EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

This proposed legislation may result in an increase in governmental expenditures as a result of expanding the types of discrimination in connection with numerous provisions throughout state law; however the exact fiscal impact of this legislation on courts and state agencies is indeterminable. To the extent the proposed legislation increases the number of lawsuits filed in district courts in these matters, an indeterminable increase in court costs may result. If the proposed legislation increases lawsuits filed against state and local governments, an indeterminable increase may result in governmental expenditures as a result.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
