EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

The proposed legislation may result in a potential cost increase to the Department of Public Safety and Corrections. Present law provides that a person committed to the Department of Public Safety and Corrections for a term or terms of imprisonment with or without benefit of parole for 30 years or more shall be eligible for parole consideration upon serving at least 20 years of the term or terms of imprisonment in actual custody and upon reaching the age of 45. This legislation adds exceptions to those persons convicted of crimes of violence or sex offenses from consideration of parole eligibility. Thus, this group of offenders would remain in prison resulting in increased costs to the Department of Public Safety and Corrections.

The provisions of this Act shall have a prospective application only and shall apply only to offenders convicted on and after the effective date of this Act.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
