

Prior law in Children's Code required that petitions filed in child in need of care proceedings, family in need of services proceedings, juvenile delinquency proceedings and involuntary termination of parental right proceedings be verified.

New law removes requirement that such petitions be verified.

Effective August 1, 2014.

(Amends Ch. C. Arts. 633, 748, 844 and 1018)