

Regular Session, 2014

HOUSE BILL NO. 300

BY REPRESENTATIVE GREENE

1 AN ACT

2 To amend and reenact Civil Code Articles 112(B)(2) and 113, relative to spousal support;
3 to provide for consideration of an interim allowance or final child support obligation
4 in the determination of interim and final spousal support; and to provide for related 5 matters.

6 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

7 Section 1. Civil Code Articles 112(B)(2) and 113 are hereby amended and reenacted
8 to read as follows:

9 Art. 112. Determination of final periodic support

10 * * *

11 B. The court shall consider all relevant factors in determining the amount
12 and duration of final support. Those factors may include:

13 * * *

14 (2) The financial obligations of the parties, including any interim allowance
15 or final child support obligation.

16 * * *

17 Art. 113. Interim spousal support allowance pending final spousal support award

18 Upon motion of a party or when a demand for final spousal support is 19 pending, the court may award a party an interim spousal support allowance based on 20 the needs of that party, the ability of the other party to pay, any interim allowance
21 or final child support obligation, and the standard of living of the parties during the 22 marriage, which award of interim spousal support allowance shall terminate upon the 23 rendition of a judgment of divorce. If a claim for final spousal support is pending
24 at the time of the rendition of the judgment of divorce, the interim spousal support

1 award shall thereafter terminate upon rendition of a judgment awarding or denying
2 final spousal support or one hundred eighty days from the rendition of judgment of 3 divorce, whichever occurs first. The obligation to pay interim spousal support may 4 extend beyond one hundred eighty days from the rendition of judgment of divorce,
5 but only for good cause shown.
