 796; Repeals R.S. 32:792(B)(1)(d) and 795)
