1 PART 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS2 SUBPART A. SHORT TITLE AND RESERVATION OF POWER3 §1-101. Short title

4 This Chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Business Corporation 5 Act". References in this Chapter and elsewhere in the Revised Statutes to the 6 Business Corporation Act or the Business Corporation Law shall be deemed to be 7 references to this Chapter.

9 Comment - 2014 Revision

10 The former Chapter was known as the "Business Corporation Law". The 11 distinct name for this Chapter will make it consistent with that of the Model Business 12 Corporation Act, on which it is based, and provide a convenient means of 13 distinguishing the earlier statute from the current one.

14 §1-102. Reservation of power to amend or repeal

15 The legislature has power to amend or repeal all or part of this Chapter at any 16 time and all domestic and foreign corporations subject to this Chapter are governed 17 by the amendment or repeal.

19 SUBPART B. FILING DOCUMENTS20 §1-120. Requirements for documents; extrinsic facts

21 A. A document must satisfy the requirements of this Section, and of any 22 other provision of this Chapter that adds to or varies these requirements, to be 23 entitled to filing by the secretary of state.

24 B. The filing of the document in the office of the secretary of state must be 25 required or permitted by this Chapter.

26 C. The document must contain the information required by this Chapter. It 27 may contain other information as well.

28 D. The document must be typewritten or printed or, if electronically 29 transmitted, it must be in a format that can be retrieved or reproduced in typewritten 30 or printed form. The inclusion of handwritten notations or entries on a typewritten 31 or printed document does not affect the eligibility of the document for filing.

1 E. The document must be in the English language. A corporate name need 2 not be in English if written in English letters or Arabic or Roman numerals, and the 3 certificate of existence required of foreign corporations need not be in English if 4 accompanied by a reasonably authenticated English translation.

5 F. The document must be signed by one of the following:

6 (1) By the chairman of the board of directors of a domestic or foreign 7 corporation, by its president, or by another of its officers.

8 (2) If directors have not been selected or the corporation has not been 9 formed, by an incorporator.

10 (3) If the corporation is in the hands of a receiver, liquidator, trustee, or other 11 court-appointed fiduciary, by that fiduciary.

12 G. The person executing the document shall sign it and state, beneath or 13 opposite the person's signature, the person's name and the capacity in which the 14 document is signed. The document may but need not contain a corporate seal.

15 H. Except as provided in R.S. 12:1701, the following documents shall be 16 acknowledged by one of the persons who signs the document or instead shall be 17 executed by authentic act:

18 (1) Articles of incorporation.

19 (2) Written consent to appointment by a registered agent.

20 (3) Articles of correction.

21 (4) Articles of amendment.

22 (5) Articles of merger.

23 (6) Articles of share exchange.

24 (7) Articles of domestication.

25 (8) Articles of nonprofit conversion.

26 (9) Articles of nonprofit domestication and conversion.

27 (10) Articles of entity conversion.

28 (11) Articles of dissolution.

29 (12) Articles of revocation of dissolution.

30 (13) Articles of termination.

1 (14) Articles of reinstatement.

2 (15) Contract acknowledgment statement by a corporation that contracts with 3 the state.

4 I. If the secretary of state has prescribed a mandatory form for the document 5 pursuant to R.S. 12:1-121, the document must be in or on the prescribed form.

6 J. The document must be delivered to the office of the secretary of state for 7 filing. Delivery may be made by electronic transmission if and to the extent 8 permitted by the secretary of state. If it is filed in typewritten or printed form and 9 not transmitted electronically, the secretary of state may require one exact or 10 conformed copy to be delivered with the document, except as provided in R.S.
 11 12:1-503.

12 K. When the document is delivered to the office of the secretary of state for 13 filing, the correct filing fee and any tax, fee, or penalty required to be paid therewith 14 by this Chapter or other provision of law must be paid, or provision for payment 15 made, in a manner permitted by the secretary of state.

16 L. Whenever a provision of this Chapter permits any of the terms of a plan 17 or a filed document to be dependent on facts objectively ascertainable outside the 18 plan or filed document, the following provisions apply:

19 (1) The manner in which the facts will operate upon the terms of the plan or 20 filed document shall be set forth in the plan or filed document.

21 (2) The facts may include any of the following but are not limited to:

22 (a) Any of the following that is available in a nationally recognized news or 23 information medium either in print or electronically: statistical or market indices, 24 market prices of any security or group of securities, interest rates, currency exchange 25 rates, or similar economic or financial data.

26 (b) A determination or action by any person or body, including the 27 corporation or any other party to a plan or filed document.

28 (c) The terms of, or actions taken under, an agreement to which the 29 corporation is a party or any other agreement or document.

30 (3) As used in this Subsection:

1 a document eligible for filing under this Chapter, and not as a free-standing 2 requirement that was to be imposed on the Chapter itself.

3 (b) The second sentence of Subsection D of this Section was added to 4 preserve the eligibility for filing of typewritten or printed documents that contain 5 handwritten entries or notations, which are commonly used to complete blank spaces 6 or to modify printed provisions in form documents.

7 (c) A new Subsection H of this Section was added, and the existing Model 8 Act subsections (h) through (k) were redesignated as Subsections I through L of this 9 Section, to retain the rule in prior law that required documents of the kind listed in 10 Subsection H of this Section to be acknowledged or executed by authentic act. As 11 in prior law, this rule is subject to exceptions provided elsewhere in the law, 12 currently in R.S. 12:1701. If the requirements of those exceptions are satisfied, they 13 permit documents that are signed and filed electronically, or in person at the 14 secretary of state's office, to be filed without the acknowledgment or authentic act 15 that would otherwise be required.

16 (d) Subsection K of this Section requires the payment of the correct filing fee 17 for a document. Those fees are set forth in R.S. 49:222.

18 §1-121. Forms

19 A.(1) The secretary of state may prescribe and furnish on request forms for 20 any of the following:

21 (a) An application for a certificate of existence and standing.

22 (b) A foreign corporation's application for a certificate of authority to do 23 business in this state.

24 (c) A foreign corporation's application for a certificate of withdrawal.

25 (d) The annual report.

26 (2) If the secretary of state so requires, use of these forms is mandatory.

27 B. The secretary of state may prescribe and furnish on request forms for 28 other documents required or permitted to be filed by this Chapter but their use is not 29 mandatory.

31 Comment - 2014 Version

32 The title of the "certificate of existence" in the Model Act was modified to 33 add the phrase "and standing" to reflect the added content in the "certificate of 34 existence and standing" as provided in R.S. 12:1-128.

1 §1-122. Filing, service, and copying fees

2 The secretary of state shall collect the fee authorized in R.S. 49:222 when a 3 document described in this Chapter is delivered to the secretary of state for filing.

4 Source: MBCA §1.22.

5 §1-123. Effective time and date of document

6 A. Except as provided in Subsections B and C of this Section and in R.S.
7 12:1-124(C), a document accepted for filing is effective at one of the following:

8 (1) The date and time of its receipt for filing, as evidenced by such means 9 as the secretary of state may use for the purpose of recording the date and time of 10 receipt.

11 (2) A later time, on the date of receipt, specified in the document as its 12 effective time.

13 B. Except as provided in Subsection C of this Section, a corporation's 14 original articles of incorporation become effective when signed as provided in R.S.
15 12:1-120 if all of the following conditions are met:

16 (1) The articles are received for filing by the secretary of state within five 17 days, exclusive of legal holidays, after the date that the articles are signed.

18 (2) The articles are accepted for filing.

19 C. A document may specify a delayed effective time and date, and if it does 20 so the document becomes effective at the time and date specified. If a delayed 21 effective date but no time is specified, the document is effective at the close of 22 business on that date. A delayed effective date for a document may not be earlier 23 than the first date and time that the document otherwise would have become 24 effective under this Section or later than the ninetieth day after the date the document 25 is received for filing by the secretary of state.

26 D. A document is accepted for filing when the secretary of state files the 27 document as provided in R.S. 12:1-125(B).

Comments - 2014 Revision

(a) The Model Act provision was modified to add a new Subsection B of this Section, and to redesignate Model Act Subsection (b) as Subsection C of this Section. The new Subsection B of this Section retains the five-day grace period provided under former Louisiana law for the filing of a corporation's original articles of incorporation, making them effective when signed if they are delivered for filing within five days, exclusive of holidays. Prior law had applied the five-day grace period to several other documents, such as articles of amendment and articles of merger, but this Section drops those documents from the coverage of the five-day rule to avoid unfair surprise to those who may rely upon documents already on file in the secretary of state's office. The grace period for a corporation's original articles of incorporation does not pose that kind of risk but rather supports the reasonable expectations of those dealing with or on behalf of the new corporation.

The term "original articles of incorporation" is used in this provision to distinguish a corporation's initial articles of incorporation from other, later-filed documents that would be considered part of a corporation's "articles of incorporation" as that term is defined in R.S. 12:1-140(1). As used in the definition and in this Section, the term "original" is not related to the distinction between a manually-signed document and a copy.

In some cases incorporators may not wish for the five-day grace period to apply. For example, articles may be signed near the end of a calendar or tax year, but be intended to take effect on the first day of the next year. In that case, the parties may specify a delayed effective date as provided in Subsection C of this Section.

(b) A phrase was added to Model Act Subsection (c), concerning delayed effective dates, to take account of the fact that a corporation's original articles of incorporation may take effect under Subsection B up to five business days before they are delivered for filing to the secretary of state. As modified, Subsection C of this Section permits the effective date of the articles to fall on any date between the date that they are signed, provided that the conditions of the five-day grace period are satisfied, and the ninetieth day after the articles are received by the secretary of state. For example, original articles that were signed on day one, but stated that they were to become effective on day three would become effective on day three as long as they were delivered for filing by day five and were accepted for filing by the secretary of state. If the same articles stated that they were to become effective on the first day of the month after the month in which they were filed, they would take effect on that date.

(c) A new Subsection D of this Section was added to the Model Act to make it clear that a document is "accepted for filing" within the meaning of this Subsection only if the secretary of state "files" the document as provided in R.S. 12:1-125(B).

(d) The Model Act language in Paragraph (A)(2) of this Section was modified to make it clear that the effective time of a document must be a time that occurs on the date of filing, and not, as the original language may have suggested, any time on any chosen date, as long as that time was specified in the filed document on the date that the document was filed.

§1-124. Correcting filed document

A. A domestic or foreign corporation may correct a document filed with the secretary of state if any of the following apply:

(1) The document contains an inaccuracy.

1 (2) The document was defectively signed, attested, sealed, verified, or 2 acknowledged.

3 (3) The electronic transmission was defective.

4 B. A document is corrected by doing all of the following:

5 (1) Preparing articles of correction that perform all of the following:

6 (a) Describe the document, including its filing date, or attach a copy of it to 7 the articles.

8 (b) Specify the inaccuracy or defect to be corrected.

9 (c) Correct the inaccuracy or defect.

10 (2) Delivering the articles to the secretary of state for filing.

11 C. Articles of correction are effective on the effective date of the document 12 they correct except as to persons relying on the uncorrected document and adversely 13 affected by the correction. As to those persons, articles of correction are effective 14 when filed.

16 §1-125. Filing duty of secretary of state

17 A. If a document delivered to the office of the secretary of state for filing 18 satisfies the requirements of R.S. 12:1-120, the secretary of state shall file it.

19 B. The secretary of state files a document by recording it as filed on the date 20 and time of receipt. After filing a document, except as provided in R.S. 12:1-503, 21 the secretary of state shall deliver to the domestic or foreign corporation or its 22 representative a copy of the document with an acknowledgment of the date of filing.

23 C. If the secretary of state refuses to file a document, it shall be returned to 24 the domestic or foreign corporation or its representative within five days after the 25 document was delivered, together with a brief, written explanation of the reason for 26 the refusal.

27 D. The secretary of state's duty to file documents under this Section is 28 ministerial. The secretary's filing or refusing to file a document does not do any of 29 the following:

30 (1) Affect the validity or invalidity of the document in whole or part.

1 (2) Relate to the correctness or incorrectness of information contained in the 2 document.

3 (3) Create a presumption that the document is valid or invalid or that 4 information contained in the document is correct or incorrect.

6 §1-126. Appeal from secretary of state's refusal to file document

7 [Reserved.]

8 Comment - 2014 Revision

9 Section 1.26 of the Model Act, concerning the procedure for appealing a 10 refusal by the secretary of state to file a document, was omitted from this Chapter to 11 avoid any redundancy or conflict with the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure 12 concerning writs of mandamus. Under Article 3863 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 13 a writ of mandamus may be directed to a public officer to compel the performance 14 of a ministerial duty required by law. R.S. 12:1-125(A) imposes on the secretary of 15 state a legal duty to file documents that satisfy the requirements of R.S. 12:1-120, 16 and R.S. 12:1-125(D) states that this filing duty is ministerial. Hence, a writ of 17 mandamus is available to compel the secretary of state to file a document that is 18 submitted in compliance with this Chapter.

19 §1-127. Evidentiary effect of copy of filed document

20 [Reserved.]

21 Comment - 2014 Revision

22 Section 1.27 of the Model Act, concerning the evidentiary effects of a 23 certificate of filing from the secretary of state, was omitted from this Chapter to 24 avoid any redundancy or conflict with the provisions of the Code of Evidence. See 25 C.E. Arts. 902 and 904.

26 §1-128. Certificate of existence and standing

27 A. Anyone may apply to the secretary of state to furnish a certificate of 28 existence and standing for a domestic corporation or a certificate of authorization 29 and standing for a foreign corporation.

30 B. A certificate of existence, or authorization, and standing shall set forth all 31 of the following:

32 (1) The domestic corporation's corporate name or the foreign corporation's 33 corporate name used in this state.

34 (2) That either of the following apply:

1 (a) The domestic corporation is duly incorporated under the law of this state, 2 along with the date of its incorporation and the period of its duration if less than 3 perpetual.

4 (b) The foreign corporation is authorized to do business in this state.

5 (3) [Reserved.]

6 (4) That its most recent annual report required by R.S. 12:1-1621 or R.S.
 7 12:309 has been filed with the secretary of state and that the corporation is in good 8 standing, or that its most recent annual report has not been filed as required by law.

9 (5) That the corporation is not dissolved or terminated.

10 C. Subject to any qualification stated in the certificate, a certificate of 11 existence, or authorization, and standing issued by the secretary of state may be 12 relied upon as conclusive evidence that the domestic corporation is in existence or 13 the foreign corporation is authorized to transact business in this state, and, if the 14 certificate so states, that the corporation is in good standing.

17 (a) Paragraph (b)(3) of the Model Act, concerning the secretary of state's 18 records on the payment of taxes and fees that could affect a corporation's existence, 19 was omitted from this Chapter because the secretary of state does not maintain 20 records of taxes or fees owed by a corporation to the state, other than the filing fees 21 for documents filed in the secretary of state's office. A corporation's existence or 22 authority to do business in this state could be affected by its failure to file annual 23 reports as required by R.S. 12:1-1621 or R.S. 12:309, but compliance with the annual 24 report filing requirement is covered by a separate Paragraph (b)(4), which was 25 retained in this Chapter in a modified form.

26 (b) Paragraph (b)(4) of the Model Act was modified to require the certificate 27 of existence and standing to state either that the most recent annual report required 28 by R.S. 12:1-1621 or R.S. 12:309 had been filed, and that the corporation was in 29 good standing, or that the most recent annual report had not been filed. The change 30 was made to allow the secretary of state to utilize a single certificate in the place of 31 the multiple certificates used under prior law, including a certificate of incorporation, 32 a certificate of existence and a certificate of good standing. Although most 33 applicants for certificates concerning domestic corporations will wish to obtain a 34 certificate that affirms all three items are true, experience suggests that some 35 certificate applicants may be satisfied with a certificate of existence even in the 36 absence of a certificate of good standing. A statement of good standing is redundant 37 of the statement that a corporation has filed its annual report as required, but the 38 traditional terminology was added to the Model Act language to harmonize it with 39 that commonly used in corporate transactional work.

40 (c) The rule in Model Act Subsection (c) concerning the conclusive effect 41 of a certificate of existence, or authorization, and good standing was retained as a

1 rule of substantive law similar to former R.S. 12:25(B) on the conclusive effects of 2 a certificate of incorporation. The certificate of existence, or authorization, and good 3 standing supplants the formerly separate certificates of incorporation or 4 authorization, of existence, and of good standing.

5 (d) A reference to R.S. 12:309 was added to Paragraph (B)(4) of this Section 6 to reflect the retention of existing Chapter 3 of Title 12, in place of Model Act 7 Chapter 15, to govern the qualification of foreign corporations to do business in 8 Louisiana.

9 (e) Model Act Subsection (b)(5) was modified to reflect the distinction 10 drawn in this Chapter between a dissolution and termination. See R.S. 12:1-1440 11 through 1-1445 and related comments.

12 §1-129. Penalty for signing false document

13 [Reserved.]

14 Comment - 2014 Version

15 Section 1.29 of the Model Act, concerning the imposition of a criminal 16 penalty for signing a false document, was omitted to avoid any redundancy or 17 conflict with the state's general criminal law.

18 SUBPART C. SECRETARY OF STATE

19 §1-130. Powers

20 [Reserved.]

21 Comment - 2014 Version

22 Section 1.30 of the Model Act, concerning the power of the secretary of state 23 to do the things necessary to fulfill the duties of the secretary under this Chapter, was 24 omitted to avoid redundancy or conflict with existing constitutional and statutory 25 provisions concerning the powers of the secretary of state.

 20 document.

22 Comments - 2014 Revision

23 (a) This Section deletes the Model Act definition of "employee" in Paragraph 24 (8) of this Section because the definition is not relevant to the meaning of any 25 provision in the Chapter, other than R.S. 12: 1-858(E), where the definition actually 26 would work against the intended meaning of the provision. The deletion of the 27 definition also prevents it from being used for unintended purposes, such as 28 determining whether an officer is an employee for purposes of workers' 29 compensation law or the imposition of vicarious tort liability on an employer.

30 (b) The definition of "expenses" in Paragraph (9B) of this Section has been 31 modified to include an express reference to attorney's fees and other litigation-related 32 expenses. This modification does not change the intended meaning of the Model Act 33 definition; the Official Comments to the relevant provision say that reasonable fees 34 and disbursements of counsel are to be considered expenses. The phrase added by 35 this Section simply puts the comment's position on that issue into the language of the 36 statute itself.

1 (c) This Act modifies the definition of three terms to make them apply as 2 intended to partnerships governed by Louisiana law. The three affected terms are 3 "filing entity" (9C), "nonfiling entity" (14B), and "public organic document" (17B).
 4 The three terms are used strictly in connection with entity conversions under Part 9 5 of this Chapter, and operate there to require the filing of appropriate public 6 documents by an entity that survives a conversion if the "creation" of that form of 7 entity would require the filing of a public organic document. The terms are designed 8 to apply mainly to limited partnerships and limited liability partnerships that are 9 "formed" or "created" under the laws of most states by the filing of articles or a 10 certificate of partnership.

11 Under Louisiana law, however, the filing of this kind of document does not 12 necessarily "form" or "create" either a partnership in commendam or a registered 13 limited liability partnership. An existing general partnership can obtain the form of 14 limited liability that is available in a limited liability partnership or partnership in 15 commendam by, among other things, filing the appropriate document with the 16 secretary of state. The filing of that document does not affect the filing partnership's 17 already-existing juridical personality. Moreover, Louisiana law does not limit its 18 filing obligations to limited liability forms of partnership; it requires even general 19 partnerships to file a document with the secretary of state to acquire the legal 20 capacity to own immovable property as to third persons. C.C. Art. 2806; R.S.
 21 9:3401-3410. Still, in neither context - limited liability nor ownership of immovable 22 property- is the filing required to create the partnership as a separate juridical person.

23 Nevertheless, the purpose of the relevant Model Act rules on "filing entities" 24 - that they be required to file the appropriate public documents in connection with 25 an entity conversion - should apply to Louisiana partnerships in the same way they 26 would apply to a limited partnership or a limited liability partnership formed under 27 the laws of another state. To achieve that end, this Section broadens the definition 28 of a "public organic document" to include not only a document filed to "create" an 29 entity, but also one that must be filed for the entity to own immovable property as 30 to third persons or to protect the entity's owners against liability. The definitions of 31 "filing entity" and "nonfiling entity" are then made to depend on this broader 32 definition of the term "public organic document."

33 In one type of transaction, this approach could theoretically require the filing 34 of a public document where it would otherwise not be required: in the conversion of 35 a corporation or other form of entity into a general partnership. Louisiana law does 36 not require a general partnership to file an organic document with the secretary of 37 state unless the partnership wishes to own immovable property. As a practical 38 matter, however, few owners of a general partnership would really wish to relinquish 39 their partnership's capacity to own immovable property merely to save a small filing 40 fee. Accordingly, this Section includes a general partnership within the meaning of 41 a "filing entity" so that a conversion of another form of business into a general 42 partnership will trigger the filing that preserves the capacity of the converted 43 business entity to own immovable property.

44 (d) Following the example set in Louisiana's adoption of the Uniform 45 Commercial Code, this Section adds definitions to the Model Act to deal with 46 differences in common law and civil law terminology in the area of what the 47 common law calls property and the civil law calls things. The four new 48 property-related definitions cover the terms "real property" (18C), "personal 49 property" (16A), "tangible property" (24A), and "intangible property" (13A). Each 50 definition includes both the common law and civil law terminology, and applies 51 them based on the law that governs the ownership of the thing or property in 52 question. So, for example, a Louisiana corporation that owned land both in 53 Louisiana and in Texas would own "real property" in both states within the meaning 54 of that term in this Section, because the land would be classified as an immovable 55 thing under Louisiana law and as real property under Texas law.

1 (e) The Model Act defines an "interest holder" as a person who "holds of 2 record" an interest. This Section substitutes the term "owner" for the "holds of 3 record" phrase. The Model Act's implicit assumption that the organic law governing 4 all forms of unincorporated entities will provide a corporation-like record holder 5 rule, and that the unincorporated entities will maintain those records as required, may 6 not be correct. In an informally-operated partnership or limited liability company, 7 it is possible, even likely, that no partner or member will hold an interest "of record" 8 in the usual sense of those words. Because the term "interest holder" is used in this 9 Section to identify the persons whose approval is required to carry out a merger or 10 entity conversion, limiting those persons to holders of record could mean that no one 11 within an informally-operated partnership or limited liability company would have 12 the power to approve those types of transactions. The "holds of record" phrase is 13 omitted to avoid that problem. However, the deletion of those words is not intended 14 to deprive a record ownership rule, if one exists, of its normal effects. If the organic 15 law governing an unincorporated entity does contain a record ownership rule, that 16 rule should operate by itself to permit the unincorporated entity to determine the 17 persons entitled to vote on a merger or entity conversion in accordance with the 18 record ownership rule.

19 (f) This Section adds a definition of "know" or "knowledge" in Paragraph 20 (13D) of this Section that is identical to that in the Uniform Commercial Code, R.S.
 21 10:1-202 (b). Although the notice rules in the two statutes differ, the definition of 22 "knowledge" provided in Paragraph (13D) of this Section is intended to draw the 23 same distinction between knowledge and notice that is drawn by the UCC, and to 24 express the same concept of actual knowledge.

25 (g) This Section adds "partner" to the list of persons who may bear "owner 26 liability" under Paragraph (15C) of this Section to avoid any question whether a 27 partner is among the types of owners who may bear that form of liability. This 28 Section rejects the Model Act rule that would have permitted the articles of 29 incorporation of a corporation governed by this Chapter to contain a provision 30 imposing owner liability on the shareholders of the corporation. See R.S. 12:1-202, 31 Comment (b). Nevertheless, that feature of the definition of owner liability was 32 retained in Paragraph (15C) of this Section because it may be relevant to a 33 transaction with a foreign corporation or unincorporated entity. For example, if a 34 plan of merger proposed the merger of a Louisiana corporation into a foreign 35 corporation whose articles contained a provision imposing owner liability on the 36 corporation's shareholders, R.S. 12:1-1104(8) would require the plan of merger to 37 be approved by each shareholder who would bear owner liability as a result of the 38 merger. The full definition of "owner liability" in Paragraph (15C) of this Section 39 is retained to deal with that kind of transaction.

40 (h) This Section modifies the definition of "principal office" in Paragraph 41 (17) of this Section to reflect the requirement in R.S. 12:1-202 that the address of an 42 initial principal office, if different from the registered office, be included in a 43 corporation's initial articles of incorporation.

44 (i) The Model Act definition of "secretary" in Paragraph (20) of this Section 45 has been modified in this Section to reflect the requirement imposed by this Chapter 46 that a corporation elect an officer called a "secretary." The Model Act requires the 47 election of someone with the responsibilities traditionally associated with a corporate 48 secretary, but does not require that person to be called "secretary." Thus, in the 49 Model Act, a definition of "secretary" is required to describe the person to whom the 50 Model Act is referring when it uses that term. The definition is retained in this 51 Section to describe the minimum, statutorily-designated responsibilities of the person 52 elected to the office of secretary.

53 (j) This Section modifies the Model Act definition of "unincorporated entity" 54 in Paragraph (24B) of this Section in two ways. First, it replaces the Model Act

1 references to an "artificial legal person" and to a "separate legal entity" with the 2 equivalent Louisiana terminology, "juridical person" and "separate juridical 3 personality." See C.C. Art. 24. And, second, it deletes the Model Act reference to 4 an organization that has the capacity to "own an estate in real property." That 5 phrase, which is foreign to Louisiana law, appeared to be included in the model 6 definition primarily to deal with partnerships and unincorporated nonprofit 7 associations that are governed by the law of a state that has yet make the transition 8 from an aggregate to entity theory for those forms of organization. The same 9 purpose is served in this Section by retaining the Model Act's listing of those 10 organizations by name in the definition, along with the names of the analogous 11 Louisiana organizations, and then by stating that the inclusive listing controls 12 regardless of whether the listed entities are treated as juridical persons in their states 13 of organization.

14 This list-by-name approach, when combined with the general juridical 15 personality rule, provides a clear, simple rule for all of the currently-realistic 16 possibilities for an entity conversion transaction, while also allowing for expansion 17 of the covered entities to include any new form of organization that is given the 18 juridical personality that modern law nearly always confers on new forms of business 19 organization. Of course, this approach does exclude the possibility that a corporation 20 could engage in an entity conversion transaction under Louisiana law with some 21 newly-discovered or newly-invented form of business organization that lacked 22 juridical personality, yet still possessed the capacity to own immovable property.
 23 But this Section chooses deliberately to leave for future consideration the rules that 24 should apply in that type of transaction.

25 §1-141. Notices and other communications

26 A. Except as provided in R.S. 12:1-303, notice under this Chapter must be 27 in writing. Unless otherwise agreed between the sender and the recipient, a notice 28 or other communication under this Chapter must be in English.

29 B. A notice or other communication may be given or sent by any method of 30 delivery, except that electronic transmissions must be in accordance with this 31 Section. If these methods of delivery are impracticable, a notice or other 32 communication may be communicated by a newspaper of general circulation in the 33 area where published.

34 C. Notice or other communication to a domestic or foreign corporation 35 authorized to transact business in this state may be delivered to its registered agent 36 or to the secretary of the corporation at its principal office shown in its most recent 37 annual report or, in the case of a foreign corporation that has not yet delivered an 38 annual report, in its application for a certificate of authority.

1 D. Notice or other communications may be delivered by electronic 2 transmission if consented to by the recipient or if authorized by Subsection J of this 3 Section.

4 E. Any consent under Subsection D of this Section may be revoked by the 5 person who consented by written or electronic notice to the person to whom the 6 consent was delivered. Any such consent is deemed revoked if both of the following 7 conditions are met:

8 (1) The corporation is unable to deliver two consecutive electronic 9 transmissions given by the corporation in accordance with such consent.

10 (2) The inability becomes known to the secretary or an assistant secretary of 11 the corporation or to the transfer agent or other person responsible for the giving of 12 notice or other communications; provided, however, the inadvertent failure to treat 13 such inability as a revocation shall not invalidate any meeting or other action.

14 F. Unless otherwise agreed between the sender and the recipient, an 15 electronic transmission is received when all of the following occur:

16 (1) It enters an information processing system that the recipient has 17 designated or uses for the purposes of receiving electronic transmissions or 18 information of the type sent, and from which the recipient is able to retrieve the 19 electronic transmission.

20 (2) It is in a form capable of being processed by that system.

21 G. Receipt of an electronic acknowledgment from an information processing 22 system described in Paragraph (F)(1) of this Section establishes that an electronic 23 transmission was received but, by itself, does not establish that the content sent 24 corresponds to the content received.

25 H. An electronic transmission is received under this Section even if no 26 individual is aware of its receipt.

27 I. Notice or other communication, if in a comprehensible form or manner, 28 is effective at the earliest of the following:

1 (1) If in physical form, the earliest of when it is actually received, or when 2 it is left at a place apparently designated for the receipt of mail or other similar 3 communication at any of the following:

4 (a) A shareholder's address shown on the corporation's record of 5 shareholders maintained by the corporation under R.S. 12:1-1601(C).

6 (b) A director's residence or usual place of business.

7 (c) The corporation's principal place of business.

8 (2) If mailed postage prepaid and correctly addressed to a shareholder, upon 9 deposit in the United States mail.

10 (3) If mailed by United States mail postage prepaid and correctly addressed 11 to a recipient other than a shareholder, the earliest of when it is actually received, or 12 either of the following:

13 (a) If sent by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, the date 14 shown on the return receipt signed by or on behalf of the addressee.

15 (b) Five days after it is deposited in the United States mail.

16 (4) If an electronic transmission, when it is received as provided in 17 Subsection F of this Section.

18 J. A notice or other communication may be in the form of an electronic 19 transmission that cannot be directly reproduced in paper form by the recipient 20 through an automated process used in conventional commercial practice only if both 21 of the following conditions are met:

22 (1) The electronic transmission is otherwise retrievable in perceivable form.

23 (2) The sender and the recipient have consented in writing to the use of such 24 form of electronic transmission.

25 K. If this Chapter prescribes requirements for notices or other 26 communications in particular circumstances, those requirements govern. If articles 27 of incorporation or bylaws prescribe requirements for notices or other 28 communications, not inconsistent with this Section or other provisions of this 29 Chapter, those requirements govern. The articles of incorporation or bylaws may 1 authorize or require delivery of notices of meetings of directors by electronic 2 transmission.

4 Comment - 2014 Revision

5 This Section omits the phrase in Model Act Subsection (a) that would have 6 permitted oral notice if "reasonable in the circumstances" and the rule in Model Act 7 Paragraph (i)(5) concerning the time at which an oral notice becomes effective.
 8 When this Chapter requires a notice, the notice must be in writing, as defined.
 9 However, the rejection of an oral statement as an acceptable form notice does not 10 affect any inference of knowledge that may be drawn from evidence that an oral 11 statement was made to an individual.

12 §1-142. Number of shareholders

13 A. For purposes of this Chapter, the following identified as a shareholder in 14 a corporation's current record of shareholders constitutes one shareholder:

- 15 (1) Co-owners.
- 16 (2) A corporation, partnership or other entity.
- 17 (3) A trust or estate or the trustees, guardians, custodians, succession 18 representatives, or other fiduciaries of a single trust, estate, succession, or account.

19 B. For purposes of this Chapter, shareholdings registered in substantially 20 similar names constitute one shareholder if it is reasonable to believe that the names 21 represent the same person.

23 Comments - 2014 Revision

24 (a) Under Louisiana law, the heirs or legatees of a decedent succeed 25 immediately to ownership of the decedent's assets. See C.C. Arts. 871, 934, and 935.
 26 If specific shares owned by the decedent are not bequeathed to particular successors, 27 the shares are co-owned by the decedent's successors. See C.C. Arts. 872, 935, and 28 1292. To achieve the result intended by the Model Act's treating an estate as one 29 owner, this Section treats co-owners by succession, either of the shares or of the 30 estate in which the shares are included, as one owner under Paragraph (A)(1) of this 31 Section.

32 (b) The Model Act counts co-owners as a single shareholder only when the 33 shares involved are owned by three or fewer co-owners. This Section counts all 34 co-owners of the same shares as a single shareholder, regardless of the number of 35 co-owners, so that direct co-ownership is treated for counting purposes in the same 36 way as the various forms of indirect co-ownership that are counted as a single 37 shareholder for counting purposes under Paragraph (A)(2) of this Section. The 38 removal of the numerical limitation on the operation of the co-ownership rule also 39 allows the rule on co-ownership by succession to operate as intended, regardless of 40 the number of heirs or legatees involved.

1 (c) The Model Act includes a trust or estate in the list of entities treated as 2 a single shareholder under Paragraph (a)(2). Because Louisiana law does not treat 3 a trust or estate as an entity, and because the entity status of an estate or trust is not 4 relevant to the operation of the counting rule stated by Subsection A of this Section, 5 this Section covers estates and trusts in Paragraph (A)(3) of this Section instead of 6 (A)(2).

7 (d) As used in Paragraph (A)(3) of this Section, the term "estate" was 8 retained as a means of applying the Model Act rule to estates existing under the laws 9 of another state. The rule applicable under Louisiana law to shares held by the heirs 10 or legatees of a deceased shareholder is not provided by the rule in Paragraph (A)(3) 11 of this Section concerning estates, but rather by the rule in Paragraph (A)(1) of this 12 Section concerning co-owners by succession. The rule is the same in both places, 13 of course, but the co-ownership by succession phrase in Paragraph (A)(1) of this 14 Section is the more technically accurate source of the rule in the context of Louisiana 15 succession law.

16 (e) This Section adds a reference to succession representatives of a 17 succession in Paragraph (A)(3) of this Section, to supply the Louisiana analogue to 18 the estate fiduciaries included in the Model Act.

19 (f) Under the Model Act, the rules in this Section are relevant only for 20 purposes of two provisions, Model Act Section 13.02(b)(2), concerning the 21 availability of appraisal rights, and Model Act Section 14.30(a)(2), concerning the 22 availability of dissolution of the corporation on grounds of oppression. Under this 23 Chapter, the rules are relevant only for the first purpose. This Chapter does not 24 require a counting of shareholders to determine whether the remedies it provides on 25 grounds of oppression are available to a shareholder. See R.S. 12:1-1435(J).

26 §1-143. Qualified director

27 A. A "qualified director" is a director who meets the following criteria:

28 (1) At the time action is to be taken under R.S. 12:1-744, does not have 29 either of the following conflicting interests:

30 (a) A material interest in the outcome of the proceeding.

31 (b) A material relationship with a person who has such an interest.

32 (2) At the time action is to be taken under R.S. 12:1-853 or 1-855, does not 33 have a material relationship with a director described in either Subparagraph (a) or 34 (b) of this Paragraph and is not either of the following:

35 (a) A party to the proceeding.

36 (b) A director as to whom a transaction is a director's conflicting interest 37 transaction or who sought a disclaimer of the corporation's interest in a business 38 opportunity under R.S. 12:1-870, which transaction or disclaimer is challenged in the 39 proceeding.

1 (3) At the time action is to be taken under R.S. 12:1-862, a director who does 2 not have a material relationship with another director as to whom the transaction is 3 a director's conflicting interest transaction.

4 (4) At the time action is to be taken under R.S. 12: 1-870, would be a 5 qualified director under Paragraph (A)(3) of this Section if the business opportunity 6 were a director's conflicting interest transaction.

7 B. For purposes of this Section and R.S. 12:1-860:

8 (1) "Material relationship" means a familial, financial, professional, 9 employment or other relationship that would reasonably be expected to impair the 10 objectivity of the director's judgment when participating in the action to be taken.

11 (2) "Material interest" means an actual or potential benefit or detriment, 12 other than one that would devolve on the corporation or the shareholders generally, 13 that would reasonably be expected to impair the objectivity of the director's 14 judgment when participating in the action to be taken.

15 C. The presence of one or more of the following circumstances shall not 16 automatically prevent a director from being a qualified director:

17 (1) Nomination or election of the director to the current board by any 18 director who is not a qualified director with respect to the matter, or by any person 19 that has a material relationship with that director, acting alone or participating with 20 others.

21 (2) Service as a director of another corporation of which a director who is 22 not a qualified director with respect to the matter, or any individual who has a 23 material relationship with that director, is or was also a director.

24 (3) With respect to action to be taken under R.S. 12:1-744, status as a named 25 defendant, as a director against whom action is demanded, or as a director who 26 approved the conduct being challenged.

28 Comment - 2014 Revision

29 This Section makes the definitions in Subsection B of this Section applicable 30 not only for purposes of this Section, as provided in the Model Act, but also for 31 purposes of R.S. 12:1-860. As explained in the comments to that Section, this

1 Section utilizes the definition of "material relationship" to broaden the definition of 2 a director's conflicting interest transaction.

3 §1-144. Householding

4 A. A corporation has delivered written notice or any other report or 5 statement under this Chapter, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws to all 6 shareholders who share a common address if all of the following conditions are met:

7 (1) The corporation delivers one copy of the notice, report, or statement to 8 the common address.

9 (2) The corporation addresses the notice, report, or statement to those 10 shareholders either as a group or to each of those shareholders individually or to the 11 shareholders in a form to which each of those shareholders has consented.

12 (3) Each of those shareholders consents to delivery of a single copy of such 13 notice, report or statement to the shareholders' common address. Any such consent 14 shall be revocable by any of the shareholders who deliver written notice of 15 revocation to the corporation. If the written notice of revocation is delivered, the 16 corporation shall begin providing individual notices, reports, or other statements to 17 the revoking shareholder no later than thirty days after delivery of the written notice 18 of revocation.

19 B. Any shareholder who fails to object by written notice to the corporation, 20 within sixty days of written notice by the corporation of its intention to send single 21 copies of notices, reports or statements to shareholders who share a common address 22 as permitted by Subsection A of this Section, shall be deemed to have consented to 23 receiving such single copy at the common address.

26 §1-201. Incorporators

(a) Under former R.S. 12:21, one or more "natural or artificial" persons "capable of contracting" were permitted to act as incorporators. The "natural or artificial" phrase was eliminated as unnecessary due to the definition of "person" in R.S. 12:1-140. The "capable of contracting" phrase from the former provision was added to the Model Act provision as a means of requiring incorporators to possess contractual capacity, thus disqualifying unemancipated minors and others lacking the required capacity from acting as incorporators. The added language is not meant to suggest that an incorporator, in filing the contemplated corporate documents, is becoming a party to a contract.

(b) This Section modifies the Model Act language to retain the substance of the requirement in the former law that a notarized affidavit of acceptance from the corporation's registered agent be filed as part of the incorporation process. The document is now described as a written consent, not an affidavit, but the document still must be acknowledged or executed by authentic act as provided in R.S. 12:1-120(H), unless it satisfies one of the exceptions in R.S. 12:1701.

§1-202. Articles of incorporation and signed consent by agent to appointment

18

A. The articles of incorporation must set forth all of the following:

19

(1) A corporate name for the corporation that satisfies the requirements of 20

21

(2) The number of shares the corporation is authorized to issue.

22

(3) The street address, not a post office box only, of the corporation's initial 23 registered office, and, if different, the street address, not a post office box only, of the corporation's initial principal office.

24

25

(4) The name and street address, not a post office box only, of its initial 26 registered agent.

27

(5) Whether the corporation accepts, rejects, or limits, with a statement of 28 the limitations, the protection against liability of directors and officers that is provided by R.S. 12:1-832.

29

30

(6) The name and address of each incorporator.

31

B. The articles of incorporation may set forth any of the following:

32

(1) The names and addresses of the individuals who are to serve as the initial 33 directors.

34

(2) Provisions not inconsistent with law regarding any of the following:

35

(a) The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized.

36

(b) Managing the business and regulating the affairs of the corporation.

1 (c) Defining, limiting, and regulating the powers of the corporation, its board 2 of directors, and shareholders.

3 (d) A par value for authorized shares or classes of shares.

4 (3) Any provision that this Chapter requires or permits to be set forth in the 5 bylaws.

6 (4) A provision that limits, reduces, qualifies, or conditions the protection 7 against liability of directors and officers provided by R.S. 12:1-832.

8 (5) A provision permitting or making obligatory indemnification of a 9 director for liability, as defined in R.S. 12:1-850(3), to any person for any action 10 taken, or any failure to take any action, as a director, except liability for any of the 11 following:

12 (a) A breach of the duty of loyalty owed by the director or officer to the 13 corporation or its shareholders.

14 (b) An intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or its shareholders.

15 (c) A violation of R.S. 12:1-833.

16 (d) An intentional violation of criminal law.

17 (6) A provision that cash, property or share dividends, shares issuable to 18 shareholders in connection with a reclassification of stock, and the redemption price 19 of redeemed shares, that are not claimed by the shareholders entitled thereto within 20 a reasonable time, not less than one year in any event, after the dividend or 21 redemption price became payable or the shares became issuable, despite reasonable 22 efforts by the corporation to pay the dividend or redemption price or deliver the 23 certificates for the shares to such shareholders within such time, shall, at the 24 expiration of such time, revert in full ownership to the corporation, and the 25 corporation's obligation to pay such dividend or redemption price or issue such 26 shares, as the case may be, shall thereupon cease; provided that the board of directors 27 may, at any time, for any reason satisfactory to it, but need not, authorize either of 28 the following:

29 (a) Payment of the amount of any cash or property dividend or redemption 30 price.

1 (b) Issuance of any shares, ownership of which has reverted to the 2 corporation pursuant to a provision of the articles authorized by this Section, to the 3 person that would be entitled thereto had such reversion not occurred.

4 C. The articles of incorporation need not set forth any of the corporate 5 powers enumerated in this Act.

6 D. Provisions of the articles of incorporation may be made dependent upon 7 facts objectively ascertainable outside the articles of incorporation in accordance 8 with R.S. 12:1-120(L).

9 E. A written consent to appointment, signed by the initial registered agent, 10 shall be attached or appended to the articles of incorporation.

12 Comments - 2014 Revision

13 (a) The Model Act unifies the address of a corporation's registered agent 14 with that of its registered office. That approach was rejected in this Section in favor 15 of the traditional Louisiana approach of permitting the two addresses to be handled 16 independently of one another. The registered office of a Louisiana corporation may 17 be relevant for purposes other than service of process on the registered agent.
 18 Venue, for example, is proper in the parish in which a corporation's registered office 19 is located. See C.C.P. Art. 42(2). A corporation may wish to appoint a registered 20 agent in a given parish without submitting itself to the treatment of that parish as a 21 parish of proper venue. The Model Act language was modified to permit that kind 22 of choice. The Model Act was also modified to add a requirement that the address 23 of the corporation's initial principal office, if different from its initial registered 24 office, be included in the articles of incorporation.

25 (b) Model Act Subparagraph 2.02(b)(2)(v), which would have permitted the 26 articles of incorporation to impose personal liability on shareholders for corporate 27 debts, was deleted from this Section because of the risks that it posed of subjecting 28 shareholders to personal liability without their knowledge. The deletion of the Model 29 Act provision does not affect the ability of shareholders to undertake personal 30 liability through their own personal guarantees.

31 (c) The Model Act permits the inclusion of a provision in the articles of 32 incorporation that exculpates corporate directors from personal liability for monetary 33 damages arising from a breach of fiduciary duty, subject to four exceptions for 34 serious forms of misconduct that are considered beyond the reach of private 35 agreements. Experience suggests that most parties who receive legal advice do 36 include the permitted exculpatory provision in their articles of incorporation, usually 37 "to the fullest extent allowed by law." Reflecting this strong preference for the 38 statutory form of exculpation, this Section makes the inclusion of statutory 39 exculpation the default rule. But because of the importance of the issue both to 40 shareholders and to management, the Section does not merely permit shareholders 41 to opt out of the statutory exculpation rules, it requires that an explicit choice be 42 made on the subject in the corporation's articles of incorporation. Paragraph (A)(5) 43 of this Section requires that the articles include a statement that selects one of three 44 choices: to accept, to limit, with a statement of the limitations, or to reject the default 45 exculpation rules.

1 (d) Paragraph (A)(5) of this Section contemplates that most parties will make 2 the simple choice between accepting and rejecting the statutory exculpation rules in 3 full. If the parties wish to engage in the more difficult task of devising their own 4 customized exculpatory rules, the particular limitations they wish to place on the 5 default statutory rules must be stated in the articles of incorporation. Under R.S.
 6 12:1-832, if the articles choose the "accept with limitations" option, but fail to 7 include the limitations in the articles, the default statutory rules will apply in full.
 8 Conversely, if statements of limitation are indeed included in the articles, but an 9 inconsistent choice is made under Paragraph (A)(5), the statement of limitations will 10 control over the inconsistent Paragraph (A)(5) selection.

11 (e) Model Act Paragraph (b)(5) was modified to harmonize the limitations 12 on indemnity provisions with the limits of exculpation permitted under R.S.
 13 12:1-832.

14 (f) Former R.S. 12:24(C)(3), concerning the reversion to the corporation of 15 dividends and other similar distributions that remained unclaimed after a year, was 16 retained and added to this Part as R.S. 12:1-202(B)(6).

17 (g) A new Subsection E of this Section was added to the Model Act 18 provision to retain the substance of the requirement in prior law that a notarized 19 affidavit of acceptance from the corporation's initial registered agent be filed as part 20 of the incorporation process. The document is now described as a written consent, 21 not an affidavit, but the document still must be acknowledged or executed by 22 authentic act as provided in R.S. 12:1-120(H), unless it satisfies one of the 23 exceptions in R.S. 12:1701.

24 §1-203. Incorporation

25 A. Except as provided in Subsection C of this Section, the corporate 26 existence begins, and the corporation is duly incorporated, when the articles of 27 incorporation become effective under R.S. 12:1-123.

28 B. The secretary of state's filing of the articles of incorporation is conclusive 29 proof that the incorporators satisfied all conditions precedent to incorporation and 30 that the corporation is duly incorporated, except in a proceeding by the state to 31 cancel or revoke the incorporation or involuntarily dissolve the corporation.

32 C. When immovable property is acquired by one or more persons acting in 33 any capacity for and in the name of any corporation that is not duly incorporated, and 34 the corporation is subsequently duly incorporated, the corporate existence shall be 35 retroactive to the date of acquisition of an interest in the immovable property, but 36 such retroactive existence shall be without prejudice to rights validly acquired by 37 third persons in the interim between the date of acquisition and the date that the 38 corporation is duly incorporated.

1 Comments - 2014 Revision

2 (a) Model Act Subsection (a) was modified to accommodate the grace 3 periods provided by R.S. 12:1-123(B) for the delivery of original articles of 4 incorporation to the secretary of state.

5 (b) The reference to a delayed effective date in Section 2.03 of the Model 6 Act was deleted as redundant of the rules in R.S. 12:1-123(C) concerning delayed 7 effective dates.

8 (c) Former R.S. 12:25.1 was retained and added as Subsection C of this 9 Section, to retain the retroactivity effects provided by prior law in connection with 10 acquisitions of immovable property. An introductory reference to the rule in 11 Subsection C of this Section was added to Subsection A of this Section.

12 (d) A phrase was added to Subsections A and B of this Section to make the 13 filing of articles of incorporation conclusive evidence that a corporation has been 14 "duly incorporated," effective on the date established by R.S. 12:1-123. The phrase 15 was added to harmonize Subsections A and B of this Section with the "duly 16 incorporated" language added in Subsection C of this Section from former R.S.
 17 12:25.1, and to support the traditional form of legal opinion that is commonly 18 required in connection with a corporate transaction, to the effect that one or more of 19 the corporations involved in the transaction is "duly incorporated."

20 §1-204. Liability for preincorporation transactions

21 [Reserved.]

22 Comment - 2014 Revision

23 Section 9 of Louisiana's 1928 business corporation act imposed personal 24 liability on non-dissenting directors and participating officers for all debts and 25 liabilities of a corporation that arose from the transaction of corporate business 26 before the corporation's articles of incorporation were properly filed. 1928 La. Acts 27 No. 250, §9. That rule was deliberately omitted from the 1968 statute "to permit full 28 application of the de facto-corporation and estoppel-to-deny-corporate existence 29 rules." Model Act Section 2.04 would have reinserted a modified version of the 30 older rule, imposing liability only if the participants in pre-incorporation transactions 31 acted while "knowing" that the corporation had not yet been formed. Like the 1968 32 statute, this Section rejects a mechanical liability rule, even the improved version 33 offered by the Model Act, in favor of the broader, more factually-sensitive approach 34 taken in de-facto-corporation and estoppel-to-deny-corporate-existence cases. See 35 §§9.03-.04 Glenn G. Morris and Wendell H. Holmes, Louisiana Business 36 Organizations, Vols. 7 & 8, Louisiana Civil Law Treatise Series (West Group 1999); 37 Fred S. McChesney, Doctrinal Analysis and Statistical Modeling in Law: The Case
 38 of Defective Incorporation, 71 Wash. U.L.Q. 493 (1993).

39 §1-205. Organization of corporation

40 A. After incorporation, the following shall apply:

41 (1) If initial directors are named in the articles of incorporation, the initial 42 directors shall hold an organizational meeting, at the call of a majority of the 43 directors, to complete the organization of the corporation by appointing officers and 44 carrying on any other business brought before the meeting.

CODING: Words in ~~struck through~~ type are deletions from existing law; words underscored are additions.

1 (2) If initial directors are not named in the articles, the incorporator or 2 incorporators shall hold an organizational meeting at the call of a majority of the 3 incorporators to elect a board of directors who shall complete the organization of the 4 corporation.

5 B. The election by the incorporators of a board of directors may be 6 conducted without a meeting by means of one or more written consents signed by 7 each incorporator.

8 C. An organizational meeting may be held in or out of this state.

9 Source: MBCA §2.05.

10 Comment - 2014 Revision

11 The Model Act allows incorporators to engage in the post-incorporation acts 12 that are typically carried out to complete the organization of a corporation, such as 13 electing officers and issuing stock. This Section retains the approach taken under 14 prior Louisiana law. It limits the role of incorporators to the signing and delivery of 15 articles of incorporation for filing, and to the election of the corporation's first 16 directors. Unless initial directors are named in the articles of incorporation, directors 17 must be elected by the incorporators to complete the organization of the corporation.

18 §1-206. Bylaws

19 A. The board of directors of a corporation may adopt bylaws for the 20 corporation.

21 B. The bylaws of a corporation may contain any provision for managing the 22 business and regulating the affairs of the corporation that is not inconsistent with law 23 or the articles of incorporation.

24 C. The bylaws may contain one or both of the following provisions:

25 (1) A requirement that if the corporation solicits proxies or consents with 26 respect to an election of directors, the corporation include in its proxy statement and 27 any form of its proxy or consent, to the extent and subject to such procedures or 28 conditions as are provided in the bylaws, one or more individuals nominated by a 29 shareholder in addition to individuals nominated by the board of directors.

30 (2) A requirement that the corporation reimburse the expenses incurred by 31 a shareholder in soliciting proxies or consents in connection with an election of 32 directors, to the extent and subject to such procedures or conditions as are provided

1 in the bylaws, provided that no bylaw so adopted shall apply to elections for which 2 any record date precedes its adoption.

3 D. Notwithstanding R.S. 12:1-1020(B)(2), the shareholders in amending, 4 repealing, or adopting a bylaw described in Subsection C of this Section may not 5 limit the authority of the board of directors to amend or repeal any condition or 6 procedure set forth in or to add any procedure or condition to such a bylaw in order 7 to provide for a reasonable, practicable, and orderly process.

8 Source: MBCA §2.06

9 Comment - 2014 Revision

10 Model Act Section 2.06 was modified in this Section: (1) to make the 11 adoption of bylaws permissive rather than mandatory, and (2) not to grant authority 12 to incorporators to adopt bylaws. Both changes were made to retain the existing 13 Louisiana law on the subject.

14 §1-207. Emergency bylaws

15 A. Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, the board of 16 directors of a corporation may adopt bylaws to be effective only in an emergency 17 defined in Subsection D of this Section. The emergency bylaws, which are subject 18 to amendment or repeal by the shareholders, may make all provisions necessary for 19 managing the corporation during the emergency, including any of the following:

- 20 (1) Procedures for calling a meeting of the board of directors.
- 21 (2) Quorum requirements for the meeting.
- 22 (3) Designation of additional or substitute directors.

23 B. All provisions of the regular bylaws consistent with the emergency 24 bylaws remain effective during the emergency. The emergency bylaws are effective 25 only during the emergency.

26 C. Corporate action taken in good faith in accordance with the emergency 27 bylaws binds the corporation and may not be used to impose liability on a corporate 28 director, officer, employee, or agent.

29 D. An emergency exists for purposes of this Section if a catastrophic event 30 makes it impracticable to attain a quorum of the corporation's directors when and as 31 necessary to carry out the functions of the board of directors.

2 Comment - 2014 Revision

3 The definition of emergency in R.S. 12:1-207(D) has been modified to 4 harmonize it with the Louisiana-modified definition of the same term in R.S.
 5 12:1-303(D), for the reasons explained in the Comments to that section.

6 PART 3. PURPOSES AND POWERS

7 §1-301. Purposes

8 A. Every corporation incorporated under this Chapter has the purpose of 9 engaging in any lawful business or activity unless a more limited purpose is set forth 10 in the articles of incorporation.

11 B. A corporation engaging in a business that is subject to regulation under 12 another statute of this state may incorporate under this Chapter only if permitted by, 13 and subject to all limitations of, the other statute.

14 Source: MBCA §3.01.

15 Comment - 2014 Revision

16 The phrase "or activity" was added to Subsection A of this Section to make 17 it consistent with former law, which had permitted a business corporation to engage 18 in "any lawful activity", and to make it clear that business corporations may used for 19 purposes other than the operation of a business in the usual sense of the term. This 20 Section also allows business corporations to be used, for example, to hold assets, to 21 facilitate financial transactions, and to provide services to affiliated operating 22 companies.

23 §1-302. General powers

24 Unless its articles of incorporation provide otherwise, every corporation has 25 perpetual duration and has the power to do all things necessary or convenient to carry 26 out its business and affairs, including without limitation power to perform any of the 27 following actions:

28 (1) Sue and be sued, complain and defend in its corporate name.

29 (2) Have a corporate seal, which may be altered at will, and to use it, or a 30 facsimile of it, by impressing or affixing it or in any other manner reproducing it.

31 (3) Make and amend bylaws, not inconsistent with its articles of 32 incorporation or with the laws of this state, for managing the business and regulating 33 the affairs of the corporation.

1 (4) Purchase, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire and own, hold, improve, 2 use, and otherwise deal with real or personal property, or any interest in property, 3 wherever located.

4 (5) Sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, and otherwise dispose 5 of all or any part of its property.

6 (6) Purchase, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, 7 use, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, and deal in and with shares 8 or other interests in, or obligations of, any other entity.

9 (7) Make contracts and guarantees, incur liabilities, borrow money, issue its 10 notes, bonds, and other obligations, which may be convertible into or include the 11 option to purchase other securities of the corporation, and secure any obligation by 12 mortgage, pledge, or security interests of any kind in any of its property, franchises, 13 or income.

14 (8) Lend money, invest and reinvest its funds, and receive and hold real and 15 personal property as security for repayment.

16 (9) Be a promoter, partner, member, associate, or manager of any limited 17 liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other entity.

18 (10) Conduct its business, locate offices, and exercise the powers granted by 19 this Chapter within or without this state.

20 (11) Elect directors and appoint officers, employees, and agents of the 21 corporation, define their duties, fix their compensation, and lend them money and 22 credit.

23 (12) Pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit sharing 24 plans, share bonus plans, share option plans, and benefit or incentive plans for any 25 or all of the current or former directors, officers, employees, and agents of the 26 corporation and its affiliated entities, and the dependents and families of those 27 individuals.

28 (13) Make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific, or 29 educational purposes.

30 (14) Transact any lawful business that will aid governmental policy.

1 owed to and by the corporation. If the guarantee power is exercised lawfully and 2 properly, the resulting guarantee is enforceable in the usual way, without any ultra 3 vires obstacle, while if the guarantee violates some legal duty owed to or by the 4 corporation, the normal remedies for a breach of the relevant duty are available. The 5 fact that the inter-corporate beneficiary of a guarantee is a 100% parent or affiliate 6 may be relevant in evaluating whether the legal duties owed in connection with the 7 guarantee have been satisfied. See, e.g., Trenwick America Litigation Trust v. Billet, 8 931 A.2d 438 (Del.2007) (en banc), affirming and adopting the rationale of Trenwick 9 American Litigation Trust v. Ernst & Young, L.L.P., 906 A.2d 168 (Del. Ch. 2006).
 10 But the propriety of such guarantees must be determined on the basis of those legal 11 duties, not as an issue of corporate power. As a matter strictly of corporate power, 12 a corporation formed under this Chapter may issue guarantees without limitation.

13 §1-303. Emergency powers

14 A. In anticipation of or during an emergency defined in Subsection D of this 15 Section, the board of directors of a corporation may do either of the following:

16 (1) Modify lines of succession to accommodate the incapacity of any 17 director, officer, employee, or agent.

18 (2) Relocate the principal office, designate alternative principal offices or 19 regional offices, or authorize the officers to do so.

20 B. During an emergency defined in Subsection D of this Section, unless 21 emergency bylaws provide otherwise, all of the following provisions shall apply:

22 (1) Notice of a meeting of the board of directors need be given only to those 23 directors whom it is practicable to reach and may be given in any practicable 24 manner, including by publication and radio.

25 (2) Any or all directors may participate in a regular or special meeting of the 26 board by, and the meeting may be conducted through the use of, any means of 27 communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each 28 other during the meeting.

29 (3) A director participating in a meeting by the means authorized in 30 Paragraph (2) of this Subsection is deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

31 (4) Unless the application of Paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Subsection is 32 sufficient to attain a quorum of directors, a quorum of directors consists of the 33 number of directors who participate in a meeting if both of the following conditions 34 are met:

1 (a) Reasonable efforts have been made to provide actual knowledge of the 2 meeting to all directors.

3 (b) All of the directors who have actual knowledge of the meeting, and who 4 could participate in the meeting lawfully and without undue hardship or risk of 5 injury, do participate in the meeting.

6 (5) If business is conducted at a meeting of directors at which a quorum 7 would be present only by application of the rule in Paragraph (4) of this Subsection, 8 a quorum of directors under Paragraph (4) of this Subsection is presumed to be 9 present.

10 C. Corporate action taken in good faith during an emergency under this 11 Section to further the ordinary business affairs of the corporation binds the 12 corporation and may not be used to impose liability on a corporate director, officer, 13 employee, or agent.

14 D. An emergency exists for purposes of this Section if a catastrophic event 15 makes it impracticable, without applying the rules pursuant to Subsection B of this 16 Section, to attain a quorum of the corporation's directors when and as necessary to 17 carry out the functions of the board of directors.

19 Comments - 2014 Revision

20 (a) The definition of emergency in Subsection (d) of the Model Act was 21 modified in this Act to tie more closely together the extraordinary powers provided 22 by this Section and the necessities that would justify the exercise of those powers.
 23 If the board is capable of achieving a quorum under its normal rules, without 24 application of the rules in Subsection B of this Section, then no emergency exists as 25 that term is defined in Subsection D of this Section.

26 (b) The functions of the board are described in R.S. 12:1-801. To the extent 27 that no action of the board was required during or in the aftermath of a catastrophic 28 event, no emergency would exist under this Section. A major hurricane, for 29 example, might make it impossible to convene a quorum of directors for a period of 30 several days. But that catastrophic event would not justify the exercise of corporate 31 powers under this Section if no need existed for board action during the period in 32 which a quorum could not be attained. If the required decisions fell within the 33 normal authority of the corporation's officers, for example, or if the decisions could 34 be delayed without significant harm to the corporation's interests for the few days 35 needed to attain the needed quorum, emergency actions under this Section would not 36 be authorized.

37 (c) R.S. 12:1-820(B) provides authority to a board of directors to permit 38 participation in board meetings by communication devices that permit all

1 participants in the meeting to hear each other simultaneously. Paragraphs (B)(2) and 2 (B)(3) of this Section provide rules identical to those in R.S. 12:1-820(B), except that 3 the rules in this Section are self-operative; they apply in the case of an emergency 4 without regard to whether the board has taken action to approve of that form of 5 participation. In many cases, the board will have taken action before a catastrophic 6 event to permit this type of telephonic or other similar form of participation in a 7 meeting. If so, the corporation may be able to attain a quorum of directors under its 8 normal rules. In that event, the special quorum and participation rules of this Section 9 would not be needed, so no "emergency" would exist within the meaning of 10 Subsection D.

11 (d) During an emergency, Model Act Section 3.03(b)(2) allows officers to 12 be substituted for absent directors as needed to achieve a quorum of the directors.
 13 This Section does not permit that form of substitution. Instead, it deals with the 14 emergency by relaxing the quorum requirement itself.

15 (e) If a normal quorum can be achieved under the corporation's normal rules, 16 then no emergency exists, by definition, under Subsection D. If a quorum could be 17 achieved by allowing telephonic or other similar forms of participation in the 18 meeting, and the board has yet to exercise its power to permit those forms of 19 participation under R.S. 12:1-820(B), then Paragraphs (B)(2) and (B)(3) of this 20 Section will operate to permit telephonic or similar participation during the 21 emergency. If application of those two Subsections is enough by itself to resolve the 22 quorum problem, then the number of directors required to attain a quorum is not 23 affected by Paragraph (B)(4) of this Section. The special rule in Paragraph (B)(4) 24 of this Section does not apply in those circumstances because the rule is designed to 25 decrease, not increase, the number of directors required to establish a quorum, and 26 the number of directors able to participate in a meeting under Paragraph (B)(4) may 27 actually exceed the number normally required for a quorum. In that case, the normal 28 number would control. In a typical corporation, in which a majority of directors 29 would constitute a quorum, the effect of the rule in Paragraph (B)(4) of this Section 30 would be to set a quorum at a majority of directors (the normal rule) or a smaller 31 number equal to those who were able to participate in the meeting lawfully and 32 without undue hardship or risk of injury.

33 (f) The participation of a director in a meeting is excused, and does not count 34 in determining the quorum under Paragraph (B)(4) of this Section, if two conditions 35 are satisfied: (1) the corporation has made reasonable efforts to give actual 36 knowledge of the meeting to all of its directors, and (2) all directors who know about 37 the meeting, and could participate in it lawfully and without undue hardship or risk 38 of injury, do participate. The reference to lawful participation in Paragraph (B)(4) 39 of this Section is designed to excuse participation that is made impracticable by 40 reason of some rule, order or instruction by a governmental agency, official or other 41 actor who is exercising lawful authority during the emergency. For example, if 42 emergency road closures or restrictions prevented a director from reaching the board 43 meeting site, and downed telephone lines and cellular towers prevented telephonic 44 participation, that director would not be able to participate in the meeting lawfully, 45 i.e., without violating the road closure or restriction orders. Under those 46 circumstances, that director's participation in the meeting would be excused, and 47 would not count toward the number needed to achieve a quorum, regardless of 48 whether the closed roads were passable enough to allow the director to reach the 49 meeting.

50 (g) Paragraph (B)(5) of this Section creates a presumption that an emergency 51 quorum under Paragraph (B)(4) of this Section is present at any meeting at which the 52 board conducts business during an emergency. The presumption is designed to give 53 the benefit of doubt to directors who are doing their best to deal with emergency 54 conditions, perhaps without full documentation of the efforts they are making to 55 notify all directors and to arrange for their participation in the meeting. The 1 presumption may be rebutted by a preponderance of evidence to the contrary. But 2 in the absence of such evidence, the interests of the corporation are best served by 3 attaching a presumption of regularity, not usurpation, to the steps taken by directors 4 during the emergency.

5 §1-304. Ultra vires

6 A. Except as provided in Subsection B of this Section, the validity of 7 corporate action may not be challenged on the ground that the corporation lacks or 8 lacked power to act.

9 B. A corporation's power to act may be challenged in any of the following:

10 (1) A proceeding by a shareholder against the corporation to enjoin the act.

11 (2) A proceeding by the corporation, directly, derivatively, or through a 12 receiver, trustee, or other legal representative, against a current or former director, 13 officer, employee, or agent of the corporation.

14 (3) A proceeding by the attorney general under R.S. 12:1-1430.

15 C. In a shareholder's proceeding under Paragraph (B)(1) of this Section to 16 enjoin an unauthorized corporate act, the court may enjoin or set aside the act if 17 equitable, and may award damages for loss, other than anticipated profits, suffered 18 by the corporation or another party to the proceeding because of enjoining the 19 unauthorized act. If an act to be enjoined in the proceeding is the performance of a 20 duty owed by the corporation under the terms of a contract to which the corporation 21 is a party, the court may enjoin the act only if the other parties to the contract are 22 joined in the proceeding.

23 Source: MBCA §3.04.

24 Comments - 2014 Revision

25 The Model Act requires the joinder of "all affected persons" to a proceeding 26 to enjoin an ultra vires act. Because of concern about the potential breadth and 27 uncertainty of that requirement, this Section replaces it with the joinder requirement 28 that was imposed under the former Louisiana law. As modified, Subsection (C) of 29 this Section requires the joinder of a third person in an ultra vires proceeding only 30 if the proceeding is brought to enjoin the performance of a duty owed by the 31 corporation under a contract to which that person is a party.

PART 4. NAME

§1-401. Corporate name

A.(1) A corporate name may include words in any language but must be written in English letters or characters.

(2) A corporate name must contain the word "corporation", "incorporated", "company", or "limited," or the abbreviation, with or without punctuation, "corp.", "inc.", "co.", or "Ltd."

(3) A corporate name may not contain any of the following:

(a) Any language stating or implying that the corporation is organized for a purpose other than that permitted by R.S. 12:1-301 and its articles of incorporation.

(b) The phrase "doing business as" or any abbreviation of that phrase, such as "d/b/a".

(c) Any words that deceptively or falsely suggest a charitable or nonprofit nature or that imply that the corporation is an administrative agency of this state or any of its political subdivisions or of the United States.

(d) Except as indicated, any of the following quoted words or phrases in any form:

(i) "Casualty", "redevelopment corporation", or "electrical cooperative".

(ii) Except for a bank holding company, "bank", "banker", "banking", "savings", "safe deposit", "trust", "trustee", "building and loan", "homestead", or "credit union".

(iii) Except for an independent insurance agency or brokerage corporation, "insurance".

(4) A court having jurisdiction may, upon application of the state or of any interested or affected person, enjoin a corporation from doing business under a name that violates any part of R.S. 12:1-401(A)(3)(c) or (d).

B. Except as authorized by Subsections C and D of this Section, a corporate name must be distinguishable from all of the following:

(1) The corporate name of a corporation or nonprofit corporation incorporated in this state.

1 (2) A corporate name reserved or registered under R.S. 12:1-402 or 1-403.

2 (3) The name of a foreign corporation or foreign nonprofit corporation, as 3 stated in the certificate of authority to do business in this state issued to that 4 corporation under Chapter 3 of this Title.

5 (4) The name of a domestic limited liability company or the name of a 6 foreign limited liability company used in the foreign limited liability company's 7 certificate of authority to do business in this state.

8 (5) The name of a partnership whose contract for partnership is filed for 9 registry with the secretary of state or the name of a duly registered foreign 10 partnership.

11 (6) A trade name registered with the secretary of state.

12 C. A corporation may apply to the secretary of state for authorization to use 13 a name in its filings with the secretary of state that is not distinguishable from one 14 or more of the names described in Subsection B of this Section. The secretary of 15 state shall authorize the use of the name applied for if either of the following occur:

16 (1) The other registrant consents to the use in writing and submits an 17 undertaking in a form satisfactory to the secretary of state to change its name to a 18 name that is distinguishable from the name of the applying corporation.

19 (2) The applicant delivers to the secretary of state a certified copy of the final 20 judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant's right to use 21 the name applied for in this state.

22 D. A corporation may use in its filings with the secretary of state a name that 23 is not distinguishable from one or more of the names described in Subsection B of 24 this Section if the registrant of the name is incorporated, organized, or authorized to 25 transact business in this state and the proposed user corporation performed any of the 26 following actions:

27 (1) Merged with the other registrant.

28 (2) Been formed by reorganization of the other registrant.

29 (3) Acquired all or substantially all of the assets, including the name, of the 30 other registrant.

1 E. This Act does not control the use of fictitious, assumed, or trade names.

2 F. If the secretary of state receives for filing articles of incorporation that 3 include in the corporate name the word "bank", "banker", "banking", "savings", "safe 4 deposit", "trust", "trustee", "building and loan", "homestead", "credit union", or any 5 other word of similar import, the secretary of state shall not file the articles of 6 incorporation until the secretary of state receives satisfactory evidence that written 7 notice of the proposed use of that name was delivered to the office of financial 8 institutions at least ten days earlier.

9 G. If the secretary of state receives for filing articles of incorporation that 10 include in the corporate name the word "engineer", "engineering", "surveyor", or 11 "surveying," the secretary of state shall not file the articles of incorporation until the 12 secretary of state receives either of the following:

13 (1) Satisfactory evidence that written notice of the proposed use of that name 14 was delivered to the Louisiana Professional Engineering and Land Surveying Board 15 at least ten days earlier.

16 (2) A written waiver of the ten-day notice requirement, signed by the 17 executive secretary or any officer of the Louisiana Professional Engineering and 18 Land Surveying Board.

19 H. If the secretary of state receives for filing articles of incorporation that 20 include in the corporate name the word "architect", "architectural", or "architecture", 21 the secretary of state shall not file the articles of incorporation until the secretary of 22 state receives either of the following:

23 (1) Satisfactory evidence that written notice of the proposed use of that name 24 was delivered to the Louisiana State Board of Architectural Examiners at least ten 25 days earlier.

26 (2) A written waiver of the ten-day notice requirement, signed by the 27 executive director or any member of the Louisiana State Board of Architectural 28 Examiners.

29 I. The assumption or use of a name in violation of this Section does not 30 affect or vitiate the corporate existence.

1 Comments - 2014 Revision

2 (a) The Model Act includes periods as punctuations after the abbreviations 3 listed in Paragraph (A)(2) of this Section. This Section adds the phrase "with or 4 without punctuation" to permit the abbreviations to be used with or without periods.

5 (b) Model Act Subsection (a) was modified to retain the substance of the 6 rules in former R.S. 12:23 that prohibited the use of certain words or phrases in 7 corporate names (see Subparagraphs (A)(3)(b)-(d) of this Section) and that required 8 the corporate name to be expressed in English letters or characters (see Paragraph 9 (A)(1) of this Section).

10 (c) The Model Act language in Paragraph (a)(2) would have permitted the 11 required designations of corporate status, such as "corporation" or "corp", to be 12 expressed in "words or abbreviations of like import in any language". That language 13 was omitted to require the use of the listed English words and abbreviations.

14 (d) Model Act Paragraph (b)(3) was modified in this Section to take account 15 of the retention of existing Chapter 3 of Title 12 (in place of Model Act Chapter 15) 16 to govern the qualification of foreign corporations to do business in this state.

17 (e) The Model Act standard for distinguishing corporate and other related 18 names, i.e. "distinguishable upon the records of the secretary of state", was modified 19 in this Section to retain the standard in prior law that the names be "distinguishable", 20 without any reference to the records of the secretary of state. That standard falls 21 between the early standard of "deceptive similarity", which both the Model Act and 22 this Section reject, and the purely linguistic, on-the-records standard used in the 23 Model Act. Except for a brief return to the deceptive similarity standard between 24 1993 and 1997, distinguishability has been the name-difference standard in 25 Louisiana since 1988.

26 (f) Under the distinguishability standard, the secretary of state's office has 27 required that names be distinguishable not only in writing, upon the secretary's 28 records, but also in pronunciation. The name "B C Corporation", for example, would 29 not be treated as distinguishable from "Bee See Corporation". This Section retains 30 the distinguishability standard to allow the secretary of state to leave the 31 distinguishable pronunciation requirement in place. The required difference in the 32 pronunciation of names serves two functions: it helps the secretary of state's office 33 avoid confusion during telephone inquiries concerning corporate records, and it lets 34 the secretary of state withhold any form of perceived official sanction for the use of 35 a name so similar in sound that it is more likely than most to lead to name-use 36 disputes. Still, nothing in this Section precludes a person from doing business 37 lawfully under an assumed or trade name, even if that name has been declined for 38 filing purposes because it was considered insufficiently distinguishable from some 39 other name already on file. Similarly, nothing in this Section confers any form of 40 presumption that a name accepted for filing by the secretary of state may be used in 41 business operations, free of any competing claims by others who may hold superior 42 rights to the name. Rights in trade names are governed by trade name and unfair 43 competition law, not by this Chapter or by the filing decisions of the secretary of 44 state under this Chapter. See Subsection E of this Section; Gulf Coast Bank v. Gulf 45 Coast Bank & Trust Company, 652 So.2d 1306 (La. 1995) (explaining sources and 46 requirements of trade name protection). This Section rejects the rule in some 47 reported cases that the filing decisions of the secretary of state with respect to 48 corporate names are entitled to "some weight" or "great weight" in trade name 49 disputes; they are entitled to no weight at all.

50 (g) The phrase "in its filings with the secretary of state" was added to 51 Subsections C and D of this Section to make it clear that the "use" of a corporation 52 name under those Subsections meant strictly the use of a name in a corporation's

1 filings with the secretary of state, and not the more general use of a corporate or 2 fictitious name in the corporation's business operations.

3
 4 (h) Former R.S. 12:23(F) provided that the assumption of an improper name 5 did not affect a corporation's legal existence, but could be the basis of an injunction 6 against continued use of the improper name. The former provision was divided and 7 placed into two different Subsections in this Section. The rule that protected a 8 corporation's legal existence, despite an improper name, was retained as a general 9 rule, in Subsection I, applicable to all of the naming rules set forth in this Section.
 10 But the injunctive relief rule was included as Paragraph (A)(4) of this Section, and 11 made to apply only to those items in Paragraph (A)(3) of this Section that prohibit the 12 use of words or language in a corporate name that would imply a corporation was 13 something other than an ordinary business corporation, such as a charity or 14 governmental agency. The injunctive relief rule was made inapplicable to the 15 Section's provisions concerning the distinguishability of corporate names because the 16 distinguishability requirements were designed to serve principally a recordkeeping 17 function, not to provide grounds for remedies in trade name or unfair competition 18 disputes.

19 (i) Subsections F through H of this Section were added to the Model Act 20 provision to retain the rules in former R.S. 12:23(E) that required advance notice to 21 the listed regulatory or licensing agencies if certain words, such as "bank", 22 "engineer", or "architect" were included in a corporation's proposed corporate name.
 23 Changes were made in the terminology and style of the former rules to harmonize 24 them with those of the Model Act.

25 §1-402. Reserved name

26 A. A person may reserve the exclusive use of a corporate name in its filings 27 with the secretary of state, including a fictitious name for a foreign corporation 28 whose corporate name is not available, by delivering an application to the secretary 29 of state for filing. The application must set forth the name and address of the 30 applicant and the name proposed to be reserved. If the secretary of state finds that 31 the corporate name applied for is available, the secretary of state shall reserve the 32 name for the applicant's exclusive use for a nonrenewable period of one hundred and 33 twenty days.

34 B. The owner of a reserved corporate name may transfer the reservation to 35 another person by delivering to the secretary of state a signed notice of the transfer 36 that states the name and address of the transferee.

37 C. A terminated corporation's name is reserved by operation of law for three 38 years after the effective date of the corporation's termination.

39 Source: MBCA §4.02.

1 Comments - 2014 Revision

2 (a) The phrase "in its filings with the secretary of state" was added to the first 3 sentence of Subsection A of this Section to make it clear that the reservation of the 4 name related strictly to a corporation's filings with the secretary of state, and not to 5 the right to use the reserved name in business operations.

6 (b) The qualification of foreign corporations is governed by Title 12, Chapter 7 3. Nevertheless, the Model Act reference to a foreign corporation was retained in 8 this Section to allow a foreign corporation to reserve a name under which it intends 9 to do business in this state.

10 (c) This Section adds a new Subsection C to the Model Act. The new 11 subsection automatically reserves the name of a terminated corporation for a period 12 of three years after the effective date of the corporation's termination. This 13 reservation causes the terminated corporation's name to be included among the 14 names from which a new corporate name must be distinguishable under R.S. 12:1-15 401(B)(2), and so protects the name from adoption by another company during the 16 period in which R.S. 12:1-1444 allows the terminated corporation to be reinstated.

17 §1-403. Registered name

18 A. A foreign corporation may register its corporate name, or its corporate 19 name with any addition authorized by R.S. 12:303(A)(3), if the name is 20 distinguishable upon the records of the secretary of state from the corporate names 21 that are not available under R.S. 12:1-401(B).

22 B. A foreign corporation registers its corporate name, or its corporate name 23 with any addition authorized by R.S. 12:303(A)(3), by delivering to the secretary of 24 state for filing an application which does both of the following:

25 (1) Sets forth its corporate name, or its corporate name with any addition 26 authorized by R.S. 12:303(A)(3), the state or country and date of its incorporation, 27 and a brief description of the nature of the business in which it is engaged.

28 (2) Is accompanied by a certificate of existence, or a document of similar 29 import, from the state or country of incorporation.

30 C. The name is registered for the applicant's exclusive use upon the effective 31 date of the application.

32 D. A foreign corporation whose registration is effective may renew it for 33 successive years by delivering to the secretary of state for filing a renewal 34 application that complies with the requirements of Subsection B of this Section 35 between October first and December thirty-first of the preceding year. The renewal 36 application when filed renews the registration for the following calendar year.

1 E. A foreign corporation whose registration is effective may thereafter 2 qualify as a foreign corporation under the registered name or consent in writing to 3 the use of that name by a corporation thereafter incorporated under this Chapter or 4 by another foreign corporation thereafter authorized to transact business in this state.
 5 The registration terminates when the domestic corporation is incorporated or the 6 foreign corporation qualifies or consents to the qualification of another foreign 7 corporation under the registered name.

9 Comment - 2014 Revision

10 References in this Section to Model Act Section 15.06 were replaced by 11 references to the analogous provision in Title 12, Chapter 3, which was retained in 12 place of Model Act Chapter 15 to govern the qualification of foreign corporations 13 to do business in this state.

14 PART 5. OFFICE AND AGENT

15 §1-501. Registered office and registered agent

16 Each corporation must continuously maintain in this state both of the 17 following:

18 (1) A registered office that may be, but need not be, the same as any of its 19 places of business.

20 (2) A registered agent, who may be either of the following:

21 (a) An individual who resides in this state.

22 (b) A domestic or foreign corporation or other eligible entity that 23 continuously maintains an office in this state and, in the case of a foreign corporation 24 or foreign eligible entity, is authorized to transact business in this state.

25 Source: MBCA §5.01.

26 Comment - 2014 Revision

27 The Model Act requires a corporation's registered office to be located at the 28 street address of its registered agent. This Section permits a corporation to specify 29 a street address for its registered office different from that of its registered agent.
 30 See Comment (a) to R.S. 12:1-202. This Section was modified to accommodate the 31 possible distinction between those two addresses.

1 §1-502. Change of registered office or registered agent

2 A. A corporation may change its registered office or the identity or address 3 of its registered agent by delivering to the secretary of state for filing a statement of 4 change that sets forth all of the following information:

5 (1) The name of the corporation.

6 (2) The street address of its current registered office.

7 (3) If the current registered office is to be changed, the street address of the 8 new registered office.

9 (4) The name and street address of its current registered agent.

10 (5) If the identity of the current registered agent is to be changed, the name 11 of the new registered agent and the new agent's signed written consent, either on the 12 statement or attached to it, to the appointment.

13 (6) If the street address of the registered agent is to be changed, the new 14 street address of the registered agent.

15 B. A registered agent may change its street address on the records of the 16 secretary of state for all corporations for which it serves as registered agent by 17 delivering to the secretary of state a statement of change that sets forth all of the 18 following information:

19 (1) The name of the registered agent.

20 (2) The name of the corporation for which it is acting as registered agent.

21 (3) Its current street address to be changed.

22 (4) Its new street address.

23 (5) A certification that the registered agent has notified all of the 24 corporations for which it serves as registered agent of the change in its address to the 25 new street address specified in the statement of change.

26 (C) A registered agent may satisfy the requirements of Subsection B of this 27 Section for multiple corporations through the delivery of a single statement of 28 change that complies with Subsection B of this Section, provides the names of all of 29 the corporations for which the statement is to be effective, and certifies that the 1 registered agent has notified all of those corporations of the change in its address to 2 the new street address specified in the statement of change.

4 Comments - 2014 Revision

5 (a) The Model Act requires a corporation's registered office to be located at 6 the street address of its registered agent. This Section permits a corporation to 7 specify a street address for its registered office different from that of its registered 8 agent. See Comment (a) to R.S. 12:1-202. This Section was modified to 9 accommodate the possible distinction between those two addresses, and to delete the 10 requirement in Model Act Subsection (b) that the two addresses be the same.

11 (b) This Section replaces Model Act Subsection (b) with new Subsections 12 B and C. Subsection B lists the information and certification to be included in the 13 statement required to change the registered agent's address in the records of the 14 secretary of state. Subsection C permits the information required by Subsection B 15 to be supplied in a single statement for multiple corporations.

16 §1-503. Resignation of registered agent

17 A. A registered agent may resign the agent's appointment by signing and 18 delivering to the secretary of state for filing the signed original and two exact or 19 conformed copies of a statement of resignation. If the office of the registered agent 20 is also the registered office of the corporation, the statement may include a statement 21 that the registered office is also discontinued.

22 B. After filing the statement the secretary of state shall mail one copy to the 23 registered office, if not discontinued, and the other copy to the corporation at its 24 principal office.

25 C. The agency appointment is terminated, and the registered office 26 discontinued if so provided, on the thirty-first day after the date on which the 27 statement was filed.

29 Comment - 2014 Revision

30 The Model Act requires a corporation's registered office to be located at the 31 street address of its registered agent. This Section permits a corporation to specify 32 a street address for its registered office different from that of its registered agent.
 33 See Comment (a) to R.S. 12:1-202. Subsection A of this Section was modified to 34 limit the statement about the discontinuation of a registered office upon resignation 35 of the registered agent to those situations in which the addresses of the registered 36 office and registered agent are the same.

1 §1-504. Service on corporation

2 A. A corporation's registered agent is the corporation's agent for service of 3 process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served on the 4 corporation.

5 B. If a corporation has no registered agent, or the agent cannot with 6 reasonable diligence be served, the corporation may be served by registered or 7 certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the secretary of the corporation 8 at its principal office. Service is perfected under this Subsection at the earliest of the 9 following:

10 (1) The date the corporation receives the mail.

11 (2) The date shown on the return receipt, if signed on behalf of the 12 corporation.

13 (3) Five days after its deposit in the United States mail, as evidenced by the 14 postmark, if mailed postpaid and correctly addressed.

15 C. This Section does not prescribe the only means, or necessarily the 16 required means of serving a corporation.

18 Comment - 2014 Revision

19 A corporation's principal office will ordinarily be stated in the corporation's 20 most recent annual report. See R.S. 12:1-1621(A)(4). If a corporation has not yet 21 filed an annual report, the initial principal office, if different from the registered 22 office, will be stated in the corporation's articles of incorporation. If no principal 23 office is identified in a corporation's annual report or articles of incorporation, the 24 corporation's principal office will be the same as its registered office. See R.S.
25 12:1-140(17) and 1-202(A)(3).

26 PART 6. SHARES AND DISTRIBUTIONS

27 SUBPART A. SHARES

28 §1-601. Authorized shares

29 A. The articles of incorporation must set forth any classes of shares and 30 series of shares within a class, and the number of shares of each class and series, that 31 the corporation is authorized to issue. If more than one class or series of shares is 32 authorized, the articles of incorporation must prescribe a distinguishing designation 33 for each class or series and must describe, prior to the issuance of shares of a class

1 or series, the terms, including the preferences, rights, and limitations, of that class 2 or series. Except to the extent varied as permitted by this Section, all shares of a 3 class or series must have terms, including preferences, rights, and limitations that are 4 identical with those of other shares of the same class or series.

5 B. The articles of incorporation must authorize both of the following:

6 (1) One or more classes or series of shares that together have unlimited 7 voting rights.

8 (2) One or more classes or series of shares, which may be the same class or 9 classes as those with voting rights, that together are entitled to receive the net assets 10 of the corporation upon dissolution.

11 C. The articles of incorporation may authorize one or more classes or series 12 of shares that meet any of the following criteria:

13 (1) Have special, conditional, or limited voting rights, or no right to vote, 14 except to the extent otherwise provided by this Chapter.

15 (2) Are redeemable or convertible as specified in the articles of 16 incorporation, at the option of the corporation, the shareholder, or another person or 17 upon the occurrence of a specified event, for cash, indebtedness, securities, or other 18 property at prices and in amounts specified or determined in accordance with a 19 formula.

20 (3) Entitle the holders to distributions calculated in any manner, including 21 dividends that may be cumulative, noncumulative, or partially cumulative.

22 (4) Have preference over any other class or series of shares with respect to 23 distributions, including distributions upon the dissolution of the corporation.

24 D. Terms of shares may be made dependent upon facts objectively 25 ascertainable outside the articles of incorporation in accordance with R.S.
26 12:1-120(L).

27 E. Any of the terms of shares may vary among holders of the same class or 28 series so long as such variations are expressly set forth in the articles of 29 incorporation.

1 F. The description of the preferences, rights, and limitations of classes or 2 series of shares in Subsection C of this Section is not exhaustive.

4 §1-602. Terms of class or series determined by board of directors

5 A. If the articles of incorporation so provide, the board of directors is 6 authorized, without shareholder approval, to do any of the following:

7 (1) Classify any unissued shares into one or more classes or into one or more 8 series within a class.

9 (2) Reclassify any unissued shares of any class into one or more classes or 10 into one or more series within one or more classes.

11 (3) Reclassify any unissued shares of any series of any class into one or more 12 classes or into one or more series within a class.

13 B. If the board of directors acts pursuant to Subsection A of this Section, it 14 must determine the terms, including the preferences, rights, and limitations, to the 15 same extent permitted under R.S. 12:1-601, of the following:

16 (1) Any class of shares before the issuance of any shares of that class.

17 (2) Any series within a class before the issuance of any shares of that series.

18 C. Before issuing any shares of a class or series created under this Section, 19 the corporation must deliver to the secretary of state for filing articles of amendment 20 setting forth the terms determined under Subsection A of this Section.

21 Source: MBCA §6.02.

22 §1-603. Issued and outstanding shares

23 A. A corporation may issue the number of shares of each class or series 24 authorized by the articles of incorporation. Shares that are issued are outstanding 25 shares until they are reacquired, redeemed, converted, or cancelled.

26 B. The reacquisition, redemption, or conversion of outstanding shares is 27 subject to the limitations of Subsection C of this Section and to R.S. 12:1-640.

28 C. At all times that shares of the corporation are outstanding, one or more 29 shares that together have unlimited voting rights and one or more shares that together

1 are entitled to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution must be 2 outstanding.

3 Source: MBCA §6.03.

4 §1-604. Fractional shares

5 A. A corporation may do any of the following:

6 (1) Issue fractions of a share or pay in money the value of fractions of a 7 share.

8 (2) Arrange for disposition of fractional shares by the shareholders.

9 (3) Issue scrip in registered or bearer form entitling the holder to receive a 10 full share upon surrendering enough scrip to equal a full share.

11 B. Each certificate representing scrip must be conspicuously labeled "scrip" 12 and must contain the information required by R.S. 12:1-625(B).

13 C. The holder of a fractional share is entitled to exercise the rights of a 14 shareholder, including the right to vote, to receive dividends, and to participate in the 15 assets of the corporation upon liquidation. The holder of scrip is not entitled to any 16 of these rights unless the scrip provides for them.

17 D. The board of directors may authorize the issuance of scrip subject to any 18 condition considered desirable, including either of the following:

19 (1) That the scrip will become void if not exchanged for full shares before 20 a specified date.

21 (2) That the shares for which the scrip is exchangeable may be sold and the 22 proceeds paid to the scripholders.

24 SUBPART B. ISSUANCE OF SHARES

25 §1-620. Subscription for shares before incorporation

26 A. A subscription for shares entered into before incorporation is irrevocable 27 for six months unless the subscription agreement provides a longer or shorter period 28 or all the subscribers agree to revocation.

29 B. The board of directors may determine the payment terms of subscription 30 for shares that were entered into before incorporation, unless the subscription

1 agreement specifies them. A call for payment by the board of directors must be 2 uniform so far as practicable as to all shares of the same class or series, unless the 3 subscription agreement specifies otherwise.

4 C. Shares issued pursuant to subscriptions entered into before incorporation 5 are fully paid and nonassessable when the corporation receives the consideration 6 specified in the subscription agreement.

7 D. If a subscriber defaults in payment of money or property under a 8 subscription agreement entered into before incorporation, the corporation may 9 collect the amount owed as any other debt. Alternatively, unless the subscription 10 agreement provides otherwise, the corporation may rescind the agreement and may 11 sell the shares if the debt remains unpaid for more than twenty days after the 12 corporation sends written demand for payment to the subscriber.

13 E. A subscription agreement entered into after incorporation is a contract 14 between the subscriber and the corporation subject to R.S. 12:1-621.

15 Source: MBCA §6.20.

16 §1-621. Issuance of shares

17 A. The powers granted in this Section to the board of directors may be 18 reserved to the shareholders by the articles of incorporation.

19 B. The board of directors may authorize shares to be issued for consideration 20 consisting of any tangible or intangible property or benefit to the corporation, 21 including cash, promissory notes, services performed, contracts for services to be 22 performed, or other securities of the corporation.

23 C. Before the corporation issues shares, the board of directors must 24 determine that the consideration received or to be received for shares to be issued is 25 adequate. That determination by the board of directors is conclusive insofar as the 26 adequacy of consideration for the issuance of shares relates to whether the shares are 27 validly issued, fully paid, and nonassessable.

28 D. When the corporation receives the consideration for which the board of 29 directors authorized the issuance of shares, the shares issued therefor are fully paid 30 and nonassessable.

1 E. The corporation may place in escrow shares issued for a contract for 2 future services or benefits or a promissory note, or make other arrangements to 3 restrict the transfer of the shares, and may credit distributions in respect of the shares 4 against their purchase price, until the services are performed, the note is paid, or the 5 benefits received. If the services are not performed, the note is not paid, or the 6 benefits are not received, the shares escrowed or restricted and the distributions 7 credited may be cancelled in whole or part.

8 F.(1) An issuance of shares or other securities convertible into or rights 9 exercisable for shares, in a transaction or a series of integrated transactions, requires 10 approval of the shareholders, at a meeting at which a quorum consisting of at least 11 a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter exists, if both of the following 12 conditions are satisfied:

13 (a) The shares, other securities, or rights are issued for consideration other 14 than cash or cash equivalents.

15 (b) The voting power of shares that are issued and issuable as a result of the 16 transaction or series of integrated transactions will comprise more than twenty 17 percent of the voting power of the shares of the corporation that were outstanding 18 immediately before the transaction.

19 (2) In this Subsection, both of the following shall apply:

20 (a) For purposes of determining the voting power of shares issued and 21 issuable as a result of a transaction or series of integrated transactions, the voting 22 power of shares shall be the greater of either of the following:

23 (i) The voting power of the shares to be issued.

24 (ii) The voting power of the shares that would be outstanding after giving 25 effect to the conversion of convertible shares and other securities and the exercise 26 of rights to be issued.

27 (b) A series of transactions is integrated if consummation of one transaction 28 is made contingent on consummation of one or more of the other transactions.

Comment - 2014 Revision

Subsection (b) of the Model Act authorizes the issuance of shares for, among other things, "tangible or intangible" property. R.S. 12:1-140 defines "tangible property" to include "corporeal property" and "intangible property" to include "incorporeal property" as those terms are understood under Louisiana law.

§1-622. Liability of shareholders

A. A purchaser from a corporation of its own shares is not liable to the corporation or its creditors with respect to the shares except to pay the consideration for which the shares were authorized to be issued pursuant to R.S. 12:1-621 or specified in the subscription agreement pursuant to R.S. 12:1-620.

B. A shareholder of a corporation is not personally liable for the acts or debts of the corporation.

C. A shareholder who receives a distribution in excess of what may be authorized and made pursuant to R.S. 12:1-640(A) shall be personally liable to the corporation, or to creditors of the corporation, or both, for an amount not exceeding, in the aggregate, the excess amount received by that shareholder.

D. A proceeding to enforce the liability of a shareholder under Subsection C of this Section is subject to a preemptive period of two years measured from the relevant date of either of the following:

(1) The date on which the effect of the distribution was to be measured under R.S. 12:1-640(E) or (G), to the extent that the distribution is alleged to have been unlawful under R.S. 12:1-640(C).

(2) The date as of which the distribution first violated a restriction in the articles of incorporation, to the extent that the distribution is alleged to have been unlawful because it violated a restriction in the articles of incorporation.

Comments - 2014 Revision

(a) Subsection (b) of the Model Act was modified by deleting the phrase, "Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation," at the beginning of the sentence and the phrase, "except that he may become personally liable by reason of his own acts or conduct," at the end of the sentence.

(b) The first phrase was included in the Model Act to make the provision consistent with Model Act Section 2.02(b)(2)(v), which allowed provisions in the articles of incorporation to impose personal liability on shareholders for the debts of 1 a corporation. That provision of the Model Act was deleted from this Section to 2 avoid the risk that such a provision might result in a shareholder's incurring personal 3 liability inadvertently. See Comment (b) to R.S. 12:1-202. The related phrase in 4 Subsection B of this Section was deleted because the underlying authority to include 5 such a provision in the articles had itself been deleted.

6 (c) The second phrase, concerning an exception for personal liability arising 7 out of personal conduct, was deleted from this Section because it could have been 8 interpreted to provide an independent basis for personal liability based simply on a 9 corporate actor's having engaged in some kind of personal conduct in connection 10 with the corporation's operations. It is true that liability may attach to a corporate 11 actor's personal conduct if, for example, the conduct is tortious or amounts to an 12 undertaking of personal contractual duties. But the grounds for such liability are 13 determined by other bodies of law, not corporation law, and they do not impose 14 liability on a corporate actor merely because the actor has engaged in personal 15 conduct on behalf of a corporation. If a corporate actor does bear personal liability 16 based on his personal acts or conduct in connection with the operation of the 17 corporation, the actor is being held liable for his own acts or debts, not those of the 18 corporation, so no need exists to state the exception contained in the Model Act.

19 (d) The Model Act does not impose liability on a shareholder for a wrongful 20 distribution, except indirectly in an action under Section 8.33(b)(2) for recoupment 21 by a director held liable for the unlawful distribution. This Section adds a new 22 Subsection C to retain the existing Louisiana rule that a shareholder is liable to return 23 to the corporation any unlawful distributions received by that shareholder. The 24 liability imposed by Subsection C of this Section does not depend upon proof of any 25 culpable conduct by the receiving shareholder, but merely on proof that the 26 shareholder received a distribution that was unlawful. However, Subsection C of this 27 Section imposes liability on a shareholder to return only the unlawful portion of any 28 distribution received by that shareholder. The shareholder does not bear liability 29 under Subsection C for any part of the distribution made to other shareholders or for 30 any part of the distribution to him that was made lawfully.

31 (e) Subsection D of this Section was added to retain the prior law's two-year 32 time limit on actions to enforce a shareholder's liability for the receipt of an unlawful 33 distribution. However, unlike the earlier law, Subsection D of this Section explicitly 34 makes the two-year period preemptive rather than prescriptive. The two-year 35 preemptive period begins on the date on which lawfulness of the distribution would 36 have been measured for purposes of R.S. 12:1-640(C), to the extent that a violation 37 of R.S. 12:1-640(C) is alleged as the basis of recovery, or on the date on which the 38 distribution first violated a restriction in the articles of incorporation, to the extent 39 that a violation of the articles is alleged as the basis of recovery.

40 §1-623. Share dividends

41 A. Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, shares may be 42 issued pro rata and without consideration to the corporation's shareholders or to the 43 shareholders of one or more classes or series. An issuance of shares under this 44 Subsection is a share dividend.

45 B. Shares of one class or series may not be issued as a share dividend in 46 respect of shares of another class or series unless one of the following conditions are 47 satisfied:

1 (1) The articles of incorporation so authorize.

2 (2) A majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the class or series to be 3 issued approve the issue.

4 (3) There are no outstanding shares of the class or series to be issued.

5 C. If the board of directors does not fix the record date for determining 6 shareholders entitled to a share dividend, it is the date the board of directors 7 authorizes the share dividend.

8 Source: MBCA §6.23.

9 §1-624. Share options

10 A. A corporation may issue rights, options, or warrants for the purchase of 11 shares or other securities of the corporation. The board of directors shall determine 12 the terms upon which the rights, options, or warrants are issued and the terms, 13 including the consideration, for which the shares or other securities are to be issued.
 14 The authorization by the board of directors for the corporation to issue such rights, 15 options, or warrants constitutes authorization of the issuance of the shares or other 16 securities for which the rights, options, or warrants are exercisable.

17 B. The terms and conditions of such rights, options or warrants, including 18 those outstanding on the effective date of this Section, may include, without 19 limitation, restrictions or conditions that do either of the following:

20 (1) Preclude or limit the exercise, transfer or receipt of such rights, options, 21 or warrants by any person or persons owning or offering to acquire a specified 22 number or percentage of the outstanding shares or other securities of the corporation 23 or by any transferee or transferees of any such person or persons.

24 (2) Invalidate or void such rights, options, or warrants held by any such 25 person or persons or any such transferee or transferees.

26 C. The board of directors may authorize one or more officers to designate 27 the recipients of rights, options, warrants, or other equity compensation awards that 28 involve the issuance of shares and to determine, within an amount and subject to any 29 other limitations established by the board and, if applicable, the stockholders, the 30 number of such rights, options, warrants, or other equity compensation awards and

1 the terms thereof to be received by the recipients, provided that an officer may not 2 use such authority to designate himself or herself or any other persons the board of 3 directors may specify as a recipient of such rights, options, warrants, or other equity 4 compensation awards.

6 §1-625. Form and content of certificates

7 A. Shares shall be represented by share certificates unless the issuing 8 corporation is a participant in the Direct Registration System of the Depository Trust 9 & Clearing Corporation or of a similar book-entry system used in the trading of 10 shares of public corporations. If the issuing corporation is a participant in the Direct 11 Registration System or a similar book-entry system, shares may but need not be 12 represented by certificates. Unless this Chapter or another statute expressly provides 13 otherwise, the rights and obligations of shareholders are identical whether or not 14 their shares are represented by certificates.

15 B. At a minimum each share certificate must state on its face all of the 16 following:

17 (1) The name of the issuing corporation and that it is organized under the law 18 of this state.

19 (2) The name of the person to whom issued.

20 (3) The number and class of shares and the designation of the series, if any, 21 the certificate represents.

22 C. If the issuing corporation is authorized to issue different classes of shares 23 or different series within a class, the designations, relative rights, preferences, and 24 limitations applicable to each class and the variations in rights, preferences, and 25 limitations determined for each series, and the authority of the board of directors to 26 determine variations for future series, must be summarized on the front or back of 27 each certificate. Alternatively, each certificate may state conspicuously on its front 28 or back that the corporation will furnish the shareholder this information on request 29 in writing and without charge.

1 D. Each share certificate must be signed, either manually or in facsimile, by 2 the president and secretary or by two officers designated in the bylaws or by the 3 board of directors and may bear the corporate seal or its facsimile.

4 E. If the person who signed, either manually or in facsimile, a share 5 certificate no longer holds office when the certificate is issued, the certificate is 6 nevertheless valid.

8 Comments - 2014 Revision

9 (a) Subsection (a) of the Model Act allows all corporations to issue shares 10 with or without certificates. This Section adds language to Subsection (a) to retain 11 essentially the same limitation contained in prior law concerning the use of 12 uncertificated shares. Uncertificated shares may be issued only by a corporation that 13 is a participant in the Direct Registration System of the Depository Trust & Clearing 14 Corporation or some similar book-entry system for trading shares in public 15 corporations. The reference in this Act to a "similar book-entry system" replaces the 16 prior reference to a "successor" system because the allowance for uncertificated 17 shares should extend to other similar systems regardless of whether they are 18 successors to the current Depository Trust system.

19 (b) For corporations that do not participate in the Depository Trust & 20 Clearing Corporation Direct Registration System, a system designed to facilitate the 21 efficient execution through brokerage firms of transactions in publicly-traded 22 securities, share certificates provide a convenient and reliable means of perfecting 23 security interests in the underlying shares and of notifying third parties of transfer 24 restrictions.

25 (c) When applicable, the statutory requirement that shares be issued in 26 certificated form is a duty imposed by law on the corporation, not a defense that may 27 be asserted by the corporation against a person who genuinely owns shares for which 28 the corporation has failed to issue a certificate. A person may own shares without 29 possessing a certificate for the shares, even if the law requires the corporation to 30 issue its shares in certificated form. See, e.g., Mercer v. Mercer, 930 So.2d 348 (La.
 31 App. 2d Cir. 2006); Age v. Age, 820 So.2d 1167 (La. App. 4th Cir. 2002); 32 International Stevedores, Inc., v. Hanlon, 499 So.2d 1183 (La. App. 5th Cir. 1986).

33 (d) Subsection (d) of the Model Act was modified to supply a default rule 34 for the two officers, president and secretary, who are to sign a share certificate in the 35 event that the signing officers are not designated in the corporation's bylaws or by 36 its board of directors.

37 §1-626. Shares without certificates

38 A. If a corporation is eligible to issue shares without certificates, the board 39 of directors of the corporation may authorize the issue of some or all of the shares 40 of any or all of its classes or series without certificates, except to the extent that its 41 articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise. The authorization does not 1 affect shares already represented by certificates until they are surrendered to the 2 corporation.

3 B. Within a reasonable time after the issue or transfer of shares without 4 certificates, the corporation shall send the shareholder a written statement of the 5 information required on certificates by R.S. 12:1-625(B) and (C), and, if applicable, 6 R.S. 12:1-627.

7 Source: MBCA §6.26.

8 Comment - 2014 Revision

9 This Section limits the application of the rule in Subsection A of this Section 10 to those corporations that are eligible to issue uncertificated shares. Under R.S.
 11 12:1-625(A), a corporation is eligible to issue uncertificated shares only if the 12 corporation is a participant in the Direct Registration System of the Depository Trust 13 & Clearing Corporation or some similar system. Most Louisiana corporations are 14 not participants in that kind of system, and so would not be eligible either to issue 15 uncertificated shares or to utilize the rules in this Section.

16 §1-627. Restriction on transfer of shares and other securities

17 A. The articles of incorporation, bylaws, an agreement among shareholders, 18 or an agreement between shareholders and the corporation may impose restrictions 19 on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares of the corporation. A restriction 20 does not affect shares issued before the restriction was adopted unless the holders of 21 the shares are parties to the restriction agreement or voted in favor of the restriction.

22 B. A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares is valid 23 and enforceable against the holder or a transferee of the holder if the restriction is 24 authorized by this Section and its existence is noted conspicuously on the front or 25 back of the certificate or is contained in the information statement required by R.S.
 26 12:1-626(B). Unless so noted or contained, a restriction is not enforceable against 27 a person without knowledge of the restriction.

28 C. A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares is 29 authorized for any of the following:

30 (1) To maintain the corporation's status when it is dependent on the number 31 or identity of its shareholders.

32 (2) To preserve exemptions under federal or state securities law.

33 (3) For any other reasonable purpose.

1 D. A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares may do 2 any of the following:

3 (1) Obligate the shareholder first to offer the corporation or other persons, 4 separately, consecutively, or simultaneously, an opportunity to acquire the restricted 5 shares.

6 (2) Obligate the corporation or other persons, separately, consecutively, or 7 simultaneously, to acquire the restricted shares.

8 (3) Require the corporation, the holders of any class of its shares, or another 9 person to approve the transfer of the restricted shares, if the requirement is not 10 manifestly unreasonable.

11 (4) Prohibit the transfer of the restricted shares to designated persons or 12 classes of persons, if the prohibition is not manifestly unreasonable.

13 E. For purposes of this Section, "shares" includes a security convertible into 14 or carrying a right to subscribe for or acquire shares.

16 Comment - 2014 Revision

17 The rule in Subsection B of this Section is consistent with the rule in Article 18 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code concerning the enforceability of transfer 19 restrictions on investment securities generally. Under both the UCC and this 20 Section, a transfer restriction that is not noted as required on the certificate of a 21 certificated security, or in a required notification statement for an uncertificated 22 security, is unenforceable except against a person with "knowledge" of the 23 restriction. See R.S. 10:8-204. As used in this Section and in the UCC, the term 24 "knowledge" means actual knowledge. The terms "knowledge" and "know" are 25 defined in R.S. 12:1-140 in the same way as in R.S. 10:1-202, Louisiana's enactment 26 of the UCC.

27 §1-628. Expense of issue

28 A corporation may pay the expenses of selling or underwriting its shares, and 29 of organizing or reorganizing the corporation, from the consideration received for 30 shares.

SUBPART C. SUBSEQUENT ACQUISITION OF SHARESBY SHAREHOLDERS AND CORPORATION§1-630. Shareholders' preemptive rights

A. The shareholders of a corporation do not have a preemptive right to acquire the corporation's unissued shares except to the extent the articles of incorporation so provide. The articles of incorporation of a corporation that was incorporated before January 1, 1969, shall be deemed to contain a statement that "the corporation elects to have preemptive rights," unless the articles of incorporation contain a specific provision enlarging, limiting, or denying preemptive rights.

B. A statement included in the articles of incorporation that "the corporation elects to have preemptive rights", or words of similar import, means that the following principles apply except to the extent the articles of incorporation expressly provide otherwise:

(1) The shareholders of the corporation have a preemptive right, granted on uniform terms and conditions prescribed by the board of directors to provide a fair and reasonable opportunity to exercise the right, to acquire proportional amounts of the corporation's unissued shares upon the decision of the board of directors to issue them. Shareholders have a fair and reasonable opportunity to exercise the right to acquire shares if they are given at least forty-five days to purchase the shares after notice to them of that right, but shorter periods of time may be fair and reasonable under the circumstances in which the shares are being issued.

(2) A shareholder may waive his preemptive right. A waiver evidenced by a writing is irrevocable even though it is not supported by consideration.

(3) There is no preemptive right with respect to any of the following:

(a) Shares issued as compensation to directors, officers, agents, or employees of the corporation, its subsidiaries, or affiliates.

(b) Shares issued to satisfy conversion or option rights created to provide compensation to directors, officers, agents, or employees of the corporation, its subsidiaries, or affiliates.

1 (c) Shares authorized in articles of incorporation that are issued within six 2 months from the effective date of incorporation.

3 (d) Shares sold otherwise than for money.

4 (4) Holders of shares of any class without general voting rights but with 5 preferential rights to distributions or assets have no preemptive rights with respect 6 to shares of any class.

7 (5) Holders of shares of any class with general voting rights but without 8 preferential rights to distributions or assets have no preemptive rights with respect 9 to shares of any class with preferential rights to distributions or assets unless the 10 shares with preferential rights are convertible into or carry a right to subscribe for or 11 acquire shares without preferential rights.

12 (6) Shares subject to preemptive rights that are not acquired by shareholders 13 may be issued to any person for a period of one year after being offered to 14 shareholders at a consideration set by the board of directors that is not lower than the 15 consideration set for the exercise of preemptive rights. An offer at a lower 16 consideration or after the expiration of one year is subject to the shareholders' 17 preemptive rights.

18 C. For purposes of this Section, "shares" includes a security convertible into 19 or carrying a right to subscribe for or acquire shares.

20 D. On or after January 1, 2016, no action to enforce a preemptive right of a 21 shareholder shall be brought unless filed in a court of competent jurisdiction and 22 proper venue within one year of the date of the issuance of the share to which the 23 shareholder had the preemptive right, or within one year of the date that the issuance 24 of the share is discovered or should have been discovered. Such an action is 25 perempted three years after the date of the issuance of the share.

27 Comments - 2014 Revision

28 (a) Before January 1, 1969, the effective date of the 1968 business 29 corporation law, Louisiana provided an "opt out" form of preemptive rights; the 30 earlier corporation statute supplied preemptive rights automatically unless a 31 corporation's articles of incorporation provided otherwise. See former R.S. 12:28(B) 32 (1951, superseded). The 1968 statute reversed the rule, and made preemptive rights

1 "opt in;" shareholders did not have preemptive rights unless the articles affirmatively 2 approved them. See former R.S. 12:72(A) (1994, superseded). To prevent the 3 change in the default rule from eliminating preemptive rights in corporations whose 4 articles were silent on the subject, the 1968 statute contained a provision that deemed 5 the articles of pre-1969 corporations to contain a statement approving of preemptive 6 rights, except to the extent that the articles actually enlarged, limited or denied those 7 rights. See former R.S. 12:24(C)(1) (1994, superseded). Because this Section retains 8 the opt-in approach of the 1968 statute, and of the Model Act, some pre-1969 9 corporations may still need the statutory transition rule that was provided in the 1968 10 statute. That rule has been added to Subsection A of this Section.

11 (b) Model Act Paragraph (b)(1) does not specify how much time the 12 shareholders must be given to exercise their preemptive rights, saying only that the 13 corporation must provide a "fair and reasonable opportunity" to exercise them. This 14 Section adds a sentence to Paragraph (b)(1) that establishes a safe harbor of 15 forty-five days for the preemptive period, measured from notice to the shareholders 16 of their opportunity to purchase the shares. (See R.S. 12:1-141 for the effective date 17 of the notice.) Shorter periods may also be fair and reasonable, based on the 18 circumstances of the transactions in question, but the corporation would bear the 19 burden of proving the fairness and reasonableness of a shorter period. Examples of 20 factors that would help justify a shorter period would be the corporation's need for 21 funds before the expiration of the forty-five-day period, advance knowledge and 22 involvement by a complaining shareholder in the decision to issue additional shares, 23 and the ability of a complaining shareholder to raise the required funds without 24 financial hardship.

25 (c) This Section adds a new time limit for an action to enforce a preemptive 26 right. The new time limits are especially important to pre-1969 corporations, which 27 may inadvertently fail to afford the preemptive rights that their articles, if silent on 28 the point, are deemed to provide.

29 §1-631. Corporation's acquisition of its own shares

30 A. A corporation may acquire its own shares, and shares so acquired 31 constitute authorized but unissued shares.

32 B. If the articles of incorporation prohibit the reissue of the acquired shares, 33 the number of authorized shares is reduced by the number of shares acquired.

35 SUBPART D. DISTRIBUTIONS

36 §1-640. Distributions to shareholders

37 A. A board of directors may authorize and the corporation may make 38 distributions to its shareholders subject to restriction by the articles of incorporation 39 and the limitation in Subsection C of this Section.

40 B. If the board of directors does not fix the record date for determining 41 shareholders entitled to a distribution, other than one involving a purchase,

1 redemption, or other acquisition of the corporation's shares, it is the date the board 2 of directors authorizes the distribution.

3 C. No distribution may be made if, after giving it effect, either of the 4 following conditions would exist:

5 (1) The corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due 6 in the usual course of business.

7 (2) The corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total 8 liabilities plus, unless the articles of incorporation permit otherwise, the amount that 9 would be needed, if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time of the 10 distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of shareholders whose 11 preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution.

12 D. The board of directors may base a determination that a distribution is not 13 prohibited under Subsection C of this Section either on financial statements prepared 14 on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the 15 circumstances or on a fair valuation or other method that is reasonable in the 16 circumstances.

17 E. Except as provided in Subsection G of this Section, the effect of a 18 distribution under Subsection C of this Section is measured by one of the following:

19 (1) In the case of distribution by purchase, redemption, or other acquisition 20 of the corporation's shares, as of the earlier of the date money or other property is 21 transferred or debt incurred by the corporation or the date the shareholder ceases to 22 be a shareholder with respect to the acquired shares.

23 (2) In the case of any other distribution of indebtedness, as of the date the 24 indebtedness is distributed.

25 (3) In all other cases, as of the date the distribution is authorized if the 26 payment occurs within one hundred and twenty days after the date of authorization 27 or the date the payment is made if it occurs more than one hundred and twenty days 28 after the date of authorization.

29 F. A corporation's indebtedness to a shareholder incurred by reason of a 30 distribution made in accordance with this Section is at parity with the corporation's

1 indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors except to the extent subordinated by 2 agreement.

3 G. Indebtedness of a corporation, including indebtedness issued as a 4 distribution, is not considered a liability for purposes of determinations under 5 Subsection C of this Section if its terms provide that payment of principal and 6 interest are made only if and to the extent that payment of a distribution to 7 shareholders could then be made under this Section. If the indebtedness is issued as 8 a distribution, each payment of principal or interest is treated as a distribution, the 9 effect of which is measured on the date the payment is actually made.

10 H. This Section shall not apply to distributions in liquidation under Part 14 11 of this Chapter.

13 PART 7. SHAREHOLDERS

14 SUBPART A. MEETINGS

15 §1-701. Annual meeting

16 A. Unless directors are elected by written consent in lieu of an annual 17 meeting as permitted by R.S. 12:1-704, a corporation shall hold a meeting of 18 shareholders annually at a time stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws or, 19 if not so stated or fixed, as stated or fixed in accordance with a resolution of the 20 board of directors. If a corporation's articles of incorporation authorize shareholders 21 to cumulate their votes when electing directors pursuant to R.S. 12:1-728, directors 22 may not be elected by written consent unless the written consent is unanimous.

23 B. Annual shareholders' meetings may be held in or out of this state at the 24 place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws or, if not so stated or fixed, as 25 stated or fixed in accordance with a resolution of the board of directors. If no place 26 is stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, annual meetings shall be held at 27 the corporation's principal office.

28 C. The failure to hold an annual meeting at the time stated in or fixed in 29 accordance with Subsection A of this Section does not affect the validity of any 30 corporate action.

1 D. If no annual shareholders' meeting is held for a period of eighteen months, 2 and directors are not elected by written consent in lieu of an annual meeting during 3 that period, any shareholder may by notice to the secretary demand that the secretary 4 call such a meeting, to be held at the corporation's principal office or, if none in this 5 state, at its registered office. The secretary shall call the meeting and shall provide 6 notice of the meeting as required by R.S. 12:1-705 within thirty days after the notice 7 to the secretary of the shareholder's demand for the meeting.

9 Comments - 2014 Revision

10 (a) This Section adds language to Subsection A through C of this Section to 11 accommodate the rule, retained from prior law, that makes the adoption of bylaws 12 optional. Under the added language, the time and place of an annual meeting of 13 shareholders may set by or in accordance with a resolution of the board of directors 14 if the corporation has not adopted a bylaw that controls the matter.

15 (b) This Section changes the Model Act wording in the second sentence of 16 Subsection A of this Section to make it clear that the effect of cumulative voting on 17 the election of directors under Subsection A is to require the election of directors at 18 a meeting, and not through written consents in lieu of a meeting, unless the written 19 consent is unanimous. The Model Act language could have been interpreted to 20 require directors to be elected by unanimous consent whenever shareholders had the 21 right to vote cumulatively.

22 (c) This Section adds a new Subsection D to retain a modified version of the 23 provision in prior law that allowed any shareholder to call an annual meeting for the 24 election of directors if no such meeting had been held for a period of eighteen 25 months. As modified, the new Subsection D does not empower the shareholder 26 actually to call the meeting, but rather to demand that the secretary do so. The 27 secretary, unlike the shareholder, has the ability to arrange for the meeting and to 28 provide the notice of the meeting required by R.S. 12:1-705. Subsection D of this 29 Section requires both that the meeting be called and that the required notice be 30 provided within thirty days of the notice to the secretary of the shareholder's demand 31 for a meeting. The secretary has the discretion, acting consistently with the 32 secretary's fiduciary duties, to choose the date of the meeting, provided that the date 33 chosen permits the secretary to provide notice of the meeting no fewer than ten and 34 no more than sixty days before the date of the meeting. The duties of the secretary 35 under Subsection D are subject to enforcement through a writ of mandamus. See 36 C.C.P. Art. 3864.

37 §1-702. Special meeting

38 A. A corporation shall hold a special meeting of shareholders upon either of 39 the following:

40 (1) On call of its board of directors or the person or persons authorized to do 41 so by the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

1 (2) If the shareholders holding at least ten percent of all the votes entitled to 2 be cast on an issue proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting sign, 3 date, and deliver to the corporation one or more written demands for the meeting 4 describing the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held, provided that the 5 articles of incorporation may fix a lower percentage or a higher percentage not 6 exceeding twenty-five percent of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue 7 proposed to be considered. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of 8 incorporation, a written demand for a special meeting may be revoked by a writing 9 to that effect received by the corporation prior to the receipt by the corporation of 10 demands sufficient in number to require the holding of a special meeting.

11 B. If not otherwise fixed under R.S. 12:1-703 or 1-707, the record date for 12 determining shareholders entitled to demand a special meeting is the date the first 13 shareholder signs the demand.

14 C. Special shareholders' meetings may be held in or out of this state at the 15 place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws or, if not so stated or fixed, at 16 the place stated in or fixed in accordance with a resolution of the board of directors.
17 If no place is stated or fixed in accordance with the bylaws or a resolution of the 18 board of directors, special meetings shall be held at the corporation's principal office.

19 D. Only business within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting 20 notice required by R.S. 12:1-705(C) may be conducted at a special shareholders' 21 meeting.

22 Source: MBCA §7.02.

23 Comment - 2014 Revision

24 Subsection C of this Section permits a special shareholders' meeting to be 25 held at any place, whether inside or outside Louisiana, fixed by or in accordance with 26 the corporation's bylaws. The power to choose the place for a shareholders' meeting, 27 like the power to determine other details concerning the meeting, must be exercised 28 in accordance with the fiduciary duties of the directors. The choice of the location 29 of the meeting cannot be designed to interfere with the ability of shareholders to 30 participate in the meeting or to exercise their voting power. Cf., Schnell v. Chris 31 Craft Industries, 285 A.2d 437 (Del. 1971) (management may not utilize its power 32 to fix the date of a shareholders' meeting for purposes of interfering with the right of 33 dissident shareholders to engage in a proxy contest against management); Blasius 34 Industries, Inc. v. Atlas Corp., 564 A.2d 651 (Del. Ch. 1988) (business judgment rule 35 does not apply to board actions taken with the primary purpose of interfering with 36 the shareholders' exercising their voting power, even if the action is taken advisedly

1 and in a good faith effort to thwart a transaction that the directors believe not to be 2 in the best interest of the corporation; such acts are not illegal per se but 3 management bears a heavy burden of demonstrating a compelling justification for 4 them); Aprahamian v. HBO & Co., 531 A.2d 1204, 1206-07 (Del. Ch. 1987) ("In the 5 interests of corporate democracy, those in charge of the election machinery of a 6 corporation must be held to the highest standards in providing for and conducting 7 corporate elections.").

8 §1-703. Court-ordered meeting

9 A. The district court of the parish where a corporation's principal office or, 10 if none in this state, its registered office, is located may in a summary proceeding 11 order a meeting to be held at upon either of the following:

12 (1) On application of any shareholder of the corporation if an annual meeting 13 was not held or action by written consent in lieu thereof did not become effective 14 within the earlier of six months after the end of the corporation's fiscal year or fifteen 15 months after its last annual meeting.

16 (2) On application of a shareholder who signed a demand for a special 17 meeting valid under R.S. 12:1-702, if either of the following conditions exist:

18 (a) Notice of the special meeting was not given within thirty days after the 19 date the demand was delivered to the corporation's secretary.

20 (b) The special meeting was not held in accordance with the notice.

21 B. The court may fix the time and place of the meeting, determine the shares 22 entitled to participate in the meeting, specify a record date for determining 23 shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting, prescribe the form and 24 content of the meeting notice, fix the quorum required for specific matters to be 25 considered at the meeting or direct that the votes represented at the meeting 26 constitute a quorum for action on those matters, and enter other orders necessary to 27 accomplish the purpose or purposes of the meeting.

28 C. For purposes of Paragraph (A)(1) of this Section, "shareholder" means a 29 record shareholder, a beneficial shareholder, and an unrestricted voting trust 30 beneficial owner.

31 Source: MBCA §7.03.

1 Comment - 2014 Revision

2 Subsection B of this Section authorizes a court to enter orders as necessary 3 "to accomplish the purpose or purposes of the meeting." As used in that Subsection 4 the phrase "purpose or purposes of the meeting" refers to the deliberation and voting 5 for which a meeting is being called, and not to the subsequent implementation of the 6 votes that may be taken at the meeting. The effects of the votes taken, and the 7 remedies available for their implementation, are issues that are governed by other 8 principles of law, not by this Section.

9 §1-704. Action without meeting

10 A. Action required or permitted by this Chapter to be taken at a shareholders' 11 meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all the shareholders 12 entitled to vote on the action. The action must be evidenced by one or more written 13 consents bearing the date of signature and describing the action taken, signed by all 14 the shareholders entitled to vote on the action and delivered to the corporation for 15 inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

16 B. The articles of incorporation may provide that any action required or 17 permitted by this Chapter to be taken at a shareholders' meeting may be taken 18 without a meeting, and without prior notice, if consents in writing setting forth the 19 action so taken are signed by the holders of outstanding shares having not less than 20 the minimum number of votes that would be required to authorize or take the action 21 at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote on the action were present and voted.
 22 The written consent shall bear the date of signature of the shareholder who signs the 23 consent and be delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with 24 the corporate records.

25 C. If an earlier date has not been fixed under R.S. 12:1-707 and if prior board 26 action is not required respecting the action to be taken without a meeting, the record 27 date for determining the shareholders entitled to take action without a meeting shall 28 be the first date on which a signed written consent is delivered to the corporation.
 29 If not otherwise fixed under R.S. 12:1-707 and if prior board action is required 30 respecting the action to be taken without a meeting, the record date shall be the close 31 of business on the day the resolution of the board taking such prior action is adopted.
 32 No written consent shall be effective to take the corporate action referred to therein 33 unless, within sixty days of the earliest date on which a consent delivered to the 1 corporation as required by this Section was signed, written consents signed by 2 sufficient shareholders to take the action have been delivered to the corporation. A 3 written consent may be revoked by a writing to that effect delivered to the 4 corporation before unrevoked written consents sufficient in number to take the 5 corporate action are delivered to the corporation.

6 D. A consent signed pursuant to the provisions of this Section has the effect 7 of a vote taken at a meeting and may be described as such in any document. Unless 8 the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors 9 provides for a reasonable delay to permit tabulation of written consents, the action 10 taken by written consent shall be effective when written consents signed by sufficient 11 shareholders to take the action are delivered to the corporation.

12 E. If this Chapter requires that notice of a proposed action be given to 13 nonvoting shareholders and the action is to be taken by written consent of the voting 14 shareholders, the corporation must give its nonvoting shareholders written notice of 15 the action not more than ten days after written consents sufficient to take the action 16 have been delivered to the corporation, or such later date that tabulation of consents 17 is completed pursuant to an authorization under Subsection D of this Section. The 18 notice must reasonably describe the action taken and contain or be accompanied by 19 the same material that, under any provision of this Chapter, would have been 20 required to be sent to nonvoting shareholders in a notice of a meeting at which the 21 proposed action would have been submitted to the shareholders for action.

22 F. If action is taken by less than unanimous written consent of the voting 23 shareholders, the corporation must give its nonconsenting voting shareholders 24 written notice of the action not more than ten days after written consents sufficient 25 to take the action have been delivered to the corporation, or such later date that 26 tabulation of consents is completed pursuant to an authorization under Subsection 27 D of this Section. The notice must reasonably describe the action taken and contain 28 or be accompanied by the same material that, under any provision of this Chapter, 29 would have been required to be sent to voting shareholders in a notice of a meeting 30 at which the action would have been submitted to the shareholders for action.

1 G. The notice requirements in Subsections E and F of this Section shall not 2 delay the effectiveness of actions taken by written consent, and a failure to comply 3 with such notice requirements shall not invalidate actions taken by written consent, 4 provided that this Subsection shall not be deemed to limit judicial power to fashion 5 any appropriate remedy in favor of a shareholder adversely affected by a failure to 6 give such notice within the required time period.

8 Comment - 2014 Revision

9 Model Act Subsection (c) was modified in this Section to allow a record date 10 established under R.S. 12:1-707 to control over the date fixed by Subsection C of this 11 Section itself only if the R.S. 12:1-707 date is earlier than that established by 12 Subsection C of this Section. Subsection C of this Section fixes the record date as 13 the first date on which a signed shareholder's consent is delivered to the corporation.
14 If the board of directors of the corporation were permitted to select a record date 15 occurring after the Subsection C date, they could invalidate written consents already 16 delivered to the corporation. Under this Section, the persons who are soliciting the 17 shareholder's consents are entitled to rely upon the date fixed in Subsection C unless 18 an earlier record date has been established under R.S. 12:1-707.

19 §1-705. Notice of meeting

20 A. A corporation shall notify shareholders of the date, time, and place of 21 each annual and special shareholders' meeting no fewer than ten nor more than sixty 22 days before the meeting date. Unless this Chapter or the articles of incorporation 23 require otherwise, the corporation is required to give notice only to shareholders 24 entitled to vote at the meeting.

25 B. Unless this Chapter or the articles of incorporation require otherwise, both 26 of the following shall apply:

27 (1) Notice of an annual meeting need not include a description of the purpose 28 or purposes for which the meeting is called.

29 (2) If a notice of an annual meeting does include a description of one or more 30 purposes, the meeting is not limited to those purposes.

31 C. Notice of a special meeting must include a description of the purpose or 32 purposes for which the meeting is called.

1 (2) Waives objection to consideration of a particular matter at the meeting 2 that is not within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice, unless the 3 shareholder objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

4 C. A shareholder attends a meeting if the shareholder is present at the 5 meeting in person or by proxy. If a shareholder attends a meeting by proxy, then for 6 purposes of Subsection B of this Section, an objection by the shareholder's proxy has 7 the same effect as an objection by the shareholder.

8 Source: MBCA §7.06.

9 Comment - 2014 Revision

10 A new Subsection C was added in this Section to provide support in the 11 statute itself for the statement in Official Comment 1 of the Model Act that the word 12 "attendance" means the presence of a shareholder in person or by proxy. The same 13 Subsection similarly treats an objection by the proxy as an objection by the 14 shareholder.

15 §1-707. Record date

16 A. The bylaws may fix or provide the manner of fixing the record date for 17 one or more voting groups in order to determine the shareholders entitled to notice 18 of a shareholders' meeting, to demand a special meeting, to vote, or to take any other 19 action. If the bylaws do not fix or provide for fixing a record date, the board of 20 directors of the corporation may fix a future date as the record date.

21 B. A record date fixed under this Section may not be more than seventy days 22 before the meeting or action requiring a determination of shareholders.

23 C. A determination of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a 24 shareholders' meeting is effective for any adjournment of the meeting unless the 25 board of directors fixes a new record date, which it must do if the meeting is 26 adjourned to a date more than one hundred and twenty days after the date fixed for 27 the original meeting.

28 D. If a court orders a meeting adjourned to a date more than one hundred and 29 twenty days after the date fixed for the original meeting, it may provide that the 30 original record date continues in effect or it may fix a new record date.

1 §1-708. Conduct of the meeting

2 A. At each meeting of shareholders, a chair shall preside. The chair shall be 3 appointed as provided in the bylaws or, in the absence of such provision, by the 4 board.

5 B. The chair, unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide 6 otherwise, shall determine the order of business and shall have the authority to 7 establish rules for the conduct of the meeting.

8 C. Any rules adopted for, and the conduct of, the meeting shall be fair to 9 shareholders.

10 D. The chair of the meeting shall announce at the meeting when the polls 11 close for each matter voted upon. If no announcement is made, the polls shall be 12 deemed to have closed upon the final adjournment of the meeting. After the polls 13 close, no ballots, proxies, or votes nor any revocations or changes thereto may be 14 accepted.

16 SUBPART B. VOTING

17 §1-720. Shareholders' list for meeting

18 A. After fixing a record date for a meeting, a corporation shall prepare an 19 alphabetical list of the names of all its shareholders who are entitled to notice of a 20 shareholders' meeting. The list must be arranged by voting group, and within each 21 voting group by class or series of shares, and show the address of and number of 22 shares held by each shareholder.

23 B. The shareholders' list must be available for inspection by any shareholder, 24 beginning two business days after notice of the meeting is given for which the list 25 was prepared and continuing through the meeting, at the corporation's principal 26 office or at a place identified in the meeting notice in the city where the meeting will 27 be held. A shareholder, or the shareholder's agent or attorney, is entitled on written 28 demand to inspect and, subject to the requirements of R.S. 12:1-1602(C) other than 29 the required percentage and duration of ownership of shares, to copy the list, during 1 regular business hours and at the shareholder's expense, during the period it is 2 available for inspection.

3 C. The corporation shall make the shareholders' list available at the meeting, 4 and any shareholder, or the shareholder's agent or attorney, is entitled to inspect the 5 list at any time during the meeting or any adjournment.

6 D. If the corporation refuses to allow a shareholder, or the shareholder's 7 agent or attorney, to inspect the shareholders' list before or at the meeting, or copy 8 the list as permitted by Subsection B of this Section, the district court of the parish 9 where a corporation's principal office or, if none in this state, its registered office, is 10 located, on application of the shareholder, may in a summary proceeding order the 11 inspection or copying at the corporation's expense and may postpone the meeting for 12 which the list was prepared until the inspection or copying is complete.

13 E. Refusal or failure to prepare or make available the shareholders' list does 14 not affect the validity of action taken at the meeting.

16 §1-721. Voting entitlement of shares

17 A. Except as provided in Subsections B and D of this Section, or unless the 18 articles of incorporation provide otherwise, each outstanding share, regardless of 19 class, is entitled to one vote on each matter voted on at a shareholders' meeting.
 20 Only shares are entitled to vote.

21 B. Absent special circumstances, the shares issued by a corporation are not 22 entitled to vote if they are owned, directly or indirectly, by a subsidiary.

23 C. Subsection B of this Section does not limit the power of a corporation or 24 subsidiary to vote any shares, including its own shares, held by it in a fiduciary 25 capacity.

26 D. Redeemable shares are not entitled to vote after notice of redemption is 27 mailed to the holders and a sum sufficient to redeem the shares has been deposited 28 with a bank, trust company, or other financial institution under an irrevocable 29 obligation to pay the holders the redemption price on surrender of the shares.

1 E. For purposes of Subsections B and C of this Section, the following 2 meanings shall apply:

3 (1) The term "subsidiary" means a domestic or foreign corporation, limited 4 liability company, partnership, or other juridical person that is subject to at least 5 majority control by the issuer of the shares, but does not include the issuer itself.

6 (2) "Majority control" means ownership, direct or indirect, of a majority of 7 either of the following:

8 (a) The shares entitled to vote for the directors of a corporation.

9 (b) The membership, partnership, or other interests in an unincorporated 10 entity that are entitled either to vote for those who hold the general managerial 11 authority in the unincorporated entity or to exercise that authority directly.

13 Comments - 2014 Revision

14 (a) Model Act Subsection (b) provides an explicit statutory rule against 15 "circular" voting only where the circular voting is occurring through a subsidiary that 16 is organized as a corporation. The Model Act leaves other forms of circular voting 17 to common law principles, as noted in Model Act Comment 3. Because Louisiana 18 law does not include those common law principles, this Section extends the express 19 statutory rule against circular voting to all subsidiaries generally, whether 20 incorporated or unincorporated. Subsection B of this Section provides the rule 21 against the voting of shares held by a "subsidiary," and Subsection E of this Section 22 provides the definition of that term.

23 (b) The rule in this Section against circular voting prohibits only a 24 subsidiary's voting the shares that it owns in its direct or indirect parent companies, 25 something that might be pictured as "upstream voting." That kind of voting is 26 prohibited because it would allow the management of the parent company to exercise 27 voting control over the parent company itself, through management's directing the 28 votes of the subsidiary-owned shares in the parent. The rule in this Section against 29 circular voting does not affect the formation of holding companies or the exercise of 30 "downstream" voting power by a parent company over the shares that it owns in a 31 subsidiary.

32 §1-722. Proxies

33 A. A shareholder may vote the shareholder's shares in person or by proxy.

34 B. A shareholder, or the shareholder's agent or attorney-in-fact, may appoint 35 a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the shareholder by signing an appointment form, 36 or by an electronic transmission. An electronic transmission must contain or be 37 accompanied by information from which one can determine that the shareholder, the 38 shareholder's agent, or the shareholder's attorney-in-fact authorized the transmission.

1 C. An appointment of a proxy is effective when a signed appointment form 2 or an electronic transmission of the appointment is received by the inspector of 3 election, the secretary, or other officer or agent of the corporation authorized to 4 tabulate votes. An appointment is valid for eleven months unless a longer period is 5 expressly provided in the appointment form.

6 D. An appointment of a proxy is revocable unless the appointment form or 7 electronic transmission states that it is irrevocable and the appointment is coupled 8 with an interest. Appointments coupled with an interest include the appointment of:

9 (1) A pledgee or other person having a security interest in the shares;

10 (2) A person who purchased or agreed to purchase the shares;

11 (3) A creditor of the corporation who extended it credit under terms 12 requiring the appointment;

13 (4) An employee of the corporation whose employment contract requires the 14 appointment; or 15 (5) A party to a voting agreement created under Section 1-731.

16 E. The revocation of a proxy appointment or the death or incapacity of the 17 shareholder appointing a proxy does not affect the right of the corporation to accept 18 the proxy's authority unless notice of the revocation, death or incapacity is received 19 by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes before the 20 proxy exercises authority under the appointment.

21 F. An appointment made irrevocable under Subsection D of this Section is 22 revoked when the interest with which it is coupled is extinguished.

23 G. Unless it otherwise provides, an appointment made irrevocable under 24 Subsection D of this Section continues in effect after a transfer of the shares and a 25 transferee takes subject to the appointment, except that a transferee for value of 26 shares subject to an irrevocable appointment may revoke the appointment if the 27 transferee did not know of its existence when acquiring the shares and the existence 28 of the irrevocable appointment was not noted conspicuously on the certificate 29 representing the shares or on the information statement for shares without 30 certificates.

1 H. Subject to Section 1-724 and to any express limitation on the proxy's 2 authority stated in the appointment form or electronic transmission, a corporation is 3 entitled to accept the proxy's vote or other action as that of the shareholder making 4 the appointment.

6 Comment - 2014 Revision

7 The authority granted to corporate officials by this Section must be exercised 8 in good faith. See the Comment to R.S. 12:1-702.

9 §1-723. Shares held by intermediaries and nominees

10 A. A corporation's board of directors may establish a procedure under which 11 a person on whose behalf shares are registered in the name of an intermediary or 12 nominee may elect to be treated by the corporation as the record shareholder by 13 filing with the corporation a beneficial ownership certificate. The extent, terms, 14 conditions, and limitations of this treatment shall be specified in the procedure. To 15 the extent such person is treated under such procedure as having rights or privileges 16 that the record shareholder otherwise would have, the record shareholder shall not 17 have those rights or privileges.

18 B. The procedure shall specify all of the following information:

19 (1) The types of intermediaries or nominees to which it applies.

20 (2) The rights or privileges that the corporation recognizes in a person with 21 respect to whom a beneficial ownership certificate is filed.

22 (3) The manner in which the procedure is selected, which shall include that 23 the beneficial ownership certificate be signed or assented to by or on behalf of the 24 record shareholder and the person or persons on whose behalf the shares are held.

25 (4) The information that must be provided when the procedure is selected.

26 (5) The period for which selection of the procedure is effective.

27 (6) The requirements for notice to the corporation with respect to the 28 arrangement.

29 (7) The form and contents of the beneficial ownership certificate.

1 C. The procedure may specify any other aspects of the rights and duties 2 created by the filing of a beneficial ownership certificate.

4 §1-724. Corporation's acceptance of votes

5 A. If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment 6 corresponds to the name of a shareholder, the corporation if acting in good faith is 7 entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect 8 as the act of the shareholder.

9 B. If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment does 10 not correspond to the name of its shareholder, the corporation if acting in good faith 11 is nevertheless entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and 12 give it effect as the act of the shareholder if any of the following conditions are met:

13 (1) The shareholder is an entity and the name signed purports to be that of 14 an officer or agent of the entity.

15 (2) The name signed purports to be that of an administrator, executor, 16 guardian, conservator, curator, tutor or judicially authorized representative of the 17 shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence of fiduciary status and 18 authority acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, 19 consent, waiver, or proxy appointment.

20 (3) The name signed purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy 21 of the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence of this status acceptable 22 to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or 23 proxy appointment.

24 (4) The name signed purports to be that of a pledgee or other person having 25 a security interest in the shares, a beneficial owner, or an attorney-in-fact or 26 representative through mandate or procuration of the shareholder and, if the 27 corporation requests, evidence acceptable to the corporation of the signatory's 28 authority to sign for the shareholder has been presented with respect to the vote, 29 consent, waiver, or proxy appointment.

1 (5) Two or more persons are the shareholder as co-owners, co-tenants, or 2 fiduciaries and the name signed purports to be the name of at least one of them and 3 the person signing appears to be acting on behalf of all of them.

4 C. The corporation is entitled to reject a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy 5 appointment if the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes, 6 acting in good faith, has reasonable basis for doubt about the validity of the signature 7 on it or about the signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder.

8 D. The corporation and its officer or agent who accepts or rejects a vote, 9 consent, waiver, or proxy appointment in good faith and in accordance with the 10 standards of this Section or R.S. 12:1-722(B) are not liable in damages to the 11 shareholder for the consequences of the acceptance or rejection.

12 E. The corporation's acceptance or rejection of a vote, consent, waiver, or 13 proxy appointment under this Section is conclusive unless a shareholder objects 14 timely to the acceptance or rejection of the item and, if the corporation rejects the 15 objection, proves in a summary proceeding, commenced within ten days after the 16 corporation's notice to the shareholder that it has rejected the objection, that the 17 corporation's acceptance or rejection of the item was incorrect. A shareholder's 18 objection is timely under this Subsection only if the objection is made before the end 19 of the shareholders' meeting at which the acceptance or rejection of the item is given 20 effect or, if the item is relevant to an action taken by shareholders without a meeting 21 in accordance with R.S. 12:1-704, before the corporation incurs a legal obligation in 22 good faith reliance on its acceptance or rejection of the item.

24 Comments - 2014 Revision

25 (a) The phrase, "curator, tutor, or judicially authorized representative" was 26 added to the list of fiduciaries in Paragraph (B)(2) of this Section, and the 27 parenthetical phrase "or representative through mandate or procuration" was added 28 to Paragraph (B)(4) of this Section to reflect the appropriate Louisiana terminology.
 29 The phrase, "or another person having a security interest in the shares" was added 30 to Paragraph (B)(4) to reflect the fact that security interests in shares are not limited 31 to those held by a pledgee.

32 (b) The Official Comment to the Model Act states that the doctrine of laches 33 may bar a challenge to a corporate action that is not brought promptly. But 34 Louisiana law does not recognize the doctrine of laches. Fishbein v. State ex rel.

1 Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center, 898 So.2d 1260 (La. 2005).
 2 Accordingly, Subsection (e) of the Model Act has been modified in this Section to 3 provide a statutory rule similar to laches, and similar to the rule in prior law that a 4 proxy regular on its face was valid unless it was challenged before it was exercised.
 5 See former R.S. 12:75(C)(4). Under Subsection E of this Section, a corporation's 6 acceptance or rejection of a vote or other similar item is treated as conclusive unless 7 a shareholder objects to the corporation's treatment of the item before the end of the 8 meeting at which the item is relevant or, if the action is being taken without a 9 meeting, before the corporation incurs a legal obligation in good faith reliance on 10 that treatment. If the shareholder's objection is timely, and the corporation rejects 11 the objection, then the corporation's decision is conclusive unless the shareholder 12 commences a summary proceeding within ten days of the date that the corporation's 13 notice to the shareholder becomes effective under R.S. 12:1-141 and proves in that 14 proceeding that the corporation's decision concerning the validity of the challenged 15 item was incorrect.

16 §1-725. Quorum and voting requirements for voting groups

17 A. Shares entitled to vote as a separate voting group may take action on a 18 matter at a meeting only if a quorum of those shares exists with respect to that 19 matter. Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, a majority of the 20 votes entitled to be cast on the matter by the voting group constitutes a quorum of 21 that voting group for action on that matter.

22 B. Once a share is represented for any purpose at a meeting, it is deemed 23 present for quorum purposes for the remainder of the meeting and for any 24 adjournment of that meeting unless a new record date is or must be set for that 25 adjourned meeting.

26 C. If a quorum exists, action on a matter, other than the election of directors, 27 by a voting group is approved if the votes cast within the voting group favoring the 28 action exceed the votes cast opposing the action, unless the articles of incorporation 29 require a greater number of affirmative votes.

30 D. An amendment of articles of incorporation adding, changing, or deleting 31 a quorum or voting requirement for a voting group greater than specified in 32 Subsection A or C of this Section is governed by R.S. 12:1-727.

33 E. The election of directors is governed by R.S. 12:1-728.

1 F. Whenever a provision of this Chapter provides for voting of classes or 2 series as separate voting groups, the rules provided in R.S. 12:1-1004(C) for 3 amendments of articles of incorporation apply to that provision.

4 Source: MBCA §7.25.

5 §1-726. Action by single and multiple voting groups

6 A. If the articles of incorporation or this Chapter provide for voting by a 7 single voting group on a matter, action on that matter is taken when voted upon by 8 that voting group as provided in R.S. 12:1-725.

9 B. If the articles of incorporation or this Chapter provide for voting by two 10 or more voting groups on a matter, action on that matter is taken only when voted 11 upon by each of those voting groups counted separately as provided in R.S.
12 12:1-725. Action may be taken by one voting group on a matter even though no 13 action is taken by another voting group entitled to vote on the matter.

14 Source: MBCA § 7.26.

15 §1-727. Greater quorum or voting requirements

16 A. The articles of incorporation may provide for a greater quorum or voting 17 requirement for shareholders, or voting groups of shareholders, than is provided for 18 by this Chapter.

19 B. An amendment to the articles of incorporation that adds, changes, or 20 deletes a greater quorum or voting requirement must meet the same quorum 21 requirement and be adopted by the same vote and voting groups required to take 22 action under the quorum and voting requirements then in effect or proposed to be 23 adopted, whichever is greater.

24 Source: MBCA §7.27.

25 §1-728. Voting for directors; cumulative voting

26 A. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, directors are 27 elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote in the election 28 at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

29 B. Shareholders do not have a right to cumulate their votes for directors 30 unless the articles of incorporation so provide.

1 C. A statement included in the articles of incorporation that shareholders, or 2 a designated group of shareholders, "are entitled to cumulate their votes for 3 directors", or words of similar import, means that the shareholders designated are 4 entitled to multiply the number of votes they are entitled to cast by the number of 5 directors for whom they are entitled to vote and cast the product for a single 6 candidate or distribute the product among two or more candidates.

8 Comments - 2014 Revision

9 (a) This Section deleted Subsection (d) of the Model Act, and its related 10 comments, which would have conditioned the exercise of cumulative voting rights 11 on prior notice by the corporation, or by the shareholders wishing to exercise the 12 rights, that cumulative voting was to be exercised at a particular shareholders' 13 meeting. Under this Section, the availability of cumulative voting depends only on 14 whether that form of voting is authorized by the articles of incorporation. No 15 separate notice is required for each meeting at which cumulative voting may occur.

16 (b) If cumulative voting is authorized in the articles of incorporation, a 17 director may not be removed if the votes in opposition to the director's removal 18 would be sufficient under cumulative voting to elect the director. See R.S.
 19 12:1-808(C).

20 §1-729. Inspectors of election

21 A. A public corporation shall, and any other corporation may, appoint one 22 or more inspectors to act at a meeting of shareholders and make a written report of 23 the inspectors' determinations. Each inspector shall take and sign an oath faithfully 24 to execute the duties of inspector with strict impartiality and according to the best of 25 the inspector's ability.

26 B. The inspectors shall do all of the following:

- 27 (1) Ascertain the number of shares outstanding and the voting power of each.
- 28 (2) Determine the shares represented at a meeting.
- 29 (3) Determine the validity of proxies and ballots.
- 30 (4) Count all votes.
- 31 (5) Determine the result.

32 C. An inspector may be an officer or employee of the corporation.

SUBPART C. VOTING TRUSTS AND AGREEMENTS§1-730. Voting trusts

A. One or more shareholders may create a voting trust, conferring on a trustee the right to vote or otherwise act for them, by signing an agreement setting out the provisions of the trust, which may include anything consistent with its purpose, and transferring their shares to the trustee. When a voting trust agreement is signed, the trustee shall prepare a list of the names and addresses of all voting trust beneficial owners, together with the number and class of shares each transferred to the trust, and deliver copies of the list and agreement to the corporation's principal office.

B. A voting trust becomes effective on the date the first shares subject to the trust are registered in the trustee's name.

C. Limits, if any, on the duration of a voting trust shall be as set forth in the voting trust. The duration of a voting trust that became effective before January 1, 2015, may not exceed fifteen years, but may stipulate that it may be extended under the same terms and conditions for an additional period not to exceed ten years from the date of the expiration of the initial term. The limitation imposed by this Subsection on the duration of a voting trust that became effective before January 1, 2015, may be modified or eliminated by unanimous agreement of the parties to the voting trust.

Source: MBCA §7.30.

Comment - 2014 Revision

The Model Act version of Subsection C of this Section provided a transitional rule for voting trusts that became effective before the Model Act eliminated its ten-year limitation on the duration of a voting trust. This Chapter provides a similar transition rule for voting trusts that took effect before the effective date of this Chapter, when the law limited the duration of a voting trust to an initial fifteen-year period, followed by one ten-year extension.

§1-731. Voting agreements

A. Two or more shareholders may provide for the manner in which they will vote their shares by signing an agreement for that purpose. A voting agreement created under this Section is not subject to the provisions of R.S. 12:1-730.

1 B. A voting agreement created under this Section is specifically enforceable.

2 Source: MBCA §7.31.

3 §1-732. Unanimous governance agreements

4 A. The term "unanimous governance agreement" means any written 5 agreement, other than the articles of incorporation or bylaws, that satisfies all of the 6 following criteria:

7 (1) Is approved in one or more writings signed by all persons who are 8 shareholders at the time of the agreement.

9 (2) Governs the exercise of the corporate powers or the management of the 10 business and affairs of the corporation or the relationship among the shareholders, 11 the directors, and the corporation, or among any of them.

12 (3) States that it is a unanimous governance agreement or that it is governed 13 by this Section.

14 B. A unanimous governance agreement is effective among the shareholders 15 and the corporation, and shall be interpreted and enforced among those persons in 16 accordance with the principle of freedom of contract, subject only to the limitations 17 imposed by public policy. A unanimous governance agreement is enforceable among 18 the shareholders and the corporation even though it is inconsistent with one or more 19 other provisions of this Chapter in that it does any of the following:

20 (1) Eliminates the board of directors or restricts the discretion or powers of 21 the board of directors.

22 (2) Governs the authorization or making of distributions whether or not in 23 proportion to ownership of shares, subject to the limitations in R.S. 12:1-640.

24 (3) Establishes who shall be directors or officers of the corporation, or their 25 terms of office or manner of selection or removal.

26 (4) Governs, in general or in regard to specific matters, the exercise or 27 division of voting power by or between the shareholders and directors or by or 28 among any of them, including use of weighted voting rights or director proxies.

1 (5) Establishes the terms and conditions of any agreement for the transfer or 2 use of property or the provision of services between the corporation and any 3 shareholder, director, officer, or employee of the corporation or among any of them.

4 (6) Transfers to one or more shareholders or other persons all or part of the 5 authority to exercise the corporate powers or to manage the business and affairs of 6 the corporation, including the resolution of any issue about which there exists a 7 deadlock among directors or shareholders.

8 (7) Requires dissolution of the corporation at the request of one or more of 9 the shareholders or upon the occurrence of a specified event or contingency.

10 (8) Otherwise changes, in a manner not contrary to public policy, the result 11 that would be reached under other provisions of this Chapter.

12 C.(1) The existence of a unanimous governance agreement shall be noted 13 conspicuously on the front or back of each certificate for outstanding shares. If, at 14 the time of the agreement, the corporation has shares outstanding represented by 15 certificates, the corporation shall recall the outstanding certificates and issue 16 substitute certificates that comply with this Subsection. The failure to note the 17 existence of the agreement on the certificate shall not affect the validity of the 18 agreement or any action taken pursuant to it.

19 (2) Any purchaser of shares who, at the time of purchase, did not have 20 knowledge of the existence of the agreement shall be entitled to rescission of the 21 purchase. A purchaser shall be deemed to have knowledge of the existence of the 22 agreement if its existence is noted on the certificate for the shares in compliance with 23 this Subsection.

24 (3) An action to enforce the right of rescission authorized by this Subsection 25 must be commenced within the earlier of ninety days after discovery of the existence 26 of the agreement or two years after the time of purchase of the shares.

27 D. The provisions of a unanimous governance agreement shall cease to be 28 effective when the corporation becomes a public corporation. If the agreement 29 ceases to be effective for any reason, the board of directors may adopt an amendment

1 to the articles of incorporation or bylaws, without shareholder action, to delete any 2 references to it.

3 E. A unanimous governance agreement that limits the discretion or powers 4 of the board of directors shall relieve the directors of, and impose upon the person 5 or persons in whom such discretion or powers are vested, liability for acts or 6 omissions imposed by law on directors to the extent that the discretion or powers of 7 the directors are limited by the agreement. A person who is subjected to liability by 8 this Subsection may be held liable only to the extent that a director vested with the 9 same discretion or powers could be held liable, and is entitled to indemnity under 10 R.S. 12:1-850 through 1-859, and to protection against liability under R.S. 12:1-832, 11 to the same extent as a director vested with the same discretion or powers.

12 F. The existence or performance of a unanimous governance agreement shall 13 not be a ground for imposing personal liability on any shareholder for the acts or 14 debts of the corporation even if the agreement or its performance treats the 15 corporation as if it were a partnership or results in failure to observe the corporate 16 formalities otherwise applicable to the matters governed by the agreement.

17 G. Incorporators or subscribers for shares may act as shareholders with 18 respect to a unanimous governance agreement if no shares have been issued when 19 the agreement is made.

20 H. If the shareholders have approved more than one unanimous governance 21 agreement, all of the agreements shall, to the extent reasonable, be construed 22 together as one agreement in which all provisions are given effect. To the extent that 23 conflicting provisions cannot be reconciled through that rule of construction, the 24 more recently-approved provision controls.

25 I. Except as otherwise provided in the agreement, a unanimous governance 26 agreement shall have all of the following characteristics:

27 (1) Has an initial term of twenty years.

28 (2) May be renewed during the initial or any subsequent term for an 29 additional term of up to twenty years after the renewal is approved, by means of one 30 or more written consents to the renewal, signed by all persons who are shareholders

1 at the time of the renewal, and delivered to the corporation in accordance with R.S.
 2 12:1-704(C).

3 (3) May be amended or terminated during its initial or any subsequent term 4 by means of one or more written consents to the amendment or termination, signed 5 by all persons who are shareholders at the time of the termination or amendment, and 6 delivered to the corporation in accordance with R.S. 12:1-704(C).

7 (4) Continues in effect even after the expiration of its term, as renewed, until 8 one or more written consents to its termination, signed by the shareholders of at least 9 twenty-five percent of the issued shares of any class are delivered to the corporation 10 in accordance with R.S. 12:1-704(C).

11 J. The corporation shall send notice of any renewal, amendment, or 12 termination of a unanimous governance agreement to all shareholders within ten 13 days after the effective date of the renewal, amendment, or termination, but the 14 renewal, amendment, or termination is effective even if the notice is not sent.

15 K. This Section does not affect the enforceability of any agreement among 16 shareholders that is not a unanimous governance agreement as defined in Subsection 17 A of this Section.

19 Comments - 2014 Revision

20 (a) Model Act Section 7.32 is revised in this Section in several respects:

21 (1) A new term, "unanimous governance agreement," with definition, is used 22 in place of the Model Act phrases, "agreement among shareholders that complies 23 with this provision" and "agreement authorized by this Section".

24 (2) Written consent is required to establish, renew, terminate early, or amend 25 a unanimous governance agreement.

26 (3) Articles of incorporation or bylaws may not operate as unanimous 27 governance agreements, and an otherwise qualifying written agreement may operate 28 as a unanimous governance agreement only if the agreement states that it is a 29 unanimous governance agreement or that it is governed by R.S. 12:1-732.

30 (4) A rule of construction is provided to deal with multiple unanimous 31 written operating agreements, requiring that the multiple agreements be interpreted 32 together as one document to the extent reasonable, and otherwise resolving 33 inconsistencies in provisions by allowing the more recent provision to control.

34 (5) Unless otherwise provided, the agreement has an initial term of twenty, 35 subject to renewals, and the unanimous governance agreement remains in effect even

1 the after the expiration of its term until shareholders of at least twenty-five percent 2 of the issued shares of any class deliver to the corporation written consents to 3 termination of the agreement.

4 (6) A new Subsection K is added as a savings provision to preserve the 5 contractual freedom that shareholders had before the enactment of R.S. 12:1-732.

6 (b) A unanimous governance agreement is not the only mechanism under 7 this Section through which shareholders may modify the governance rules for their 8 corporation. Many of the provisions in this Section concerning corporate governance 9 are subject to modification through appropriate provisions in the articles of 10 incorporation or bylaws, and shareholders may enter into lawful agreements with one 11 another, such as voting agreements, that do not satisfy the requirements of a 12 unanimous governance agreement as defined in Subsection A of this Section. What 13 is distinctive about a unanimous governance agreement is, first, that it may modify 14 what would otherwise be mandatory statutory rules concerning corporation 15 governance, and, second, that it is governed by the special rules in R.S. 12:1-732 16 concerning its creation, disclosure, renewal, amendment, and termination.

17 (c) This Section provides three rules to prevent the inadvertent triggering of 18 the special rules in R.S. 12:1-732, two in Subsection A of this Section and the one 19 in Subsection K of this Section. Subsection A excludes the articles and bylaws as 20 forms of unanimous governance agreement, and also requires an otherwise 21 qualifying agreement to state that it is a unanimous governance agreement or that it 22 is governed by R.S. 12:1-732. Subsection K provides that R.S. 12:1-732 has no 23 effect on the enforceability of a shareholders' agreement that does not meet the 24 requirements of Subsection A of this Section. Through a combination of the two 25 Subsections, this Section preserves the freedom that shareholders had before the 26 enactment of R.S. 12:1-732 to modify the governance rules in their corporation by 27 means of customized terms in the articles or bylaws, or through contracts among the 28 shareholders. The enforceability of those non-R.S. 12:1-732 forms of agreement is 29 governed by ordinary principles of corporation and contract law, without regard to 30 the special rules in R.S. 12:1-732.

31 (d) Provisions concerning corporate governance usually remain in effect 32 indefinitely, until they are changed. Reflecting the usual understanding, and to 33 prevent the automatic and perhaps unexpected termination of governance terms with 34 which shareholders may continue to be satisfied, and on which they may be 35 continuing to rely, this Section provides that a unanimous governance agreement 36 remains in effect indefinitely even after the expiration of its term. Still, because of 37 the extraordinary power of a unanimous governance agreement to override statutory 38 provisions that would otherwise be considered mandatory, this Section does provide 39 a default term for a unanimous governance agreement and does allow the agreement 40 to be terminated by a substantial minority of shares - at least twenty-five percent - 41 after the term expires. The default term is twenty years, a period chosen to 42 correspond roughly with one generation of investors. As a new generation of 43 investors is introduced, they may wish to renegotiate or terminate the unanimous 44 governance agreement.

45 (e) If the shareholders wish for some of their agreed modifications to be 46 governed by the usual rules, e.g. to be subject to amendment by less than unanimous 47 consent, but to apply indefinitely until amended as required for the amendment of 48 the type of provision involved, but also wish to make some of them subject to the 49 powers and requirements of R.S. 12:1-732, they should place the ordinary 50 modifications in the usual place, in the articles or bylaws, for example, and place the 51 more extraordinary provisions, those that may be unenforceable in the absence of 52 R.S. 12:1-732, into an agreement that meets the definition of a unanimous 53 governance agreement under Subsection A of this Section.

1 SUBPART D. DERIVATIVE PROCEEDINGS

2 §1-740. Subpart definitions

3 In this Subpart, the following meanings shall apply:

4 (1) "Derivative proceeding" means a civil suit in the right of a domestic 5 corporation or, to the extent provided in R.S. 12:1-747, in the right of a foreign 6 corporation.

7 (2) "Shareholder" means a record shareholder, a beneficial shareholder, and 8 an unrestricted voting trust beneficial owner.

9 Source: MBCA §7.40.

10 §1-741. Standing

11 A. A shareholder may not commence or maintain a derivative proceeding 12 unless the shareholder satisfies all of the following conditions:

13 (1) Was a shareholder of the corporation at the time of the act or omission 14 complained of or became a shareholder through transfer by operation of law from 15 one who was a shareholder at that time.

16 (2) Fairly and adequately represents the interests of the corporation in 17 enforcing the right of the corporation.

18 B. A shareholder who meets the requirements of R.S. 12:1-741(A) may file 19 a derivative proceeding to enforce a right of the corporation, but only after the 20 shareholder satisfies the requirements of R.S. 12:1-742.

22 Comment - 2014 Revision

23 This Section designated the original Model Act provision as Subsection A of 24 this Section and added a new Subsection B of this Section. The new Subsection B 25 states explicitly what the Model Act provisions imply: that a shareholder may file a 26 derivative proceeding to enforce a right of the corporation if the shareholder 27 complies with the requirements of R.S. 12:1-741 and 1-742. Prior law had stated a 28 similar rule in Art. 611 of the Code of Civil Procedure, but that article was amended 29 in connection with the adoption of this Section to exempt derivative proceedings 30 governed by this Section from the coverage of the class and derivative action 31 provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, i.e., Chapter 5 of Book I, Title 2.
 32 Subsection B of this Section now provides an authorization of derivative proceedings 33 on behalf of business corporations that replaces the authorization formerly provided 34 by Art. 611.

1 as defined in R.S. 12:1-143, and only if those qualified persons have conducted the 2 inquiry and made their decisions in accordance with the standards of R.S. 12:1-744.

3 §1-742.1. Petition in derivative proceeding

4 The petition in a derivative proceeding shall do all of the following:

5 (1) Allege that the plaintiff meets the standing requirements of R.S.
 6 12:1-741.

7 (2) Allege either that the plaintiff made demand upon the corporation at least 8 ninety days before the filing of the petition as required by R.S. 12:1-742 or that the 9 plaintiff made the demand and, for reasons alleged in the petition, the filing of the 10 petition before the expiration of the ninety-day period complies with R.S. 12:1-742.

11 (3) Join as defendants the corporation and the obligor on the obligation 12 sought to be enforced.

13 (4) Include a prayer for judgment in favor of the corporation and against the 14 obligor on the obligation sought to be enforced.

15 (5) Be verified by the affidavit of the plaintiff or his counsel.

17 Comments - 2014 Revision

18 (a) This Section is not part of the Model Act. It was added to this Part to 19 retain the pleading requirements formerly imposed on derivative actions by Art. 615 20 of the Code of Civil Procedure, modified as necessary to harmonize them with the 21 Model Act provisions on derivative proceedings.

22 (b) As applied to derivative proceedings on behalf of business corporations, 23 this Section eliminates the distinction drawn by the Code of Civil Procedure between 24 derivative suits that are treated as class actions and those that require the joinder of 25 all shareholders as parties to the suit. The rules that apply to derivative actions are 26 provided directly by this Section, based on the Model Act, and not by making some 27 of the class action rules apply to some derivative suits.

28 §1-743. Stay of proceedings

29 If the corporation commences an inquiry into the allegations made in the 30 demand or petition, the court may stay any derivative proceeding for such period as 31 the court deems appropriate.

32 Source: MBCA §7.43.

1 §1-744. Dismissal

2 A. A derivative proceeding shall be dismissed by the court on motion by the 3 corporation if one of the groups specified in Subsection B or Subsection E of this 4 Section has determined in good faith, after conducting a reasonable inquiry upon 5 which its conclusions are based, that the maintenance of the derivative proceeding 6 is not in the best interests of the corporation.

7 B. Unless a panel is appointed pursuant to Subsection E of this Section, the 8 determination in Subsection A of this Section shall be made by one of the following:

9 (1) A majority vote of qualified directors present at a meeting of the board 10 of directors if the qualified directors constitute a quorum.

11 (2) A majority vote of a committee consisting of two or more qualified 12 directors appointed by majority vote of qualified directors present at a meeting of the 13 board of directors, regardless of whether such qualified directors constitute a 14 quorum.

15 C. If a derivative proceeding is commenced after a determination has been 16 made rejecting a demand by a shareholder, the petition shall allege with particularity 17 facts establishing either of the following:

18 (1) That a majority of the board of directors did not consist of qualified 19 directors at the time the determination was made.

20 (2) That the requirements of Subsection A of this Section have not been met.

21 D. If a majority of the board of directors consisted of qualified directors at 22 the time the determination was made, the plaintiff shall have the burden of proving 23 that the requirements of Subsection A of this Section have not been met; if not, the 24 corporation shall have the burden of proving that the requirements of Subsection A 25 of this Section have been met.

26 E. Upon motion by the corporation, the court may appoint a panel of one or 27 more individuals to make a determination whether the maintenance of the derivative 28 proceeding is in the best interests of the corporation. In such case, the plaintiff shall 29 have the burden of proving that the requirements of Subsection A of this Section 30 have not been met.

1 Comment - 2014 Revision

2 The Official Comments to this section of the Model Act explain that the word 3 "inquiry" is used in Subsection A of this Section, rather than the word 4 "investigation," to make it clear the nature of the procedure used to consider the 5 allegations made in the demand or complaint depend on the nature of those 6 allegations and the knowledge of the persons who conduct the inquiry. In some 7 cases, the Comment suggests, the issues may be simple enough, and the knowledge 8 of those conducting the inquiry so extensive, that little additional effort will be 9 required to satisfy the statutory standard that the inquiry be conducted in good faith.
 10 This Section does not disagree with the Model Act or the official comments on that 11 issue. Nevertheless, in the case of serious allegations of misconduct against the 12 management of a corporation, a good faith inquiry ordinarily will require the 13 preparation of a written report, with the assistance of independent legal counsel, in 14 support of a recommendation either to reject demand or to dismiss the suit.

15 §1-745. Discontinuance or settlement

16 A. Unless approved unanimously by the shareholders of the corporation, a 17 derivative proceeding may not be discontinued or settled without the court's 18 approval. If the court determines that a proposed discontinuance or settlement will 19 substantially affect the interests of the corporation's shareholders or a class of 20 shareholders, the court shall direct that notice be given to the shareholders affected.

21 B. This Section does not affect the plaintiff's right under Article 1671 of the 22 Code of Civil Procedure to obtain a judgment of dismissal without prejudice if the 23 application for dismissal is made before any defendant, including the corporation in 24 its capacity as a defendant, makes any appearance of record in the proceeding.

25 Source: MBCA §7.45.

26 Comments - 2014 Revision

27 (a) This Section adds a provision that permits a derivative action to be settled 28 or discontinued without court approval if the settlement or discontinuation is 29 approved unanimously by the shareholders of the corporation. The rule that requires 30 judicial approval of the settlement of derivative suits is based on the risk that the 31 named plaintiff in the suit may agree to settlement terms that are satisfactory to the 32 parties who are participating in the settlement negotiations - the defendants, the 33 named plaintiff and the named plaintiff's lawyers - but that produce little or no 34 benefit for the other shareholders of the corporation. But if all shareholders actually 35 agree to the settlement, a realistic possibility only in closely-held corporations, each 36 shareholder is able to decide personally whether the settlement is acceptable. Under 37 those circumstances, the parties should be free to settle the case on the terms they 38 consider appropriate.

39 (b) This Section also adds a sentence to make it clear that this Section does 40 not affect a plaintiff's ability to obtain a judgment of dismissal without prejudice as 41 provided in Art. 1671 of the Code of Civil Procedure. The plaintiff is entitled to that 42 form of judgment only if he pays all costs of the proceeding and if he applies for the 43 dismissal before the defendant makes any appearance of record in the proceeding.
 44 Id. Because the corporation in a derivative action participates in the suit both as a

1 plaintiff, represented by the plaintiff shareholder, and as a defendant, represented by 2 management-authorized agents, the last sentence of this Section makes the point that 3 the plaintiff's right to a dismissal without prejudice under Art. 1671 is cut off by the 4 corporation's appearance in the suit only if the corporation is appearing of record in 5 its capacity as a defendant. The requirement in Art. 1671 that the plaintiff pay the 6 costs of the proceeding as a condition to the dismissal applies in the normal way.

7 §1-746. Payment of expenses

8 On termination of the derivative proceeding the court may do any of the 9 following:

10 (1) Order the corporation to pay the plaintiff's expenses incurred in the 11 proceeding if it finds that the proceeding has resulted in a substantial benefit to the 12 corporation.

13 (2) Order the plaintiff to pay any defendant's expenses incurred in defending 14 the proceeding if it finds that the proceeding was commenced or maintained without 15 reasonable cause or for an improper purpose.

16 (3) Order a party to pay an opposing party's expenses incurred because of the 17 filing of a pleading, motion, or other paper, if it finds that the pleading, motion, or 18 other paper was not well grounded in fact, after reasonable inquiry, or warranted by 19 existing law or a good faith argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of 20 existing law and was interposed for an improper purpose, such as to harass or cause 21 unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation.

23 §1-747. Applicability to foreign corporations

24 In any derivative proceeding in the right of a foreign corporation, the matters 25 covered by this Subpart shall be governed by the laws of the jurisdiction of 26 incorporation of the foreign corporation except for R.S. 12: 1-743, 1-745, and 1-746.

28 SUBPART E. PROCEEDING TO APPOINT RECEIVER

29 §1-748. Shareholder action to appoint receiver

30 A. The district court of the parish in which the registered office of the 31 corporation is located may appoint one or more to be receivers, of and for a 1 corporation in a proceeding by a shareholder where it is established that either of the 2 following conditions exist:

3 (1) The directors are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs, 4 the shareholders are unable to break the deadlock, and irreparable injury to the 5 corporation is threatened or being suffered.

6 (2) The directors or those in control of the corporation are acting 7 fraudulently and irreparable injury to the corporation is threatened or being suffered.

8 B.(1) The court may issue injunctions, appoint a temporary receiver with all 9 the powers and duties the court directs, take other action to preserve the corporate 10 assets wherever located, and carry on the business of the corporation until a full 11 hearing is held.

12 (2) The court shall hold a full hearing, after notifying all parties to the 13 proceeding and any interested persons designated by the court, before appointing a 14 receiver.

15 (3) The court has jurisdiction over the corporation and all of its property, 16 wherever located.

17 C. The court may appoint an individual or domestic or foreign corporation, 18 authorized to transact business in this state, as a receiver and may require the 19 receiver to post bond, with or without sureties, in an amount the court directs.

20 D. The court shall describe the powers and duties of the receiver in its 21 appointing order, which may be amended from time to time. Among other powers, 22 a receiver may do any of the following:

23 (1) Exercise all of the powers of the corporation, through or in place of its 24 board of directors, to the extent necessary to manage the business and affairs of the 25 corporation.

26 (2) Dispose of all or any part of the assets of the corporation wherever 27 located, at a public or private sale, if authorized by the court.

28 (3) Sue and defend in the receiver's own name as receiver in all courts of this 29 state.

30 E. [Reserved.]

1 F. The court from time to time during the receivership may order 2 compensation paid and expense disbursements or reimbursements made to the 3 receiver from the assets of the corporation or proceeds from the sale of its assets.

4 G. In this Section, "shareholder" means a record shareholder, a beneficial 5 shareholder, and an unrestricted voting trust beneficial owner.

7 Comment - 2014 Revision

8 The Model Act distinction between the appointment of custodians for solvent 9 companies and receivers for insolvent ones is omitted from this Section to retain the 10 prior law that authorized the appointment of receivers for both solvent and insolvent 11 companies. Model Act Subsection (e), which authorized a court to redesignate a 12 custodian as a receiver and a receiver as a custodian, was omitted as irrelevant to the 13 receiver-only scheme adopted in this Section.

14 PART 8. DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

15 SUBPART A. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

16 §1-801. Requirement for and functions of board of directors

17 A. Except as provided in R.S. 12:1-732, each corporation must have a board 18 of directors.

19 B. All corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of the 20 board of directors of the corporation, and the business and affairs of the corporation 21 shall be managed by or under the direction, and subject to the oversight, of its board 22 of directors, subject to any limitation set forth in the articles of incorporation or in 23 an agreement authorized under R.S. 12:1-732.

24 C. In the case of a public corporation, the board's oversight responsibilities 25 include attention to all of the following:

- 26 (1) Business performance and plans.
- 27 (2) Major risks to which the corporation is or may be exposed.
- 28 (3) The performance and compensation of senior officers.
- 29 (4) Policies and practices to foster the corporation's compliance with law and 30 ethical conduct.
- 31 (5) Preparation of the corporation's financial statements.
- 32 (6) The effectiveness of the corporation's internal controls.

1 (7) Arrangements for providing adequate and timely information to directors.

2 (8) The composition of the board and its committees, taking into account the 3 important role of independent directors.

4 Source: MBCA §8.01.

5 §1-802. Qualifications of directors

6 The articles of incorporation or bylaws may prescribe qualifications for 7 directors. A director need not be a resident of this state or a shareholder of the 8 corporation unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws so prescribe.

9 Source: MBCA §8.02.

10 §1-803. Number and election of directors

11 A. A board of directors must consist of one or more individuals. The 12 number of directors shall be fixed by or in accordance with the articles of 13 incorporation or, if not so fixed, shall be the number fixed by or in accordance with 14 the bylaws. If not fixed by or in accordance with the articles or the bylaws, the 15 number of directors shall be the number elected from time to time by the 16 shareholders and, if directors have not been elected by the shareholders, the number 17 of directors shall be the number of directors named as initial directors in the articles 18 of incorporation.

19 B. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time 20 by amendment to, or in the manner provided in, the articles of incorporation or the 21 bylaws.

22 C. Directors are elected at the first annual shareholders' meeting and at each 23 annual meeting thereafter unless their terms are staggered under R.S. 12:1-806.

24 Source: MBCA §8.03.

25 Comments - 2014 Revision

26 (a) This Section modifies the language of Model Act Subsection (a) to retain 27 the former Louisiana law concerning the determination of the number of directors 28 to be elected.

29 (b) Former R.S. 12:81(A) provided that an incumbent director's term could 30 not be shortened by means of an amendment to the articles or bylaws that reduced 31 the number of directors. The substance of that rule is retained in R.S. 12:1-805(C).

CODING: Words in ~~struck through~~ type are deletions from existing law; words underscored are additions.

1 §1-804. Election of directors by certain classes of shareholders

2 If the articles of incorporation authorize dividing the shares into classes, the 3 articles may also authorize the election of all or a specified number of directors by 4 the holders of one or more authorized classes of shares. A class, or classes, of shares 5 entitled to elect one or more directors is a separate voting group for purposes of the 6 election of directors.

7 Source: MBCA §8.04.

8 §1-805. Terms of directors generally

9 A. The terms of the initial directors of a corporation expire at the first 10 shareholders' meeting at which directors are elected.

11 B. The terms of all other directors expire at the next, or if their terms are 12 staggered in accordance with R.S. 12:1-806, at the applicable second or third, annual 13 shareholders' meeting following their election, except to the extent provided in R.S.
14 12:1-1022 if a bylaw electing to be governed by that Section is in effect or a shorter 15 term is specified in the articles of incorporation in the event of a director nominee 16 failing to receive a specified vote for election.

17 C. A decrease in the number of directors does not shorten an incumbent 18 director's term.

19 D. The term of a director elected to fill a vacancy expires when the term of 20 that director's predecessor in office would have expired had the vacancy not 21 occurred.

22 E. Except to the extent otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or 23 under R.S. 12:1-1022 if a bylaw electing to be governed by that Section is in effect, 24 despite the expiration of a director's term, the director continues to serve until the 25 director's successor is elected and qualifies or there is a decrease in the number of 26 directors.

28 Comment - 2014 Revision

29 Model Act Subsection (d) provides that the term of a director elected to fill 30 a vacancy expires at the next shareholders' meeting at which directors are elected.
31 The Official Comment to that Subsection explains that the rule is to apply even when

1 directors are elected to staggered terms as permitted under Model Act Section 8.06, 2 and acknowledges that this approach may cause the staggered terms not to operate 3 in the normal way. Subsection D of this Section is modified to preserve staggered 4 terms in the event of a vacancy. Under Subsection D, the term of a director who is 5 elected to fill a vacancy expires at the same time that the term of the director's 6 predecessor in office would have expired had the vacancy not occurred.

7 §1-806. Staggered terms for directors

8 The articles of incorporation may provide for staggering the terms of 9 directors by dividing the total number of directors into two or three groups, with each 10 group containing one-half or one-third of the total, as near as may be practicable. In 11 that event, the terms of directors in the first group expire at the first annual 12 shareholders' meeting after their election, the terms of the second group expire at the 13 second annual shareholders' meeting after their election, and the terms of the third 14 group, if any, expire at the third annual shareholders' meeting after their election. At 15 each annual shareholders' meeting held thereafter, directors shall be chosen for a 16 term of two years or three years, as the case may be, to succeed those whose terms 17 expire.

19 §1-807. Resignation of directors

20 A. A director may resign at any time by delivering a written resignation to 21 the board of directors, or its chair, or to the secretary of the corporation.

22 B. A resignation is effective when the resignation is delivered unless the 23 resignation specifies a later effective date or an effective date determined upon the 24 happening of an event or events. A resignation that is conditioned upon failing to 25 receive a specified vote for election as a director may provide that it is irrevocable.

26 Source: MBCA §8.07.

27 §1-808. Removal of directors by shareholders

28 A. The shareholders may remove one or more directors with or without 29 cause unless the articles of incorporation provide that directors may be removed only 30 for cause.

31 B. If a director is elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the 32 shareholders of that voting group may participate in the vote to remove that director.

1 C. If cumulative voting is authorized, a director may not be removed if the 2 number of votes sufficient to elect the director under cumulative voting is voted 3 against removal. If cumulative voting is not authorized, a director may be removed 4 only if the number of votes cast to remove is a majority of the number of votes 5 entitled to be cast in an election of directors.

6 D. A director may be removed by the shareholders only at a meeting called 7 for the purpose of removing the director and the meeting notice must state that the 8 purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director.

9 Source: MBCA §8.08.

10 Comment - 2014 Revision

11 Subject to exceptions for cumulative voting and for directors elected by 12 particular voting groups, the Model Act permits the removal of a director by a 13 majority of the votes cast on the issue. This Section requires the removal to be 14 approved by a majority of the votes entitled to be cast in an election of directors.

15 §1-809. [Reserved]

16 §1-810. Vacancy on board

17 A. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, if a 18 vacancy occurs on a board of directors, including a vacancy resulting from an 19 increase in the number of directors, the vacancy may be filled by one of the 20 following methods:

21 (1) The shareholders may fill the vacancy.

22 (2) The board of directors may fill the vacancy.

23 (3) If the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the 24 board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the 25 directors remaining in office.

26 B. If the vacant office was held by a director elected by a voting group of 27 shareholders, only the holders of shares of that voting group are entitled to vote to 28 fill the vacancy if it is filled by the shareholders, and only the directors elected by 29 that voting group are entitled to fill the vacancy if it is filled by the directors.

30 C. A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date, by reason of a 31 resignation effective at a later date under R.S. 12:1-807(B) or otherwise, may be

1 filled before the vacancy occurs but the new director may not take office until the 2 vacancy occurs.

6 §1-811. Compensation of directors

7 Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board 8 of directors may fix the compensation of directors.

10 §1-812. Director proxies

11 A. A director may vote by proxy at a meeting of the board of directors or of 12 a committee of the board only if the articles of incorporation so provide.

13 B. A director may appoint as proxy only another director, and the 14 appointment may be made only by means of a signed writing that is delivered to the 15 person who is presiding at the meeting at which the proxy seeks to cast the absent 16 director's vote. The writing may contain instructions, general or special, concerning 17 the proxy's authority.

18 C. Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a separate 19 appointment of a proxy is required for each meeting, and the proxy's authority under 20 any appointment terminates at the conclusion of the meeting for which the 21 appointment was made.

22 D. The proxy shall cast the votes of the absent director consistently with any 23 instructions that the proxy receives from the absent director, but otherwise may cast 24 votes on behalf of the absent director in accordance with the proxy's own discretion.

25 Comments - 2014 Revision

26 (a) R.S. 12:1-812 is a new section, which is not part of the Model Act, added 27 to retain the "opt in" rule in prior law concerning proxy voting by directors. This 28 Section governs only those votes cast by a director in the capacity of director. A 29 director who is also a shareholder may vote by proxy as a shareholder in accordance 30 with R.S. 12:1-722, on shareholder proxies.

31 (b) This Section uses the term "proxy" in the same way it is used in R.S.
 32 12:1-722, to refer to the person who is authorized to exercise the appointing person's 33 voting power. Only another director may be appointed as proxy and the appointment

1 may be made only through a signed writing that is delivered to the person who is 2 presiding at the relevant meeting.

3 (c) Subsection C of this Section requires a separate proxy appointment for 4 each meeting at which a proxy is to vote for an absent director. The purpose of the 5 limited term is to discourage the routine use of proxies or the use of long-term 6 proxies as a means of granting one director what is effectively the voting power of 7 two or more directors.

8 (d) Subsection D of this Section gives to a director's proxy the same 9 discretion, and the same obligation to follow the appointing director's voting 10 instructions, as apply in the case of a shareholder's proxy.

11 SUBPART B. MEETINGS AND ACTION OF THE BOARD

12 §1-820. Meetings

13 A. The board of directors may hold regular or special meetings in or out of 14 this state.

15 B. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the 16 board of directors may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special 17 meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication 18 by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the 19 meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means is deemed to be present 20 in person at the meeting.

21 C. A meeting of the board of directors may be called by the board chair, by 22 the chief executive officer, regardless of the title used by the corporation to designate 23 that officer, or by a majority of the directors.

25 Comment - 2014 Revision

26 This Section adds a new Subsection C to the Model Act to retain the prior 27 law concerning the persons entitled to call a meeting of the board of directors, while 28 updating the titles used in prior law. As used in the new Subsection, the term "chief 29 executive officer" is used descriptively, not as a title, to refer to the highest ranking 30 executive officer in the corporation. In many corporations, that officer will indeed 31 be called the chief executive officer or CEO, but it is the nature of the office, not the 32 title, that is controlling for purposes of Subsection C of this Section. A corporation 33 that used more traditional titles for its officers, for example, might call this person 34 the "president."

35 §1-821. Action without meeting

36 A. Except to the extent that the articles of incorporation or bylaws require 37 that action by the board of directors be taken at a meeting, action required or

1 permitted by this Chapter to be taken by the board of directors may be taken without 2 a meeting if each director signs a consent describing the action to be taken and 3 delivers it to the corporation.

4 B. Action taken under this Section is the act of the board of directors when 5 one or more consents signed by all the directors are delivered to the corporation. The 6 consent may specify the time at which the action taken thereunder is to be effective.
 7 A director's consent may be withdrawn by a revocation signed by the director and 8 delivered to the corporation prior to delivery to the corporation of unrevoked written 9 consents signed by all the directors.

10 C. A consent signed under this Section has the effect of action taken at a 11 meeting of the board of directors and may be described as such in any document.

13 §1-822. Notice of meeting

14 A. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, regular 15 meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice of the date, time, 16 place, or purpose of the meeting.

17 B. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide for a longer or 18 shorter period, special meetings of the board of directors must be preceded by at least 19 forty-eight hour notice of the date, time, and place of the meeting. Except as 20 otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, the notice shall 21 describe the purpose or purposes of the special meeting.

22 Source: MBCA §8.22.

23 Comments - 2014 Revision

24 (a) This Sectopm modifies Model Act Subsection (b) to require notice of at 25 least forty-eight hours, rather than two days, for a special meeting, and to change the 26 default rule concerning a statement of purpose in the notice from one that requires 27 no such statement to one that does require a statement of purpose.

28 (b) This Section rejects the rule in Model Act Section 1.41(a) that a notice 29 required by this Section may be oral if reasonable under the circumstances.
 30 Accordingly, it also rejects the statement in the Model Act's Official Comment to 31 this Section that notice of a board meeting may be provided orally; all notices 32 required by this Section must be in "writing," as that term is defined in R.S.
 33 12:1-140. Absent a proper objection, however, a director's attendance at a meeting 34 of the board operates as a waiver of notice by the director under R.S. 12:1-823(B).
 35 So, as a practical matter, oral notice that results in actual attendance at a meeting by

1 all directors, something that is fairly easy to accomplish in many closely-held 2 companies, will be effective in satisfying the notice requirement -- not by 3 legally-sufficient notice, but by waiver.

4 §1-823. Waiver of notice

5 A. A director may waive any notice required by this Subpart, the articles of 6 incorporation, or bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. Except 7 as provided by Subsection B of this Section, the waiver must be in writing, signed 8 by the director entitled to the notice, and filed with the minutes or corporate records.

9 B. A director's attendance at or participation in a meeting waives any 10 required notice to the director of the meeting unless one of the following occurs:

11 (1) The director at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon arrival, 12 objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting.

13 (2) The objection is to the consideration of an item of business outside the 14 scope of the purposes stated in the notice of the meeting and the director objects to 15 the consideration of that item promptly after the item is first raised for consideration 16 at the meeting.

17 C. A director who objects in accordance with Subsection B of this Section, 18 but who then participates in the meeting or votes in favor of one or more actions at 19 the meeting, does not waive the objection except with respect to those actions at the 20 meeting that the director votes to approve.

22 Comments - 2014 Revision

23 (a) This Section modifies Model Act Subsection (b) to take account of the 24 modification made by this Part in Model Act Section 8.22(b). Subject to contrary 25 provisions in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, that Section requires a notice 26 of a special meeting of the board of directors to include a description of the purpose 27 or purposes of the meeting. As a result, a notice that meets the requirements of this 28 Chapter concerning the time and location of the meeting may be deficient in failing 29 to describe the purposes of the meeting. That kind of deficiency may not be evident 30 until after the meeting has begun, when an item falling outside the described 31 purposes is first raised for consideration. To deal with that problem, this Section 32 divides Model Act Subsection (b) into Paragraphs and adds a new Paragraph (B)(2) 33 of this Section to deal with purpose-related objections that may occur after the 34 normal deadline for an objection under Paragraph (B)(1) of this Section has already 35 passed. If an objection is made as provided under Paragraph (B)(1) of this Section, 36 then the objection is preserved without any need to resort to Paragraph (B)(2) of this 37 Section. But if the deadline in Paragraph (B)(1) of this Section is missed, and the 38 objection concerns the purposes described in the notice, Paragraph (B)(2) of this

1 Section provides a second, more liberal deadline for the objection: promptly after the 2 objectionable item is first raised at the meeting for consideration.

3 (b) Model Act Subsection (b) provides that a director who is present at a 4 meeting waives any objection concerning notice if the director votes for or assents 5 to any action taken at the meeting after the director's initial objection. That approach 6 treats an objection to inadequate notice as an always-universal objection, unrelated 7 to the nature of the particular actions that actually may be causing the director to 8 object. In many cases, a director may be perfectly willing to cooperate with other 9 directors in approving obviously beneficial or appropriate agenda items, even 10 without the required notice, while still wishing to preserve his notice-related 11 objection concerning the items that the director considers more difficult or 12 controversial. The Model Act rule fails to acknowledge the possibility of that kind 13 of legitimate, but limited, objection. Hence, the rule may cause a director who does 14 not know the consequences of cooperating in routine business items to waive a 15 legitimate objection inadvertently, and require a director who does know about the 16 rule to obstruct action even on routine items that no one objects to taking up. To 17 avoid results of that kind, this Section reverses the Model Act rule. Under new 18 Subsection C of this Section, a director's participation in a meeting after an earlier 19 objection of inadequate notice does not waive the objection except with respect to 20 those actions at the meeting that the director votes to approve.

21 §1-824. Quorum and voting

22 A. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require a greater number 23 or unless otherwise specifically provided in this Chapter, a quorum of a board of 24 directors consists of a majority of the number of directors determined in accordance 25 with R.S. 12:1-803.

26 B. The articles of incorporation or bylaws may authorize a quorum of a 27 board of directors to consist of no fewer than one-third of the number of directors 28 determined in accordance with R.S. 12:1-803.

29 C.(1) If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of the 30 required majority of directors is the act of the board of directors. The required 31 majority of directors is a majority of the directors present, or the number of directors 32 whose votes are required by the articles of incorporation or bylaws for the board to 33 take the relevant action, whichever number is greater.

34 (2) If a quorum is present when a meeting is convened, but the quorum is 35 lost through the withdrawal from the meeting of one or more directors, the 36 affirmative vote of the required majority of directors is the act of the board of 37 directors provided that the number of affirmative votes is not fewer than the number 38 that would have been required had the quorum not been lost.

1 D. A director who is present at a meeting of the board of directors or a 2 committee of the board of directors when corporate action is taken is deemed to have 3 assented to the action taken unless one of the following occurs:

4 (1) The director objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon 5 arrival, to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting.

6 (2) The dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes 7 of the meeting.

8 (3) The director delivers written notice of the director's dissent or abstention 9 to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the corporation 10 immediately after adjournment of the meeting. The right of dissent or abstention is 11 not available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

13 Comments - 2014 Revision

14 (a) This Section simplifies Model Act Subsection (a) by deleting its 15 references to a variable range size board, and by defining a quorum by reference to 16 the number of directors established under R.S. 12:1-803. A similar change was made 17 in Model Act Subsection (b), linking it to R.S. 12:1-803 rather than to the formerly 18 more complex rules in Subsection (a).

19 (b) This Section modifies Model Act Subsection (c) by introducing a new 20 defined term, "required majority of directors" to facilitate the statement of the 21 minimum number of affirmative votes required to establish an act of the board of 22 directors. Ordinarily, assuming that the quorum requirement is satisfied, the required 23 majority of directors is a majority of the directors present at the meeting. But that 24 figure may be increased in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, and that greater 25 number controls over the statutory minimum.

26 (c) Subsection (c) also is modified to retain the rule in prior law that a board 27 of directors may in some cases continue to conduct business at a meeting that has 28 lost its initial quorum. The rule is designed to preclude minority directors from 29 blocking action by the majority through a withdrawal from the meeting that causes 30 the quorum to be lost. But, at the same time, the rule respects the basic purpose of 31 the quorum and majority approval rules; it applies only when a meeting was 32 convened with a quorum, and it recognizes as acts of the board only those acts that 33 are supported by the number of directors that would have been required to approve 34 the action had the quorum not been lost.

35 (d) As an example of the operation of the anti-quorum-loss rule in 36 Subsection C of this Section, consider a corporation with a nine-member board of 37 directors. Under the default statutory rules, the presence of five of those directors 38 at a meeting would be required to establish a quorum, and the affirmative votes of 39 a majority of the five directors present, three, would required to establish an act of 40 the board. In the absence of the anti-quorum-loss rule in modified Subsection C of 41 this Section, any one director present at a meeting with a quorum of five could block 42 action by the remaining eighty percent of the directors present simply by walking out 43 of the meeting; that would cause the quorum to be lost by reducing the number

1 directors present from five to four. But under the rule in modified Subsection C of 2 this Section, the affirmative votes of at least a majority of the remaining four 3 directors would remain sufficient to constitute an act of the board of directors 4 because a majority of four is three, and the majority vote required at a meeting with 5 a minimal quorum of five, i.e., a meeting at which a quorum had not been lost, would 6 also be three. If, on the other hand, two directors withdrew from the meeting, the 7 affirmative vote of a bare majority of the three directors still present would not 8 constitute an act of the board of directors because two votes is not a majority of the 9 minimal quorum of five. If only three directors remained at the meeting, they could 10 take action only by unanimous vote. If fewer than three remained, no further action 11 could be taken at the meeting.

12 §1-825. Committees

13 A. Unless this Chapter, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws provide 14 otherwise, the board of directors may create one or more committees and appoint one 15 or more members of the board of directors to serve on any such committee. If the 16 board of directors appoints a person who is not a director, that person may serve only 17 in an advisory capacity and shall not be a member of the committee for purposes of 18 any reference by this Chapter to a committee or to one or more members of a 19 committee.

20 B. Unless this Chapter otherwise provides, the creation of a committee and 21 appointment of members to it must be approved by the greater of the following:

22 (1) A majority of all the directors in office when the action is taken.

23 (2) The number of directors required by the articles of incorporation or 24 bylaws to take action under R.S. 12:1-824.

25 C. R.S. 12:1-820 through 1-824 apply both to committees of the board and 26 to their members.

27 D. To the extent specified by the board of directors or in the articles of 28 incorporation or bylaws, each committee may exercise the powers of the board of 29 directors under R.S. 12:1-801.

30 E. A committee may not do any of the following:

31 (1) Authorize or approve distributions, except according to a formula or 32 method, or within limits, prescribed by the board of directors.

33 (2) Approve or propose to shareholders action that this Chapter requires be 34 approved by shareholders.

1 (3) Fill vacancies on the board of directors or, subject to Subsection G of this 2 Section, on any of its committees.

3 (4) Adopt, amend, or repeal bylaws.

4 F. The creation of, delegation of authority to, or action by a committee does 5 not alone constitute compliance by a director with the standards of conduct described 6 in R.S. 12:1-830.

7 G. The board of directors may appoint one or more directors as alternate 8 members of any committee to replace any absent or disqualified member during the 9 member's absence or disqualification. Unless the articles of incorporation or the 10 bylaws or the resolution creating the committee provide otherwise, in the event of 11 the absence or disqualification of a member of a committee, the member or members 12 present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, unanimously, may appoint 13 another director to act in place of the absent or disqualified member.

15 Comment - 2014 Revision

16 This Section adds a second sentence to Model Act Subsection (a) to address 17 the question whether the membership of a committee of the board of directors may 18 include persons who are not members of the board itself. In some cases, the board 19 of directors may wish to appoint one or more non-director staff members who have 20 knowledge or experience that would be helpful to the committee's work. The added 21 sentence recognizes that possibility, but permits the non-director appointees to the 22 committee to act only in an advisory capacity. Appointees of that kind are not 23 considered members of the committee for purposes of any of the statutory rules 24 concerning committees or members of committees. So, for example, the rules 25 concerning the required quorum and vote for committee action would apply only 26 with respect to the directors who were members of the committee. If a committee 27 consisted of three directors and five non-director staff members, a quorum of the 28 committee could be established only if a majority of the three directors were present 29 at a meeting, and only the vote of a majority of the directors present at the committee 30 meeting would constitute the act of the committee.

31 §1-826. Submission of matters for shareholder vote

32 A corporation may agree to submit a matter to a vote of its shareholders even 33 if, after approving the matter, the board of directors determines it no longer 34 recommends the matter.

1 SUBPART C. DIRECTORS2 §1-830. Standards of conduct for directors

3 A. Each member of the board of directors, when discharging the duties of a 4 director, shall act in good faith and in a manner the director reasonably believes to 5 be in the best interests of the corporation.

6 B. The members of the board of directors or a committee of the board, when 7 becoming informed in connection with their decision-making function or devoting 8 attention to their oversight function, shall discharge their duties with the care that a 9 person in a like position would reasonably believe appropriate under similar 10 circumstances.

11 C. In discharging board or committee duties a director shall disclose, or 12 cause to be disclosed, to the other board or committee members information not 13 already known by them but known by the director to be material to the discharge of 14 their decision-making or oversight functions, except that disclosure is not required 15 to the extent that the director reasonably believes that doing so would violate a duty 16 imposed under law, a legally enforceable obligation of confidentiality, or a 17 professional ethics rule.

18 D. In discharging board or committee duties a director who does not have 19 knowledge that makes reliance unwarranted is entitled to rely on the performance by 20 any of the persons specified in Paragraph (F)(1) or Paragraph (F)(3) of this Section 21 to whom the board may have delegated, formally or informally by course of conduct, 22 the authority or duty to perform one or more of the board's functions that are 23 delegable under applicable law.

24 E. In discharging board or committee duties a director who does not have 25 knowledge that makes reliance unwarranted is entitled to rely on information, 26 opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial 27 data, prepared or presented by any of the persons specified in Subsection F of this 28 Section.

29 F. A director is entitled to rely, in accordance with Subsection D or E of this 30 Section, on any of the following:

1 (1) One or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director 2 reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the functions performed or the 3 information, opinions, reports, or statements provided.

4 (2) Legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons retained by the 5 corporation as to matters involving skills or expertise the director reasonably 6 believes are matters within the particular person's professional or expert competence 7 or as to which the particular person merits confidence.

8 (3) A committee of the board of directors of which the director is not a 9 member if the director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence.

11 §1-831. Standards of liability for directors

12 A. A director shall not be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for any 13 decision to take or not to take action, or any failure to take any action, as a director, 14 unless the party asserting liability in a proceeding establishes both of the following:

15 (1) No defense interposed by the director based on R.S. 12:1-832 or the 16 protection afforded by R.S. 12:1-861, for action taken in compliance with R.S.
 17 12:1-862 or R.S. 12:1-863, or the protection afforded by R.S. 12:1-870, precludes 18 liability.

19 (2) The challenged conduct consisted or was the result of one of the 20 following:

21 (a) Action not in good faith.

22 (b) A decision that the director did not reasonably believe to be in the best 23 interests of the corporation, or as to which the director was not informed to an extent 24 the director reasonably believed appropriate in the circumstances.

25 (c) A lack of objectivity due to the director's familial, financial, or business 26 relationship with, or a lack of independence due to the director's domination or 27 control by, another person having a material interest in the challenged conduct, 28 which relationship or which domination or control could reasonably be expected to 29 have affected the director's judgment respecting the challenged conduct in a manner 30 adverse to the corporation, and after a reasonable expectation to such effect has been

1 established, the director shall not have established that the challenged conduct was 2 reasonably believed by the director to be in the best interests of the corporation.

3 (d) A sustained failure of the director to devote attention to ongoing 4 oversight of the business and affairs of the corporation, or a failure to devote timely 5 attention, by making, or causing to be made, appropriate inquiry, when particular 6 facts and circumstances of significant concern materialize that would alert a 7 reasonably attentive director to the need therefore.

8 (e) Receipt of a financial benefit to which the director was not entitled or any 9 other breach of the director's duties to deal fairly with the corporation and its 10 shareholders that is actionable under applicable law.

11 B.(1) The party seeking to hold the director liable for money damages, shall 12 also have the burden of establishing both of the following:

13 (a) Harm to the corporation or its shareholders has been suffered.

14 (b) The harm suffered was proximately caused by the director's challenged 15 conduct.

16 (2) The party seeking to hold the director liable for other money payment 17 under a legal remedy, such as compensation for the unauthorized use of corporate 18 assets, shall also have whatever persuasion burden may be called for to establish that 19 the payment sought is appropriate in the circumstances.

20 (3) The party seeking to hold the director liable for other money payment 21 under an equitable remedy, such as profit recovery by or disgorgement to the 22 corporation, shall also have whatever persuasion burden may be called for to 23 establish that the equitable remedy sought is appropriate in the circumstances.

24 C. Nothing contained in this Section shall be construed to do any of the 25 following:

26 (1) In any instance where fairness is at issue, such as consideration of the 27 fairness of a transaction to the corporation under R.S. 12:1-861(B)(3), alter the 28 burden of proving the fact or lack of fairness otherwise applicable.

2

(a) Paragraph 2.04(b)(4) of the Model Act authorizes the exculpation of directors against liability to the corporation or its shareholders through an optional provision in a corporation's articles of incorporation. Because articles that are prepared with the benefit of legal advice nearly always provide exculpation "to the fullest extent allowed by law," this Section reflects the normal preference for exculpation by making it the default rule. To prevent unfair surprise, R.S. 12:1-202(A)(5) requires the articles of incorporation to state whether the corporation accepts, rejects or limits the default rule under this Section.

(b) If the articles of incorporation contain a statement to the effect that the protection against liability provided by Subsection A of this Section is rejected, the liability of a director or officer is not affected by Subsection A of this Section. If the articles of incorporation contain a limitation on the protection against liability provided by Subsection A of this Section, the stated limitation applies even if the articles of incorporation do not otherwise say that they limit the protection. If the articles of incorporation contain a statement to the effect that they limit the protection against liability provided by Subsection A of this Section, but fail to state the nature of the limitation, the protection against liability provided by Subsection A of this Section applies without limitation.

(c) The limitations on exculpation provided by this Section are the same as those provided by Model Act Section 2.02(b)(4), with one exception. This Section prohibits the exculpation of a director from liability for damages caused by the director's breaching the duty of loyalty owed by the director to the corporation or its shareholders. The comparable Model Act provision is narrower, prohibiting exculpation only for the amount of an improper financial benefit received by a director. The broader exception was adopted in Louisiana to avoid the exculpation of a director who caused more harm to the corporation through disloyalty than the director received in the form of a personal financial benefit. Under the broader Louisiana exception, for example, a director who received a kickback of only a portion of a corporate overpayment for supplies would be at risk for the entire amount of the overpayment, not merely the amount of the kickback.

(d) This Section does not provide or permit the exculpation of a director or officer from liability for disloyalty. But it does provide protection against liability for carelessness. Delaware courts have suggested that some egregious forms of carelessness may be tantamount to disloyalty, and so be nonexculpable under a "breach of loyalty" exception like the one in this Section. See, e.g., Stone v. Ritter, 911 A.2d 362 (Del. 2006). Subsection C of this Section rejects that view. No level of carelessness may be treated as a breach of the duty of loyalty for purposes of the default form of exculpation provided by this Section. If shareholders wish to adopt the Delaware approach, or any other limitation on the exculpation provided by this Section, they may do so by adding appropriate language to the articles of incorporation.

A. A director who votes for or assents to a distribution in excess of what may be authorized and made pursuant to R.S. 12:1-640(A) or 1-1409(A) is personally

45

46 liable to the corporation for the amount of the distribution that exceeds what could have been distributed without violating R.S. 12:1-640(A) or 1-1409(A) if the party

47

1 asserting liability establishes that when taking the action the director did not comply
 2 with R.S. 12:1-830.

3 B. A director held liable under Subsection A of this Section for an unlawful 4 distribution is entitled to both of the following:

5 (1) Contribution from every other director who could be held liable under 6 Subsection A of this Section for the unlawful distribution.

7 (2) Indemnity from each shareholder, for the pro-rata portion of the amount 8 of the unlawful distribution the shareholder received.

9 C.(1) A proceeding to enforce the liability of a director under Subsection A 10 of this Section is barred unless it is commenced within two years after of one of the 11 following:

12 (a) The date on which the effect of the distribution was measured under 13 R.S.12:1-640(E) or (G).

14 (b) The date as of which the violation of R.S. 12:1-640(A) occurred as the 15 consequence of disregard of a restriction in the articles of incorporation.

16 (c) The date on which the distribution of assets to shareholders under R.S.
 17 12:1-1409(A) was made.

18 (2) A proceeding to enforce contribution or indemnity under Subsection B 19 of this Section is barred unless it is commenced within one year after the liability of 20 the claimant has been finally adjudicated under Subsection A of this Section.

21 D. The time limits provided in Subsection C of this Section are preemptive.

23 Comments - 2014 Revision

24 (a) Model Act Subsection (b)(2) is modified in this Section to make it 25 consistent with the rule in R.S. 12:1-622(C), also added, that makes a shareholder 26 liable without fault to return the amount of an unlawful distribution received by the 27 shareholder.

28 (b) The Model Act reference to recoupment was replaced in this Section by 29 a reference to indemnity, to retain the prior law on the subject.

30 (c) This Section adds a new Subsection D to the Model Act to make it clear 31 that the time periods provided in Subsection C of this Section are preemptive.

SUBPART D. OFFICERS

§1-840. Officers

A. A corporation shall have a secretary and such other officers as described in its bylaws or appointed by the board of directors in a manner not inconsistent with any bylaws.

B. The board of directors may elect individuals to fill one or more offices of the corporation. An officer may appoint one or more officers if authorized by the bylaws or the board of directors.

C. The secretary shall have the authority and responsibility for preparing the minutes of the directors' and shareholders' meetings and for maintaining and authenticating the records of the corporation required to be kept under R.S. 12:1-1601(A) and 1-1601(E).

D. The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in a corporation.

Comments - 2014 Version

(a) The Model Act does not require the appointment of an officer called the "secretary," but it does require the corporation to appoint an officer who is given a secretary's responsibilities. See Model Act Section 8.40(c). The Model Act also uses the term "secretary" as a defined term that means the person who is given a secretary's usual recordkeeping responsibilities under Section 7.40(c) (see Model Act Section 1.40(20)). It also names the secretary in several places as the appropriate recipient on the corporation's behalf of some legally-relevant notification. See, e.g., Sections 7.03 (shareholder demand for shareholder meeting), 7.04 (delivery of shareholder written consents), 8.07 (resignation of a director), and 8.63 (notice of a director's conflicting interest).

(b) This Section requires a corporation to appoint an officer with the title, "secretary," and then gives to that named officer the responsibility for preparing the corporation's minutes and for maintaining and authenticating the corporation's records as provided in R.S. 12:1-840(C). The required use of the usual "secretary" terminology is designed to facilitate the efforts of shareholders and third parties, who may be unaware of a particular corporation's preferences concerning officer titles, to contact the person who has the authority provided by this Section to the corporation's secretary. The person designated as secretary may hold other offices and titles in addition to that of secretary.

(c) The reference to "the" bylaws in Subsection A of this Section changes to "any" bylaws, to reflect the optional nature of bylaws under this Chapter. Nevertheless, if the corporation has adopted bylaws concerning the appointment of officers, the board of directors must comply with those bylaws. Although the board of directors ordinarily has the power to adopt, amend and repeal bylaws, the shareholders of the corporation do have the power under R.S. 12:1-1020(B) to adopt

1 a bylaw that may not be amended or repealed by the board of directors. Moreover, 2 even if the board of directors does have the power to amend or repeal a relevant 3 bylaw, the board must comply with the bylaw until the amendment or repeal takes 4 effect. The board is not entitled to ignore a bylaw in lieu of amending or repealing 5 it.

6 §1-841. Functions of officers

7 In addition to the secretary's authority under R.S. 12:1-840, each officer has 8 the authority and shall perform the functions set forth in the bylaws or, to the extent 9 consistent with any bylaws, the authority and functions prescribed by the board of 10 directors or by direction of an officer authorized by the board of directors to 11 prescribe the authority and functions of other officers.

13 Comment - 2014 Revision

14 This Section modifies the Model Act Section in three respects: (1) it adds a 15 reference to the statutory authority conferred by R.S. 12:1-840 on the corporation's 16 secretary; (2) it requires the conferral of authority by the board of directors or by an 17 appropriate officer to be consistent with "any" bylaws (rather than "the" bylaws), to 18 reflect the optional nature of bylaws under this Chapter; and (3) it uses the phrase 19 "authority and functions" consistently throughout the provision to describe the 20 matters that may be addressed in the bylaws or by the board of directors or an 21 appropriate officer.

22 §1-842. Standards of conduct for officers

23 A. An officer, when performing in such capacity, has the duty to act in all 24 of the following manners:

25 (1) In good faith.

26 (2) With the care that a person in a like position would reasonably exercise 27 under similar circumstances.

28 (3) In a manner the officer reasonably believes to be in the best interests of 29 the corporation.

30 B. [Reserved.]

31 C. In discharging his or her duties, an officer who does not have knowledge 32 that makes reliance unwarranted is entitled to rely on either of the following:

33 (1) The performance of properly delegated responsibilities by one or more 34 employees of the corporation whom the officer reasonably believes to be reliable and 35 competent in performing the responsibilities delegated.

1 (2) Information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial 2 statements and other financial data, prepared or presented by one or more employees 3 of the corporation whom the officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent 4 in the matters presented or by legal counsel, public accountants, or other persons 5 retained by the corporation as to matters involving skills or expertise the officer 6 reasonably believes are matters within the particular person's professional or expert 7 competence or as to which the particular person merits confidence.

8 D. An officer shall not be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for any 9 decision to take or not to take action, or any failure to take any action, as an officer, 10 if the duties of the office are performed in compliance with this Section. Whether an 11 officer who does not comply with this Section shall have liability will depend in such 12 instance on applicable law, including those principles of R.S. 12:1-831 that have 13 relevance.

15 Comment - 2014 Revision

16 Model Act Subsection (b) states that an officer's duty includes the obligation 17 to inform the officer's superiors or other appropriate persons of certain information, 18 and of any actual or probable material violation of law or breach of duty to the 19 corporation that the officer believes has occurred or is likely to occur. This Section 20 deletes Model Act Subsection (b) as being ill-suited to many of the 21 informally-managed, closely-held corporations that are common in Louisiana 22 corporate practice. The deletion of Subsection (b) does not mean that an officer 23 never owes the duties described in Subsection (b), but rather that the extent of an 24 officer's duty to inform others of information in the officer's possession should be 25 judged based on the standards stated in Subsection A of this Section.

26 §1-843. Resignation and removal of officers

27 A. An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the corporation.
 28 A resignation is effective when the notice is effective unless the notice specifies a 29 later effective time. If a resignation is made effective at a later time and the board or 30 the appointing officer accepts the future effective time, the board or the appointing 31 officer may fill the pending vacancy before the effective time if the board or the 32 appointing officer provides that the successor does not take office until the effective 33 time.

1 B. An officer may be removed at any time with or without cause by any of 2 the following:

3 (1) The board of directors.

4 (2) The appointing officer, unless the bylaws or the board of directors 5 provide otherwise.

6 (3) Any other officer if authorized by the bylaws or the board of directors.

7 C. In this Section, "appointing officer" means the officer, including any 8 successor to that officer, who appointed the officer resigning or being removed.

9 Source: MBCA §8.43.

10 §1-844. Contract rights of officers

11 A. The appointment of an officer does not itself create contract rights.

12 B. An officer's removal does not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, 13 with the corporation. An officer's resignation does not affect the corporation's 14 contract rights, if any, with the officer.

16 SUBPART E. INDEMNIFICATION AND ADVANCE FOR EXPENSES

17 §1-850. Subpart definitions

18 In this Subpart, the following meanings shall apply:

19 (1) "Corporation" includes any domestic or foreign predecessor entity of a 20 corporation in a merger.

21 (2) "Director" or "officer" means an individual who is or was a director or 22 officer, respectively, of a corporation or who, while a director or officer of the 23 corporation, is or was serving at the corporation's request as a director, officer, 24 manager, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another entity or employee benefit 25 plan. A director or officer is considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at 26 the corporation's request if the individual's duties to the corporation also impose 27 duties on, or otherwise involve services by, the individual to the plan or to 28 participants in or beneficiaries of the plan. "Director" or "officer" includes, unless 29 the context requires otherwise, the estate or personal representative of a director or 30 officer.

1 (3) "Liability" means the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, 2 fine, including an excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan, or 3 reasonable expenses incurred with respect to a proceeding.

4 (4) "Official capacity" means, when used with respect to a director, the 5 office of director in a corporation. "Official capacity" means, when used with 6 respect to an officer, as contemplated in R.S. 12: 1-856, the office in a corporation 7 held by the officer. "Official capacity" does not include service for any other 8 domestic or foreign corporation or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee 9 benefit plan, or other entity.

10 (5) "Party" means an individual who was, is, or is threatened to be made, a 11 defendant or respondent in a proceeding.

12 (6) "Proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, 13 or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, arbitrative, or investigative 14 and whether formal or informal.

15 Source: MBCA §8.50.

16 §1-851. Permissible indemnification

17 A. Except as otherwise provided in this Section, a corporation may 18 indemnify an individual who is a party to a proceeding because the individual is a 19 director against liability incurred in the proceeding if either condition exists:

20 (1)(a) The director conducted himself or herself in good faith and reasonably 21 believed either of the following:

22 (i) In the case of conduct in an official capacity, that his or her conduct was 23 in the best interests of the corporation.

24 (ii) In all other cases, that the director's conduct was at least not opposed to 25 the best interests of the corporation.

26 (b) In the case of any criminal proceeding, the director had no reasonable 27 cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.

28 (2) The director engaged in conduct for which broader indemnification has 29 been made permissible or obligatory under a provision of the articles of 1 incorporation, as authorized by R.S. 12:1-202(B)(5), for which liability has been 2 eliminated under R.S. 12:1-832.

3 B. A director's conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan for a 4 purpose the director reasonably believed to be in the interests of the participants in, 5 and the beneficiaries of, the plan is conduct that satisfies the requirement of Item 6 (A)(1)(a)(ii) of this Section.

7 C. The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or 8 conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, is not, of itself, 9 determinative that the director did not meet the relevant standard of conduct 10 described in this Section.

11 D. Unless ordered by a court under R.S. 12:1-854(A)(3), a corporation may 12 not indemnify a director in connection with either of the following:

13 (1) A proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, except for expenses 14 incurred in connection with the proceeding if it is determined that the director has 15 met the relevant standard of conduct under Subsection A of this Section.

16 (2) Any proceeding with respect to conduct for which the director was 17 adjudged liable on the basis of receiving a financial benefit to which he or she was 18 not entitled, whether or not involving action in the director's official capacity.

20 Comment - 2014 Revision

21 The Model Act language in Paragraph (A)(2) of this Section was modified 22 to add a reference to the exculpation provided by R.S. 12:1-832. Under this Section, 23 a corporation may indemnify a director for any liability that arises from conduct for 24 which the director is exculpated under R.S. 12:1-832. Of course, if the director is 25 exculpated then no "liability" in the usual sense of that term should be imposed on 26 the director. But the term "liability" as defined for indemnity purposes in R.S.
 27 12:1-850(3) includes litigation expenses. The exculpable conduct language is 28 included in this provision to make it clear that litigation expenses of that kind are 29 subject to permissive indemnification under this Section.

30 §1-852. Mandatory indemnification

31 A corporation shall indemnify a director who was wholly successful, on the 32 merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director was a 33 party because he or she was a director of the corporation against expenses incurred 34 by the director in connection with the proceeding.

1 Comment - 2014 Revision

2 This Chapter, like the Model Act, covers the indemnification of directors 3 separately from the indemnification of officers because a decision by directors 4 concerning their own indemnification poses conflicting interest problems that are not 5 present in the case of non-director officers. This Section provides for mandatory 6 indemnification only of directors simply because it is one of the director-indemnity 7 provisions. However, officers actually are covered by this Section through one of 8 the officer-indemnity provisions, R.S. 12:1-856(C), which provides that an officer 9 is entitled, among other things, to mandatory indemnification to the same extent as 10 a director.

11 §1-853. Advance for expenses

12 A. A corporation may, before final disposition of a proceeding, advance 13 funds to pay for or reimburse expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding 14 by an individual who is a party to the proceeding because that individual is a member 15 of the board of directors if the director delivers to the corporation both of the 16 following:

17 (1) A written affirmation of the director's good faith belief that the relevant 18 standard of conduct described in R.S. 12:1-851 has been met by the director or that 19 the proceeding involves conduct for which liability has been eliminated under R.S.
 20 12: 1-832.

21 (2) A written undertaking of the director to repay any funds advanced if the 22 director is not entitled to mandatory indemnification under R.S. 12:1-852 and it is 23 ultimately determined under R.S. 12:1-854 or 1-855 that the director has not met the 24 relevant standard of conduct described in R.S. 12:1-851.

25 B. The undertaking required by Paragraph (A)(2) of this Section must be an 26 unlimited general obligation of the director but need not be secured and may be 27 accepted without reference to the financial ability of the director to make repayment.

28 C. Authorizations under this Section shall be made by one of the following:

29 (1) By the board of directors in either of the following manners:

30 (a) If there are two or more qualified directors, by a majority vote of all the 31 qualified directors, a majority of whom shall for such purpose constitute a quorum, 32 or by a majority of the members of a committee of two or more qualified directors 33 appointed by such a vote.

(b) If there are fewer than two qualified directors, by the vote necessary for action by the board in accordance with R.S. 12:1-824(C), in which authorization directors who are not qualified directors may participate.

(2) By the shareholders, except that shares owned by or voted under the control of a director who at the time is not a qualified director may not be voted on the authorization.

Comment - 2014 Revision

The Model Act language in Paragraph (A)(1) of this Section was modified to substitute the reference to R.S. 12:1-832 for the Model Act's optional exculpatory provision.

§1-854. Court-ordered indemnification and advance for expenses

A. A director who is a party to a proceeding because he or she is a director may petition the court conducting the proceeding for indemnification or an advance for expenses or, if the indemnification or advance for expenses is beyond the scope of the proceeding or of the jurisdiction of the court or other forum for the proceeding, may petition another court of competent jurisdiction. After ordering any notice it considers necessary, the court shall hear the petition by summary proceeding and shall order one of the following:

(1) Indemnification if the court determines that the director is entitled to mandatory indemnification under R.S. 12:1-852.

(2) Indemnification or advance for expenses if the court determines that the director is entitled to indemnification or advance for expenses pursuant to a provision authorized by R.S. 12:1-858(A).

(3) Indemnification or advance for expenses if the court determines, in view of all the relevant circumstances, that it is fair and reasonable to do either of the following:

(a) Indemnify the director.

(b) Advance expenses to the director, even if he or she has not met the relevant standard of conduct set forth in R.S. 12:1-851(A), failed to comply with R.S. 12:1-853 or was adjudged liable in a proceeding referred to in R.S. 12:1-851(D)(1)

1 or (D)(2), but if the director was adjudged so liable indemnification shall be limited 2 to expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

3 B. If the court determines that the director is entitled to indemnification 4 under Paragraph (A)(1) of this Section or to indemnification or advance for expenses 5 under Paragraph (A)(2) of this Section, it shall also order the corporation to pay the 6 director's expenses incurred in connection with obtaining court-ordered 7 indemnification or advance for expenses. If the court determines that the director is 8 entitled to indemnification or advance for expenses under Paragraph (A)(3) of this 9 Section, it may also order the corporation to pay the director's expenses to obtain 10 court-ordered indemnification or advance for expenses.

11 Source: MBCA §8.54.

12 Comments - 2014 Revision

13 (a) Model Act Subsection (a) permits a director to make application for 14 indemnification or an advance of expenses either to the court conducting the 15 proceeding in which the relevant expenses are incurred or to another court of 16 competent jurisdiction. This Section uses the Louisiana term "petition" in place of 17 the Model Act term "application" and specifies that the petition is to be heard by 18 summary proceeding.

19 (b) This Section also modifies Model Act Subsection (a) to allow resort to 20 another court only if the court or other forum that is conducting the proceeding in 21 which the relevant expenses are being incurred cannot itself consider the petition.

22 §1-855. Determination and authorization of indemnification

23 A. A corporation may not indemnify a director under R.S. 12:1-851 unless 24 authorized for a specific proceeding after a determination has been made that 25 indemnification is permissible because the director has met the relevant standard of 26 conduct set forth in R.S. 12:1-851.

27 B. The determination shall be made by one of the following:

28 (1) If there are two or more qualified directors, by the board of directors by 29 a majority vote of all the qualified directors, a majority of whom shall for such 30 purpose constitute a quorum, or by a majority of the members of a committee of two 31 or more qualified directors appointed by such a vote.

32 (2) By special legal counsel selected using either of the following means:

33 (a) Selected in the manner prescribed in Paragraph (B)(1) of this Section.

1 (b) If there are fewer than two qualified directors, selected by the board of 2 directors, in which selection directors who are not qualified directors may 3 participate.

4 (3) By the shareholders, except that shares owned by or voted under the 5 control of a director who at the time is not a qualified director may not be voted on 6 the determination.

7 C. Authorization of indemnification shall be made in the same manner as the 8 determination that indemnification is permissible except that if there are fewer than 9 two qualified directors, or if the determination is made by special legal counsel, 10 authorization of indemnification shall be made by those entitled to select special 11 legal counsel under Subparagraph (B)(2)(b) of this Section.

13 §1-856. Indemnification of officers

14 A. A corporation may indemnify and advance expenses under this Subpart 15 to an officer of the corporation who is a party to a proceeding because he or she is 16 an officer of the corporation to the same extent as a director and, if he or she is an 17 officer but not a director, to such further extent as may be provided by the articles 18 of incorporation, the bylaws, a resolution of the board of directors, or contract except 19 for either of the following:

20 (1) Liability in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the 21 corporation other than for expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

22 (2) Liability arising out of conduct that constitutes any of the following:

23 (a) A breach of the officer's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its 25 (b) An intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or the shareholders.

26 (c) An intentional violation of criminal law.

27 B. [Reserved.]

1 an advance for expenses, in each case to the same extent to which a director may be 2 entitled to indemnification or advance for expenses under those provisions.

4 Comments - 2014 Revision

5 (a) Model Act Item (a)(2)(B)(I) was changed to make it consistent with the 6 change made to the source language for the exculpation of directors from liability 7 under R.S. 12:1-832. This Section does not permit either the exculpation from 8 liability or the indemnification of an officer or director for conduct that violates the 9 officer or director's duty of loyalty to the corporation.

10 (b) Model Act Subsection (b) was omitted from this Section. The omitted 11 Subsection would have permitted officers who were also directors to be indemnified 12 under the more liberal rules applicable to officers if the conduct that was the subject 13 of the litigation had been carried out in the indemnitee's capacity as an officer rather 14 than as a director. But, as the comments to the Model Act indicate, the purpose of 15 the stricter rules in the indemnification of directors is to minimize the effects of the 16 conflicts of interests faced by directors in voting for their own or a fellow board 17 member's indemnification. Because those conflicts of interest arise from the 18 indemnitee's status as a director, and not from the nature of the conduct that is being 19 challenged in the litigation, this Section rejects the Model Act's approval of more 20 liberal indemnity rules in the case of officer-capacity conduct by directors.

21 (c) This Section eliminates a phrase in Model Act Subsection (c) which 22 could have been interpreted to limit the effects of the Subsection to an officer "who 23 [was] not a director." As modified, Subsection B of this Section extends the 24 described indemnity and court-ordered payment rights to officers without regard to 25 whether they are also directors.

26 §1-857. Insurance

27 A corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an 28 individual who is a director or officer of the corporation, or who, while a director or 29 officer of the corporation, serves at the corporation's request as a director, officer, 30 partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another domestic or foreign corporation, 31 partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other entity, against 32 liability asserted against or incurred by the individual in that capacity or arising from 33 his or her status as a director or officer, whether or not the individual could be 34 protected against the same liability under R.S. 12:1-832 and whether or not the 35 corporation would have power to indemnify or advance expenses to the individual 36 against the same liability under this Subpart.

37 Source: MBCA §8.57.

1 Comments - 2014 Revision

2 (a) A reference to R.S. 12:1-832 was added to the Model Act language to 3 permit the corporation to purchase insurance against liability even if that liability 4 could not be the subject of exculpation under R.S. 12:1-832. The rationale for 5 allowing a corporation to purchase insurance to cover liability that it could not 6 exculpate is the same as that for insuring against a liability that could not 7 indemnified. The insurer will provide an outside source of funds to cover the 8 liability, and will have the incentive to exclude from coverage the types of 9 non-accidental risks of loss that pose serious risks of moral hazard.

10 (b) Under former R.S. 12:83(F), a corporation could "self insure" liability 11 that could not be indemnified. This Section has repealed that rule. Corporations may 12 still purchase insurance from true insurance companies, licensed and regulated by 13 the appropriate jurisdictions, even if they are affiliated companies. And 14 self-insurance may still be used to fund a corporation's indemnity and 15 advance-of-expense payments. But self-insurance, not purchased from a regulated 16 insurance company, may not be used to avoid the limitations imposed by this Subpart 17 on indemnification and exculpation.

18 §1-858. Variation by corporate action; application of Subpart

19 A. A corporation may, by a provision in its articles of incorporation or 20 bylaws or in a resolution adopted or a contract approved by its board of directors or 21 shareholders, obligate itself in advance of the act or omission giving rise to a 22 proceeding to provide indemnification in accordance with R.S. 12:1-851 or advance 23 funds to pay for or reimburse expenses in accordance with R.S. 12:1-853. Any such 24 obligatory provision shall be deemed to satisfy the requirements for authorization 25 referred to in R.S. 12:1-853(C) and 1-855(C). Any such provision that obligates the 26 corporation to provide indemnification to the fullest extent permitted by law shall be 27 deemed to obligate the corporation to advance funds to pay for or reimburse 28 expenses in accordance with R.S. 12:1-853 to the fullest extent permitted by law, 29 unless the provision specifically provides otherwise.

30 B. A right of indemnification or to advances for expenses created by this 31 Subpart or under Subsection A of this Section and in effect at the time of an act or 32 omission shall not be eliminated or impaired with respect to such act or omission by 33 an amendment of the articles of incorporation or bylaws or a resolution of the 34 directors or shareholders, adopted after the occurrence of such act or omission, 35 unless, in the case of a right created under Subsection A of this Section, the provision 36 creating such right and in effect at the time of such act or omission explicitly 37 authorizes such elimination or impairment after such act or omission has occurred.

1 C. Any provision pursuant to Subsection A of this Section shall not obligate 2 the corporation to indemnify or advance expenses to a director of a predecessor of 3 the corporation, pertaining to conduct with respect to the predecessor, unless 4 otherwise specifically provided. Any provision for indemnification or advance for 5 expenses in the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of 6 directors or shareholders of a predecessor of the corporation in a merger or in a 7 contract to which the predecessor is a party, existing at the time the merger takes 8 effect, shall be governed by R.S. 12:1-1107(A)(4).

9 D. A corporation may, by a provision in its articles of incorporation, limit 10 any of the rights to indemnification or advance for expenses created by or pursuant 11 to this Subpart.

12 E. This Subpart does not limit a corporation's power to pay or reimburse 13 expenses incurred by a director or an officer in connection with appearing as a 14 witness in a proceeding at a time when he or she is not a party.

15 F. This Subpart does not limit a corporation's power to indemnify, advance 16 expenses to, or provide or maintain insurance on behalf of an employee or agent.

18 Comment - 2014 Revision

19 Under R.S. 12:1-851(A)(1), a corporation may indemnify any liability that 20 may be made the subject of exculpation under R.S. 12:1-832. As a result, under this 21 Section, a corporation that obligates itself in advance to indemnify a director or 22 officer "to the fullest extent permitted by law" also obligates itself both to indemnify 23 and to advance expenses for any liability that is exculpated under R.S. 12:1-832.
24 However, unlike R.S. 12: 1-832 itself, which provides exculpation by statute except 25 as limited in the articles of incorporation, this Section does not by itself obligate a 26 corporation to indemnify or to advance expenses for conduct that is covered by R.S.
27 12:1-832. A corporation is permitted in such cases to provide indemnification under 28 R.S. 12:1-851 and to advance expenses under R.S. 12:1-853. But in the absence of 29 an advance obligation under this Section, a corporation is required to make 30 indemnity or expense payments in connection with litigation over exculpated 31 liability only if the prospective indemnitee actually succeeds in the defense of the 32 suit, thus triggering his right to indemnity under R.S. 12:1-852, or if he convinces a 33 court to order indemnification or expense payments under the "fair and equitable" 34 standards of R.S. 12:1-854.

35 §1-859. Exclusivity of Subpart

36 A corporation may provide indemnification or advance expenses to a director 37 or an officer only as permitted by this Subpart.

1 SUBPART F. DIRECTORS' CONFLICTING INTEREST TRANSACTIONS2 §1-860. Subpart definitions3 In this Subpart, the following meanings shall apply:4 (1) "Director's conflicting interest transaction" means any of the following:5 (a) A transaction effected or proposed to be effected by the corporation, or 6 by an entity controlled by the corporation, to which, at the relevant time, the director 7 is a party.8 (b) A transaction effected or proposed to be effected by the corporation, or 9 by an entity controlled by the corporation, respecting which, at the relevant time, the 10 director had knowledge and a material financial interest known to the director.11 (c) A transaction effected or proposed to be effected by the corporation, or 12 by an entity controlled by the corporation, respecting which, at the relevant time, the 13 director knew that a related person was a party or had a material financial interest.14 (2) "Control", including the term "controlled by", means either of the 15 following:16 (a) Having the power, directly or indirectly, to elect or remove a majority of 17 the members of the board of directors or other governing body of an entity, whether 18 through the ownership of voting shares or interests, by contract, or otherwise.19 (b) Being subject to a majority of the risk of loss from the entity's activities 20 or entitled to receive a majority of the entity's residual returns.21 (3) "Relevant time" means the time at which directors' action respecting the 22 transaction is taken in compliance with R.S. 12:1-862, or if the transaction is not 23 brought before the board of directors of the corporation or its committee for action 24 under R.S. 12:1-862, at the time the corporation, or an entity controlled by the 25 corporation, becomes legally obligated to consummate the transaction.26 (4) "Material financial interest" means a financial interest in a transaction
27 that would reasonably be expected to impair the objectivity of the director's 28 judgment when participating in action on the authorization of the transaction.29 (5) "Related person" means, at the relevant time, one of the following:30 (a) The director's spouse.

1 (b) A child, stepchild, grandchild, parent, stepparent, grandparent, sibling, 2 stepsibling, half sibling, aunt, uncle, niece or nephew, or spouse of any thereof, of 3 the director or of the director's spouse.

4 (c) An individual living in the same home as the director.

5 (d) An entity, other than the corporation or an entity controlled by the 6 corporation, controlled by the director or any person specified above in this 7 Paragraph.

8 (e) A domestic or foreign business or nonprofit corporation, other than the 9 corporation or an entity controlled by the corporation, of which the director is a 10 director, a domestic or foreign unincorporated entity of which the director is a 11 general partner or a member of the governing body, or a domestic or foreign 12 individual, trust, or estate for whom or of which the director is a trustee, guardian, 13 personal representative, or like fiduciary.

14 (f) A person that is, or an entity that is controlled by, an employer of the 15 director.

16 (g) A person with whom the director has a material relationship.

17 (6) "Fair to the corporation" means, for purposes of R.S. 12:1-861(B)(3), that 18 the transaction as a whole was beneficial to the corporation, taking into appropriate 19 account whether it was fair in terms of the director's dealings with the corporation, 20 and comparable to what might have been obtainable in an arm's length transaction, 21 given the consideration paid or received by the corporation.

22 (7) "Required disclosure" means disclosure of the existence and nature of 23 the director's conflicting interest, and all facts known to the director respecting the 24 subject matter of the transaction that a director free of such conflicting interest would 25 reasonably believe to be material in deciding whether to proceed with the 26 transaction.

28 Comments - 2014 Revision

29 (a) This Section modifies the Model Act definition of "related person" in 30 Paragraph 8.60(5) to add as a new Subparagraph (5)(g) of this Section the phrase, 31 "person with whom the director has a material relationship." The purpose of the 1 added language is to broaden the description of the persons whose financial interests 2 in a transaction would cause the transaction to be treated as a conflicting interest 3 transaction for a director.

4 (b) The Model Act definition of "related persons" does capture the more 5 common kinds of relationships, such as those among spouses and immediate family 6 members, that would cause a reasonable person to perceive a serious conflict of 7 interest on the part of a director. But left out of the list are other types of 8 relationships, such one between a director and someone with whom the director was 9 having an adulterous affair, that would cause a reasonable person to question the 10 objectivity of the director's judgment in approving a transaction. Those types of 11 relationships would be covered by the reference in Subparagraph (5)(g) of this 12 Section to a "material relationship," which is defined in R.S. 12:1-143 to mean any 13 form of relationship "that would reasonably be expected to impair the objectivity of 14 the director's judgment when participating in the action to be taken." R.S.
 15 12:1-143(B)(1).

16 (c) This Section also adds the phrase "at the relevant time" to the 17 introductory clause in R.S. 12:1-860(5). The relationships listed in R.S. 12:1-860(5) 18 are to be determined as of the "relevant time" as defined in R.S. 12:1-860(3). A 19 transaction would not fit the definition of a director's conflicting interest transaction 20 if the listed relationship arose only after the relevant time, or had been terminated 21 before the relevant time.

22 §1-861. Judicial action

23 A. A transaction effected or proposed to be effected by the corporation, or 24 by an entity controlled by the corporation, may not be the subject of any form of 25 relief, or give rise to an award of damages or other sanctions against a director of the 26 corporation, in a proceeding by a shareholder or by or in the right of the corporation, 27 on the ground that the director has an interest respecting the transaction, if it is not 28 a director's conflicting interest transaction.

29 B. A director's conflicting interest transaction may not be the subject of 30 equitable relief, or give rise to an award of damages or other sanctions against a 31 director of the corporation, in a proceeding by a shareholder or by or in the right of 32 the corporation, on the ground that the director has an interest respecting the 33 transaction, if any of the following conditions are satisfied:

34 (1) Directors' action respecting the transaction was taken in compliance with 35 R.S. 12:1-862 at any time.

36 (2) Shareholders' action respecting the transaction was taken in compliance 37 with R.S. 12: 1-863 at any time.

38 (3) The transaction, judged according to the circumstances at the relevant 39 time, is established to have been fair to the corporation.

Comments - 2014 Revision

(a) As the Model Act Official Comments explain, the current Model Act protects a transaction between a corporation and a director from any form of judicial remedy based on the director's conflicting interest in the transaction unless the transaction first fits the statutory definition of a "director's conflicting interest transaction" and then, if it does so, also fails to satisfy any one of the three statutory grounds for upholding the transaction against any challenge that is based on the conflicting interest. The current approach differs sharply from that taken in earlier versions of the Model Act (those before 1989) and under prior Louisiana law. Under the earlier approach, compliance with the statutory rules concerning what were then called self-dealing transactions did not wholly protect a transaction from a challenge based on the conflicting interest, it merely prevented application of the early corporation law rule that a self-dealing transaction was automatically voidable by the corporation without regard to the fairness of the transaction. See former R.S. 12:84.

(b) This Section adopts the Model Act approach. This Section differs from the Model Act in one respect, however. It adds a residual category of relationship, called a "material relationship," to the definition of "related person" in R.S. 12:1-860(5). The effect of that addition is to broaden the types of relationships between a director and another person that could cause the other person's financial interest in the transaction to be treated as a conflicting interest in the transaction on the part of the director.

§1-862. Directors' action

A. Directors' action respecting a director's conflicting interest transaction is effective for purposes of R.S. 12:1-861(B)(1) if the transaction has been authorized by the affirmative vote of a majority, but no fewer than two, of the qualified directors who voted on the transaction, after required disclosure by the conflicted director of information not already known by such qualified directors, or after modified disclosure in compliance with Subsection B of this Section, provided that both of the following criteria are satisfied:

(1) The qualified directors have deliberated and voted outside the presence of and without the participation by any other director.

(2) Where the action has been taken by a committee, all members of the committee were qualified directors, and either the committee was composed of all the qualified directors on the board of directors or the members of the committee were appointed by the affirmative vote of a majority of the qualified directors on the board.

B. Notwithstanding Subsection A of this Section, when a transaction is a director's conflicting interest transaction only because a related person described in R.S. 12: 1-860(5)(e), (f), or (g) is a party to or has a material financial interest in the 1 transaction, the conflicted director is not obligated to make required disclosure to the 2 extent that the director reasonably believes that doing so would violate a duty 3 imposed under law, a legally enforceable obligation of confidentiality, or a 4 professional ethics rule, provided that the conflicted director discloses to the 5 qualified directors voting on the transaction all of the following:

6 (1) All information required to be disclosed that is not so violative.

7 (2) The existence and nature of the director's conflicting interest.

8 (3) The nature of the conflicted director's duty not to disclose the 9 confidential information.

10 C. A majority, but no fewer than two, of all the qualified directors on the 11 board of directors, or on the committee, constitutes a quorum for purposes of action 12 that complies with this Section.

13 D. Where directors' action under this Section does not satisfy a quorum or 14 voting requirement applicable to the authorization of the transaction by reason of the 15 articles of incorporation, the bylaws, or a provision of law, independent action to 16 satisfy those authorization requirements must be taken by the board of directors or 17 a committee, in which action directors who are not qualified directors may 18 participate.

20 §1-863. Shareholders' action

21 A. Shareholders' action respecting a director's conflicting interest transaction 22 is effective for purposes of R.S. 12:1-861(B)(2) if a majority of the votes cast by the 23 holders of all qualified shares are in favor of the transaction after notice to 24 shareholders describing the action to be taken respecting the transaction, provision 25 to the corporation of the information referred to in Subsection B of this Section, and 26 communication to the shareholders entitled to vote on the transaction of the 27 information that is the subject of required disclosure, to the extent the information 28 is not known by them.

29 B. A director who has a conflicting interest respecting the transaction shall, 30 before the shareholders' vote, inform the secretary or other officer or agent of the 1 corporation authorized to tabulate votes, in writing, of the number of shares that the 2 director knows are not qualified shares under Subsection C of this Section, and the 3 identity of the holders of those shares.

4 C.(1) For purposes of this Section, "holder" means and "held by" refers to 5 shares held by a record shareholder, a beneficial shareholder, and an unrestricted 6 voting trust beneficial shareholder.

7 (2) For the purposes of this Section, "qualified shares" means all shares 8 entitled to be voted with respect to the transaction except for shares that the secretary 9 or other officer or agent of the corporation authorized to tabulate votes either knows 10 or, under Subsection B of this Section, is notified are held by a director who has a 11 conflicting interest respecting the transaction or a related person of the director, 12 excluding a person described in R.S. 12:1-860(5)(f).

13 D. A majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all qualified 14 shares constitutes a quorum for purposes of compliance with this Section. Subject 15 to the provisions of Subsection E of this Section, shareholders' action that otherwise 16 complies with this Section is not affected by the presence of holders, or by the 17 voting, of shares that are not qualified shares.

18 E. If a shareholders' vote does not comply with Subsection A of this Section 19 solely because of a director's failure to comply with Subsection B of this Section, and 20 if the director establishes that the failure was not intended to influence and did not 21 in fact determine the outcome of the vote, the court may take such action respecting 22 the transaction and the director, and may give such effect, if any, to the shareholders' 23 vote, as the court considers appropriate in the circumstances.

24 F. Where shareholders' action under this Section does not satisfy a quorum 25 or voting requirement applicable to the authorization of the transaction by reason of 26 the articles of incorporation, the bylaws or a provision of law, independent action to 27 satisfy those authorization requirements must be taken by the shareholders, in which 28 action shares that are not qualified shares may participate.

1 SUBPART G. BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES2 §1-870. Business opportunities

3 A. A director's taking advantage, directly or indirectly, of a business 4 opportunity may not be the subject of any form of relief, or give rise to an award of 5 damages or other sanctions against the director, in a proceeding by or in the right of 6 the corporation on the ground that such opportunity should have first been offered 7 to the corporation, if before becoming legally obligated respecting the opportunity 8 the director brings it to the attention of the corporation, and either of the following 9 occurs:

10 (1) Action by qualified directors disclaiming the corporation's interest in the 11 opportunity is taken in compliance with the procedures set forth in R.S. 12:1-862, as 12 if the decision being made concerned a director's conflicting interest transaction.

13 (2) Shareholders' action disclaiming the corporation's interest in the 14 opportunity is taken in compliance with the procedures set forth in R.S. 12:1-863, as 15 if the decision being made concerned a director's conflicting interest transaction; 16 except that, rather than making "required disclosure" as defined in R.S. 12: 1-860, 17 in each case the director shall have made prior disclosure to those acting on behalf 18 of the corporation of all material facts concerning the business opportunity that are 19 then known to the director.

20 B. In any proceeding seeking equitable relief or other remedies based upon 21 an alleged improper taking advantage of a business opportunity by a director, the fact 22 that the director did not employ the procedure described in Subsection A of this 23 Section before taking advantage of the opportunity shall not create an inference that 24 the opportunity should have been first presented to the corporation or alter the 25 burden of proof otherwise applicable to establish that the director breached a duty 26 to the corporation in the circumstances.

1 PART 9. DOMESTICATION AND CONVERSION

2 SUBPART A. PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

3 §1-901. Excluded transactions

4 A. This Part may not be used to effect a transaction that causes an eligible 5 entity or domestic or foreign corporation to hold any right, privilege, license, or 6 franchise under the laws of this state that it is ineligible to hold.

7 B. Property received through a conditional donation, grant, or devise, or held 8 in trust or for charitable purposes pursuant to the laws of this state by a party to a 9 transaction under this Part shall not be diverted by that transaction from the objects 10 for which it was donated, granted, or devised, except to the extent authorized by a 11 court judgment based upon principles of cy pres or approximation.

12 C. A person who is a member, interest holder, or an affiliate of an eligible 13 entity with a charitable purpose may not receive a direct or indirect financial benefit 14 in connection with a transaction under this Part to which the eligible entity is a party 15 unless the person is itself an eligible entity with a charitable purpose. This 16 Subsection does not apply to the receipt of reasonable compensation for services 17 rendered.

19 Comments - 2014 Revision

20 (a) Louisiana law does not permit the use of an ordinary business corporation 21 for the operation of an insurance company, bank or other financial institution.
 22 Separate statutes govern the creation and operation of those forms of corporation.
 23 See Title 6 on Banks and Banking and Title 22 on Insurance. This Section does not 24 purport to authorize domestications or conversions involving those special forms of 25 corporation, so the optional provisions of the Model Act concerning those forms of 26 corporation are not needed in this Section. Instead, this Section states a rule for 27 conversions and domestications similar to the rule in R.S. 12:1-1107 concerning 28 mergers: that the transactions authorized by this Part cannot cause a domestic or 29 foreign corporation or eligible entity to hold any right or license under the laws of 30 this state that the corporation or entity is ineligible to hold.

31 (b) This Section adds a new Subsection B, based on optional Model Act 32 Section 9.02 (b), to impose the same limitations on transactions available under this 33 Part as apply to mergers under R.S. 12:1-1102(F).

34 §1-902. Required approvals

35 [Reserved.]

1 Comment - 2014 Revision

2 Subsection (a) of this optional Model Act provision was deleted as 3 unnecessary for the reasons explained in Comment (a) to R.S. 12:1-901. Subsection 4 B of this Section was moved to R.S. 12:1-901(B), making a separate R.S. 12:1-902 5 unnecessary.

6 SUBPART B. DOMESTICATION

7 §1-920. Domestication

8 A. A foreign business corporation may become a domestic business 9 corporation only if the domestication is permitted by the organic law of the foreign 10 corporation.

11 B. A domestic business corporation may become a foreign business 12 corporation if the domestication is permitted by the laws of the foreign jurisdiction.
13 Regardless of whether the laws of the foreign jurisdiction require the adoption of a 14 plan of domestication, the domestication shall be approved by the adoption by the 15 corporation of a plan of domestication in the manner provided in this Subpart.

16 C. The plan of domestication must include all of the following:

17 (1) A statement of the jurisdiction in which the corporation is to be 18 domesticated.

19 (2) The terms and conditions of the domestication.

20 (3) The manner and basis of reclassifying the shares of the corporation 21 following its domestication into shares or other securities, obligations, rights to 22 acquire shares or other securities, or into cash, other property, or any combination 23 of the foregoing.

24 (4) Any desired amendments to the articles of incorporation of the 25 corporation following its domestication.

26 D. The plan of domestication may also include a provision that the plan may 27 be amended prior to filing the document required by the laws of this state or the other 28 jurisdiction to consummate the domestication, except that subsequent to approval of 29 the plan by the shareholders the plan may not be amended to change any of the 30 following:

1 (1) The amount or kind of shares or other securities, obligations, rights to 2 acquire shares or other securities, or the cash or other property to be received by the 3 shareholders under the plan.

4 (2) The articles of incorporation as they will be in effect immediately 5 following the domestication, except for changes permitted by R.S. 12:1-1005 or by 6 comparable provisions of the laws of the other jurisdiction.

7 (3) Any of the other terms or conditions of the plan if the change would 8 adversely affect any of the shareholders in any material respect.

9 E. Terms of a plan of domestication may be made dependent upon facts 10 objectively ascertainable outside the plan in accordance with R.S. 12:1-120(L).

11 F. If any debt security, note, or similar evidence of indebtedness for money 12 borrowed, whether secured or unsecured, or a contract of any kind, issued, incurred, 13 or signed by a domestic business corporation before January 1, 2015, contains a 14 provision applying to a merger of the corporation and the document does not refer 15 to a domestication of the corporation, the provision shall be deemed to apply to a 16 domestication of the corporation until such time as the provision is amended 17 subsequent to that date.

18 Source: MBCA §9.20.

19 §1-921. Action on a plan of domestication

20 In the case of a domestication of a domestic business corporation in a foreign 21 jurisdiction, all of the following shall apply:

22 (1) The plan of domestication must be adopted by the board of directors.

23 (2) After adopting the plan of domestication, the board of directors must 24 submit the plan to the shareholders for their approval. The board of directors must 25 also transmit to the shareholders a recommendation that the shareholders approve the 26 plan, unless the board of directors makes a determination that because of conflicts 27 of interest or other special circumstances it should not make such a recommendation 28 or R.S. 12:1-826 applies. If either the board of director makes such a determination 29 or R.S. 12:1-826 applies, the board of directors must transmit to the shareholders the 30 basis for so proceeding.

1 (3) The board of directors may condition its submission of the plan of 2 domestication to the shareholders on any basis.

3 (4) If the approval of the shareholders is to be given at a meeting, the 4 corporation must notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the 5 meeting of shareholders at which the plan of domestication is to be submitted for 6 approval. The notice must state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the 7 meeting is to consider the plan and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or 8 summary of the plan. The notice shall include or be accompanied by a copy of the 9 articles of incorporation as they will be in effect immediately after the domestication.

10 (5) Unless the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors acting
11 pursuant to Paragraph (3) of this Section, requires a greater vote, approval of the plan 12 of domestication requires the approval of at least a majority of the votes entitled to 13 be cast on the plan, and, if any class or series of shares is entitled to vote as a 14 separate group on the plan, the approval of each such separate voting group by at 15 least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the domestication by that voting 16 group.

17 (6) Subject to Paragraph (7) of this Section, separate voting by voting groups 18 is required by each class or series of shares that are any of the following:

19 (a) To be reclassified under the plan of domestication into other securities, 20 obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities, or into cash, other property, 21 or any combination of the foregoing.

22 (b) Entitled to vote as a separate group on a provision of the plan that, if 23 contained in a proposed amendment to articles of incorporation, would require action 24 by separate voting groups under R.S. 12: 1-1004.

25 (c) Entitled under the articles of incorporation to vote as a voting group to 26 approve an amendment of the articles.

27 (7) The articles of incorporation may expressly limit or eliminate the 28 separate voting rights provided for in Subparagraph (6)(a) of this Section.

29 (8) If any provision of the articles of incorporation, bylaws or an agreement 30 to which any of the directors or shareholders are parties, adopted or entered into

1 before January 1, 2015, applies to a merger of the corporation and that document 2 does not refer to a domestication of the corporation, the provision shall be deemed 3 to apply to a domestication of the corporation until such time as the provision is 4 amended subsequent to that date.

5 Source: MBCA §9.21.

6 Comment - 2014 Revision

7 This Section changes Model Act paragraph (5) to require that a plan of 8 domestication be approved by a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the plan 9 and, if applicable, a majority of the votes of each class or series of shares entitled to 10 vote as a separate group on the plan. The Model Act would have permitted a plan 11 to be approved by each voting group by a majority of votes cast at a meeting at 12 which a majority quorum existed.

13 §1-922. Articles of domestication

14 A. After the domestication of a foreign business corporation has been 15 authorized as required by the laws of the foreign jurisdiction, articles of 16 domestication shall be signed by any officer or other duly authorized representative.

17 The articles shall set forth all of the following:

18 (1) The name of the corporation immediately before the filing of the articles 19 of domestication and, if that name is unavailable for use in this state or the 20 corporation desires to change its name in connection with the domestication, a name 21 that satisfies the requirements of R.S. 12:1-401.

22 (2) The jurisdiction of incorporation of the corporation immediately before 23 the filing of the articles of domestication and the date the corporation was 24 incorporated in that jurisdiction.

25 (3) A statement that the domestication of the corporation in this state was 26 duly authorized as required by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the corporation 27 was incorporated immediately before its domestication in this state.

28 B. The articles of domestication shall either contain all of the provisions that 29 R.S. 12:1-202(A) requires to be set forth in articles of incorporation and any other 30 desired provisions that R.S. 12:1-202(B) permits to be included in articles of 31 incorporation, or shall have attached articles of incorporation. In either case, 1 provisions that would not be required to be included in restated articles of 2 incorporation may be omitted.

3 C. The articles of domestication shall be delivered to the secretary of state 4 for filing, and shall take effect at the effective time provided in R.S. 12:1-123.

5 D. If the foreign corporation is authorized to transact business in this state 6 under Chapter 3 of Title 12, its certificate of authority shall be cancelled 7 automatically on the effective date of its domestication.

8 E. Within thirty days after the date that articles of domestication take effect, 9 a duplicate original or certified copy of the articles shall be filed in the conveyance 10 records of each parish in this state in which the corporation owns immovable 11 property.

13 Comment - 2014 Revision

14 This Act adds a new Subsection E, which requires the filing of a multiple 15 original or certified copy of the articles of domestication in any parish in which the 16 domesticated corporation owns immovable property.

17 §1-923. Surrender of charter upon domestication

18 A. Whenever a domestic business corporation has adopted and approved, in 19 the manner required by this Subpart, a plan of domestication providing for the 20 corporation to be domesticated in a foreign jurisdiction, articles of charter surrender 21 shall be signed on behalf of the corporation by any officer or other duly authorized 22 representative. The articles of charter surrender shall set forth all of the following:

23 (1) The name of the corporation.

24 (2) A statement that the articles of charter surrender are being filed in 25 connection with the domestication of the corporation in a foreign jurisdiction.

26 (3) A statement that the domestication was duly approved by the 27 shareholders and, if voting by any separate voting group was required, by each such 28 separate voting group, in the manner required by this Subpart and the articles of 29 incorporation.

30 (4) The corporation's new jurisdiction of incorporation.

1 B. The articles of charter surrender shall be delivered by the corporation to 2 the secretary of state for filing. The articles of charter surrender shall take effect at 3 the effective time provided in R.S. 12:1-123.

4 Source: MBCA §9.23.

5 §1-924. Effect of domestication

6 A. When a domestication becomes effective, all of the following shall apply:

7 (1) The title to all real and personal property, both tangible and intangible, 8 of the corporation remains in the corporation without any transfer, assignment, 9 reversion, or impairment.

10 (2) The liabilities of the corporation remain the liabilities of the corporation.

11 (3) An action or proceeding pending against the corporation continues 12 against the corporation as if the domestication had not occurred.

13 (4) The articles of domestication, or the articles of incorporation attached to 14 the articles of domestication, constitute the articles of incorporation of a foreign 15 corporation domesticating in this state.

16 (5) The shares of the corporation are reclassified into shares, other securities, 17 obligations, rights to acquire shares or other securities, or into cash or other property 18 in accordance with the terms of the domestication, and the shareholders are entitled 19 only to the rights provided by those terms and to any appraisal rights they may have 20 under the organic law of the domesticating corporation.

21 (6) The corporation is deemed to be all of the following:

22 (a) Incorporated under and subject to the organic law of the domesticated 23 corporation for all purposes.

24 (b) The same corporation without interruption as the domesticating
25 corporation.

26 (c) Incorporated on the date the domesticating corporation was originally 27 incorporated.

28 B. When a domestication of a domestic business corporation in a foreign 29 jurisdiction becomes effective, the foreign business corporation remains both of the 30 following:

1 of a domestication of that corporation in Louisiana. Those issues cannot arise under 2 this Act because this Act omits the Model Act provision under which owner liability, 3 as defined in R.S. 12:1-140(15C), could be imposed. See Comment (b) to R.S.
 4 12:1-202.

5 §1-925. Abandonment of a domestication

6 A. Unless otherwise provided in a plan of domestication of a domestic 7 business corporation, after the plan has been adopted and approved as required by 8 this Subpart, and at any time before the domestication has become effective, it may 9 be abandoned by the board of directors without action by the shareholders.

10 B. If a domestication is abandoned under Subsection A of this Section after 11 articles of charter surrender have been filed with the secretary of state but before the 12 domestication has become effective, a statement that the domestication has been 13 abandoned in accordance with this Section, signed by an officer or other duly 14 authorized representative, shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing prior 15 to the effective date of the domestication. The statement shall take effect upon filing 16 and the domestication shall be deemed abandoned and shall not become effective.

17 C. If the domestication of a foreign business corporation in this state is 18 abandoned in accordance with the laws of the foreign jurisdiction after articles of 19 domestication have been filed with the secretary of state, a statement that the 20 domestication has been abandoned, signed by an officer or other duly authorized 21 representative, shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing. The statement 22 shall take effect upon filing and the domestication shall be deemed abandoned and 23 shall not become effective.

25 SUBPART C. NONPROFIT CONVERSION

26 §1-930. Nonprofit conversion

27 A. A domestic business corporation may become a domestic nonprofit 28 corporation pursuant to a plan of nonprofit conversion.

29 B. A domestic business corporation may become a foreign nonprofit 30 corporation if the nonprofit conversion is permitted by the laws of the foreign 31 jurisdiction. Regardless of whether the laws of the foreign jurisdiction require the 1 adoption of a plan of nonprofit conversion, the foreign nonprofit conversion shall be 2 approved by the adoption by the domestic business corporation of a plan of nonprofit 3 conversion in the manner provided in this Subpart.

4 C. The plan of nonprofit conversion must include all of the following:

5 (1) The terms and conditions of the conversion.

6 (2) The manner and basis of reclassifying the shares of the corporation 7 following its conversion into memberships, if any, or securities, obligations, rights 8 to acquire memberships or securities, or into cash, other property, or any 9 combination of the foregoing.

10 (3) Any desired amendments to the articles of incorporation of the 11 corporation following its conversion.

12 (4) If the domestic business corporation is to be converted to a foreign 13 nonprofit corporation, a statement of the jurisdiction in which the corporation will 14 be incorporated after the conversion.

15 D. The plan of nonprofit conversion may also include a provision that the 16 plan may be amended prior to filing articles of nonprofit conversion, except that 17 subsequent to approval of the plan by the shareholders the plan may not be amended 18 to change any of the following:

19 (1) The amount or kind of memberships or securities, obligations, rights to 20 acquire memberships or securities, or the cash or other property to be received by the 21 shareholders under the plan.

22 (2) The articles of incorporation as they will be in effect immediately 23 following the conversion, except for changes permitted by R.S. 12:1-1005.

24 (3) Any of the other terms or conditions of the plan if the change would 25 adversely affect any of the shareholders in any material respect.

26 E. Terms of a plan of nonprofit conversion may be made dependent upon 27 facts objectively ascertainable outside the plan in accordance with R.S. 12:1-120(L).

28 F. If any debt security, note, or similar evidence of indebtedness for money 29 borrowed, whether secured or unsecured, or a contract of any kind, issued, incurred
30 or signed by a domestic business corporation before January 1, 2015, contains a

1 provision applying to a merger of the corporation and the document does not refer 2 to a nonprofit conversion of the corporation, the provision shall be deemed to apply 3 to a nonprofit conversion of the corporation until such time as the provision is 4 amended subsequent to that date.

6 §1-931. Action on a plan of nonprofit conversion

7 In the case of a conversion of a domestic business corporation to a domestic 8 or foreign nonprofit corporation, all of the following shall apply:

9 (1) The plan of nonprofit conversion must be adopted by the board of 10 directors.

11 (2) After adopting the plan of nonprofit conversion, the board of directors 12 must submit the plan to the shareholders for their approval. The board of directors 13 must also transmit to the shareholders a recommendation that the shareholders 14 approve the plan, unless the board of directors makes a determination that because 15 of conflicts of interest or other special circumstances it should not make such a 16 recommendation, or R.S. 12:1-826 applies. If the board of directors makes such a 17 determination or R.S. 12:1-826 applies, the board must transmit to the shareholders 18 the basis for so proceeding.

19 (3) The board of directors may condition its submission of the plan of 20 nonprofit conversion to the shareholders on any basis.

21 (4) If the approval of the shareholders is to be given at a meeting, the 22 corporation must notify each shareholder of the meeting of shareholders at which the 23 plan of nonprofit conversion is to be submitted for approval. The notice must state 24 that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider the plan and 25 must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan. The notice shall 26 include or be accompanied by a copy of the articles of incorporation as they will be 27 in effect immediately after the nonprofit conversion.

28 (5) Unless the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors acting
29 pursuant to Paragraph (3) of this Section, requires a greater vote, approval of the plan 30 of nonprofit conversion requires the approval of each class or series of shares of the

1 corporation voting as a separate voting group by at least a majority of the votes 2 entitled to be cast on the nonprofit conversion by that voting group.

3 (6) If any provision of the articles of incorporation, bylaws or an agreement
4 to which any of the directors or shareholders are parties, adopted before January 1, 5 2015, applies to a merger, other than a provision that limits or eliminates voting or 6 appraisal rights, and the document does not refer to a nonprofit conversion of the 7 corporation, the provision shall be deemed to apply to a nonprofit conversion of the 8 corporation until such time as the provision is amended subsequent to that date.

10 Comments - 2014 Revision

11 This Section changes Model Act paragraph (5) to require that a plan of 12 nonprofit conversion be approved by a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the 13 plan and, if applicable, a majority of the votes of each class or series of shares 14 entitled to vote as a separate group on the plan. The Model Act would have 15 permitted a plan to be approved by each voting group by a majority of votes cast at 16 a meeting at which a majority quorum existed.

17 §1-932. Articles of nonprofit conversion

18 A. After a plan of nonprofit conversion providing for the conversion of a 19 domestic business corporation to a domestic nonprofit corporation has been adopted 20 and approved as required by this Subpart, articles of nonprofit conversion shall be 21 signed on behalf of the corporation by any officer or other duly authorized 22 representative. The articles shall set forth both of the following:

23 (1) The name of the corporation immediately before the filing of the articles 24 of nonprofit conversion and if that name does not satisfy the requirements of the 25 Nonprofit Corporation Law, or the corporation desires to change its name in 26 connection with the conversion, a name that satisfies the requirements of the 27 Nonprofit Corporation Law.

28 (2) A statement that the plan of nonprofit conversion was duly approved by 29 the shareholders in the manner required by this Subpart and the articles of 30 incorporation.

31 B. The articles of nonprofit conversion shall either contain all of the 32 provisions that the Nonprofit Corporation Law requires to be set forth in articles of 1 incorporation of a domestic nonprofit corporation and any other desired provisions 2 permitted by the Nonprofit Corporation Law, or shall have attached articles of 3 incorporation that satisfy the requirements of the Nonprofit Corporation Law. In 4 either case, provisions that would not be required to be included in restated articles 5 of incorporation of a domestic nonprofit corporation may be omitted.

6 C. The articles of nonprofit conversion shall be delivered to the secretary of 7 state for filing, and shall take effect at the effective time provided in R.S. 12:1-123.

9 §1-933. Surrender of charter upon foreign nonprofit conversion

10 A. Whenever a domestic business corporation has adopted and approved, in 11 the manner required by this Subpart, a plan of nonprofit conversion providing for the 12 corporation to be converted to a foreign nonprofit corporation, articles of charter 13 surrender shall be signed on behalf of the corporation by any officer or other duly 14 authorized representative. The articles of charter surrender shall set forth all of the 15 following:

16 (1) The name of the corporation.

17 (2) A statement that the articles of charter surrender are being filed in 18 connection with the conversion of the corporation to a foreign nonprofit corporation.

19 (3) A statement that the foreign nonprofit conversion was duly approved by 20 the shareholders in the manner required by this Act and the articles of incorporation.

21 (4) The corporation's new jurisdiction of incorporation.

22 B. The articles of charter surrender shall be delivered by the corporation to 23 the secretary of state for filing. The articles of charter surrender shall take effect at 24 the effective time provided in R.S. 12:1-123.

25 Source: MBCA §9.33.

26 §1-934. Effect of nonprofit conversion

27 A. When a conversion of a domestic business corporation to a domestic 28 nonprofit corporation becomes effective, all of the following shall apply:

1 (1) The title to all real and personal property, both tangible and intangible,
 2 of the corporation remains in the corporation without any transfer, assignment,
 3 reversion, or impairment.

4 (2) The liabilities of the corporation remain the liabilities of the corporation.

5 (3) An action or proceeding pending against the corporation continues 6 against the corporation as if the conversion had not occurred.

7 (4) The articles of incorporation of the domestic or foreign nonprofit 8 corporation become effective.

9 (5) The shares of the corporation are reclassified into memberships, 10 securities, obligations, rights to acquire memberships or securities, or into cash or 11 other property in accordance with the plan of conversion, and the shareholders are 12 entitled only to the rights provided in the plan of nonprofit conversion or to any 13 rights they may have under Part 13 of this Chapter.

14 (6) The corporation is deemed to be all of the following:

15 (a) A domestic nonprofit corporation for all purposes.

16 (b) The same corporation without interruption as the corporation that existed 17 prior to the conversion.

18 (c) Incorporated on the date that it was originally incorporated as a domestic 19 business corporation.

20 B. When a conversion of a domestic business corporation to a foreign 21 nonprofit corporation becomes effective, the foreign nonprofit corporation remains 22 both of the following:

23 (1) Obligated under the laws of this state to pay promptly the amount, if any, 24 to which shareholders who exercise appraisal rights in connection with the 25 conversion are entitled under Part 13 of this Chapter.

26 (2) Subject to the personal jurisdiction of the courts of this state in 27 accordance with R.S. 13:3201, and to service of process in accordance with law.

28 C. [Reserved.]

29 D. A shareholder who becomes subject to owner liability for some or all of 30 the debts, obligations, or liabilities of the nonprofit corporation shall have owner

1 liability only for those debts, obligations, or liabilities of the nonprofit corporation 2 that arise after the effective time of the articles of nonprofit conversion.

4 Comments - 2014 Revision

5 (a) Model Act Subsection (b) uses legal fictions to state the legal obligations 6 of the "outbound" corporation in a conversion of a domestic business corporation 7 into a foreign nonprofit corporation, deeming that the resulting foreign corporation 8 has agreed to pay appraisal rights and to appoint the secretary of state as its agent for 9 service of process in connection with appraisal rights suits. This Section modifies 10 Subsection (b) to state the outbound corporation's legal obligations in a more 11 straightforward fashion. The corporation remains liable under the laws of this state 12 to pay any appraisal rights when due, not because it agrees to make the payments but 13 because the law requires it to do so. Similarly, the corporation remains subject to the 14 personal jurisdiction of the courts of this state not because the corporation has made 15 the secretary of state its agent for service of process, but because this state asserts the 16 personal jurisdiction of its courts to the full extent constitutionally permissible, and 17 provides by law for appropriate forms of service of process.

18 (b) Model Act Subsection (c) was omitted from this Section because it deals 19 with transition issues associated with the nonprofit conversion of a domestic business 20 corporation in which a shareholder is made subject to owner liability, as defined in 21 R.S. 12:1-140(15C). Transition issues of that kind cannot arise under this Section 22 because the form of liability addressed by Subsection (c) is not imposed by this 23 Section. Subsection (c) was omitted to avoid the implication that the form of 24 liability addressed by the Subsection could exist. This Section retained Model Act 25 Subsection (d), which addresses a similar transition issue for owner liability arising 26 under the law governing a post-conversion nonprofit corporation, because it is 27 possible for the nonprofit corporation law of another state to permit the imposition 28 of owner liability. Louisiana's Nonprofit Corporation Law does not impose owner 29 liability.

30 §1-935. Abandonment of a nonprofit conversion

31 A. Unless otherwise provided in a plan of nonprofit conversion of a domestic 32 business corporation, after the plan has been adopted and approved as required by 33 this Subpart, and at any time before the nonprofit conversion has become effective, 34 it may be abandoned by the board of directors without action by the shareholders.

35 B. If a nonprofit conversion is abandoned under Subsection A of this Section 36 after articles of nonprofit conversion or articles of charter surrender have been filed 37 with the secretary of state but before the nonprofit conversion has become effective, 38 a statement that the nonprofit conversion has been abandoned in accordance with this 39 Section, signed by an officer or other duly authorized representative, shall be 40 delivered to the secretary of state for filing prior to the effective date of the nonprofit

1 conversion. The statement shall take effect upon filing and the nonprofit conversion 2 shall be deemed abandoned and shall not become effective.

4 SUBPART D. FOREIGN NONPROFIT DOMESTICATION AND CONVERSION

5 §1-940. Foreign nonprofit domestication and conversion

6 A foreign nonprofit corporation may become a domestic business corporation 7 if the domestication and conversion is permitted by the organic law of the foreign 8 nonprofit corporation.

9 Source: MBCA §9.40.

10 §1-941. Articles of nonprofit domestication and conversion

11 A. After the conversion of a foreign nonprofit corporation to a domestic 12 business corporation has been authorized as required by the laws of the foreign 13 jurisdiction, articles of nonprofit domestication and conversion shall be signed by 14 any officer or other duly authorized representative. The articles shall set forth all of 15 the following:

16 (1) The name of the corporation immediately before the filing of the articles 17 of nonprofit domestication and conversion and, if that name is unavailable for use 18 in this state or the corporation desires to change its name in connection with the 19 domestication and conversion, a name that satisfies the requirements of R.S.
 20 12:1-401.

21 (2) The jurisdiction of incorporation of the corporation immediately before 22 the filing of the articles of nonprofit domestication and conversion and the date the 23 corporation was incorporated in that jurisdiction.

24 (3) A statement that the domestication and conversion of the corporation in 25 this state was duly authorized as required by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the 26 corporation was incorporated immediately before its domestication and conversion 27 in this state.

28 B. The articles of nonprofit domestication and conversion shall either contain 29 all of the provisions that R.S. 12:1-202(A) requires to be set forth in articles of 30 incorporation and any other desired provisions that R.S. 12:1-202(B) permits to be

1 included in articles of incorporation, or shall have attached articles of incorporation.
 2 In either case, provisions that would not be required to be included in restated 3 articles of incorporation may be omitted.

4 C. The articles of nonprofit domestication and conversion shall be delivered 5 to the secretary of state for filing, and shall take effect at the effective time provided 6 in R.S. 12:1-123.

7 D. If the foreign nonprofit corporation is authorized to transact business in 8 this state under Chapter 3 of this Title, its certificate of authority shall be cancelled 9 automatically on the effective date of its domestication and conversion.

10 Source: MBCA §9.41.

11 §1-942. Effect of foreign nonprofit domestication and conversion

12 A. When a domestication and conversion of a foreign nonprofit corporation 13 to a domestic business corporation becomes effective, all of the following shall 14 apply:

15 (1) The title to all real and personal property, both tangible and intangible, 16 of the corporation remains in the corporation without any transfer, assignment, 17 reversion or impairment.

18 (2) The liabilities of the corporation remain the liabilities of the corporation.

19 (3) An action or proceeding pending against the corporation continues 20 against the corporation as if the domestication and conversion had not occurred.

21 (4) The articles of nonprofit domestication and conversion, or the articles of 22 incorporation attached to the articles of nonprofit domestication and conversion, 23 constitute the articles of incorporation of the corporation.

24 (5) Shares, other securities, obligations, rights to acquire shares or other 25 securities of the corporation, or cash or other property shall be issued or paid as 26 provided pursuant to the laws of the foreign jurisdiction, so long as at least one share 27 is outstanding immediately after the effective time.

28 (6) The corporation is deemed to be all of the following:

29 (a) A domestic corporation for all purposes.

1 foreign jurisdiction after articles of nonprofit domestication and conversion have 2 been filed with the secretary of state, a statement that the domestication and 3 conversion has been abandoned, signed by an officer or other duly authorized 4 representative, shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing. The statement 5 shall take effect upon filing and the domestication and conversion shall be deemed 6 abandoned and shall not become effective.

8 SUBPART E. ENTITY CONVERSION

9 §1-950. Entity conversion authorized; definitions

10 A. A domestic business corporation may become a domestic unincorporated 11 entity pursuant to a plan of entity conversion.

12 B. A domestic business corporation may become a foreign unincorporated 13 entity if the entity conversion is permitted by the laws of the foreign jurisdiction.

14 C. A domestic unincorporated entity may become a domestic business 15 corporation or another form of domestic unincorporated entity. If the organic law 16 of a domestic unincorporated entity does not provide procedures for the approval of 17 an entity conversion, the conversion shall be adopted and approved, and the entity 18 conversion effectuated, in the same manner as a merger of the unincorporated entity.

19 D. A foreign unincorporated entity may become a domestic business 20 corporation if the organic law of the foreign unincorporated entity authorizes it to 21 become a corporation in another jurisdiction.

22 E. If any debt security, note, or similar evidence of indebtedness for money 23 borrowed, whether secured or unsecured, or a contract of any kind, issued, incurred, 24 or signed by a domestic business corporation before January 1, 2015, applies to a 25 merger of the corporation and the document does not refer to an entity conversion 26 of the corporation, the provision shall be deemed to apply to an entity conversion of 27 the corporation until such time as the provision is amended subsequent to that date.

1 F. As used in this Subpart:

2 (1) "Converting entity" means the domestic business corporation or domestic 3 unincorporated entity that adopts a plan of entity conversion or the foreign 4 unincorporated entity converting to a domestic business corporation.

5 (2) "Surviving entity" means the corporation or unincorporated entity that 6 is in existence immediately after consummation of an entity conversion pursuant to 7 this Subpart.

8 Source: MBCA §9.50.

9 Comments - 2014 Revision

10 (a) This Section broadens the scope of Model Act Subsection (c) to cover 11 conversions of one form of domestic unincorporated entity into another. The 12 procedures in this Subpart replace those formerly provided in Chapter 25 of Title 12 13 for that form of transaction. Chapter 25 continues to provide rules concerning 14 licensing and taxing issues relating to the surviving entity in an entity conversion, 15 regardless of whether the surviving entity is incorporated or unincorporated. See 16 R.S. 12:1603-04.

17 (b) The provisions in Model Act Subsection (c) that govern the procedures 18 for approval of an entity conversion in an entity whose organic law does not provide 19 procedures for either an entity conversion or merger were deleted from this Section 20 as unnecessary. Louisiana law does provide procedures for the merger of its 21 unincorporated business organizations. The merger of limited liability companies 22 is governed by R.S. 12:1357-62. The merger of partnerships, including partnerships 23 in commendam and registered limited liability partnerships, is governed by R.S.
24 9:3441-47.

25 §1-951. Plan of entity conversion

26 A. A plan of entity conversion must include all of the following:

27 (1) A statement of the type of entity the surviving entity will be and, if it 28 will be a foreign entity, its jurisdiction of organization.

29 (2) The terms and conditions of the conversion.

30 (3) If the converting entity is a domestic business corporation, the manner 31 and basis of converting the shares of the corporation following its conversion into 32 interests or other securities, obligations, rights to acquire interests or other securities, 33 or into cash, other property, or any combination of the foregoing.

34 (4) If the converting entity is an unincorporated entity, the manner and basis 35 of converting the interests in the entity into shares, interests, or other securities, obligations, rights to acquire shares, interests, or other securities, or into cash, other property, or any combination of the foregoing.

(5) The full text, as they will be in effect immediately after consummation of the conversion, of the organic documents of the surviving entity.

B. The plan of entity conversion may also include a provision that the plan may be amended prior to filing articles of entity conversion, except that subsequent to approval of the plan by the shareholders the plan may not be amended to change any of the following:

(1) The amount or kind of shares or other securities, interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares, other securities or interests, or the cash or other property to be received under the plan by the shareholders.

(2) The organic documents that will be in effect immediately following the conversion, except for changes permitted by a provision of the organic law of the surviving entity comparable to R.S. 12:1-1005.

(3) Any of the other terms or conditions of the plan if the change would adversely affect any of the shareholders in any material respect.

C. Terms of a plan of entity conversion may be made dependent upon facts objectively ascertainable outside the plan in accordance with R.S. 12:1-120(L).

Comments - 2014 Revision

(a) This Section changes the references in Model Act Paragraph (a)(1) to an "other entity" to "entity." The term "other entity" was a defined term in earlier versions of the Model Act that has since been eliminated as a defined term. The term "entity" is used in this Section to refer to whatever form of entity survives an entity conversion. Because the survivor of an entity conversion must be either a domestic corporation or a domestic or foreign unincorporated entity, the term "entity" in Subsection A of this Section is limited in meaning to one of those forms of entity.

(b) This Section adds a new Paragraph (A)(4) of this Section, and modifies Model Act Paragraph (a)(3), to take account of conversions not only of domestic corporations into unincorporated entities but also of unincorporated entities into domestic corporations or other forms of domestic unincorporated entities.

§1-952. Action on a plan of entity conversion

In the case of an entity conversion of a domestic business corporation to a domestic or foreign unincorporated entity, all of the following shall apply:

1 (1) The plan of entity conversion must be adopted by the board of directors.

2 (2) After adopting the plan of entity conversion, the board of directors must 3 submit the plan to the shareholders for their approval. The board of directors must 4 also transmit to the shareholders a recommendation that the shareholders approve the 5 plan, unless the board of directors makes a determination that because of conflicts
6 of interest or other special circumstances it should not make such a recommendation 7 or R.S. 12:1-826 applies. If the board of directors makes such a determination or 8 R.S. 12:1-826 applies, the board must transmit to the shareholders the basis for so 9 proceeding.

10 (3) The board of directors may condition its submission of the plan of entity 11 conversion to the shareholders on any basis.

12 (4) If the approval of the shareholders is to be given at a meeting, the 13 corporation must notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the 14 meeting of shareholders at which the plan of entity conversion is to be submitted for 15 approval. The notice must state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the 16 meeting is to consider the plan and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or 17 summary of the plan. The notice shall include or be accompanied by a copy of the 18 organic documents as they will be in effect immediately after the entity conversion.

19 (5) Unless the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors acting
20 pursuant to Paragraph (3) of this Section, requires a greater vote, approval of the plan 21 of entity conversion requires the approval of each class or series of shares of the 22 corporation voting as a separate voting group by at least a majority of the votes 23 entitled to be cast on the conversion by that voting group.

24 (6) If any provision of the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or an agreement 25 to which any of the directors or shareholders are parties, adopted, or entered into 26 before January 1, 2015, applies to a merger of the corporation, other than a provision 27 that limits or eliminates voting or appraisal rights, and the document does not refer 28 to an entity conversion of the corporation, the provision shall be deemed to apply to 29 an entity conversion of the corporation until such time as the provision is 30 subsequently amended.

(7) If as a result of the conversion one or more shareholders of the corporation would become subject to owner liability for the debts, obligations, or liabilities of any other person or entity, approval of the plan of conversion shall require the signing, by each such shareholder, of a separate written consent to become subject to such owner liability.

Comment - 2014 Revision

This Section modifies Model Act Paragraph (5) to require shareholder approval of an entity conversion by a majority of the votes entitled to be cast in each relevant voting group. The Model Act requires approval from each group by only a majority of the votes cast at a meeting at which a majority quorum exists.

§1-953. Articles of entity conversion

A. After the conversion of a domestic business corporation to a domestic unincorporated entity has been adopted and approved as required by this Subpart, articles of entity conversion shall be signed on behalf of the corporation by any officer or other duly authorized representative. The articles shall do all of the following:

(1) Set forth the name of the corporation immediately before the filing of the articles of entity conversion and the name to which the name of the corporation is to be changed, which shall be a name that satisfies the organic law of the surviving entity.

(2) State the type of unincorporated entity that the surviving entity will be.

(3) Set forth a statement that the plan of entity conversion was duly approved by the shareholders in the manner required by this Subpart and the articles of incorporation.

(4) If the surviving entity is a filing entity, either contain all of the provisions required to be set forth in its public organic document and any other desired provisions that are permitted, or have attached such a public organic document; except that, in either case, provisions that would not be required to be included in a restated public organic document may be omitted.

1 B. After the conversion of a domestic unincorporated entity to a domestic 2 business corporation or to another form of domestic unincorporated entity has been 3 adopted and approved as required by the organic law of the converting entity, articles 4 of entity conversion shall be signed on behalf of the converting entity by an officer 5 or other duly authorized partner, member, manager or other representative. The 6 articles shall do all of the following:

7 (1) Set forth the name of the converting entity immediately before the filing 8 of the articles of entity conversion and the name to which the name of the converting 9 entity is to be changed, which shall be a name that satisfies the requirements of the 10 organic law of the surviving entity.

11 (2) Set forth a statement that the plan of entity conversion was duly approved 12 in accordance with the organic law of the converting entity.

13 (3) Satisfy one of the following requirements concerning the provisions 14 required by law to be included in the organic document of the surviving entity and, 15 if required, in its initial report, do either of the following:

16 (a) If the surviving entity is a domestic business corporation, the articles of 17 entity conversion shall either contain all of the provisions that R.S. 12:1-202(A) 18 requires to be set forth in articles of incorporation and any other desired provisions 19 that R.S. 12:1-202(B) permits to be included in articles of incorporation, or have 20 attached articles of incorporation; except that, in either case, provisions that would 21 not be required to be included in restated articles of incorporation of a domestic 22 business corporation may be omitted.

23 (b) If the surviving entity is a domestic filing entity, either contain all of the 24 provisions required to be set forth in its public organic document and any other 25 desired provisions that are permitted, or have attached such a public organic 26 document; except that, in either case, provisions that would not be required to be 27 included in a restated public organic document may be omitted.

28 C. After the conversion of a foreign unincorporated entity to a domestic 29 business corporation has been authorized as required by the laws of the foreign 30 jurisdiction, articles of entity conversion shall be signed on behalf of the foreign

1 unincorporated entity by any officer or other duly authorized representative. The 2 articles shall do all of the following:

3 (1) Set forth the name of the unincorporated entity immediately before the 4 filing of the articles of entity conversion and the name to which the name of the 5 unincorporated entity is to be changed, which shall be a name that satisfies the 6 requirements of R.S. 12:1-401.

7 (2) Set forth the jurisdiction under the laws of which the unincorporated 8 entity was organized immediately before the filing of the articles of entity conversion 9 and the date on which the unincorporated entity was organized in that jurisdiction.

10 (3) Set forth a statement that the conversion of the unincorporated entity was 11 duly approved in the manner required by its organic law.

12 (4) Either contain all of the provisions that R.S. 12:1-202(A) requires to be 13 set forth in articles of incorporation and any other desired provisions that R.S.
14 12:1-202(B) permits to be included in articles of incorporation, or have attached 15 articles of incorporation; except that, in either case, provisions that would not be 16 required to be included in restated articles of incorporation of a domestic business 17 corporation may be omitted.

18 D. The articles of entity conversion shall be delivered to the secretary of 19 state for filing, and shall take effect at the effective time provided in R.S. 12:1-123.
20 Articles of entity conversion under Subsection A or B of this Section may be 21 combined with any required conversion filing under the organic law of the domestic 22 unincorporated entity if the combined filing satisfies the requirements of both this 23 Section and the other organic law.

24 E. If the converting entity is a foreign unincorporated entity that is 25 authorized to transact business in this state under a provision of law similar to 26 Chapter 3 of this Title, its certificate of authority or other type of foreign 27 qualification shall be cancelled automatically on the effective date of its conversion.

28 F. Within thirty days after the date that the articles of entity conversion are 29 delivered for filing to the secretary of state, a duplicate original of the articles shall

1 be filed in the conveyance records of each parish in this state in which the converting 2 entity owns immovable property.

4 Comments - 2014 Revision

5 (a) Model Act Subsection (b) covers only the conversion of a domestic 6 unincorporated entity into a domestic business corporation. This Section broadens 7 Model Act Subsection (b) to also cover a conversion of one form of domestic 8 unincorporated entity into another.

9 (b) The terms "filing entity" and "public organic document" are defined in 10 R.S. 12:1-140. Under those definitions, limited liability companies and partnerships, 11 including partnerships in commendam and registered limited liability partnerships, 12 are "filing entities." If a limited liability company or partnership is the surviving 13 entity in an entity conversion, the items required in a public organic document for 14 that form of entity must be included either in the articles of conversion or in a public 15 organic document that is attached to the articles of entity conversion. In the case of 16 a limited liability company, the public organic document consists of both the articles 17 of organization and the initial report, as both must be filed to create a limited liability 18 company. See R.S. 12:1-140(17B); R.S. 12:1304. This Section utilizes the singular 19 term "document" to refer to both limited liability company documents, together, in 20 accordance with the general interpretational rule in R.S. 1:7 that the singular includes 21 the plural.

22 (c) This Section adds a new Subsection F of this Section to harmonize the 23 parish filing requirements in an entity conversion with those in a merger or 24 domestication.

25 §1-954. Surrender of charter upon conversion

26 A. Whenever a domestic business corporation has adopted and approved, in 27 the manner required by this Subpart, a plan of entity conversion providing for the 28 corporation to be converted to a foreign unincorporated entity, articles of charter 29 surrender shall be signed on behalf of the corporation by any officer or other duly 30 authorized representative. The articles of charter surrender shall set forth all of the 31 following:

32 (1) The name of the corporation.

33 (2) A statement that the articles of charter surrender are being filed in 34 connection with the conversion of the corporation to a foreign unincorporated entity.

35 (3) A statement that the conversion was duly approved by the shareholders 36 in the manner required by this Subpart and the articles of incorporation.

37 (4) The jurisdiction under the laws of which the surviving entity will be 38 organized.

1 (5) If the surviving entity will be a nonfiling entity, the address of its 2 executive office immediately after the conversion.

3 B. The articles of charter surrender shall be delivered by the corporation to 4 the secretary of state for filing. The articles of charter surrender shall take effect on 5 the effective time provided in R.S. 12:1-123.

7 §1-955. Effect of entity conversion

8 A. When a conversion under this Subpart becomes effective, all of the 9 following shall apply:

10 (1) The title to all real and personal property, both tangible and intangible, 11 of the converting entity remains in the surviving entity without transfer, assignment, 12 reversion or impairment.

13 (2) The liabilities of the converting entity remain the liabilities of the 14 surviving entity.

15 (3) A pending action or proceeding by or against the converting entity 16 continues by or against the surviving entity as if the conversion had not occurred 17 without any need for substitution of parties.

18 (4) The provisions included in or attached to the articles of entity conversion 19 in accordance with R.S. 12:1-953(B)(3) become effective as the articles of 20 incorporation, articles of organization, initial report, registered contract of 21 partnership, or registered application for registry of a registered limited liability 22 partnership, as appropriate for the surviving entity.

23 (5) In the case of a surviving entity that is a nonfiling entity, its private 24 organic document becomes effective.

25 (6) The shares or interests of the converting entity are reclassified into 26 shares, interests, other securities, obligations, rights to acquire shares, interests, or 27 other securities, or into cash or other property in accordance with the plan of 28 conversion; and the shareholders or interest holders of the converting entity are 29 entitled only to the rights provided to them under the terms of the conversion and to 30 any appraisal rights they may have under the organic law of the converting entity.

1 (7) The surviving entity is deemed to be all of the following:

2 (a) Incorporated or organized under and subject to the organic law of the 3 surviving entity for all purposes.

4 (b) The same corporation or unincorporated entity without interruption as the 5 converting entity.

6 (c) Incorporated or otherwise organized on the date that the converting entity 7 was originally incorporated or organized.

8 B. When a conversion of a domestic business corporation to a foreign 9 unincorporated entity becomes effective, the surviving entity remains both of the 10 following:

11 (1) Obligated under the laws of this state to pay promptly the amount, if any, 12 to which shareholders who exercise appraisal rights in connection with the 13 conversion are entitled under Part 13 of this Chapter.

14 (2) Subject to the personal jurisdiction of the courts of this state in 15 accordance with R.S. 13:3201, and to service of process in accordance with law.

16 C. A shareholder who becomes subject to owner liability for some or all of 17 the debts, obligations, or liabilities of the surviving entity shall be personally liable 18 only for those debts, obligations, or liabilities of the surviving entity that arise after 19 the effective time of the articles of entity conversion.

20 D. The owner liability of an interest holder in an unincorporated entity that 21 converts to another form of domestic unincorporated entity or to a domestic business 22 corporation shall be as follows:

23 (1) The conversion does not discharge any owner liability under the organic 24 law of the converting entity to the extent any such owner liability arose before the 25 effective time of the articles of entity conversion.

26 (2) The interest holder shall not have owner liability under the organic law 27 of the converting entity for any debt, obligation, or liability of the corporation that 28 arises after the effective time of the articles of entity conversion.

1 (3) The provisions of the organic law of the converting entity shall continue 2 to apply to the collection or discharge of any owner liability preserved by Paragraph 3 (D)(1) of this Section, as if the conversion had not occurred.

4 (4) The interest holder shall have whatever rights of contribution from other 5 interest holders are provided by the organic law of the converting entity with respect 6 to any owner liability preserved by Paragraph (D)(1) of this Section, as if the 7 conversion had not occurred.

8 E. The provisions of R.S. 12:1603 and 12:1604, concerning tax filing 9 requirements and professional licenses, apply in either of the following cases of an 10 entity conversion:

11 (1) By a domestic business corporation to a domestic unincorporated entity.

12 (2) By a domestic unincorporated entity to a domestic business corporation 13 or to another form of domestic unincorporated entity.

15 Comments - 2014 Revision

16 (a) This Section modifies Model Act Paragraph (a)(4) to name the particular 17 forms of public organic documents most likely to be relevant in an entity conversion 18 transaction.

19 (b) Model Act Subsection (b) uses legal fictions to state the legal obligations 20 of an "outbound" surviving entity in an entity conversion, deeming the surviving 21 entity to "agree" to pay appraisal rights and to appoint the secretary of state as its 22 agent for service of process in connection with appraisal rights suits. This Section 23 modifies Subsection (b) to state the surviving entity's legal obligations in a more 24 straightforward fashion. The surviving entity remains liable under the laws of this 25 state to pay any appraisal rights when due, not because it agrees to make the 26 payments but because the law requires it to do so. Similarly, the surviving entity 27 remains subject to the personal jurisdiction of the courts of this state not because the 28 entity has made the secretary of state its agent for service of process, but because this 29 state asserts the personal jurisdiction of its courts to the full extent constitutionally 30 permissible, and provides by law for appropriate forms of service of process.

31 (c) This Section adds a new Subsection E of this Section to retain the 32 substance of prior law concerning the filing of short-period tax returns by the 33 converting entity and the continuation of licensing with respect to a surviving entity 34 that is a domestic business corporation or domestic unincorporated entity.

35 §1-956. Abandonment of an entity conversion

36 A. Unless otherwise provided in a plan of entity conversion of a domestic 37 business corporation, after the plan has been adopted and approved as required by

CODING: Words in ~~struck through~~ type are deletions from existing law; words underscored are additions.

1 this Subpart, and at any time before the entity conversion has become effective, it 2 may be abandoned by the board of directors without action by the shareholders.

3 B. If an entity conversion is abandoned after articles of entity conversion or 4 articles of charter surrender have been filed with the secretary of state but before the 5 entity conversion has become effective, a statement that the entity conversion has 6 been abandoned in accordance with this Section, signed by an officer or other duly 7 authorized representative, shall be delivered to the secretary of state for filing prior 8 to the effective date of the entity conversion. Upon filing, the statement shall take 9 effect and the entity conversion shall be deemed abandoned and shall not become 10 effective.

12 PART 10. AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION AND BYLAWS

13 SUBPART A. AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

14 §1-1001. Authority to amend

15 A. A corporation may amend its articles of incorporation at any time to add 16 or change a provision that is required or permitted in the articles of incorporation as 17 of the effective date of the amendment or to delete a provision that is not required 18 to be contained in the articles of incorporation.

19 B. A shareholder of the corporation does not have a vested property right 20 resulting from any provision in the articles of incorporation, including provisions 21 relating to management, control, capital structure, dividend entitlement, or purpose 22 or duration of the corporation.

23 C. An amendment that extends the duration of a corporation may be adopted 24 even after that duration expires unless one of the following conditions exist:

25 (1) Articles of termination or a certificate of termination has been filed and 26 the existence of the corporation has not been reinstated.

27 (2) Articles of dissolution have been delivered to the secretary of state and 28 have not been revoked.

29 (3) A judgment ordering dissolution has become final.

1 which the amendment is to be submitted for approval. The notice must state that the 2 purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider the amendment and 3 must contain or be accompanied by a copy of the amendment. If Paragraph (A)(3) 4 of this Section requires the approval of one or more separate voting groups, in 5 addition to the approval of all shareholders entitled to vote on the amendment, the 6 notice must also identify each class or series of shares that the corporation plans to 7 treat as part of each separate voting group.

8 (3) Unless the articles of incorporation require a greater vote, approval of the 9 amendment by the shareholders requires the approval of at least a majority of the 10 votes entitled to be cast on the amendment, and, if any class or series of shares is 11 entitled to vote as a separate group on the amendment, except as provided in R.S.
12 12:1-1004(C), the approval of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on 13 the amendment by each such separate voting group.

14 B. An amendment to the articles of incorporation of a public corporation 15 shall be adopted in the following manner:

16 (1) The proposed amendment must be adopted by the board of directors.

17 (2) Except as provided in R.S. 12:1-1005, 1-1007, and 1-1008, after adopting 18 the proposed amendment the board of directors must submit the amendment to the 19 shareholders for their approval. The board of directors must also transmit to the 20 shareholders a recommendation that the shareholders approve the amendment, unless 21 the board of directors makes a determination that because of conflicts of interest or 22 other special circumstances it should not make such a recommendation, in which 23 case the board of directors must transmit to the shareholders the basis for that 24 determination.

25 (3) The board of directors may condition its submission of the amendment 26 to the shareholders on any basis.

27 (4) If the amendment is required to be approved by the shareholders, and the 28 approval is to be given at a meeting, the corporation must notify each shareholder, 29 whether or not entitled to vote, of the meeting of shareholders at which the 30 amendment is to be submitted for approval. The notice must state that the purpose,

1 or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider the amendment and must contain 2 or be accompanied by a copy of the amendment. If Paragraph (B)(5) of this Section 3 requires the approval of one or more separate voting groups, in addition to the 4 approval of all shareholders entitled to vote on the amendment, the notice must also 5 identify each class or series of shares that the corporation plans to treat as part of 6 each separate voting group.

7 (5) Unless the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors acting 8 pursuant to Paragraph (B)(3) of this Section, requires a greater vote, approval of the 9 amendment by the shareholders requires the approval of at least a majority of the 10 votes entitled to be cast on the amendment, and, if any class or series of shares is 11 entitled to vote as a separate group on the amendment, except as provided in R.S.
12 12:1-1004(C), the approval of at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on 13 the amendment by each such separate voting group.

15 Comments - 2014 Revision

16 (a) The Model Act provides a single set of rules for the adoption of an 17 amendment to the articles of incorporation. Two features of those rules seem 18 better-suited to public corporations than to the closely-held, often one-shareholder 19 corporations that dominate corporate practice in Louisiana. Those two features are: 20 (1) that shareholders be unable to amend the articles without board approval; and (2) 21 that the board, after adopting an amendment, also make an affirmative 22 recommendation to shareholders of approval, or provide an acceptable explanation 23 of why the board is unable to make such a recommendation.

24 (b) This Section provides two separate procedures for the adoption of an 25 amendment to the articles of incorporation, one for public corporations, as defined 26 in R.S. 12:1-140, and another for nonpublic corporations. The nonpublic corporation 27 rules are provided in Subsection A of this Section. They eliminate the requirements 28 of prior board adoption and recommendation of an amendment. The public 29 corporation rules are provided in Subsection B of this Section. They track the Model 30 Act, except that: (1) they add a requirement that the notice of the meeting include an 31 identification of any voting group that is eligible to vote separately on the 32 amendment; and (2) require an amendment to be approved by at least a majority of 33 the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment, and by a majority of the votes of any 34 class of shares entitled to vote separately on the amendment as a class.

35 §1-1004. Voting on amendments by voting groups

36 A. If a corporation has more than one class of shares outstanding, the holders 37 of the outstanding shares of a class are entitled to vote as a separate voting group, if

1 shareholder voting is otherwise required by this Subpart, on a proposed amendment 2 to the articles of incorporation if the amendment would do any of the following:

3 (1) Effect an exchange or reclassification of all or part of the shares of the 4 class into shares of another class.

5 (2) Effect an exchange or reclassification, or create the right of exchange, of 6 all or part of the shares of another class into shares of the class.

7 (3) Change the rights, preferences, or limitations of all or part of the shares 8 of the class.

9 (4) Change the shares of all or part of the class into a different number of 10 shares of the same class.

11 (5) Create a new class of shares having rights or preferences with respect to 12 distributions that are prior or superior to the shares of the class.

13 (6) Increase the rights, preferences, or number of authorized shares of any 14 class that, after giving effect to the amendment, have rights or preferences with 15 respect to distributions that are prior or superior to the shares of the class.

16 (7) Limit or deny an existing preemptive right of all or part of the shares of 17 the class.

18 (8) Cancel or otherwise affect rights to distributions that have accumulated 19 but not yet been authorized on all or part of the shares of the class.

20 B. If a proposed amendment would affect a series of a class of shares in one 21 or more of the ways described in Subsection A of this Section, the holders of shares 22 of that series are entitled to vote as a separate voting group on the proposed 23 amendment.

24 C. If a proposed amendment that entitles the holders of two or more classes 25 or series of shares to vote as separate voting groups under this Section would affect 26 those two or more classes or series in the same or a substantially similar way, the 27 holders of shares of all the classes or series so affected must vote together as a single 28 voting group on the proposed amendment, unless otherwise provided in the articles 29 of incorporation or required by the board of directors.

1 D. A class or series of shares is entitled to the voting rights granted by this 2 Section although the articles of incorporation provide that the shares are nonvoting 3 shares.

5 §1-1005. Amendment by board of directors

6 Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, a corporation's board 7 of directors may adopt amendments to the corporation's articles of incorporation 8 without shareholder approval to do any of the following:

9 (1) Extend the duration of the corporation if it was incorporated at a time 10 when limited duration was required by law.

11 (2) Delete the names and addresses of the initial directors.

12 (3) Delete the name and address of the initial registered agent or registered 13 office, if a statement of change is on file with the secretary of state, or to delete the 14 address of the initial principal office if the corporation has provided the address of 15 its principal office in an annual report on file with the secretary of state.

16 (4) If the corporation has only one class of shares outstanding, then to do 17 either of the following:

18 (a) Change each issued and unissued authorized share of the class into a 19 greater number of whole shares of that class.

20 (b) Increase the number of authorized shares of the class to the extent 21 necessary to permit the issuance of shares as a share dividend.

22 (5) Change the corporate name by substituting the word "corporation", 23 "incorporated", "company", "limited", or the abbreviation, with or without 24 punctuation, "corp", "inc", "co", or "ltd", for a similar word or abbreviation in the 25 name, or by adding, deleting, or changing a geographical attribution for the name.

26 (6) Reflect a reduction in authorized shares, as a result of the operation of 27 R.S. 12:1-631(B), when the corporation has acquired its own shares and the articles 28 of incorporation prohibit the reissue of the acquired shares.

29 (7) Delete a class of shares from the articles of incorporation, as a result of 30 the operation of R.S. 12:1-631(B), when there are no remaining shares of the class

1 because the corporation has acquired all shares of the class and the articles of 2 incorporation prohibit the reissue of the acquired shares.

3 (8) To make any change expressly permitted by R.S. 12:1-602(A) or (B) to 4 be made without shareholder approval.

6 §1-1006. Articles of amendment

7 After an amendment to the articles of incorporation has been adopted and 8 approved in the manner required by this Subpart and by the articles of incorporation, 9 the corporation shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of 10 amendment, which shall set forth all of the following:

11 (1) The name of the corporation.

12 (2) The text of each amendment adopted, or the information required by R.S.
13 12:1-120(L)(5).

14 (3) If an amendment provides for an exchange, reclassification, or 15 cancellation of issued shares, provisions for implementing the amendment if not 16 contained in the amendment itself, which may be made dependent upon facts 17 objectively ascertainable outside the articles of amendment in accordance with R.S.
18 12:1-120(L)(5).

19 (4) The date of each amendment's adoption.

20 (5)(a) If an amendment was adopted by the incorporators or board of 21 directors without shareholder approval, a statement that the amendment was duly 22 approved by the incorporators or by the board of directors, as the case may be, and 23 that shareholder approval was not required.

24 (b) If an amendment required approval by the shareholders, a statement that 25 the amendment was duly approved by the shareholders in the manner required by 26 this Act and by the articles of incorporation.

27 (c) If an amendment is being filed pursuant to R.S. 12:1-120(L)(5), a 28 statement to that effect.

1 §1-1007. Restated articles of incorporation

2 A. A corporation's board of directors may restate its articles of incorporation 3 at any time, with or without shareholder approval, to consolidate all amendments into 4 a single document.

5 B. If the restated articles include one or more new amendments that require 6 shareholder approval, the amendments must be adopted and approved as provided 7 in R.S. 12:1-1003.

8 C. A corporation that restates its articles of incorporation shall deliver to the 9 secretary of state for filing articles of restatement setting forth the name of the 10 corporation and the text of the restated articles of incorporation together with a 11 certificate which states that the restated articles consolidate all amendments into a 12 single document and, if a new amendment is included in the restated articles, which 13 also includes the statements required under R.S. 12:1-1006.

14 D. Duly adopted restated articles of incorporation supersede the original 15 articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto.

16 E. The secretary of state may certify restated articles of incorporation as the 17 articles of incorporation currently in effect, without including the certificate 18 information required by Subsection C of this Section.

20 §1-1008. Amendment pursuant to reorganization

21 A. A corporation's articles of incorporation may be amended without action 22 by the board of directors or shareholders to carry out a plan of reorganization ordered 23 or decreed by a court of competent jurisdiction under the authority of a law of the 24 United States.

25 B. The individual or individuals designated by the court shall deliver to the 26 secretary of state for filing articles of amendment setting forth all of the following:

27 (1) The name of the corporation.

28 (2) The text of each amendment approved by the court.

29 (3) The date of the court's order or decree approving the articles of 30 amendment.

1 (4) The title of the reorganization proceeding in which the order or decree 2 was entered.

3 (5) A statement that the court had jurisdiction of the proceeding under 4 federal statute.

5 C. This Section does not apply after entry of a final decree in the 6 reorganization proceeding even though the court retains jurisdiction of the 7 proceeding for limited purposes unrelated to consummation of the reorganization 8 plan.

10 §1-1009. Effect of amendment

11 An amendment to the articles of incorporation does not affect a cause of 12 action existing against or in favor of the corporation, a proceeding to which the 13 corporation is a party, or the existing rights of persons other than shareholders of the 14 corporation. An amendment changing a corporation's name does not abate a 15 proceeding brought by or against the corporation in its former name.

17 SUBPART B. AMENDMENT OF BYLAWS

18 §1-1020. Amendment by board of directors or shareholders

19 A. A corporation's shareholders may amend or repeal the corporation's 20 bylaws.

21 B. A corporation's board of directors may adopt, amend, or repeal the 22 corporation's bylaws, unless either of the following conditions exist:

23 (1) The articles of incorporation, R.S. 12:1-1021 or, if applicable, R.S.
 24 12:1-1022 reserve that power exclusively to the shareholders in whole or part.

25 (2) The shareholders in amending, repealing, or adopting a bylaw expressly 26 provide that the board of directors may not amend, repeal, or reinstate that bylaw.

28 §1-1021. Bylaw increasing quorum or voting requirement for directors

29 A. A bylaw that increases a quorum or voting requirement for the board of 30 directors may be amended or repealed under either of the following circumstances:

1 (1) If originally adopted by the shareholders, only by the shareholders, unless 2 the bylaw otherwise provides.

3 (2) If adopted by the board of directors, either by the shareholders or by the 4 board of directors.

5 B. A bylaw adopted or amended by the shareholders that increases a quorum 6 or voting requirement for the board of directors may provide that it can be amended 7 or repealed only by a specified vote of either the shareholders or the board of 8 directors.

9 C. Action by the board of directors under Subsection A of this Section to 10 amend or repeal a bylaw that changes the quorum or voting requirement for the 11 board of directors must meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the 12 same vote required to take action under the quorum and voting requirement then in 13 effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater.

15 §1-1022. Public corporation bylaw provisions relating to the election of directors

16 A. Unless the articles of incorporation specifically prohibit the adoption of 17 a bylaw pursuant to this Section, alter the vote specified in R.S. 12:1-728(A), or 18 provide for cumulative voting, a public corporation may elect in its bylaws to be 19 governed in the election of directors as follows:

20 (1) Each vote entitled to be cast may be voted for or against up to that 21 number of candidates that is equal to the number of directors to be elected, or a 22 shareholder may indicate an abstention, but without cumulating the votes.

23 (2) To be elected, a nominee must have received a plurality of the votes cast 24 by holders of shares entitled to vote in the election at a meeting at which a quorum 25 is present, provided that a nominee who is elected but receives more votes against 26 than for election shall serve as a director for a term that shall terminate on the date 27 that is the earlier of ninety days from the date on which the voting results are 28 determined pursuant to R.S. 12:1-729(B)(5) or the date on which an individual is 29 selected by the board of directors to fill the office held by such director, which 30 selection shall be deemed to constitute the filling of a vacancy by the board to which

1 R.S. 12:1-810 applies. Subject to Paragraph (A)(3) of this Section, a nominee who 2 is elected but receives more votes against than for election shall not serve as a 3 director beyond the ninety-day period referenced above.

4 (3) The board of directors may select any qualified individual to fill the 5 office held by a director who received more votes against than for election.

6 B. Subsection A of this Section does not apply to an election of directors by 7 a voting group if at the expiration of the time fixed under a provision requiring 8 advance notification of director candidates, or absent such a provision, at a time 9 fixed by the board of directors which is not more than fourteen days before notice 10 is given of the meeting at which the election is to occur, there are more candidates 11 for election by the voting group than the number of directors to be elected, one or 12 more of whom are properly proposed by shareholders. An individual shall not be 13 considered a candidate for purposes of this Subsection if the board of directors 14 determines before the notice of meeting is given that such individual's candidacy 15 does not create a bona fide election contest.

16 C. A bylaw electing to be governed by this Section may be repealed by either 17 of the following:

18 (1) If originally adopted by the shareholders, only by the shareholders, unless 19 the bylaw otherwise provides.

20 (2) If adopted by the board of directors, by the board of directors or the 21 shareholders.

23 PART 11. MERGERS AND SHARE EXCHANGES

24 §1-1101. Definitions

25 As used in this Part, the following meanings shall apply:

26 A. "Merger" means a business combination pursuant to R.S. 12:1-1102.

27 B. "Party to a merger" or "party to a share exchange" means any domestic 28 or foreign corporation or eligible entity that will do any of the following:

29 (1) Merge under a plan of merger.

1 (1) The name of each domestic or foreign business corporation or eligible 2 entity that will merge and the name of the domestic or foreign business corporation 3 or eligible entity that will be the survivor of the merger.

4 (2) The terms and conditions of the merger.

5 (3) The manner and basis of converting the shares of each merging domestic 6 or foreign business corporation and eligible interests of each merging eligible entity 7 into shares or other securities, eligible interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares 8 other securities or eligible interests, or into cash, other property, or any combination 9 of the foregoing.

10 (4) The articles of incorporation of any domestic or foreign business or 11 nonprofit corporation, or the organic documents of any domestic or foreign 12 unincorporated entity, to be created by the merger, or if a new domestic or foreign 13 business or nonprofit corporation or unincorporated entity is not to be created by the 14 merger, any amendments to the survivor's articles of incorporation or organic 15 documents.

16 (5) Any other provisions required by the laws under which any party to the 17 merger is organized or by which it is governed, or by the articles of incorporation or 18 organic document of any such party.

19 D. Terms of a plan of merger may be made dependent on facts objectively 20 ascertainable outside the plan in accordance with R.S. 12:1-120(L).

21 E. The plan of merger may also include a provision that the plan may be 22 amended prior to filing articles of merger, but if the shareholders of a domestic 23 corporation that is a party to the merger are required or permitted to vote on the plan, 24 the plan must provide that subsequent to approval of the plan by such shareholders 25 the plan may not be amended to change any of the following:

26 (1) The amount or kind of shares or other securities; eligible interests; 27 obligations; rights to acquire shares, other securities or eligible interests; or the cash 28 or other property to be received under the plan by the shareholders of or owners of 29 eligible interests in any party to the merger.

1 (2) The articles of incorporation of any corporation, or the organic 2 documents of any unincorporated entity, that will survive or be created as a result of 3 the merger, except for changes permitted by R.S. 12:1-1005 or by comparable 4 provisions of the organic laws of any such foreign corporation or domestic or foreign 5 unincorporated entity.

6 (3) Any of the other terms or conditions of the plan if the change would 7 adversely affect such shareholders in any material respect.

8 F. Property received through a conditional donation, grant, or devise, or held 9 in trust or for charitable purposes under the laws of this state by an eligible entity 10 shall not be diverted by a merger from the object for which it was donated, granted, 11 or devised, except to the extent authorized by a court judgment based upon principles 12 of cy pres or approximation.

13 G. A person who is a member, interest holder, or an affiliate of an eligible 14 entity with a charitable purpose shall not receive a direct or indirect financial benefit 15 in connection with a merger to which the eligible entity is a party unless the person 16 is itself a charitable corporation or unincorporated entity with a charitable purpose.
 17 This Subsection does not apply to the receipt of reasonable compensation for 18 services rendered.

20 Comments - 2014 Revision

21 (a) Subsection (b) of the Model Act appears to contain an editorial error. It 22 allows a merger with a foreign business corporation or eligible entity if the foreign 23 corporation or entity itself permits the merger. This Section corrects the apparent 24 error by adding a phrase that refers not to the foreign corporation or entity itself, but 25 rather to the organic law that governs it. This Section also adds the requirement that 26 the foreign organization actually comply with the foreign law that permits its 27 participation in a merger, thus making explicit what was merely implicit in the 28 Model Act.

29 (b) The Model Act contains an optional Paragraph (b)(1) that provides rules 30 analogous to the corporate law rules for mergers involving unincorporated business 31 organizations. This Section replaces the optional provision with the sentence at the 32 end of Subsection B of this Section, which requires the domestic eligible entity, i.e., 33 a partnership, partnership in commendam or limited liability company, to comply 34 with the organic law applicable to it. The organic law governing the merger of a 35 partnership or partnership in commendam is set forth in R.S. 9:3441-3447, while that 36 governing limited liability company mergers is set forth in R.S. 12:1357-1362.

1 (c) This Section modifies the anti-diversion rule in Model Act Subsection (f) 2 slightly by replacing its reference to a particular cy pres or anti-diversion statute with 3 a reference to the legal principles of cy pres more generally, whether those principles 4 are expressed in particular statutes, such as R.S. 9:2331, or the civil law doctrine of 5 approximation. See, e.g., Succession of Mizell, 468 So.2d 1371 (La. App. 1st Cir.
 6 1985), rev'd on other grounds, 475 So.2d 765 (1985); Ada C. Pollock-Blundon Ass'n, 7 Inc. v. Evans' Heirs, 273 So.2d 552 (La. App. 1st Cir. 1973). Because Subsection 8 D of this Section is designed merely to include cy pres principles by reference, and 9 not to state any independent or fixed understanding of those principles, the 10 Subsection does not limit itself to any particular statutory or jurisprudential 11 formulation of the controlling rules.

12 (d) Subsection G of this Section is based on Section 9.03 of the Model 13 Nonprofit Corporation Act and was added to this Section as a complement to 14 Subsection F of this Section to prevent the misuse of assets held for charitable 15 purposes. The term "charitable" means the same thing in Subsection F of this 16 Section as it does under federal income tax law.

17 (e) The Model Act Official Comment to Section 11.02 contains several 18 references to an "other entity," a term used in an earlier draft of the Model Act that 19 was changed before final adoption to the term "eligible entity." Compare, 56 20 Bus.Law. 1633 (2001) (proposed amendments) with 58 Bus.Law. 219 (2002) (final 21 adoption). The Model Act sometimes uses the older term and sometimes the newer 22 term. This Section consistently uses the newer term "eligible entity" in place of the 23 older one. Also, because the term "eligible entity," unlike the term it replaced, 24 includes both domestic and foreign forms of entity, Model Act references to 25 "domestic or foreign eligible entities" have been corrected to eliminate the 26 redundancy. References to "foreign eligible entities" or "domestic eligible entities" 27 have been retained where appropriate to indicate the narrower category of eligible 28 entity intended.

29 §1-1103. Share exchange

30 A. Through a share exchange, either of the following may occur:

31 (1) A domestic corporation may acquire all of the shares of one or more 32 classes or series of shares of another domestic or foreign corporation, or all of the 33 interests of one or more classes or series of interests of an eligible entity, in exchange 34 for shares or other securities, eligible interests, obligations, rights to acquire shares 35 or other securities, or for cash, other property, or any combination of the foregoing, 36 pursuant to a plan of share exchange.

37 (2) All of the shares of one or more classes or series of shares of a domestic 38 corporation may be acquired by another domestic or foreign corporation or eligible 39 entity, in exchange for shares or other securities, eligible interests, obligations, rights 40 to acquire shares or other securities, or for cash, other property, or any combination 41 of the foregoing, pursuant to a plan of share exchange.

1 B. A foreign corporation or foreign eligible entity may be a party to a share 2 exchange only if the share exchange is permitted by the organic law governing the 3 foreign corporation or foreign eligible entity and only if the requirements of that law 4 concerning the share exchange have been satisfied.

5 C. The plan of share exchange must include all of the following:

6 (1) The name of each corporation or eligible entity whose shares or interests 7 will be acquired and the name of the corporation or eligible entity that will acquire 8 those shares or interests.

9 (2) The terms and conditions of the share exchange.

10 (3) The manner and basis of exchanging shares of a corporation or interests 11 in an eligible entity whose shares or interests will be acquired under the share 12 exchange into shares or other securities, eligible interests, obligations, rights to 13 acquire shares or other securities, or into cash, other property, or any combination 14 of the foregoing.

15 (4) Any other provisions required by the laws under which any party to the 16 share exchange is organized or by the articles of incorporation or organic document 17 of any such party.

18 D. Terms of a plan of share exchange may be made dependent on facts 19 objectively ascertainable outside the plan in accordance with R.S. 12:1-120(L).

20 E. The plan of share exchange may also include a provision that the plan 21 may be amended prior to filing articles of share exchange, but if the shareholders of 22 a domestic corporation that is a party to the share exchange are required or permitted 23 to vote on the plan, the plan must provide that subsequent to approval of the plan by 24 such shareholders the plan may not be amended to change either of the following:

25 (1) The amount or kind of shares or other securities, interests, obligations, 26 rights to acquire shares, other securities, or interests, or the cash or other property, 27 to be issued by the corporation or to be received under the plan by the shareholders 28 of or owners of interests in any party to the share exchange.

29 (2) Any of the other terms or conditions of the plan if the change would 30 adversely affect such shareholders in any material respect.

1 F. This Section does not limit the power of any person to acquire shares of 2 another corporation or interests in an eligible entity in a transaction other than a 3 share exchange.

5 Comments - 2014 Revision

6 (a) In an apparent error of terminology, the Model Act uses the term "other 7 entity" (instead of "eligible entity") in this Section and its comments to refer to 8 unincorporated business organizations and nonprofit corporations. The error appears 9 due to a change in terminology between the text originally proposed and that finally 10 adopted in dealing with such entities in Sections 11.01 and 11.02. Compare, 56
 11 Bus.Law. 1633 (2001) (proposed amendments) with 58 Bus.Law. 219 (2002) (final 12 adoption). Reflecting the final terminology, this Section substitutes the term 13 "eligible entity," defined in R.S. 12:1-140(7B), for "other entity" throughout R.S.
 14 12:1-1104 and its Official Comments. Also, because the term "eligible entity" 15 includes both domestic and foreign forms of entity, Model Act references to 16 "domestic and foreign other entities" have been corrected to eliminate the 17 redundancy. References to "foreign eligible entities" or "domestic eligible entities" 18 have been retained where appropriate to indicate the narrower category of eligible 19 entity intended.

20 (b) Subsection (b) of the Model Act appears to contain an editorial error. It 21 allows a share exchange with a foreign business corporation or eligible entity if the 22 foreign corporation or entity itself permits the share exchange. This Section corrects 23 the apparent error by adding a phrase that refers not to the foreign corporation or 24 entity itself, but rather to the organic law that governs it. This Section also adds the 25 requirement that the foreign organization actually comply with the foreign law that 26 permits its participation in a share exchange, thus making explicit what was merely 27 implicit in the Model Act.

28 (c) The Model Act provides in Subsection (f) that Section 11.03 does not 29 affect the power of a domestic corporation to acquire shares or interests outside of 30 a share exchange. The limitation of the statement to domestic corporations is likely 31 due to the limited scope of Section 11.03 itself, which reaches only share exchanges 32 that involve a domestic corporation. Nevertheless, to avoid the unintended negative 33 implication that Section 11.03 might affect acquisitions by persons other than a 34 domestic corporation, this Section broadens the statement in Subsection (f) to make 35 it applicable to acquisitions outside a share exchange by any person.

36 §1-1104. Action on a plan of merger or share exchange

37 In the case of a domestic corporation that is a party to a merger or share 38 exchange, all of the following shall apply:

39 (1) The plan of merger or share exchange must be adopted by the board of 40 directors.

41 (2) Except as provided in Paragraph (8) of this Section and in R.S.
 42 12:1-1105, after adopting the plan of merger or share exchange, the board of 43 directors must submit the plan to the shareholders for their approval. The board of 1 directors must also transmit to the shareholders a recommendation that the 2 shareholders approve the plan, unless the board of directors makes a determination 3 that because of conflicts of interest or other special circumstances it should not make 4 such a recommendation or R.S. 12:1-826 applies. If the board of directors makes 5 such a determination or R.S. 12:1-826 applies, the board must transmit to the 6 shareholders the basis for so proceeding.

7 (3) The board of directors may condition its submission of the plan of merger 8 or share exchange to the shareholders on any basis.

9 (4) If the plan of merger or share exchange is required to be approved by the 10 shareholders, and if the approval is to be given at a meeting, the corporation must 11 notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the meeting of 12 shareholders at which the plan is to be submitted for approval. The notice must state 13 that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider the plan and 14 must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan. If the 15 corporation is to be merged into an existing corporation or eligible entity, the notice 16 shall also include or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the articles of 17 incorporation or organizational documents of that corporation or eligible entity. If 18 the corporation is to be merged into a corporation or eligible entity that is to be 19 created pursuant to the merger, the notice shall include or be accompanied by a copy 20 or a summary of the articles of incorporation or organizational documents of the new 21 corporation or eligible entity.

22 (5) Unless the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors acting
23 pursuant to Paragraph (3) of this Section, requires a greater vote, approval of the plan 24 of merger or share exchange requires the approval of at least a majority of the votes 25 entitled to be cast on the plan, and, if any class or series of shares is entitled to vote 26 as a separate group on the plan of merger or share exchange, the approval of each 27 such separate voting group at a meeting by at least a majority of the votes entitled 28 to be cast on the merger or share exchange by that voting group.

29 (6) Subject to Paragraph (7) of this Section, separate voting by voting groups 30 is required on all of the following:

1 (a) A plan of merger, by each class or series of shares that is either of the 2 following:

3 (i) To be converted under the plan of merger into other securities, interests, 4 obligations, rights to acquire shares, other securities, or interests, or into cash, other 5 property, or any combination of the foregoing.

6 (ii) Entitled to vote as a separate group on a provision in the plan that 7 constitutes a proposed amendment to articles of incorporation of a surviving 8 corporation and that requires action by separate voting groups under R.S. 12:1-1004.

9 (b) A plan of share exchange, by each class or series of shares included in 10 the exchange, with each class or series constituting a separate voting group.

11 (c) A plan of merger or share exchange, if the voting group is entitled under 12 the articles of incorporation to vote as a voting group to approve a plan of merger or 13 share exchange.

14 (7) The articles of incorporation may expressly limit or eliminate the 15 separate voting rights provided in Item (6)(a)(i) and Subparagraph (6)(b) of this 16 Section as to any class or series of shares, except for a transaction that includes what 17 is or would be, if the corporation were the surviving corporation, an amendment 18 subject to Item (6)(a)(ii) of this Section, and that will effect no significant change in 19 the assets of the resulting entity, including all parents and subsidiaries on a 20 consolidated basis.

21 (8) Unless the articles of incorporation otherwise provide, approval by the 22 corporation's shareholders of a plan of merger or share exchange is not required if 23 all of the following criteria are satisfied:

24 (a) The corporation will survive the merger or is the acquiring corporation 25 in a share exchange.

26 (b) Except for amendments permitted by R.S. 12:1-1005, its articles of 27 incorporation will not be changed.

28 (c) Each shareholder of the corporation whose shares were outstanding 29 immediately before the effective date of the merger or share exchange will hold the same number of shares, with identical preferences, limitations, and relative rights, immediately after the effective date of change.

(d) The issuance in the merger or share exchange of shares or other securities convertible into or rights exercisable for shares does not require a vote under R.S. 12:1-621(F).

(9) If as a result of a merger or share exchange one or more shareholders of a domestic corporation would become subject to owner liability for the debts, obligations, or liabilities of any other person or entity, approval of the plan of merger or share exchange shall require the execution, by each such shareholder, of a separate written consent to become subject to such owner liability.

Comment - 2014 Revision

Model Act Subsection (f) requires that shareholders approve a plan of merger or share exchange by a majority of votes cast at a meeting at which at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the plan is present in person or by proxy, plus separate approvals by voting groups that are entitled to vote separately on the plan using the same quorum and majority-of-votes-cast standards. This Section increases the vote required for approval of a plan of merger from a majority of votes cast to a majority of the shares entitled to vote. Because the higher voting standard can be achieved only if the quorum requirement of the Model Act is also satisfied, the Model Act's separate reference to a required quorum is eliminated.

§1-1105. Merger between parent and subsidiary or between subsidiaries

A. A domestic parent corporation that owns shares of a domestic or foreign subsidiary corporation that carry at least ninety percent of the voting power of each class and series of the outstanding shares of the subsidiary that have voting power may merge the subsidiary into itself or into another such subsidiary, or merge itself into the subsidiary, without the approval of the board of directors or shareholders of the subsidiary, unless the articles of incorporation of any of the corporations otherwise provide, or unless, in the case of a foreign subsidiary, approval by the subsidiary's board of directors or shareholders is required by the laws under which the subsidiary is organized.

B. If under Subsection A of this Section approval of a merger by the subsidiary's shareholders is not required, the parent corporation shall, within ten days

1 after the effective date of the merger, notify each of the subsidiary's shareholders that 2 the merger has become effective.

3 C. Except as provided in Subsections A and B of this Section, a merger 4 between a parent and a subsidiary shall be governed by the provisions of Part 11 of 5 this Chapter applicable to mergers generally.

6 Source: MBCA §11.05.

7 §1-1106. Articles of merger or share exchange

8 A. After a plan of merger or share exchange has been adopted and approved 9 as required by this Subpart, articles of merger or share exchange shall be signed on 10 behalf of each party to the merger or share exchange by any officer or other duly 11 authorized representative. The articles shall set forth all of the following:

12 (1) The names of the parties to the merger or share exchange.

13 (2) If the articles of incorporation of the survivor of a merger are amended, 14 or if a new corporation is created as a result of a merger, the amendments to the 15 survivor's articles of incorporation or the articles of incorporation of the new 16 corporation.

17 (3) If the plan of merger or share exchange required approval by the 18 shareholders of a domestic corporation that was a party to the merger or share 19 exchange, a statement that the plan was duly approved by the shareholders and, if 20 voting by any separate voting group was required, by each such separate voting 21 group, in the manner required by this Subpart and the articles of incorporation.

22 (4) If the plan of merger or share exchange did not require approval by the 23 shareholders of a domestic corporation that was a party to the merger or share 24 exchange, a statement to that effect.

25 (5) As to each eligible entity or foreign corporation that was a party to the 26 merger or share exchange, a statement that the participation of the eligible entity or 27 foreign corporation was duly authorized as required by the organic law of the eligible 28 entity or corporation.

29 B. Articles of merger or share exchange shall be delivered to the secretary 30 of state for filing by the survivor of the merger or the acquiring corporation in a

1 share exchange, and shall take effect at the effective time provided in R.S. 12:1-123.
 2 Articles of merger or share exchange filed under this Section may be combined with 3 any filing required under the organic law of any domestic eligible entity involved in 4 the transaction if the combined filing satisfies the requirements of both this Section 5 and the other organic law.

6 C. Within thirty days of the date that articles of merger take effect, a 7 duplicate original or certified copy of the articles shall be filed in the conveyance 8 records of each parish in this state in which any of the parties to the merger has 9 immovable property.

10 Source: MBCA §11.06.

11 Comments - 2014 Revision

12 (a) This Section adds a new Subsection C to the Model Act provision, to 13 retain the rule in prior law that required a parish-level filing of merger documents in 14 those parishes in which one or more parties to the merger owned immovable 15 property. The earlier requirement that the merger documents also be filed in any 16 parish in which any of the merger parties had its registered office has been 17 eliminated.

18 (b) The duplicate filing requirement in Subsection C of this Section does not 19 apply to articles of share exchange because a share exchange does not change the 20 ownership of immovable property by the parties to the share exchange.

21 §1-1107. Effect of merger or share exchange

22 A. When a merger becomes effective, all of the following shall apply:

23 (1) The corporation or eligible entity that is designated in the plan of merger 24 as the survivor continues or comes into existence, as the case may be.

25 (2) The separate existence of every corporation or eligible entity that is 26 merged into the survivor ceases.

27 (3) All property owned by, and every contract right possessed by, each 28 corporation or eligible entity that merges into the survivor is vested in the survivor 29 without any transfer, assignment, reversion or impairment.

30 (4) All liabilities of each corporation or eligible entity that is merged into the 31 survivor are vested in the survivor.

1 (5) The name of the survivor may, but need not be, substituted in any 2 pending proceeding for the name of any party to the merger whose separate existence 3 ceased in the merger.

4 (6) The articles of incorporation or organic documents of the survivor are 5 amended to the extent provided in the plan of merger.

6 (7) The articles of incorporation or organic documents of a survivor that is 7 created by the merger become effective.

8 (8) The shares of each corporation that is a party to the merger, and the 9 interests in an eligible entity that is a party to a merger, that are to be converted 10 under the plan of merger into shares, eligible interests, obligations, rights to acquire 11 securities, other securities, or eligible interests, or into cash, other property, or any 12 combination of the foregoing, are converted, and the former holders of such shares 13 or eligible interests are entitled only to the rights provided to them in the plan of 14 merger or to any rights they may have under Part 13 of this Chapter or the organic 15 law of the eligible entity.

16 (9) The survivor possesses all the rights, licenses, privileges, and franchises 17 possessed by each of the parties to the merger, except that the survivor does not 18 possess any right, license, privilege, or franchise that meets either of the following 19 conditions:

20 (a) The survivor is ineligible to possess or to exercise.

21 (b) Does not survive a merger because of a provision to that effect in the law 22 or administrative rules under which the right, license, privilege, or franchise is held 23 at the time of the merger.

24 B. When a share exchange becomes effective, the shares of each domestic 25 corporation that are to be exchanged for shares or other securities, eligible interests, 26 obligations, rights to acquire shares, other securities, or eligible interests, or for cash, 27 other property, or any combination of the foregoing, are entitled only to the rights 28 provided to them in the plan of share exchange or to any rights they may have under 29 Part 13 of this Chapter.

1 C. A person who becomes subject to owner liability for some or all of the 2 debts, obligations, or liabilities of any entity as a result of a merger or share 3 exchange shall have owner liability only to the extent provided in the organic law of 4 the entity and only for those debts, obligations, and liabilities that arise after the 5 effective time of the articles of merger or share exchange.

6 D. Upon a merger becoming effective, a foreign corporation, or a foreign 7 eligible entity, that is the survivor of the merger remains both of the following:

8 (1) Obligated under the laws of this state to pay promptly the amount, if any, 9 to which shareholders of each domestic corporation who exercise appraisal rights are 10 entitled under Part 13 of this Chapter.

11 (2) Subject to the personal jurisdiction of the courts of this state in 12 accordance with R.S. 13:3201, and to service of process in accordance with law.

13 E. The effect of a merger or share exchange on the owner liability of a 14 person who had owner liability for some or all of the debts, obligations, or liabilities 15 of a party to the merger or share exchange shall be as follows:

16 (1) The merger or share exchange does not discharge any owner liability 17 under the organic law of the entity in which the person was a shareholder or interest 18 holder to the extent any such owner liability arose before the effective time of the 19 articles of merger or share exchange.

20 (2) The person shall not have owner liability under the organic law of the 21 entity in which the person was a shareholder or interest holder prior to the merger or 22 share exchange for any debt, obligation, or liability that arises after the effective time 23 of the articles of merger or share exchange.

24 (3) The provisions of the organic law of any entity for which the person had 25 owner liability before the merger or share exchange shall continue to apply to the 26 collection or discharge of any owner liability preserved by Paragraph (E)(1) of this 27 Section, as if the merger or share exchange had not occurred.

28 (4) The person shall have whatever rights of contribution from other persons 29 are provided by the organic law of the entity for which the person had owner liability

1 with respect to any owner liability preserved by Paragraph (E)(1) of this Section, as 2 if the merger or share exchange had not occurred.

3 F. For purposes of service of process under Paragraph (D)(2) of this Section, 4 a foreign eligible entity that is a survivor of a merger may be served in accordance 5 with the rules applicable to service of process on a foreign corporation, as if both of 6 the following conditions exist:

7 (1) The survivor were a foreign corporation.

8 (2) Each of following persons were a director of that corporation:

9 (a) A general partner if the survivor is a partnership of any kind.

10 (b) A member if the survivor is a member-managed limited liability 11 company.

12 (c) A manager if the survivor is a manager-managed limited liability 13 company.

14 (d) A person holding managerial authority in the survivor, regardless of the 15 form of the surviving entity, that is similar to that of an officer or director of a 16 domestic business corporation.

18 Comments - 2014 Revision

19 (a) This Section adds a new Paragraph (9) to Subsection A of this Section 20 to retain the rule in prior law that the survivor of a merger holds all of the rights, 21 privileges and franchises held by each of the parties to the merger. Prior law 22 restricted the operation of the rule to those objects or functions for which a domestic 23 business corporation could be formed. Because the survivor of a merger under this 24 Section may be something other than a domestic corporation, and because the prior 25 limitation did not yield even to contrary provision in the controlling licensing laws, 26 the limitation of the rule in Paragraph (A)(9) of this Section has been broadened in 27 this Section from that in prior law. Under the broader limitation, the survivor does 28 not possess the rights and licenses of the merging parties under two circumstances: 29 (1) the survivor would be ineligible to hold the right or license or (2) the licensing 30 or regulatory law applicable to the activity or business in question precludes the right 31 or license from surviving a merger. Hence, as a general matter, Paragraph (A)(9) of 32 this Section is designed to let the survivor of a merger continue to operate all of the 33 businesses that were engaged in by the merging parties before the merger, without 34 triggering the need for new license applications or approvals merely because the 35 licensing or regulatory body may deem the survivor of the merger not to be the same 36 legal person as the merged company. A survivor becomes a licensee through a 37 merger with a licensed party not by means of transfer but by operation of law, 38 subject only to the exceptions stated in Paragraph (A)(9) of this Section. The 39 exceptions in Paragraph (A)(9) of this Section are designed not to permit a merger 40 party that would be ineligible for a particular form of license or franchise to acquire 41 one through a merger (as in a merger between a bank and an ordinary business

1 corporation in which the business corporation survived and claimed the right to 2 operate a bank), and to yield to more specific provisions on the subject that may exist 3 in a given licensing or regulatory scheme.

4 (b) Model Act Paragraph (d)(1) provides that a foreign survivor of a merger 5 is deemed to appoint the secretary of state as its agent for service of process in a 6 proceeding to enforce the appraisal rights of shareholders of any domestic 7 corporations that were parties to the merger. Because service on the secretary of 8 state is a last-resort mechanism for serving foreign entities under Louisiana law, this 9 Section modifies Paragraph (d)(1) to say simply that service of process may be 10 carried out in accordance with law. The Code of Civil Procedure, supplemented by 11 reference to provisions of the long arm statute, R.S. 13:3201-3207, provides the rules 12 for service of process. The rules for domestic and foreign corporations are stated in 13 Arts. 1261 and 1262, for partnerships in Art. 1263, for unincorporated associations 14 in Art. 1264, and for domestic and foreign limited liability companies in Arts. 1266 15 and 1267.

16 (c) The rules in the Code of Civil Procedure for service of process on foreign 17 entities are well-developed and similar with respect to corporations and limited 18 liability companies. The partnership and unincorporated association rules, however, 19 are more abbreviated and may not apply or work as well as the corporate rules would 20 work in dealing with foreign partnerships and other foreign entities that do not fit 21 well into any of the listed categories of organizations. This Section addresses those 22 problems in the context of appraisal rights suits by adding a new Subsection F.
 23 Subsection F of this Section provides that, for purposes of service under Paragraph 24 (D)(1) of this Section, all foreign eligible entities are treated as foreign corporations, 25 and those who hold managerial authority in a foreign eligible entity comparable to 26 that of a corporate officer or director are treated as directors. Combining the rules 27 in Subsection F of this Section with those in Code of Civil Procedure Arts. 1261 and 28 1262, all forms of foreign eligible entities may be served process in a suit to enforce 29 appraisal rights through personal service on a registered agent of the entity or, if no 30 registered agent can be served, then by personal service on any of the directors or 31 director-like participants in the organization or on an entity employee of suitable age 32 and discretion at any place where the foreign eligible entity regularly does business, 33 or by service, typically by registered or certified mail, in accordance with the long 34 arm statute or, finally, failing all those other efforts, by service on the secretary of 35 state.

36 §1-1108. Abandonment of a merger or share exchange

37 A. Unless otherwise provided in a plan of merger or share exchange or in the 38 laws under which an eligible entity or foreign business corporation that is a party to 39 a merger or a share exchange is organized or by which it is governed, after the plan 40 has been adopted and approved as required by this Part, and at any time before the 41 merger or share exchange has become effective, it may be abandoned by a domestic 42 business corporation that is a party thereto without action by its shareholders in 43 accordance with any procedures set forth in the plan of merger or share exchange or, 44 if no such procedures are set forth in the plan, in the manner determined by the board 45 of directors, subject to any contractual rights of other parties to the merger or share 46 exchange.

1 B. If a merger or share exchange is abandoned under Subsection A of this 2 Section after articles of merger or share exchange have been filed with the secretary 3 of state but before the merger or share exchange has become effective, a statement 4 that the merger or share exchange has been abandoned in accordance with this 5 Section, signed on behalf of a party to the merger or share exchange by an officer or 6 other duly authorized representative, shall be delivered to the secretary of state for 7 filing prior to the effective date of the merger or share exchange. Upon filing, the 8 statement shall take effect and the merger or share exchange shall be deemed 9 abandoned and shall not become effective.

11 PART 12. DISPOSITION OF ASSETS

12 §1-1201. Disposition of assets not requiring shareholder approval

13 No approval of the shareholders of a corporation is required for any of the 14 following actions, unless the articles of incorporation otherwise provide:

15 (1) To sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of any or all of the 16 corporation's assets in the usual and regular course of business.

17 (2) To mortgage, pledge, dedicate to the repayment of indebtedness, whether 18 with or without recourse, or otherwise encumber any or all of the corporation's 19 assets, whether or not in the usual and regular course of business.

20 (3) To transfer any or all of the corporation's assets to one or more 21 corporations or other entities all of the shares or interests of which are owned by the 22 corporation.

23 (4) To distribute assets pro rata to the holders of one or more classes or series 24 of the corporation's shares, provided that the distribution does not violate the rights 25 of any class or series of shares.

26 Source: MBCA §12.01.

27 Comment - 2014 Revision

28 This Section adds a requirement to the rule in Model Act Paragraph (4) that 29 the distribution be made without violating the rights of any class or series of shares.

1 §1-1202. Shareholder approval of certain dispositions

2 A. A sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of assets, other than a 3 disposition described in R.S. 12:1-1201, requires approval of the corporation's 4 shareholders if the disposition would leave the corporation without a significant 5 continuing business activity. If a corporation retains a business activity that 6 represented at least twenty-five percent of total assets at the end of the most recently 7 completed fiscal year, and twenty-five percent of either income from continuing 8 operations before taxes or revenues from continuing operations for that fiscal year, 9 in each case of the corporation and its subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, the 10 corporation will conclusively be deemed to have retained a significant continuing 11 business activity.

12 B. A disposition that requires approval of the shareholders under Subsection 13 A of this Section shall be initiated by a resolution by the board of directors 14 authorizing the disposition. After adoption of such a resolution, the board of 15 directors shall submit the proposed disposition to the shareholders for their approval.
16 The board of directors shall also transmit to the shareholders a recommendation that 17 the shareholders approve the proposed disposition, unless the board of directors 18 makes a determination that because of conflicts of interest or other special 19 circumstances it should not make such a recommendation, or R.S. 12:1-826 applies.
20 If the board of directors makes such a determination or R.S. 12:1-826 applies, the 21 board of directors shall transmit to the shareholders the basis for so proceeding.

22 C. The board of directors may condition its submission of a disposition to 23 the shareholders under Subsection B of this Section on any basis.

24 D. If a disposition is required to be approved by the shareholders under 25 Subsection A of this Section, and if the approval is to be given at a meeting, the 26 corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the 27 meeting of shareholders at which the disposition is to be submitted for approval. The 28 notice shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to 29 consider the disposition and shall contain a description of the disposition, including 1 the terms and conditions thereof and the consideration to be received by the 2 corporation.

3 E. Unless the articles of incorporation or the board of directors acting 4 pursuant to Subsection C of this Section requires a greater vote, the approval of a 5 disposition by the shareholders shall require the approval of at least a majority of the 6 votes entitled to be cast on the disposition.

7 F. After a disposition has been approved by the shareholders under 8 Subsection B of this Section, and at any time before the disposition has been 9 consummated, it may be abandoned by the corporation without action by the 10 shareholders, subject to any contractual rights of other parties to the disposition.

11 G. A disposition of assets in the course of dissolution under Part 14 of this 12 Chapter is not governed by this Section.

13 H. The assets of a direct or indirect consolidated subsidiary shall be deemed 14 the assets of the parent corporation for the purposes of this Section.

16 Comment - 2014 Revision

17 This Section modifies Model Act Subsection (e) to increase the vote required 18 to approve a covered disposition of assets from a majority of the votes cast at a 19 meeting with at least a majority quorum to a majority of all votes entitled to be cast.

20 PART 13. APPRAISAL RIGHTS

21 SUBPART A. RIGHT TO APPRAISAL AND PAYMENT FOR SHARES

22 §1-1301. Definitions

23 In this Part, the following meanings shall apply:

24 (1) "Affiliate" means a person that directly or indirectly through one or more 25 intermediaries controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with another 26 person or is a senior executive thereof. For purposes of R.S. 12:1-1302(B)(4), an 27 entity is deemed to be an affiliate of its senior executives.

28 (2) "Beneficial owner" means any person who, directly or indirectly, through 29 any contract, arrangement, or understanding, other than a revocable proxy, has or 30 shares the power to vote, or to direct the voting of, shares; except that a member of 31 a national securities exchange is not deemed to be a beneficial owner of securities

1 held directly or indirectly by it on behalf of another person solely because the 2 member is the record holder of the securities if the member is precluded by the rules 3 of the exchange from voting without instruction on contested matters or matters that 4 may affect substantially the rights or privileges of the holders of the securities to be 5 voted. When two or more persons agree to act together for the purpose of voting 6 their shares of the corporation, each member of the group formed thereby is deemed 7 to have acquired beneficial ownership, as of the date of the agreement, of all voting 8 shares of the corporation beneficially owned by any member of the group.

9 (3) "Corporation" means the issuer of the shares held by a shareholder 10 demanding appraisal and, for matters covered in R.S. 12:1-1322 through 1-1331, 11 includes the surviving entity in a merger.

12 (3.1) "Excluded shares" means shares acquired pursuant to an offer for all 13 shares having voting power if the offer was made within one year prior to the 14 corporate action for consideration of the same kind and of a value equal to or less 15 than that paid in connection with the corporate action.

16 (4) "Fair value" means the value of the corporation's shares determined 17 immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action to which the shareholder 18 objects, using customary and current valuation concepts and techniques generally 19 employed for similar businesses in the context of the transaction requiring appraisal, 20 and without discounting for lack of marketability or minority status except, if 21 appropriate, for amendments to the articles pursuant to R.S. 12:1-1302(A)(5).

22 (5) "Interest" means interest from the effective date of the corporate action 23 until the date of payment, at the rate of judicial interest.

24 (5.1) "Interested person" means a person, or an affiliate of a person, who at 25 any time during the one-year period immediately preceding approval by the board 26 of directors of the corporate action, satisfies one of the following criteria:

27 (a) Was the beneficial owner of twenty percent or more of the voting power 28 of the corporation, other than as owner of excluded shares.

1 (b) Had the power, contractually or otherwise, other than as owner of 2 excluded shares, to cause the appointment or election of twenty-five percent or more 3 of the directors to the board of directors of the corporation.

4 (c) Was a senior executive or director of the corporation or a senior 5 executive of any affiliate thereof, and that senior executive or director will receive, 6 as a result of the corporate action, a financial benefit not generally available to other 7 shareholders as such, other than any of the following:

8 (i) Employment, consulting, retirement, or similar benefits established 9 separately and not as part of or in contemplation of the corporate action.

10 (ii) Employment, consulting, retirement, or similar benefits established in 11 contemplation of, or as part of, the corporate action that are not more favorable than 12 those existing before the corporate action or, if more favorable, that have been 13 approved on behalf of the corporation in the same manner as is provided in R.S.
 14 12:1-862.

15 (iii) In the case of a director of the corporation who will, in the corporate 16 action, become a director of the acquiring entity in the corporate action or one of its 17 affiliates, rights and benefits as a director that are provided on the same basis as 18 those afforded by the acquiring entity generally to other directors of such entity or 19 such affiliate.

20 (5.2) "Interested transaction" means a corporate action described in R.S.
 21 12:1-1302(A) involving an interested person in which any of the shares or assets of 22 the corporation are being acquired or converted.

23 (6) "Preferred shares" means a class or series of shares whose holders have 24 preference over any other class or series with respect to distributions.

25 (7) [Reserved.]

26 (8) "Senior executive" means the chief executive officer, chief operating 27 officer, chief financial officer, and anyone in charge of a principal business unit or 28 function.

29 (9) "Shareholder" means a record shareholder, a beneficial shareholder, and 30 a voting trust beneficial owner.

Comment - 2014 Revision

2

The Model Act excludes so-called "short form mergers" from its definition of "interested transaction" in Paragraph (5.2) of this Section. A short form merger is a merger that is carried out between a ninety percent or greater parent company and one or more of its subsidiaries, or among one or more ninety-percent-or-greater subsidiaries of the same parent. See Subsection 11.05(a). The merger is called "short form" because it may be carried out without the approval of either the board or shareholders of the subsidiary. Id. The purpose of the "interested transaction" definition is to prevent the defined transaction from qualifying for the so-called "market out" exception that makes appraisal rights unavailable in transactions in which they would otherwise be provided.

12

This Section removes the exclusion of short form mergers from the definition of "interested transaction" so that short form mergers may be treated as "interested transactions" in the same way as ordinary mergers if they otherwise fit the definition in Paragraph (5.2) of this Section. The effect is to make appraisal rights available, and the market out exception unavailable, in a short form mergers that qualifies as an interested transaction.

13

15

16

17

18

The Model Act's removal of short form mergers from the definition of an interested transaction is puzzling because a short form merger is one of the clearest examples imaginable of a conflicting-interest transaction. It allows a parent company to dictate unilaterally to a ninety-percent subsidiary the terms under which a merger with the subsidiary will occur, without even the formality of an approving vote by the subsidiary's board or shareholders.

19

21

22

23

24

The only setting in which a market-out exception for a short-term merger or, indeed, for any parent-subsidiary merger, is justified is in a two-step cash, or public-shares, transaction in which the terms are set by market forces in the first step, and then carried through to the second step short-form merger as well. A typical example would be an unrelated acquirer making an all-shares cash tender offer that resulted in the acquisition of at least a majority of the target's shares, followed soon thereafter by a second-step merger at the same price, paid in cash, as that provided in the tender offer. In that kind of transaction, the usual justifications for the market out exception, i.e., liquidity and a market-set price, are met.

25

27

28

29

30

31

32

33

But the Model Act deals with that form of transaction elsewhere, through more narrowly-tailored provisions. In general, without the exception for short form mergers that this Section rejects, a parent company is an interested person because it owns twenty percent or more of the subsidiary's shares. See Model Act Item 13.01(5.1)(i)(A). However, in calculating the percentage of shares owned by the parent, so-called "excluded shares" are not counted. Excluded shares are shares that are acquired in an all-shares offer within one year of the date of a merger, as long as the merger terms provide at least the same price, paid in the same form, as offered in the first-step deal. See Subparagraph (3.1) of this Section. Hence, a bidder that acquired control of a target through a first-stage cash tender offer would not be treated as an interested person in a second-stage merger (whether short form or ordinary), as long as the merger occurred within a year and on the same terms as the tender offer. Note, however, that two-step management buyout could not use the excluded share concept to avoid being treated as an "interested transaction." Another provision, Item (5.1)(i)(C), would independently cause that kind of transaction to be treated as an "interested transaction" if the transaction otherwise fit the terms of that provision.

50

Because the "excluded shares" definition deals appropriately with the kinds of mergers in which the market out exception should apply, this Section rejects the general exception for short form mergers provided by the Model Act in Subsection (5.2) of this Section.

1 §1-1302. Right to appraisal

2 A. A shareholder is entitled to appraisal rights and to obtain payment of the 3 fair value of that shareholder's shares, in the event of any of the following corporate 4 actions:

5 (1) Consummation of a merger to which the corporation is a party if either 6 of the following apply:

7 (a) Shareholder approval is required for the merger by R.S. 12:1-1104, 8 except that appraisal rights shall not be available to any shareholder of the 9 corporation with respect to shares of any class or series that remain outstanding after 10 consummation of the merger.

11 (b) The corporation is a subsidiary and the merger is governed by R.S.
12 12:1-1105.

13 (2) Consummation of a share exchange to which the corporation is a party 14 as the corporation whose shares will be acquired, except that appraisal rights shall 15 not be available to any shareholder of the corporation with respect to any class or 16 series of shares of the corporation that is not exchanged.

17 (3) Consummation of a disposition of assets pursuant to R.S. 12:1-1202, 18 except that appraisal rights shall not be available to any shareholder of the 19 corporation with respect to shares of any class or series if, under the terms of the 20 corporate action approved by the shareholders, there is to be distributed to 21 shareholders in cash its net assets in excess of a reasonable amount reserved to meet 22 claims of the type described in R.S. 12:1-1406 and 1-1407, within one year after the 23 shareholders' approval of the action and in accordance with their respective interests 24 determined at the time of distribution, and the disposition of assets is not an 25 interested transaction.

26 (4) An amendment of the articles of incorporation with respect to a class or 27 series of shares that reduces the number of shares of a class or series owned by the 28 shareholder to a fraction of a share if the corporation has the obligation or right to 29 repurchase the fractional share so created.

1 (5) Any other amendment to the articles of incorporation, merger, share 2 exchange, or disposition of assets to the extent provided by the articles of 3 incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors.

4 (6) Consummation of a domestication if the shareholder does not receive 5 shares in the foreign corporation resulting from the domestication that have terms as 6 favorable to the shareholder in all material respects, and represent at least the same 7 percentage interest of the total voting rights of the outstanding shares of the 8 corporation, as the shares held by the shareholder before the domestication,

9 (7) Consummation of a conversion of the corporation to nonprofit status 10 pursuant to Subpart 9C of this Part.

11 (8) Consummation of a conversion of the corporation to an unincorporated 12 entity pursuant to Subpart 9E of this Part.

13 B. Notwithstanding Subsection A of this Section, the availability of appraisal 14 rights under Paragraphs (A)(1), (2), (3), (4), (6), and (8) of this Section shall be 15 limited in accordance with the following provisions:

16 (1) Appraisal rights shall not be available for the holders of shares of any 17 class or series of shares which is one of the following:

18 (a) A covered security under Section 18(b)(1)(A) or (B) of the Securities Act 19 of 1933, as amended.

20 (b) Traded in an organized market and has at least two thousand shareholders 21 and a market value of at least twenty million dollars, exclusive of the value of such 22 shares held by the corporation's subsidiaries, senior executives, and directors and by 23 beneficial shareholders and voting trust beneficial owners owning more than ten 24 percent of such shares.

25 (c) Issued by an open end management investment company registered with 26 the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Investment Company Act of 27 1940 and may be redeemed at the option of the holder at net asset value.

28 (2) The applicability of Paragraph (B)(1) of this Section shall be determined 29 as of either of the following:

1 (a) The record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to receive 2 notice of the meeting of shareholders to act upon the corporate action requiring 3 appraisal rights.

4 (b) The day before the effective date of such corporate action if there is no 5 meeting of shareholders.

6 (3) Paragraph (B)(1) of this Section shall not be applicable and appraisal
7 rights shall be available pursuant to Subsection A of this Section for the holders of 8 any class or series of shares who are required by the terms of the corporate action 9 requiring appraisal rights to accept for such shares anything other than cash or shares 10 of any class or any series of shares of any corporation, or any other proprietary 11 interest of any other entity, that satisfies the standards set forth in Paragraph (B)(1) 12 of this Section at the time the corporate action becomes effective or, in the case of 13 the consummation of a disposition of assets pursuant to R.S. 12:1-1202, unless such 14 cash, shares, or proprietary interests are, under the terms of the corporate action 15 approved by the shareholders, to be distributed to the shareholders as part of a 16 distribution to shareholders of the net assets of the corporation in excess of a 17 reasonable amount to meet claims of the type described in R.S. 12:1-1406 and 18 1-1407, within one year after the shareholders' approval of the action and in 19 accordance with their respective interests determined at the time of the distribution.

20 (4) Paragraph (B)(1) of this Section shall not be applicable and appraisal
21 rights shall be available pursuant to Subsection A of this Section for the holders of 22 any class or series of shares where the corporate action is an interested transaction.

23 C. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Section, the articles of 24 incorporation as originally filed or any amendment thereto may limit or eliminate 25 appraisal rights for any class or series of preferred shares, except for both of the 26 following:

27 (1) No such limitation or elimination shall be effective if the class or series 28 does not have the right to vote separately as a voting group, alone or as part of a 29 group, on the action or if the action is a nonprofit conversion under Subpart 9C of 1 this Part or a conversion to an unincorporated entity under Subpart 9E of this Part, 2 or a merger having a similar effect.

3 (2) Any such limitation or elimination contained in an amendment to the 4 articles of incorporation that limits or eliminates appraisal rights for any of such 5 shares that are outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of such 6 amendment, or that the corporation is or may be required to issue or sell thereafter 7 pursuant to any conversion, exchange, or other right existing immediately before the 8 effective date of such amendment shall not apply to any corporate action that 9 becomes effective within one year of that date if such action would otherwise afford 10 appraisal rights.

12 §1-1303. Assertion of rights by nominees and beneficial shareholders

13 A. A record shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to fewer than all the 14 shares registered in the record shareholder's name but owned by a beneficial 15 shareholder or a voting trust beneficial owner only if the record shareholder objects 16 with respect to all shares of the class or series owned by the beneficial shareholder 17 or the voting trust beneficial owner and notifies the corporation in writing of the 18 name and address of each beneficial shareholder or voting trust beneficial owner on 19 whose behalf appraisal rights are being asserted. The rights of a record shareholder 20 who asserts appraisal rights for only part of the shares held of record in the record 21 shareholder's name under this Subsection shall be determined as if the shares as to 22 which the record shareholder objects and the record shareholder's other shares were 23 registered in the names of different record shareholders.

24 B. A beneficial shareholder and voting trust beneficial owner may assert 25 appraisal rights as to shares of any class or series held on behalf of the shareholder 26 only if such shareholder submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written 27 consent to the assertion of such rights no later than the date referred to in R.S.
28 12:1-1322(B)(2)(b), and does so with respect to all shares of the class or series that 29 are beneficially owned by the beneficial shareholder or voting trust beneficial owner.

SUBPART B. PROCEDURE FOR EXERCISE OF APPRAISAL RIGHTS

§1-1320. Notice of appraisal rights

A. Where any corporate action specified in R.S. 12:1-1302(A) is to be submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, the meeting notice must state that the corporation has concluded that the shareholders are, are not, or may be entitled to assert appraisal rights under this Part. If the corporation concludes that appraisal rights are or may be available, one of the following statements shall be included in the meeting notice sent to those record shareholders entitled to exercise appraisal rights:

(1) If the corporation wishes for shareholders to be subject to the requirements of R.S. 12:1-1321(A)(1):

"Appraisal rights allow a shareholder to avoid the effects of the proposed corporate action described in this notice by selling the shareholder's shares to the corporation at their fair value, paid in cash. To retain the right to assert appraisal rights, a shareholder is required by law: (1) to deliver to the corporation, before the vote is taken on the action described in this notice, a written notice of the shareholder's intent to demand appraisal if the corporate action proposed in this notice takes effect, and (2) not to vote, or cause or permit to be voted, in favor of the proposed corporate action any shares of the class or series for which the shareholder intends to assert appraisal rights. If a shareholder complies with those requirements, and the action proposed in this notice takes effect, the law requires the corporation to send to the shareholder an appraisal form that the shareholder must complete and return, and a copy of Part 13 of the Business Corporation Act, governing appraisal rights".

(2) If the corporation is waiving the requirements of R.S. 12:1-1321(A)(1):

"Appraisal rights allow a shareholder to avoid the effects of the proposed corporate action described in this notice by selling the shareholder's shares to the corporation at their fair value, paid in cash. To retain the right to asset appraisal rights, a shareholder is required by law not to vote, or cause or permit to be voted, in favor of the proposed corporation action any shares of the class or series for which the shareholder intends to assert appraisal rights. If a shareholder complies with the requirement, and the action proposed in this notice take effect, the law requires the corporation to send to the shareholder an appraisal form that the shareholder must

1 complete and return, a copy of Part 13 of the Business Corporation Act, governing 2 appraisal rights".

3 B. In a merger pursuant to R.S. 12:1-1105, the parent corporation must 4 notify in writing all record shareholders of the subsidiary who are entitled to assert 5 appraisal rights that the corporate action became effective. Such notice must be sent 6 within ten days after the corporate action became effective and include the materials 7 described in R.S. 12:1-1322.

8 C. Where any corporate action specified in R.S. 12:1-1302(A) is to be 9 approved by written consent of the shareholders pursuant to R.S. 12:1-704.

10 (1) Written notice that appraisal rights are, are not, or may be available must 11 be sent to each record shareholder from whom a consent is solicited at the time 12 consent of such shareholder is first solicited and, if the corporation has concluded 13 that appraisal rights are or may be available, the following statement must be 14 included in the notice:

15 "Appraisal rights allow a shareholder to avoid the effects of the proposed 16 corporate action described in this notice by selling the shareholder's shares 17 to the corporation at their fair value, paid in cash. To retain the right to assert 18 appraisal rights, a shareholder is required by law not to sign any consent in 19 favor of the proposed corporate action with respect to any shares of the class 20 or series for which the shareholder intends to assert appraisal rights. If a 21 shareholder complies with this requirement, and the corporate action 22 proposed in this notice takes effect, the law requires the corporation to send 23 to the shareholder an appraisal form that the shareholder must complete and 24 return, and a copy of Part 13 of the Business Corporation Act, governing 25 appraisal rights".

26 (2) Written notice that appraisal rights are, are not, or may be available must 27 be delivered together with the notice to nonconsenting and nonvoting shareholders 28 required by R.S. 12:1-704(E) and (F), may include the materials described in R.S.
29 12:1-1322 and, if the corporation has concluded that appraisal rights are or may be 30 available, must be accompanied by a copy of this Part and the following statement:

31 "Appraisal rights allow a shareholder to avoid the effects of the corporate 32 action described in this notice by selling the shareholder's shares to the 33 corporation at their fair value, paid in cash. A shareholder may obtain 34 appraisal rights only by completing and returning an appraisal form that the 35 law requires the corporation to send to the shareholder, and by complying 36 with all other requirements of Part 13 of the Business Corporation Act, a 37 copy of which is enclosed".

1 D. Where corporate action described in R.S. 12:1-1302(A) is proposed, or 2 a merger pursuant to R.S. 12:1-1105 is effected, the notice referred to in Subsection 3 A or C of this Section, if the corporation concludes that appraisal rights are or may 4 be available, and in Subsection B of this Section shall be accompanied by both of the 5 following:

6 (1) The annual financial statements specified in R.S. 12:1-1620(B) of the 7 corporation that issued the shares that may be subject to appraisal, which shall be as 8 of a date ending not more than sixteen months before the date of the notice and shall 9 comply with R.S. 12: 1-1620(B); provided that, if such annual financial statements 10 are not reasonably available, the corporation shall provide reasonably equivalent 11 financial information.

12 (2) The latest available quarterly financial statements of such corporation, 13 if any.

14 E. The right to receive the information described in Subsection D of this 15 Section may be waived in writing by a shareholder before or after the corporate 16 action. If the information described in Subsection D of this Section is not publicly 17 available, the shareholder who receives it owes a duty to the corporation to use and 18 disclose the information only for purposes of deciding whether to exercise appraisal 19 rights and for other proper purposes.

21 Comments - 2014 Revision

22 (a) The Model Act requires the corporation to send a copy of Part 13 of the 23 Business Corporation Act along with the initial notice of a meeting or other 24 shareholder action that may give rise to appraisal rights. This Section replaces that 25 requirement with a shorter, statutorily-specified form of notice that apprises the 26 shareholders of the information most relevant to the stage of the transaction at which 27 they receive the notice. This Section requires the sending of the complete Part only 28 when the corporation sends the appraisal form under R.S. 12:1-1322 or when it is 29 sending a notice to nonconsenting and nonvoting shareholders under R.S. 12:1-704 30 that an appraisal-triggering action has already been approved by the written consent 31 of shareholders. See R.S. 12:1-1322(B)(3) and 1-1320(C)(2).

32 (b) This Section adds a sentence to Subsection E of this Section that imposes 33 a duty on a shareholder who receives the financial information specified in 34 Subsection D of this Section to use that information for proper purposes only.

§1-1321. Notice of intent to demand appraisal and consequences of voting or consenting

A. If a corporate action specified in R.S. 12:1-1302(A) is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, a shareholder who wishes to assert appraisal rights with respect to any class or series of shares must do both of the following:

(1) Deliver to the corporation, before the vote is taken, written notice of the shareholder's intent to demand appraisal if the proposed action is effectuated.

(2) Not vote, or cause or permit to be voted, any shares of such class or series in favor of the proposed action.

B. If a corporate action specified in R.S. 12:1-1302(A) is to be approved by written consent, a shareholder may assert appraisal rights with respect to a class or series of shares only if the shareholder does not sign a consent in favor of the proposed action with respect to that class or series of shares.

C. A shareholder who fails to satisfy the requirements of Subsection A or B of this Section is not entitled to appraisal under this Part.

Comments - 2014 Revision

(a) The Model Act references to "payment" in the caption of this Section and in Paragraph (A)(1) and Subsection C of this Section have been replaced with the term "appraisal" to avoid possible confusion between the payment that may be available through appraisal rights and the payment being offered under the terms of the transaction with respect to which the appraisal rights are being asserted.

(b) This Section modifies the Model Act language in Subsection B of this Section to make it clear that a shareholder is not entitled to exercise appraisal rights with respect to a class or series of shares if the shareholder has signed a consent with respect to the relevant shares in a transaction that is approved by the written consent of shareholders.

§1-1322. Appraisal notice and form

A. If a corporate action requiring appraisal rights under R.S. 12:1-1302(A) becomes effective, the corporation must send a written appraisal notice and the form required by Paragraph (B)(1) of this Section to all shareholders who satisfy the requirements of R.S. 12:1-1321(A) or R.S. 12:1-1321(B). In the case of a merger under R.S. 12:1-1105, the parent must deliver an appraisal notice and form to all record shareholders who may be entitled to assert appraisal rights.

1 B. The appraisal notice must be delivered no earlier than the date the 2 corporate action specified in R.S. 12:1-1302(A) became effective, and no later than 3 ten days after such date, and must do all of the following:

4 (1) Supply a form that requires the shareholder asserting appraisal rights to 5 certify that such shareholder did not vote for or consent to the transaction.

6 (2) State all of the following:

7 (a) Where the form must be sent and where certificates for certificated shares 8 must be deposited and the date by which those certificates must be deposited, which 9 date may not be earlier than the date for receiving the required form under 10 Subparagraph (B)(2)(b) of this Section.

11 (b) A date by which the corporation must receive the form, which date may 12 not be fewer than forty nor more than sixty days after the date the appraisal notice 13 is sent pursuant to Subsection A of this Section, and state that the shareholder shall 14 have waived the right to demand appraisal with respect to the shares unless the form 15 is received by the corporation by such specified date.

16 (c) The corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares.

17 (d) That, if requested in writing, the corporation will provide, to the 18 shareholder so requesting, within ten days after the date specified in Subparagraph 19 (B)(2)(b) of this Section the number of shareholders who return the forms by the 20 specified date and the total number of shares owned by them.

21 (e) The date by which the notice to withdraw under R.S. 12:1-1323 must be 22 received, which date must be at least twenty days after the date specified in 23 Subparagraph (B)(2)(b) of this Section.

24 (3) Be accompanied by a copy of this Part.

25 C. A corporation may elect to withhold payment as permitted by R.S.
26 12:1-1325 only if the form required by Subsection B of this Section does both of the 27 following:

28 (1) Specifies the first date of any announcement to shareholders made prior 29 to the date the corporate action became effective of the principal terms of the 30 proposed corporate action.

1 appraisal notice pursuant to R.S. 12:1-1322(B)(2)(e). A shareholder who fails to so 2 withdraw from the appraisal process may not thereafter withdraw without the 3 corporation's written consent.

4 C. A shareholder who does not sign and return the form and, in the case of 5 certificated shares, deposit that shareholder's share certificates where required, each 6 by the date set forth in the notice described in R.S. 12:1-1322(B), shall not be 7 entitled to payment under this Part.

9 §1-1324. Payment

10 A. Except as provided in R.S. 12:1-1325, within thirty days after the form 11 required by R.S. 12:1-1322(B)(2)(b) is due, the corporation shall pay in cash to those 12 shareholders who complied with R.S. 12:1-1323(A) the amount the corporation 13 estimates to be the fair value of their shares, plus interest.

14 B. Except as provided in Subsection C of this Section, the payment to each 15 shareholder pursuant to Subsection A of this Section must be accompanied by all of 16 the following:

17 (1)(a) The annual financial statements specified in R.S. 12:1-1620(B) of the 18 corporation that issued the shares to be appraised, which shall be of a date ending not 19 more than sixteen months before the date of payment and shall comply with R.S.
 20 12:1-1620(B); provided that, if such annual financial statements are not reasonably 21 available, the corporation shall provide reasonably equivalent financial information.

22 (b) The latest available quarterly financial statements of such corporation, 23 if any.

24 (2) A statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares, 25 which estimate must equal or exceed the corporation's estimate given pursuant to 26 R.S. 12:1-1322(B)(2)(c).

27 (3) A statement that shareholders described in Subsection A of this Section 28 have the right to demand further payment under R.S. 12:1-1326 and that if any such 29 shareholder does not do so within the time period specified therein, such shareholder

1 (3) That they may accept the corporation's estimate of fair value, plus 2 interest, in full satisfaction of their demands or demand appraisal under R.S.
3 12:1-1326.

4 (4) That those shareholders who wish to accept such offer must so notify the 5 corporation of their acceptance of the corporation's offer within thirty days after 6 receiving the offer.

7 (5) That those shareholders who do not satisfy the requirements for 8 demanding appraisal under R.S. 12:1-1326 shall be deemed to have accepted the 9 corporation's offer.

10 C. Within ten days after receiving the shareholder's acceptance pursuant to 11 Subsection B of this Section, the corporation must pay in cash the amount it offered 12 under Paragraph (B)(2) of this Section to each shareholder who agreed to accept the 13 corporation's offer in full satisfaction of the shareholder's demand.

14 D. Within forty days after sending the notice described in Subsection B of 15 this Section, the corporation must pay in cash the amount it offered to pay under 16 Paragraph (B)(2) of this Section to each shareholder described in Paragraph (B)(5) 17 of this Section.

19 §1-1326. Procedure if shareholder dissatisfied with payment or offer

20 A. A shareholder paid pursuant to R.S. 12:1-1324 who is dissatisfied with 21 the amount of the payment must notify the corporation in writing of that 22 shareholder's estimate of the fair value of the shares and demand payment of that 23 estimate plus interest, less any payment under R.S. 12:1-1324. A shareholder offered 24 payment under R.S. 12:1-1325 who is dissatisfied with that offer must reject the 25 offer and demand payment of the shareholder's stated estimate of the fair value of the 26 shares plus interest.

27 B. A shareholder who fails to notify the corporation in writing of that 28 shareholder's demand to be paid the shareholder's stated estimate of the fair value 29 plus interest under Subsection A of this Section within thirty days after receiving the 30 corporation's payment or offer of payment under R.S. 12:1-1324 or 1-1325,

1 respectively, waives the right to demand payment under this Section and shall be 2 entitled only to the payment made or offered pursuant to those respective Sections.

4 SUBPART C. JUDICIAL APPRAISAL OF SHARES

5 §1-1330. Court action

6 A. If a shareholder makes demand for payment under R.S. 12:1-1326 which 7 remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a summary proceeding within 8 sixty days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine 9 the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not 10 commence the proceeding within the sixty-day period, it shall pay in cash to each 11 shareholder the amount the shareholder demanded pursuant to R.S. 12:1-1326, plus 12 interest, within ten days after the expiration of the sixty-day period.

13 B. The corporation shall commence the proceeding in the district court of the 14 parish where the corporation's principal office or, if none, its registered office in this 15 state is located. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office 16 in this state, it shall commence the proceeding in the parish in this state where the 17 principal office or registered office of the domestic corporation merged with the 18 foreign corporation was located at the time of the transaction.

19 C. The corporation shall make all shareholders, whether or not residents of 20 this state, whose demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding, and all parties 21 must be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served as provided 22 by law.

23 D. The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under 24 Subsection B of this Section is exclusive. The court may appoint an appraiser to file 25 a written report with the court on the question of fair value. The appraiser shall have 26 the powers described in the appointing order, or in any amendment to it. The 27 shareholders demanding appraisal rights are entitled to the same discovery rights as 28 parties in other civil proceedings. If the court appoints an appraiser, the appraiser's 29 written report shall be treated as the report of an expert witness, and the corporation

1 and shareholders demanding appraisal shall be entitled to depose and to examine and 2 cross-examine the appraiser as an expert witness.

3 E. Each shareholder made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment 4 for either of the following:

5 (1) The amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the 6 shareholder's shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by the corporation to the 7 shareholder for such shares.

8 (2) The fair value, plus interest, of the shareholder's shares for which the 9 corporation elected to withhold payment under R.S. 12:1-1325.

10 Source: MBCA §13.30.

11 Comments - 2014 Revision

12 (a) This Section modifies Model Act Subsection (a) to state that the 13 proceeding to be commenced by the corporation is to be a summary proceeding.
 14 Because a jury is unavailable in a summary proceeding, the Model Act rule against 15 a jury trial in Subsection (d) was deleted as redundant.

16 (b) This Section also adds a date by which the corporation must pay the 17 amount demanded by a shareholder if the corporation fails to commence the 18 appraisal proceeding within the sixty-day period specified in Subsection A of this 19 Section. The preemptive period for the enforcement of this payment obligation, 20 which is provided in R.S. 12:1-1331(D), is measured from that date.

21 (c) Model Act Subsection (d) provides that a court-appointed appraiser may 22 "receive evidence and a recommend a decision" in the appraisal proceeding. This 23 Section modifies Subsection (d) to treat the appraiser as a court-appointed expert 24 witness.

25 §1-1331. Court costs and expenses

26 A. The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under R.S. 12:1-1330 27 shall determine all court costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable 28 compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall 29 assess the court costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess court 30 costs against all or some of the shareholders demanding appraisal, in amounts which 31 the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds such shareholders acted 32 arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by 33 this Part.

34 B. The court in an appraisal proceeding may also assess the expenses of the 35 respective parties in amounts the court finds equitable against either of the following:

1 set aside or rescinded, in any proceeding commenced by a shareholder after the 2 shareholders have approved the corporate action.

3 B. The appraisal rights provided by this Part are the exclusive remedy of a 4 shareholder in connection with a corporate action for which R.S. 12:1-1302 makes 5 appraisal rights available if either of the following conditions is satisfied:

6 (1) The shareholder is not subject to the requirements of R.S. 12:1-7 1321(A)(1) concerning the delivery of a written notice of the shareholder's intent to 8 assert appraisal rights.

9 (2) The corporation waives the requirements of R.S. 12:1-1321(A)(1).

10 C. If Subsection B of this Section makes appraisal rights the exclusive 11 remedy of a shareholder, then the shareholder shall not have any other cause of 12 action for damages or for any other form of relief against the corporation, or any 13 director, officer, employee, agent, or controlling person of the corporation, in 14 connection with the corporate action for which R.S. 12:1-1302 makes appraisal 15 rights available.

16 D. If the corporation waives the requirements of R.S. 12:1-1321(A)(1), a 17 shareholder may assert appraisal rights without complying with those requirements.
18 A corporation waives the requirements of R.S. 12:1-1321(A)(1) by sending 19 shareholders the notice specified in R.S. 12:1-1320(A)(2).

20 E. Subsections A, B, and C of this Section do not apply to a corporate action 21 that is any of the following:

22 (1) Not authorized and approved in accordance with the applicable 23 provisions of any of the following:

24 (a) Part 9, 10, 11, or 12 of this Chapter.

25 (b) The articles of incorporation or bylaws.

26 (c) The resolution of the board of directors authorizing the corporate action.

27 (2) [Reserved.]

28 (3) [Reserved.]

29 (4) Approved by less than unanimous consent of the voting shareholders 30 pursuant to R.S. 12:1-704 if both of the following requirements are met:

1 special circumstances it should make no recommendation and communicates the 2 basis for its determination to the shareholders.

3 (2) The shareholders entitled to vote must approve the proposal to dissolve 4 as provided in Subsection E of this Section.

5 C. The board of directors may condition its submission of the proposal for 6 dissolution on any basis.

7 D. The corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to 8 vote, of the proposed shareholders' meeting. The notice must also state that the 9 purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider dissolving the 10 corporation.

11 E. Unless the articles of incorporation or the board of directors acting 12 pursuant to Subsection C of this Section require a greater vote or a vote by voting 13 groups, adoption of the proposal to dissolve shall require the approval of at least a 14 majority of the votes entitled to be cast.

15 Source: MBCA §14.02.

16 §1-1403. Articles of dissolution

17 A. At any time after dissolution is authorized, the corporation may dissolve 18 by delivering to the secretary of state for filing articles of dissolution setting forth all 19 of the following:

20 (1) The name of the corporation.

21 (2) The date dissolution was authorized.

22 (3) If dissolution was approved by the shareholders, a statement that the 23 proposal to dissolve was duly approved by the shareholders in the manner required 24 by this Act and by the articles of incorporation.

25 B. A corporation is dissolved upon the effective date of its articles of 26 dissolution.

27 C. For purposes of this Subpart, "dissolved corporation" means a corporation 28 whose articles of dissolution have become effective and includes a successor entity 29 to which the remaining assets of the corporation are transferred subject to its 30 liabilities for purposes of liquidation.

- 1 D. The secretary of state shall deliver a notice of the filing of the articles of
- 2 dissolution to all of the following:
- 3 (1) The secretary of the Department of Revenue.
- 4 (2) The secretary of the Department of Environmental Quality.
- 5 (3) The administrator of the Louisiana Employment Security Law.

6 Source: MBCA §14.03, R.S. 12:148.

7 Comments - 2014 Revision

8 (a) The rules in this Section concerning the content of a corporation's articles 9 of dissolution are supplemented by the general rules in R.S. 12:1-120 for the filing 10 of documents under this Section. The effective date of the articles is governed by 11 R.S. 12:1-123(A), and the duty of the secretary of state to file the articles, if they 12 meet the requirements for filing, is provided by R.S. 12:1-125(A).

13 (b) Subsection D of this Section is not part of the Model Act. It was added 14 to this Section to retain a modified version of former R.S. 12:148(B). That Section 15 conditioned the obligation of the secretary of state to file a corporation's final articles 16 of dissolution, declaring its liquidation to be complete, on the filing of a certificate 17 from each of the three listed agencies, to the effect that the already-liquidated 18 corporation owed no unpaid debts to the agency or to the funds that the agency 19 administered. The former approach was not retained unchanged in this Section 20 because it imposed indefinite delays on the completion of the dissolution process, 21 while providing the required notices only when they were too late to do much good, 22 after the corporation had already liquidated and distributed all its assets.

23 (c) As adopted in this Section, Subsection D of this Section requires the 24 secretary of state to notify the listed agencies of the filing of articles of dissolution 25 under this Section. Because articles of dissolution are filed at the beginning of a 26 corporation's liquidation process, the notice is provided when it is still useful, before 27 the corporation has already paid its other debts and distributed its residual value to 28 its shareholders. And because the agencies are relieved of any obligation to take 29 some affirmative position on whether a debt is owed, they are free to pursue the 30 enforcement strategies they consider most efficient with respect to dissolved 31 corporations, without delaying the completion of all corporate dissolutions for the 32 indefinite time required to make the affirmative certifications required by the prior 33 law.

34 §1-1404. Revocation of dissolution

35 A. A corporation that is not terminated may revoke its dissolution within one 36 hundred and twenty days of its effective date.

37 B. Revocation of dissolution must be authorized in the same manner as the 38 dissolution was authorized unless that authorization permitted revocation by action 39 of the board of directors alone, in which event the board of directors may revoke the 40 dissolution without shareholder action.

1 §1-1405. Effect of dissolution

2 A. A dissolved corporation continues its corporate existence but may not 3 carry on any business except that appropriate to wind up and liquidate its business 4 and affairs, including any of the following:

5 (1) Collecting its assets.

6 (2) Disposing of its properties that will not be distributed in kind to its 7 shareholders.

8 (3) Discharging or making reasonable provision for discharging its liabilities.

9 (4) Distributing its remaining property among its shareholders according to 10 their interests.

11 (5) Doing every other act necessary to wind up and liquidate its business and 12 affairs.

13 B. Dissolution of a corporation does not do any of the following:

14 (1) Transfer title to the corporation's property.

15 (2) Prevent transfer of its shares or securities, although the authorization to 16 dissolve may provide for closing the corporation's share transfer records.

17 (3) Subject its directors or officers to standards of conduct different from 18 those prescribed in Part 8 of this Chapter.

19 (4) Change quorum or voting requirements for its board of directors or 20 shareholders; change provisions for selection, resignation, or removal of its directors 21 or officers or both; or change provisions for amending its bylaws.

22 (5) Prevent commencement of a proceeding by or against the corporation in 23 its corporate name.

24 (6) Abate or suspend a proceeding pending by or against the corporation on 25 the effective date of dissolution.

26 (7) Terminate the authority of the registered agent of the corporation.

27 C. The limitation imposed by Subsection A of this Section on the business 28 to be conducted by a dissolved corporation does not do either of the following:

1 §1-1407. Other claims against dissolved corporation

2 A. A dissolved corporation may also publish notice of its dissolution and 3 request that persons with claims against the dissolved corporation present them in 4 accordance with the notice.

5 B. The notice must do all of the following:

6 (1) Be published one time in a newspaper of general circulation in the parish 7 where the dissolved corporation's principal office or, if none in this state, its 8 registered office, is or was last located.

9 (2) Describe the information that must be included in a claim and provide a 10 mailing address where the claim may be sent.

11 (3) State that a claim against the dissolved corporation will be extinguished 12 by peremption unless a proceeding to enforce the claim is commenced within three 13 years after the publication of the notice.

14 C. If the dissolved corporation publishes a newspaper notice in accordance 15 with Subsection B of this Section, any claim not earlier preempted by R.S.
 16 12:1-1406(C) is preempted unless the claimant commences a proceeding to enforce 17 the claim against the dissolved corporation within three years after the publication 18 date of the newspaper notice.

19 D. A claim that is not preempted by R.S. 12:1-1406(C) or 1-1407(C) may 20 be enforced against either of the following:

21 (1) The dissolved corporation, to the extent of its undistributed assets.

22 (2) Except as provided in R.S. 12:1-1408(D), if the assets have been 23 distributed in liquidation, a shareholder of the dissolved corporation to the extent of 24 the shareholder's pro rata share of the claim or the corporate assets distributed to the 25 shareholder in liquidation, whichever is less, but a shareholder's total liability for all 26 claims under this Section may not exceed the total amount of assets distributed to the 27 shareholder.

28 E. A proceeding to enforce the liability of a shareholder under Paragraph 29 (D)(2) of this Section is preempted unless it is commenced within two years after the 30 date that the assets were distributed to the shareholder.

1 F. For purposes of this Section, the term "claim" includes a claim of any 2 kind, including a contingent liability and a claim based on an event occurring after 3 the effective date of dissolution.

5 Comments - 2014 Revision

6 (a) This Section changes the Model Act word "barred" to the Louisiana term 7 "perempted" throughout the Section, except in Paragraph (B)(3) of this Section, 8 concerning notice, where the phrase "extinguished by peremption" is used. The 9 longer phrase is required in the notice both because it is technically correct, and 10 because the word "extinguished" is likely to convey to a layperson the critical idea 11 that the affected claim will be terminated or eliminated in some fashion if the 12 deadline stated in the notice is missed.

13 (b) This Section simplifies the Model Act description in Subsection C of this 14 Section of the parties whose claims are perempted by that Subsection. The Model 15 Act lists the three types of claimants affected, but in so doing obscures the point that 16 the peremption in Subsection C of this Section applies to all persons whose claims 17 are not already perempted by Subsection 14.06(c). This Section makes the 18 connection between the two provisions more explicit.

19 (c) This Section corrects an apparently erroneous cross reference in Model 20 Act Subsection (d) to Subsection 14.06(b). Subsection 14.06(c) is the provision 21 likely intended in the Model Act, and it is the correct provision under this Chapter.

22 (d) The peremption of claims provided by R.S. 12:1-1406(C) and 1-1407(C) 23 does not extend any prescriptive or preemptive period that otherwise applies to a 24 claim. A prescribed or perempted claim may not be enforced against the corporation 25 even if the claim is made, or the suit is filed, within the preemptive periods specified 26 in R.S. 12:1-1406(C) and 1-1407(C).

27 (e) This Section adds a new Subsection E to retain the two-year limitation 28 period from prior law on claims brought against shareholders for excess 29 distributions, but modifies the former rule to make it clear that the period is 30 preemptive. Unlike the three-year bar provided by Subsection C of this Section, the 31 two-year period in Subsection E of this Section applies without regard to whether the 32 corporation publishes a newspaper notice in accordance with Subsection C of this 33 Section.

34 (f) The effect of adding the two-year bar in Subsection E of this Section, 35 when combined with a similar two-year bar for claims against directors under R.S.
 36 12:1-833, is to make the three-year bar in Subsection C of this Section relevant only 37 to claims against the corporation itself, recoverable under this Section only from 38 undistributed assets of the corporation. Because the corporation is unlikely to hold 39 any undistributed assets other than those unknown to the corporation itself or already 40 dedicated to the payment of contingent and post-dissolution claims, the three-year 41 bar is unlikely to protect the corporation itself from the adverse effects of a 42 late-arising claim. Still, the three-year bar remains important for two other reasons.
 43 First, where the corporation has made provision for the post-dissolution payment of 44 claimants, it allows that class to be closed and payments to be made as provided.
 45 Second, it bars successor liability claims that might otherwise be made against a firm 46 that purchased substantially all of the assets of the dissolved corporation, or of one 47 of its divisions or product lines. Both of those effects are consistent with the balance 48 struck by the Model Act between the competing goals of compensating injured

1 plaintiffs and of protecting asset transferees against liability for the dissolved 2 corporation's contingent claims.

3 (g) This Section adds a new Subsection F to make it clear that the contingent
 4 and post-dissolution claims that are excluded from the effects of R.S. 12:1-1406 5 through the special definition of "claim" in Subsection D of that Section are not 6 excluded from the meaning of that term in this Section. This Section applies to all 7 claims of any kind, including those not affected by R.S. 12:1-1406.

8 §1-1408. Court proceedings

9 A. A dissolved corporation that has published a notice under R.S. 12:1-1407 10 may file an application with the district court of the parish where the dissolved 11 corporation's principal office or, if none in this state, its registered office is located 12 for a determination of the amount and form of security to be provided for payment 13 of claims that are contingent or have not been made known to the dissolved 14 corporation or that are based on an event occurring after the effective date of 15 dissolution but that, based on the facts known to the dissolved corporation, are 16 reasonably estimated to arise after the effective date of dissolution. Provision need 17 not be made for any claim that is or is reasonably anticipated to be barred under R.S.
 18 12:1-1407(C).

19 B. Within ten days after the filing of the application, notice of the proceeding 20 shall be given by the dissolved corporation to each claimant holding a contingent 21 claim whose contingent claim is shown on the records of the dissolved corporation.

22 C. The court shall appoint an attorney at law to represent all claimants whose 23 identities or whereabouts are unknown in any proceeding brought under this Section, 24 as if those claimants were absentee defendants under Code of Civil Procedure Article 25 5091. The reasonable fees and expenses of the appointed attorney, including all 26 reasonable expert witness fees, shall be paid by the dissolved corporation.

27 D. Provision by the dissolved corporation for security in the amount and the 28 form ordered by the court under Subsection A of this Section shall satisfy the 29 dissolved corporation's obligations with respect to claims that are contingent, have 30 not been made known to the dissolved corporation, or are based on an event 31 occurring after the effective date of dissolution, and such claims may not be enforced 32 against a shareholder who received assets in liquidation.

1 Comment - 2014 Revision

2 Subsection C of this Section authorizes a court to appoint an attorney under 3 Art. 5091 of the Code of Civil Procedure to perform the functions assigned by 4 Subsection (c) of the Model Act to a guardian ad litem.

5 §1-1409. Responsibility of the board of directors

6 A. The board of directors of a dissolved corporation is responsible for 7 winding up and liquidating the business and affairs of the corporation as 8 contemplated by R.S. 12:1-1405 (A). The board of directors may authorize a 9 distribution to shareholders only after the corporation pays, or makes reasonable 10 provision to pay, all obligations owed by the corporation as contemplated by R.S.
 11 12:1-1405(A).

12 B. Directors of a dissolved corporation which has disposed of claims under 13 R.S. 12:1-1406, 1-1407, or 1-1408 shall not be liable for breach of Subsection A of 14 this Section with respect to claims against the dissolved corporation that are barred 15 or satisfied under R.S. 12:1-1406, 1-1407, or 1-1408.

16 Comments - 2014 Revision

17 (a) Model Act Subsection (a) has been redrafted to avoid the inadvertent 18 suggestion in the model language that individual directors owe a personal duty to 19 cause a dissolved corporation to pay claims, even if the corporation is insolvent. As 20 redrafted, R.S. 12:1-1409(A) does all of the following:

21 (1) More clearly places responsibility for the winding up of the corporation's 22 business and affairs on the board of directors, not on directors individually.

23 (2) Incorporates by reference the board's responsibilities under R.S.
 24 12:1-1405.

25 (3) Makes the payment or provision for payment of claims not an absolute 26 duty of the board, but rather a condition of the board's authority to distribute the 27 remaining corporate assets to the corporation's shareholders.

28 (b) The liability of a director for distributions made in violation of 29 Subsection A of this Section is governed by R.S. 12:1-833, not by Subsection A 30 itself.

31 §1-1410. Certain sections in Subpart A applicable to all dissolved corporations 32 R.S. 12:1-1405 through 1-1409 apply to a dissolved corporation regardless 33 of whether the dissolution is voluntary or judicial.

34 Comment - 2014 Revision

35 This Section adds a new R.S. 12:1-1410 to make it clear that the provisions 36 in Subpart A of Part 14 of this Chapter, which provide the rules for winding up the

1 affairs of a dissolved corporation, apply even if the dissolution is judicial, and so 2 occurs under Subpart C rather than Subpart A of Part 14 of this Chapter.

3 SUBPART B. ADMINISTRATIVE DISSOLUTION

4 [Reserved.]

5 Comment - 2014 Revision

6 Chapter B of the Model Act, concerning administrative dissolution, has been 7 omitted from this Part. In place of those provisions, this Subpart D adds two new 8 provisions on administrative termination and reinstatement, R.S. 12:1-1442 and 9 1-1444, which are similar in substance to the charter revocation and reinstatement 10 provisions in prior law.

11 SUBPART C. JUDICIAL DISSOLUTION

12 §1-1430. Grounds for judicial dissolution

13 A. A district court may dissolve a corporation in any of the following:

14 (1) A proceeding by the attorney general if either of the following is 15 established:

16 (a) The corporation obtained its articles of incorporation through fraud.

17 (b) The corporation has continued to exceed or abuse the authority conferred 18 upon it by law.

19 (2) A proceeding by a shareholder if any of the following is established:

20 (a) The directors are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs, 21 the shareholders are unable to break the deadlock, and irreparable injury to the 22 corporation is threatened or being suffered, or the business and affairs of the 23 corporation can no longer be conducted to the advantage of the shareholders 24 generally, because of the deadlock.

25 (b) [Reserved.]

26 (c) The shareholders are deadlocked in voting power and have failed, for a 27 period that includes at least two consecutive annual meeting dates, to elect 28 successors to directors whose terms have expired.

29 (d) [Reserved.]

30 (3) A proceeding by a creditor if either of the following is established:

31 (a) The creditor's claim has been reduced to judgment, the execution on the 32 judgment returned unsatisfied, and the corporation is insolvent.

1 named in R.S. 12:1-1430(A) lies in the parish where the corporation's principal 2 office or, if none in this state, its registered office is or was last located.

3 B. It is not necessary to make shareholders parties to a proceeding to 4 dissolve a corporation unless relief is sought against them individually.

5 C. A court in a proceeding brought to dissolve a corporation or to continue 6 a dissolution under court supervision may issue injunctions, appoint a receiver or 7 liquidator with all powers and duties the court directs, take other action required to 8 preserve the corporate assets wherever located, and carry on the business of the 9 corporation until a full hearing can be held.

10 D. Within ten days of the commencement of a proceeding to dissolve a 11 corporation under R.S. 12:1-1430(A)(2), the corporation must send to all 12 shareholders, other than the petitioner, a notice stating that the shareholders are 13 entitled to avoid the dissolution of the corporation by electing to purchase the 14 petitioner's shares under R.S. 12:1-1434 and accompanied by a copy of R.S.
 15 12:1-1434.

17 Comment - 2014 Revision

18 This Section adds language to Model Act Subsection (c) to make it clear that 19 the court has the same power to appoint a liquidator or receiver in a proceeding to 20 obtain court supervision of a voluntary dissolution as in an action for involuntary 21 dissolution.

22 §1-1432. Appointment of receiver or liquidator

23 A. Unless an election to purchase has been filed under R.S. 12:1-1434, a 24 court in a judicial proceeding brought to dissolve a corporation or to continue a 25 dissolution under court supervision may appoint one or more liquidators to wind up 26 and liquidate, or one or more receivers to manage, the business and affairs of the 27 corporation. The court shall hold a hearing, after notifying all parties to the 28 proceeding and any interested persons designated by the court, before appointing a 29 receiver or liquidator. The court appointing a receiver or liquidator has jurisdiction 30 over the corporation and all of its property wherever located.

1 B. The court may appoint an individual or a domestic or foreign corporation, 2 authorized to transact business in this state, as a receiver or liquidator. The court may 3 require the receiver or liquidator to post bond, with or without sureties, in an amount 4 the court directs.

5 C. The court shall describe the powers and duties of the receiver or liquidator 6 in its appointing order, which may be amended from time to time and may require 7 the receiver or liquidator to file interim and final reports with the court as the court 8 considers appropriate. Except as limited by the court, either of the following actions 9 may be taken:

10 (1) The liquidator may exercise all of the powers of the corporation, through 11 or in place of its board of directors, to the extent necessary to wind up the business 12 and affairs of the corporation as contemplated by R.S. 12:1-1405.

13 (2) The receiver may exercise all of the powers of the corporation, through 14 or in place of its board of directors, to the extent necessary to manage the affairs of 15 the corporation in the best interests of its shareholders and creditors.

16 D. The court may redesignate the receiver a liquidator, and may redesignate 17 the liquidator a receiver, if doing so is in the best interests of the corporation, its 18 shareholders, and creditors.

19 E. The court from time to time may order compensation paid and expenses 20 paid or reimbursed to the receiver or liquidator from the assets of the corporation or 21 proceeds from the sale of the assets.

22 F. If a court appoints a receiver or liquidator under this Section, then during 23 the period of the appointment the receiver or liquidator assumes the responsibility 24 and authority of the board of directors, except to the extent the appointing order 25 provides otherwise, and the board of directors is relieved of that responsibility and 26 authority. The receiver or liquidator is liable for a breach of duty as receiver or 27 liquidator to the same extent that a director holding the same authority and 28 responsibility would be liable.

1 Comments - 2014 Revision

2 (a) This Section changes the titles of the persons who may be appointed by 3 a court under this Section to make the titles consistent with those used under prior 4 law. What the Model Act calls a "receiver" this Section calls a "liquidator," and 5 what the Model Act calls a "custodian" this Section calls a "receiver."

6 (b) This Section adds language to Model Act Subsection (a) to make it clear 7 that the court has the same power to appoint a liquidator or receiver in a proceeding 8 to obtain court supervision of a voluntary dissolution as in an action for involuntary 9 dissolution. It also adds language to Model Act Subsection (c) to authorize the court 10 to require the filing of interim and final reports by a liquidator or receiver.

11 (c) Subsection F of this Section addresses the effects of the appointment of 12 a receiver or liquidator on the duties of the corporation's board of directors. To the 13 extent that an appointing order confers authority on a receiver or liquidator, the 14 receiver or liquidator assumes the board's normal authority and responsibilities, and 15 the board is relieved of those responsibilities. In most cases, the receiver or 16 liquidator will assume the full responsibility of the board to operate or liquidate the 17 corporation. But in some cases, a court may confer a more limited form of authority 18 on an appointed receiver or liquidator, and in that event the board's authority is 19 supplanted only as provided in the appointing order.

20 §1-1433. Judgment of dissolution

21 A. If after a hearing the court determines that one or more grounds for 22 judicial dissolution described in R.S. 12:1-1430 exist, it may enter a judgment 23 dissolving the corporation and specifying the effective date of the dissolution, and 24 the clerk of the court shall deliver a certified copy of the judgment to the secretary 25 of state, who shall file it.

26 B. After entering the judgment of dissolution, the court shall direct the 27 winding up and liquidation of the corporation's business and affairs in accordance 28 with R.S. 12:1-1405 and the notification of claimants in accordance with R.S.
 29 12:1-1406 and 1-1407.

30 Source: MBCA §14.33.

31 §1-1434. Election to purchase in lieu of dissolution

32 A. In a proceeding under R.S. 12:1-1430(A)(2) to dissolve a corporation, the 33 corporation may elect or, if it fails to elect, one or more shareholders may elect to 34 purchase all shares owned by the petitioning shareholder at the fair value of the 35 shares. An election pursuant to this Section shall be irrevocable unless the court 36 determines that it is equitable to set aside or modify the election.

1 B.(1) An election to purchase pursuant to this Section may be filed with the 2 court at any time within ninety days after the filing of the petition under R.S.
3 12:1-1430(A)(2) or at such later time as the court in its discretion may allow or as 4 all shareholders of the corporation may agree.

5 (2) If the election to purchase is filed by one or more shareholders, the 6 corporation shall, within ten days thereafter, give written notice to all shareholders, 7 other than the petitioner. The notice must state the name and number of shares 8 owned by the petitioner and the name and number of shares owned by each electing 9 shareholder and must advise the recipients of their right to join in the election to 10 purchase shares in accordance with this Section.

11 (3) Shareholders who wish to participate must file notice of their intention 12 to join in the purchase no later than thirty days after the effective date of the notice 13 to them. All shareholders who have filed an election or notice of their intention to 14 participate in the election to purchase thereby become parties to the proceeding and 15 shall participate in the purchase in proportion to their ownership of shares as of the 16 date the first election was filed, unless they otherwise agree or the court otherwise 17 directs.

18 (4) After an election has been filed by the corporation or one or more 19 shareholders, the proceeding under R.S. 12:1-1430(A)(2) may not be discontinued 20 or settled, nor may the petitioning shareholder sell or otherwise dispose of his or her 21 shares, unless the court determines that it would be equitable to the corporation and 22 the shareholders, other than the petitioner, to permit such discontinuance, settlement, 23 sale, or other disposition.

24 (5) If an election to purchase is filed by the corporation within ninety days 25 after the filing of the petition under R.S. 12:1-1430(A)(2), the corporation's election 26 shall be given precedence over any shareholder election filed within the same period, 27 even if the shareholder's election is filed before that of the corporation.

28 (6) If the court allows both the corporation and one or more shareholders to 29 file an election after the expiration of the ninety-day period, the court shall direct 30 how the purchase of shares is to be allocated among the electing parties.

1 C. If, within sixty days of the filing of the first election, the parties reach 2 agreement as to the fair value and terms of purchase of the petitioner's shares, the 3 court shall enter an order directing the purchase of petitioner's shares upon the terms 4 and conditions agreed to by the parties.

5 D. If the parties are unable to reach an agreement as provided for in 6 Subsection C of this Section, the court, upon application of any party, shall stay the 7 R.S. 12:1-1430(A)(2) proceedings and determine the fair value of the petitioner's 8 shares as of the day before the date on which the petition under R.S. 12:1-1430(A)(2) 9 was filed or as of such other date as the court deems appropriate under the 10 circumstances.

11 E. Upon determining the fair value of the shares, the court shall enter an 12 order directing the purchase upon such terms and conditions as the court deems 13 appropriate, which may include payment of the purchase price in installments, where 14 necessary in the interests of equity, provision for security to assure payment of the 15 purchase price and any additional expenses as may have been awarded, and, if the 16 shares are to be purchased by shareholders, the allocation of shares among them. In 17 allocating petitioner's shares among holders of different classes of shares, the court 18 shall attempt to preserve the existing distribution of voting rights among holders of 19 different classes insofar as practicable and may direct that holders of a specific class 20 or classes shall not participate in the purchase. Interest may be allowed at the rate 21 and from the date determined by the court to be equitable, but if the court finds that 22 the refusal of the petitioning shareholder to accept an offer of payment was arbitrary 23 or otherwise not in good faith, no interest shall be allowed.

24 F. Upon entry of an order under Subsections C or E of this Section, the court 25 shall dismiss the petition to dissolve the corporation under R.S. 12:1-1430(A)(2), and 26 the petitioning shareholder shall no longer have any rights or status as a shareholder 27 of the corporation, except the right to receive the amounts awarded by the order of 28 the court which shall be enforceable in the same manner as any other judgment.

29 G. The purchase ordered pursuant to Subsection E of this Section shall be 30 made within ten days after the date the order becomes final unless before that time

1 the corporation files with the court a notice of its intention to adopt articles of 2 dissolution pursuant to R.S. 12:1-1402 and 1-1403, which articles must then be 3 adopted and filed within fifty days thereafter. Upon filing of such articles of 4 dissolution, the corporation shall be dissolved in accordance with the provisions of 5 R.S. 12:1-1405 through 1-1407, and the order entered pursuant to Subsection E of 6 this Section shall no longer be of any force or effect, except that the petitioner may 7 continue to pursue any claims previously asserted on behalf of the corporation.

8 H. Any payment by the corporation pursuant to an order under Subsections 9 C or E of this Section is subject to the provisions of R.S. 12:1-640.

11 §1-1435. Oppressed shareholder's right to withdraw

12 A. If a corporation engages in oppression of a shareholder, the shareholder 13 may withdraw from the corporation and require the corporation to buy all of the 14 shareholder's shares at their fair value.

15 B. A corporation engages in oppression of a shareholder if the corporation's 16 distribution, compensation, governance, and other practices, considered as a whole 17 over an appropriate period of time, are plainly incompatible with a genuine effort on 18 the part of the corporation to deal fairly and in good faith with the shareholder.
 19 Conduct that is consistent with the good faith performance of an agreement among 20 all shareholders is presumed not to be oppressive. The following factors are relevant 21 in assessing the fairness and good faith of the corporation's practices:

22 (1) The conduct of the shareholder alleging oppression.

23 (2) The treatment that a reasonable shareholder would consider fair under the 24 circumstances, considering the reasonable expectations of all shareholders in the 25 corporation.

26 C. The term "fair value" has the same meaning in this Section and in R.S.
 27 12:1-1436 as it does in R.S. 12:1-1301(4) concerning appraisal rights, except that the 28 value of a withdrawing shareholder's shares under this Section and R.S. 12:1-1436 29 is to be determined as of the effective date of the notice of withdrawal under 30 Subsection D of this Section.

1 D. A shareholder may assert a right to withdraw under this Section by giving 2 written notice to the corporation that the shareholder is withdrawing from the 3 corporation on grounds of oppression. When the notice becomes effective it operates 4 as an offer by the shareholder, irrevocable for sixty days, to sell to the corporation 5 at fair value the entirety of the shareholder's shares in the corporation. The notice 6 need not specify the price that the withdrawing shareholder proposes as the fair value 7 of the shares, but if the notice does specify a price, the price shall be part of the offer 8 to sell made by the shareholder.

9 E. The corporation may accept the offer to sell made in the shareholder's 10 notice of withdrawal by giving the withdrawing shareholder written notice of its 11 acceptance during the sixty days that the offer is irrevocable. If the shareholder's 12 notice of withdrawal specifies a price for the shares, the corporation's notice of 13 acceptance operates as an acceptance of both the offer to sell and the proposed price 14 unless the notice states that the corporation is accepting the offer to sell, but not the 15 price; in that case the notice of acceptance operates only as an acceptance of the 16 shareholder's offer to sell the shares at their fair value. The corporation's acceptance 17 of the shareholder's offer does not operate as an admission or as evidence that the 18 corporation has engaged in oppression of the shareholder.

19 F. A notice of acceptance that operates as an acceptance of both the 20 shareholder's offer to sell and the shareholder's proposed price forms a contract of 21 sale of the shares at that price, payable in cash. The contract includes the warranties 22 of a seller of investment securities under the Uniform Commercial Code and imposes 23 a duty on the selling shareholder to deliver any certificates issued by the corporation 24 for the withdrawing shareholder's shares or, if a certificate has been lost, stolen, or 25 destroyed, an affidavit to that effect. Either party may file an action to enforce the 26 contract at the specified price if the contract is not fully performed within thirty days 27 after the effective date of the notice of acceptance. If a withdrawing shareholder 28 fails to deliver the certificate for a share purchased by the corporation under a 29 contract formed under this Subsection, the shareholder owes the same indemnity 30 obligation as a shareholder who sells shares as described in R.S. 12:1-1436(F).

1 G. If the corporation does not accept the withdrawing shareholder's offer as 2 provided in Subsection E of this Section, the shareholder may file an ordinary 3 proceeding against the corporation in district court to enforce the shareholder's right 4 to withdraw. A judgment in the action that recognizes the right of the shareholder 5 to withdraw on grounds of oppression is a partial judgment under Code of Civil 6 Procedure Article 1915(B). The trial on the valuation of the shares is governed by 7 R.S. 12:1-1436.

8 H. Venue for an action filed under Subsection F or G of this Section lies in 9 the district court of the parish where the corporation's principal office or, if none in 10 this state, where its registered office is located.

11 I. A corporation's purchase of a withdrawing shareholder's shares is subject 12 to the rules on a corporation's acquisition of its own shares provided in R.S. 12:1-631 13 and to the limitations on distribution imposed by R.S. 12:1-640.

14 J.(1) The shareholders of a corporation may waive the right to withdraw 15 under this Section by unanimous written consent, provided in accordance with R.S.
16 12:1-704, stating that the shareholders are waiving the right provided by law to 17 withdraw from the corporation on grounds of oppression. The waiver takes effect 18 when the last consent required to make the consent effective under R.S. 12:1-704 is 19 delivered to the corporation, and the corporation shall send written notice to the 20 shareholders of that date promptly after it is known. The waiver remains in effect 21 for fifteen years from the date that it becomes effective, or for any shorter period 22 stated in the waiver to which the shareholders consent.

23 (2) The existence of the waiver shall be noted on each share certificate in the 24 same way that the existence of a unanimous governance agreement is required to be 25 noted under R.S. 12:1-732(C), and the failure to note the existence of the waiver on 26 a share certificate has the same effect with respect to the waiver as a failure to note 27 a unanimous governance agreement has with respect to that agreement. Except as 28 stated in this Subsection and in Subsection K of this Section, the right of an 29 oppressed shareholder to withdraw from a corporation under this Section may not be 30 diminished.

1 (d) The Model Act does not define the term "oppression." This Section 2 defines the term in Subsection B in a way that combines the two leading tests of 3 oppression used in the case law of other states, the "reasonable expectations" test and 4 the "departure from standards of fair dealing" test. Those two tests have been 5 incorporated into this Section to permit comparisons between cases arising under this 6 Section and those in other jurisdictions in which oppressive behavior has been 7 considered as grounds for relief in favor of a minority shareholder. However, the 8 statutory definition in this Section differs in five respects from at least some versions 9 of the oppression tests articulated by courts in other states:

10 (1) The failure to satisfy reasonable expectations is not itself the direct test 11 for oppressive conduct. Rather, those expectations are to be considered in 12 determining whether the directors or others in control have behaved in a way that is 13 incompatible with a genuine effort to be fair to the complaining shareholder. This 14 formulation is designed to provide a generous range of discretion to the majority 15 owners in designing corporate policies and operations that are fair. Withdrawal is 16 not justified on grounds of oppression merely because the business has not been as 17 successful as hoped, or because the minority's reasonable expectations have been 18 disappointed in some way, or even because some instances of unfairness can be 19 shown to have occurred. Rather, to justify withdrawal under the definition of 20 oppression in Subsection D of this Section, the plaintiff must prove that the 21 majority's behavior, taken as a whole over an appropriate period of time, is plainly 22 incompatible with a genuine effort on the part of the majority to be fair to the 23 shareholders. And the effort to be fair is to be evaluated in light of expectations that 24 it would be reasonable for the shareholders to hold under the circumstances.

25 (2) In determining fairness, the interests of all shareholders, not just those 26 of the complaining shareholder, must be considered. The majority shareholders are 27 entitled to control the business through the exercise of their voting power, and they 28 are entitled as much as the minority shareholders to have their reasonable 29 expectations respected. The evaluation of challenged conduct as "oppressive" should 30 be guided by principles appropriate to the interpretation of a contract that calls for 31 cooperation and fair dealing from all parties in the operation of a business that entails 32 uncertainty and risk. A failure by the majority over an extended period of time to 33 provide a minority investor with any reasonable participation in the benefits of a 34 successful business will be difficult in most cases to reconcile with a genuine effort 35 on the part of the majority to be fair to all shareholders. However, the majority 36 shareholders owe no duty to sacrifice their own legitimate interests as majority 37 owners of the business, or to make payments or provide benefits to the minority 38 investor that are out of proportion to the value of the contributions to the business by 39 the minority investor or his predecessor in interest.

40 (3) The conduct of the complaining shareholder is to be taken into account 41 in deciding whether withdrawal on grounds of oppression is warranted. While the 42 shareholders of a closely-held corporation are commonly compensated largely 43 through their employment by the corporation - making continued employment a 44 reasonable expectation in many cases - shareholders are not entitled to keep their 45 jobs regardless of the quality of their job performance. Incompetence, dishonesty 46 or disloyalty on the part of an employee shareholder may justify the shareholder's 47 termination as a corporate employee, and a justified termination would not by itself 48 amount to oppression. Still, a minority shareholder does not forfeit all right to any 49 economic benefit from his shares merely because his job performance may justify 50 his termination as an employee. A complete freezeout of a shareholder from any 51 participation in the benefits of ownership in the corporation could be considered 52 oppression even if the shareholder's termination as an employee was itself justified.
 53 See, Gimpel v. Bolstein, 477 N.Y.S.2d 1014 (Sup. 1984).

54 (4) A leading case concerning "reasonable expectations" requires the 55 plaintiff in an oppression case to prove that the conduct of the controlling 1 shareholders has substantially defeated expectations that "objectively viewed, were 2 both reasonable under the circumstances and were central to the petitioner's decision 3 to join the venture." Matter of Kemp & Beatley, Inc., 473 N.E.2d 1173 (N.Y. 1984).

 4 This Section embraces the "objectively reasonable under the circumstances" part of 5 the test, but for the reasons explained in the next comment, it drops the requirement 6 that the plaintiff prove that the expectations in question actually played some role in 7 the plaintiff's own decision to join the corporation as a shareholder.

8 (5) Among the original investors, actual expectations will be highly relevant 9 to what a shareholder would be reasonable in considering fair under the 10 circumstances. But disputes within closely-held corporations commonly arise among 11 the children of the founding shareholders, making it unlikely that the litigating 12 shareholders' expectations will have played any role in the investment decisions that 13 were made when the inherited shares were first purchased. The arrangements made 14 and practices followed by the founding shareholders could play some role in shaping 15 what a person succeeding to the founders' shares would be reasonable in expecting.
 16 But a reasonable person should expect some adjustment in those practices to occur 17 as a result of the passing of the shares from one generation to another. The 18 personalities, interests and skills of the second generation of shareholders may differ 19 substantially from those that shaped the expectations and practices of the original 20 investors. This Section allows those changed factors to be taken into account in 21 determining the expectations that it would be reasonable for a shareholder in the 22 plaintiff's position to hold.

23 (e) In contrast with the Model Act's focus on wrongful conduct by "the 24 directors or those in control of a corporation," this Section defines oppression by 25 reference to the corporation's treatment of the complaining shareholder. Although 26 a corporation's oppression of a shareholder is unlikely to occur without the 27 complicity of its directors or controlling shareholders, this Section does not require 28 the complaining shareholder to prove that any particular participant in corporate 29 management is responsible for the oppression that occurs.

30 (f) The second sentence of Subsection B of this Section creates a 31 presumption that conduct is not oppressive if it is consistent with the good faith 32 performance of an agreement among all shareholders. A unanimous governance 33 agreement under R.S. 12:1-732 is included among the unanimous agreements 34 contemplated by the presumption, but the presumption is not limited to that 35 particular form of agreement. It applies with respect to all unanimous agreements 36 among the shareholders.

37 (g) Conduct that is consistent with the good faith performance of a 38 unanimous shareholders' agreement should be considered oppressive only rarely.
 39 The fact that an agreement operates imperfectly, and even unexpectedly in some 40 respects, is not sufficient to rebut the presumption created in Subsection B of this 41 Section. Conduct that qualifies for the presumption in Subsection B of this Section 42 should be treated as oppressive only if (1) it would be considered oppressive but for 43 the presumption and (2) the identities of the shareholders, the nature of the 44 corporation's affairs or other relevant circumstances have changed so profoundly 45 since the signing of the agreement that the fact finder is justified in concluding that 46 parties to the agreement could not have intended to approve as fair, in context, the 47 conduct being challenged as oppressive.

48 (h) The definition of "fair value" in Subsection C of this Section is not 49 affected by the terms of any agreement among the shareholders or in the articles or 50 bylaws of the company that state the value of the shares or state how the value is to 51 be determined. But the definition in Subsection B of this Section applies only in the 52 context of a shareholder's withdrawal on grounds of oppression. It does not affect 53 the valuation of a withdrawing shareholder's shares under other agreements or 54 governance documents, which often deliberately impose some form of discount as

CODING: Words in ~~struck through~~ type are deletions from existing law; words underscored are additions.

1 a means of discouraging the kind of withdrawal contemplated by the pertinent 2 provision. A corporation's adherence to an agreed value or valuation methodology 3 in connection with a shareholder's withdrawal on grounds other than oppression does 4 not itself constitute oppression under Subsection B of this Section or violate the rule 5 in Subsection J of this Section against the diminution of a shareholder's right to 6 withdraw from the corporation on grounds of oppression.

7 (i) Subsection D of this Section treats a notice of withdrawal as an offer of 8 sale by the withdrawing shareholder, and Subsection E of this Section treats the 9 corporation's notice of acceptance as an acceptance of that offer of sale. But that 10 process creates a contract of sale only if the offer includes a price for the offered 11 shares as provided in Subsection D of this Section and if the corporation accepts that 12 price as provided in Subsection F of this Section. Otherwise, the corporation's 13 acceptance of the shareholder's offer to sell triggers only the right to file an action 14 under R.S. 12:1-1436(A) to obtain a court-ordered sale at a fair price set by the court.

15 (j) If a contract of sale is created as provided in Subsection F of this Section, 16 ownership of the offered shares is transferred from the withdrawing shareholder to 17 the corporation when the contract comes into existence, which occurs when the 18 corporation's notice of acceptance becomes effective under the rules stated in R.S.
 19 12:1-141. After that point, the rights of the corporation and former shareholder with 20 respect to the relevant shares are limited to their contract rights against one another 21 under the Subsection F contract. Because ownership of the shares will be transferred 22 immediately and by operation of law, the only items left to be performed under the 23 contract are (1) the corporation's obligation to pay for the shares and (2) the 24 shareholder's obligation with respect to any certificates issued by the corporation for 25 the shares.

26 (k) If the exchange of offer and acceptance does not create a contract of sale 27 under Subsection F of this Section, but only the right to pursue a court-ordered 28 purchase and sale, the shareholder remains a shareholder in the company until the 29 court-ordered transaction is consummated as provided in R.S. 12:1-1436(C) or until 30 the shares are transferred in some other fashion.

31 (l) In some states, courts have used a fiduciary duty theory to protect 32 minority shareholders in a closely held corporation against conduct of the kind 33 defined as oppression in Subsection B of this Section. Subsection L of this Section 34 rejects the treatment of oppression as a breach of fiduciary duty that may justify an 35 action for damages against the corporation, the directors or others in control.
 36 Instead, it provides the dissolution and buyout remedies that are set forth in this 37 Section and in R.S. 12:1-1436. Subsection L of this Section does not affect any of 38 the remedies that are available on grounds other than oppression, including the 39 remedies that were available before the special remedy provided by this Section for 40 oppression became effective.

41 §1-1436. Judicial determination of fair value and payment terms for withdrawing 42 shareholder's shares

43 A.(1) If a shareholder's right to withdraw from a corporation is recognized 44 by means of a notice of acceptance under R.S. 12:1-1435(E), but the notice does not 45 create a contract under R.S. 12:1-1435(F), the corporation and shareholder shall have 46 sixty days from the effective date of the notice of acceptance to negotiate the fair 47 value of the shareholder's shares and the terms under which the corporation is to 1 purchase the shares. Within one year after the expiration of the sixty-day period, 2 either party may file an action against the other to determine the fair value of the 3 shares and the terms for the purchase of the shares. Venue for the action lies in the 4 district court of the parish where the corporation's principal office or, if none in this 5 state, where its registered office is located.

6 (2) If neither party files an action to establish the fair value of the shares 7 within the time period provided in this Subsection, then subject to the terms of any 8 settlement reached between the parties, the effects of the earlier notices of 9 withdrawal and acceptance under R.S. 12:1-1435 are terminated. The termination 10 of the effects of the earlier notices does not affect the right of the shareholder to 11 reassert the shareholder's right to withdraw through the filing of a new notice of 12 withdrawal in accordance with R.S. 12:1-1435(D).

13 B. If a shareholder's right to withdraw from a corporation is recognized by 14 a judgment in an action under R.S. 12:1-1435(G), the court shall stay the proceeding 15 for a period of at least sixty days from the date that the judgment is rendered to allow 16 the corporation and shareholder to negotiate the fair value and purchase terms for the 17 withdrawing shareholder's shares, or other terms for the settlement of their dispute.
18 After the stay expires or is lifted, either party may file a motion to have the court 19 determine the fair value and terms for the purchase of the shares.

20 C. The court shall conduct the trial of the action under Subsection A of this 21 Section or the motion under Subsection B of this Section by summary proceeding.

22 D. Except as provided in Subsection E of this Section, at the conclusion of 23 the trial the court shall render final judgment as follows:

24 (1) In favor of the shareholder and against the corporation for the fair value 25 of the shareholder's shares.

26 (2) In favor of the corporation and against the shareholder for the following:

27 (a) Terminating the shareholder's ownership of shares in the corporation.

28 (b) Ordering the shareholder to deliver to the corporation within thirty days 29 of the date of the judgment any certificate issued by the corporation for the shares 30 or an affidavit by shareholder that the certificate has been lost, stolen, or destroyed.

1 E. If at the conclusion of the trial the court finds that the corporation has 2 proved that a full payment in cash of the fair value of the withdrawing shareholder's 3 shares would violate the provisions of R.S. 12:1-640 or cause undue harm to the 4 corporation or its creditors, the court shall not render the judgment specified in 5 Subsection D of this Section, but shall instead render final judgment which provides 6 for both of the following:

7 (1) Ordering the corporation to issue and deliver to the shareholder within 8 thirty days of the date of the judgment an unsecured negotiable promissory note of 9 the corporation which is all of the following:

10 (a) Payable to the order of the shareholder.

11 (b) In a principal amount equal to the fair value of the withdrawing 12 shareholder's shares.

13 (c) Bearing simple interest on the unpaid balance of the note at a floating rate 14 equal to the judicial rate of interest.

15 (d) Having a term up to ten years, as specified by the court in its judgment 16 as necessary to prevent a violation of R.S. 12:1-640 or undue harm to the corporation 17 or its creditors.

18 (e) Containing such other terms, customary in negotiable promissory notes 19 issued in commercial transactions, as the court may order.

20 (2) Terminating the shareholder's ownership of shares in the corporation 21 upon delivery to the shareholder of the note required by the judgment under 22 Paragraph (E)(1) of this Section, and ordering the shareholder to deliver to the 23 corporation, within ten days of the delivery of the note, any certificate issued by the 24 corporation for the shares or an affidavit by shareholder that the certificate has been 25 lost, stolen, or destroyed.

26 F. If a withdrawing shareholder fails to deliver the certificate for a share 27 covered by a judgment rendered under Subsection C or D of this Section, and a third 28 person presents the certificate to the corporation after the shareholder's ownership 29 of the share is terminated by the judgment, the shareholder shall indemnify the 30 corporation for any dilution in value imposed on other shareholders as a result of the 1 (1) Render a judgment dissolving the corporation as provided in R.S.

 2 12:1-1433.

3 (2) Dismiss the withdrawal or valuation cause of action.

4 (3) Make the complaining shareholder in the dismissed cause of action a 5 party to the court-supervised dissolution proceeding.

6 (4) Appoint a liquidator in accordance with R.S. 12:1-1432, or order the 7 corporation to submit to the court for its approval a plan of liquidation and such 8 interim and final reports on the liquidation as the court may consider necessary to 9 protect the interests of the complaining shareholder.

10 B. A motion under Subsection A of this Section may be filed at any time 11 before final judgment.

12 C. If a corporation dissolves or terminates while a withdrawal or valuation 13 proceeding under R.S. 12:1-1435 or 1-1436 is pending, but does not file a motion to 14 convert the proceeding as provided in Subsection A of this Section, the complaining 15 shareholder in the proceeding may by contradictory motion seek to convert the 16 proceeding into one for a court-supervised dissolution of the corporation. If the court 17 finds that the conversion is necessary to protect the interests of the shareholder, it 18 shall grant the motion and take the actions contemplated by Subsection A of this 19 Section for the conversion of a proceeding to a court-supervised dissolution.

20 SUBPART D. TERMINATION AND REINSTATEMENT

21 Introductory Comments to Subpart D

22 (a) This Subpart omits Model Act Section 14.40, which would have allowed 23 a dissolved corporation that is unable to find a creditor, claimant or shareholder to 24 deposit any funds owed to the missing payee with the state treasurer, in a manner 25 similar to that provided by the Uniform Unclaimed Property Act, R.S. 9:151-88. The 26 Section was omitted to allow the state treasurer to deal with the unclaimed funds of 27 a dissolved corporation in the same way as other unclaimed property, as provided in 28 the Unclaimed Property Act.

29 (b) Because Section 14.40 was the only provision contained in Subchapter 30 D of Model Act Chapter 14, the omission of the Section made the Subsection 31 available for other purposes. Subpart D is utilized to deal with the termination and 32 reinstatement of a corporation's existence. The Model Act does not deal with those 33 topics because the Model Act does not terminate the existence of a dissolved 34 corporation; even a dissolved corporation continues to exist perpetually. Subpart D 35 of this Part adopts an approach to corporate dissolution that is similar to that taken 36 under prior Louisiana law, which provided a mechanism for terminating the 37 existence of a dissolved corporation.

1 (c) Under prior Louisiana law, a corporation was dissolved in four steps. In 2 the first step, the dissolution process was begun, either through the filing of articles 3 of dissolution or through a court order of dissolution. The first step resulted in the 4 transfer of managerial power over the corporation from the board of directors to a 5 liquidator. The liquidator was then responsible for the second step, that of winding 6 up and liquidating the business and affairs of the corporation, in some cases subject 7 to court supervision. When the liquidation was completed, the statute required the 8 liquidator to take the third step in the process, that of filing what were confusingly 9 called "articles of dissolution", also the name for the document that began, rather 10 than ended, a liquidation, or if the dissolution was judicially supervised, an order of 11 dissolution. Finally, in the fourth step, if the order or articles of liquidation met the 12 requirements of law and certain listed state agencies certified that the corporation 13 owed no unpaid obligations to them, the secretary of state was required to issue a 14 "certificate of dissolution," which caused the corporation to be dissolved in the sense 15 that its existence was terminated as of the effective date of the certificate. The law 16 dealt with any late-discovered assets or claims by vesting the assets in the liquidator 17 and empowering the liquidator to take any action required to preserve the interests 18 of the corporation, its creditors or shareholders. If the liquidator died or was 19 unwilling or unable to serve, the statute allowed the appointment of a new liquidator 20 "for any proper purpose."

21 (d) Under the Model Act, the dissolution of a corporation involves only two 22 steps: (1) the dissolution is triggered by articles or an order of dissolution and (2) the 23 board of directors (or a liquidator if one is judicially-appointed) conducts or 24 supervises the winding up and liquidation of the corporation's business and affairs.
25 At no point does the Model Act require (or permit) the filing of the documents 26 contemplated by steps three and four of prior Louisiana law, those declaring the 27 liquidation to be complete and the existence of the corporation to be terminated.
28 Instead, a dissolved corporation continues to exist forever under the Model Act 29 scheme, but only for purposes of winding up and liquidating its affairs. Section 30 14.05 of the Model Act provides a single set of rules to govern a dissolved 31 corporation, both during the period in which the corporation is engaged in winding 32 up its affairs and during the perpetual period that follows the completion of that 33 process. In effect, Section 14.05 provides that all of the normal corporate 34 governance rules continue to apply forever to a dissolved corporation, except for the 35 change in the object of corporate operations from normal business to liquidation, 36 even after the corporation has been fully liquidated and its operations - for any 37 purpose - fully shut down.

38 (e) This Subpart adopts the Model Act approach to the continued existence 39 of a dissolved corporation while the corporation is still engaged in the process of 40 winding up its affairs. It also adopts the Model Act concept that a dissolved 41 corporation continues to exist perpetually for purposes of identifying the person, i.e.
42 the corporation, that owns any undistributed corporate assets and owes any 43 undischarged corporate debts. But this Subpart rejects the Model Act view that a 44 dissolved corporation may continue to be governed by the same Section 14.05 rules 45 both during its active liquidation phase and during the infinitely longer period after 46 the completion of its liquidation. After the active liquidation of the corporation is 47 completed, the corporation continues to exist only to help conceptualize how to deal 48 with items missed during its liquidation. This Subpart provides a mechanism similar 49 to that provided under prior law under which the existence of an already-liquidated 50 corporation may be terminated for all other purposes.

51 (f) This Subpart differs from prior law by eliminating the theoretical vesting 52 of undiscovered assets in a liquidator. Instead, the corporation itself, even after its 53 termination, will continue to hold any undistributed assets and to owe any 54 undischarged debts. The continuation of the corporation for this limited purpose 55 may be viewed either as an exception to the termination of the corporation's 56 existence for other purposes or as a legal fiction that helps conceptualize properly the

1 nature of the interests in any undistributed assets held by various types of claimants 2 or shareholders of the terminated corporation. The practical question posed by the 3 terminated corporation's continuing role with respect to undistributed assets or 4 undischarged debts is how to deal with those items on the corporation's behalf.
 5 Those issues are addressed by R.S. 12:1-1444, which for a three-year period permits 6 a terminated corporation to be reinstated fully and retroactively, and by R.S.
 7 12:1-1445, which permits a court to appoint a liquidator for the terminated
 8 corporation.

9 §1-1440. Articles of termination

10 A. When the board of directors, or the liquidator acting during the 11 liquidator's appointment, determines that the corporation has completed the winding 12 up and liquidation of its business and affairs, the board of directors or liquidator may 13 cause the corporation to deliver to the secretary of state for filing articles of 14 termination.

15 B. The articles of termination shall state all of the following:

16 (1) The name of the corporation.

17 (2) The date of its dissolution.

18 (3) Whether its dissolution was voluntary or judicial.

19 (4) That the corporation has paid or made reasonable provision for the 20 payment of all of its liabilities.

21 (5) That the net assets of the corporation remaining after winding up have 22 been distributed to the shareholders.

23 C. If the articles of termination are signed by a liquidator, the secretary of 24 state shall not file the articles unless the articles have attached or appended to them 25 a certified copy of the court order that authorizes the liquidator to wind up the affairs 26 of the corporation.

27 Comments - 2014 Revision

28 (a) This Section provides a means by which the board of directors or a 29 court-appointed liquidator may declare the liquidation of a dissolved corporation to 30 be complete and to obtain a termination of the corporation's existence for all 31 purposes other than holding any undistributed assets or owing any undischarged 32 corporate debts.

33 (b) The corporation's existence is terminated when the secretary of state files 34 the articles of dissolution. See R.S. 12:1-1443.

1 §1-1441. Simplified termination procedure for certain corporations

2 A. The existence of a corporation may be terminated as provided in this 3 Section if the corporation satisfies all of the following conditions:

4 (1) Does not owe any debts.

5 (2) Does not own any immovable property.

6 (3) Has not issued shares or is not doing business.

7 B. If the corporation has not issued shares, a termination under this Section 8 may be authorized by a majority of the initial directors or, if no initial directors are 9 named in the articles of incorporation, by a majority of the incorporators. If the 10 corporation has issued shares, the termination may be authorized as provided in R.S.
11 12:1-1402 or by the unanimous written consent of the shareholders.

12 C. After the termination is authorized, the corporation may deliver to the 13 secretary of state for filing articles of termination that set forth all of the following:

14 (1) The name of the corporation.

15 (2) That no debt of the corporation remains unpaid.

16 (3) That the corporation owns no immovable property.

17 (4) That the corporation has not issued shares or is not doing business.

18 (5) That the net assets of the corporation remaining after winding up have 19 been distributed to the shareholders, if shares were issued.

20 (6) That the termination was authorized as required by Subsection B of this 21 Section.

23 Comments - 2014 Revision

24 (a) This Section combines features of Model Act Section 14.01, which 25 provides a simplified dissolution mechanism for a corporation that has not issued 26 shares or has not begun business, with those of former R.S. 12:142.1, which 27 permitted a corporation to dissolve by affidavit if it owed no debts and owned no 28 immovable property. As used in the Model Act provision, dissolution would not 29 terminate a corporation's existence; even dissolved corporations would continue to 30 exist perpetually under the Model Act. As used in the former Louisiana provision, 31 dissolution referred to the termination of the corporation's existence. This Section 32 avoids the possible confusion between the two different meanings of dissolution by 33 providing that the procedure authorized in this Section results in a termination of the 34 corporation's existence, and not a mere dissolution in the Model Act sense of the 35 term.

1 (b) This Section rejects the rule in former R.S. 12:142.1 that imposed 2 personal liability for corporate debts on shareholders who utilized that Section's 3 simplified mechanism for terminating the existence of their corporation. The former 4 rule encouraged shareholders who wished to shut down corporate operations to do 5 so without any formal dissolution process, and then simply to stop filing annual 6 reports. The failure to file annual reports for a period of three years triggered a 7 requirement that the secretary of state revoke the non-filing corporation's charter.
 8 The charter revocation accomplished the same result as the dissolution-by-affidavit, 9 but without the statutory imposition of personal liability on shareholders for the 10 revoked corporation's debts. Indeed, if the corporation's existence was terminated 11 by revocation rather than affidavit, the shareholders could reinstate their corporation 12 during the first three years following the revocation, with retroactive effect, by filing 13 a simple form with the secretary of state's office and paying a small filing fee. Given 14 the choice between liability-imposing dissolution and cost-free, no-risk charter 15 revocation, most well-advised shareholders opted for charter revocation. This 16 Section eliminates the strong incentive created by the former liability rule to dissolve 17 by violating, rather than by complying with, the requirements of the corporation 18 statute.

19 (c) Shareholders who use the simplified form of dissolution authorized by 20 this Section do not receive the benefits of the claims-barring and claims-discharging 21 rules of R.S. 12:1-1406 through 1-1408. Those rules are available only if the more 22 formalized dissolution procedure required by those provisions is utilized. But, unlike 23 prior law, this Section does not impose personal liability on shareholders who utilize 24 a simplified form of dissolution. Regardless of the form of dissolution that is used, 25 shareholders bear liability only for unlawful distributions from the corporation.
 26 They do not bear personal liability for the corporation's debts.

27 §1-1442. Administrative termination

28 A. Subject to Subsection B of this Section, the secretary of state shall 29 terminate the existence of a corporation if, according to the records of the secretary 30 of state, the corporation has failed for ninety consecutive days to do either of the 31 following:

32 (1) Comply with the requirements imposed by R.S. 12:1-501 concerning the 33 continuous maintenance in this state of a registered office and registered agent.

34 (2) To file an annual report as required by R.S. 12:1-1621.

35 B. The secretary of state shall give the corporation at least thirty days' 36 written notice of the secretary's intention to terminate the corporation's existence 37 under Subsection A of this Section. If the corporation eliminates the grounds for its 38 termination before the end of the thirty-day notice period, the secretary of state shall 39 not terminate the existence of the corporation.

40 C. The secretary of state terminates the existence of a corporation under this 41 Section by filing a certificate of termination that states the grounds for termination.

1 The secretary shall serve a copy of the certificate of termination on the corporation 2 in accordance with R.S. 12:1-504.

4 Comment - 2014 Revision

5 This Section is not part of the Model Act. It is based on former R.S. 12:163, 6 which required the secretary of state to revoke the charter of a corporation that failed 7 to file annual reports or failed to maintain a registered office or registered agent.
8 This Section reduces the grace period for the filing of the annual report from three 9 years to ninety days, to discourage the practice of filing the annual report, and paying 10 the required filing fee, only every third year, after receiving the notice of pending 11 revocation from the secretary of state.

12 §1-1443. Effective date and effects of termination

13 A. The filing by the secretary of state of a corporation's articles of 14 termination under R.S. 12:1-1440 or 1-1441 or a certificate of termination under R.S.
15 12:1-1442 causes the existence of the corporation to terminate on the effective date 16 of the articles or certificate of termination. The effects of the filing of the articles or 17 certificate of termination are not affected by any error in the articles or certificate, 18 but the error may justify reinstatement of the corporation as provided in R.S.
19 12:1-1444 or the appointment of a liquidator as provided in R.S. 12:1-1445.

20 B. When the existence of the corporation terminates, the corporation's 21 juridical personality ends except for purposes of any of the following:

22 (1) Reserving the corporation's name as provided in R.S. 12:1-402(C).

23 (2) Concluding any proceeding to which the corporation is a party at the time 24 of the termination.

25 (3) Continuing to own any undistributed corporate assets and to owe any 26 undischarged corporate obligations or liabilities.

27 C. The termination does not do any of the following:

28 (1) Extinguish any claim against the corporation.

29 (2) Abate any proceeding to which the corporation is a party.

30 (3) Cause any obligation or liability owed by the corporation to become the 31 obligation or liability of any of the corporation's current or former shareholders, 32 directors, officers, employees, or agents.

1 administrative termination is triggered inadvertently or deliberately. If the 2 administrative termination occurs unexpectedly, in an ongoing business in which the 3 corporation's annual filing obligations have simply been overlooked, the terminated 4 corporation is very likely to own assets and to owe debts when it is terminated. In 5 that case, the rule in Paragraph (B)(3) of this Section preserves the corporation's 6 position in relation to its assets and liabilities during the period between its 7 termination under R.S. 12:1-1442 and its likely reinstatement under R.S. 12:1-1444.
 8 If, on the other hand, the owners of a corporation have already shut down its 9 operations and wound up its affairs, they may choose deliberately to stop filing their 10 corporation's annual reports as a means of causing the secretary of state to terminate 11 their corporation's existence. In that case, the rule in Paragraph (B)(3) of this Section 12 will apply only to the extent that it is needed to deal with assets or liabilities that 13 were undiscovered or overlooked in the informal winding up of the corporation's 14 affairs.

15 (e) If a termination is voluntary, then all of the terminated corporation's 16 assets ordinarily will have been paid out or distributed as part of the pre-termination 17 winding up of the corporation's affairs. If some assets remain undistributed after a 18 voluntary termination, then one, or both, of two explanations is likely to account for 19 that fact: some assets were undiscovered or overlooked during the winding up, or the 20 existence of the corporation was deliberately terminated while the corporation still 21 owned assets and owed debts, in a misguided effort to eliminate the corporation's 22 debts by eliminating the corporate debtor. In both circumstances, Paragraph (B)(3) 23 of this Section continues to treat the corporation as the debtor on corporate liabilities 24 and the owner of corporate assets, to preserve both the existence and priority of the 25 various forms of claims and interests in the undistributed assets.

26 (f) Any transfer of undistributed assets from the terminated corporation to 27 a creditor or shareholder would require the proper exercise of managerial authority 28 on behalf of the corporation. That managerial authority could be obtained through 29 the appointment of a liquidator under R.S. 12:1-1445 or, if the requirements for 30 reinstatement could be satisfied, through a reinstatement of the corporation under 31 R.S. 12:1-1444. The reinstatement would not itself create managerial authority, but 32 it would return the corporation to the position it was in before the termination 33 occurred. Hence, the board of directors, officers and agents of the corporation would 34 hold the same authority after the reinstatement as they would have held had no 35 termination occurred.

36 (g) Subsection D of this Section is designed to prevent the disruption of 37 pending litigation by preserving the authority of a corporation's legal and managerial 38 representatives in the litigation. However, the authorized representatives of a 39 reinstated corporation, or a liquidator who is appointed in accordance with R.S.
 40 12:1-1445 and who holds the appropriate authority, may make changes in the 41 identity or authority of the corporation's legal counsel or managerial representatives.

42 (h) Although Subsection B of this Section allows a pending proceeding by 43 or against a terminated corporation to continue, any recovery by the corporation in 44 the litigation will become an undistributed asset of the corporation, and any 45 monetary judgment against the corporation will be collectible only from the 46 corporation's undistributed assets, or through unlawful distribution claims against its 47 former directors or shareholders.

48 §1-1444. Reinstatement of terminated corporation

49 A. A terminated corporation may be reinstated if the corporation satisfies

50 both of the following conditions:

51 (1) Was not dissolved by a judgment of dissolution.

1 (2) Requests reinstatement in accordance with this Section no later than three 2 years after the effective date of its articles or certificate of termination.

3 B. If the corporation was terminated administratively under R.S. 12:1-1442, 4 the articles of reinstatement shall be approved by either of the following:

5 (1) A director or officer listed in the corporation's last annual report before 6 its termination.

7 (2) A director of the corporation elected by the shareholders of the 8 corporation after the last annual report, regardless of whether the director was elected 9 before or after the administrative termination.

10 C. If the corporation was terminated after its dissolution or termination was 11 authorized by a vote of shareholders, then all of the following actions are required:

12 (1) The reinstatement of the corporation shall be approved by the same vote 13 that was required to approve the dissolution or termination, by the persons who were 14 shareholders at the time that the dissolution or termination was approved by the 15 shareholders.

16 (2) The persons entitled to vote on the reinstatement shall elect a board of 17 directors for the reinstated corporation.

18 (3) The board of directors elected in accordance with Paragraph (C)(2) of 19 this Section shall elect officers for the reinstated corporation.

20 D. A corporation may request reinstatement by delivering to the secretary 21 of state for filing articles of reinstatement and an annual report. The articles of 22 reinstatement and the annual report shall be signed by an officer or director of the 23 corporation who is entitled to approve the articles under Subsection B of this Section 24 or, in the case of a reinstatement authorized in accordance with Subsection C of this 25 Section, by a director or officer elected in accordance with that Subsection. The 26 annual report shall be accompanied by a written consent to appointment signed by 27 the registered agent named in the annual report.

28 E. The articles of reinstatement shall state all of the following:

29 (1) The name of the corporation.

1 (b) The broadening of the reinstatement option to include 2 voluntarily-terminated corporations is designed to deal with similar cases in similar 3 ways. Shareholders who choose to terminate their corporations voluntarily and 4 formally, but then regret having done so because of some overlooked matter, should 5 have the same opportunity to fix the problem as those who regret an administrative 6 termination for a similar reason. Unlike the former law, this Section does not restrict 7 the reinstatement privilege to those who have triggered a termination through a 8 failure to comply with the corporation statute.

9 (c) The prior law's three-year time limit on reinstatements was retained in 10 this Part. A three-year period is long enough to cover most of the post-termination 11 issues that are likely to arise, yet short enough to make it likely that the 12 pre-termination arrangements within the corporation can be reinstated without the 13 need for judicial review. If it is not possible to obtain the vote required for 14 reinstatement, or if the three-year period allowed for reinstatement has expired, a 15 liquidator may be appointed under R.S. 12:1-1445 to deal with any undistributed 16 assets or undischarged claims of a terminated corporation.

17 (d) Articles of reinstatement may be filed by the secretary of state only if 18 they meet the general requirements of R.S. 12:1-120 for the filing of a document 19 under this Chapter. Subsection F of this Section imposes requirements that must be 20 satisfied in addition to those provided in R.S. 12:1-120.

21 §1-1445. Appointment of liquidator for terminated corporation

22 On application of any interested party, a district court may, ex parte or on 23 such notice as the court may order, appoint a liquidator to act on behalf of a 24 terminated corporation with respect to any of its undistributed assets or undischarged 25 claims or interests. The court's appointment of a liquidator under this Section is 26 governed by the provisions of R.S. 12:1-1432, as if the liquidator were being 27 appointed to conduct a dissolution of the corporation under court supervision. The 28 costs and expenses of the liquidator and of the appointment of the liquidator under 29 this Section shall be paid by the party seeking the appointment, subject to 30 reimbursement from any undistributed assets of the corporation or the proceeds of 31 their disposition.

32 Comments - 2014 Revision

33 (a) Under the Model Act, a dissolved corporation continues to exist 34 indefinitely after its dissolution. The dissolution simply marks the point at which the 35 object of corporation changes from the operation of its business to the winding up 36 and liquidation of its affairs. Hence, in theory, the Model Act deals with any 37 late-discovered assets or claims of an already-liquidated corporation in the same way 38 it deals with the assets and claims that were actually taken into account during the 39 active phase of the liquidation process: it empowers the board of directors to collect 40 the assets and to pay the claims.

41 (b) But if the assets or claims are discovered ten or twenty years after the 42 liquidation of the corporation is thought to have been completed, then no board of CODING: Words in ~~struck through~~ type are deletions from existing law; words underscoring are additions.

1 directors will exist in any realistic sense. Nor will it be possible in most such cases 2 for anyone to call a meeting of the shareholders, or to have the shareholders act by 3 written consent, for the election of a new board. Hence, even if the law does 4 recognize the dissolved or terminated corporation's continuing role as owner or 5 obligor of the late discovered items - as both the Model Act and this Subpart do - the 6 practical problem posed by the late-discovered items is how identify an appropriate 7 person with authority to deal with those items.

8 (c) This Part addresses that problem, first, by authorizing reinstatement of 9 the corporation for a three-year period following its termination, and, second, by 10 authorizing the appointment by a court of a liquidator for the terminated corporation.
 11 The reinstatement is governed by R.S. 12:1-1444. The appointment of a liquidator 12 is governed by R.S. 12:1-1445.

13 (d) Any interested person may seek the appointment of a liquidator for a 14 terminated corporation under R.S. 12:1-1445. The person seeking the appointment 15 bears the costs and expenses of the appointment proceeding, and of the liquidator, 16 subject to reimbursement from the undistributed assets of the corporation, or their 17 proceeds.

18 (e) A corporation that dissolves and completes its liquidation process is 19 unlikely to avoid termination under this Part for more than one additional year. Once 20 the liquidation is completed, the corporation is likely either to terminate voluntarily 21 under R.S. 12:1-1440 or 1-1441 or to discontinue the filing of its annual report, 22 which will cause the corporation to be terminated administratively under R.S.
 23 12:1-1442. If the corporation does avoid termination, then the corporation will be 24 naming in its annual reports the persons whom the corporation claims to possess the 25 authority to deal with late-discovered assets or liabilities. Whether those persons 26 actually possess the authority to deal with the assets or liabilities on the corporation's 27 behalf is a question that would be governed by the normal rules for the election of 28 directors and officers, and, if their terms have expired, for the authority of holdover 29 officials. Any shareholder would continue to hold the power under R.S. 12:1-701(D) 30 to demand a meeting of shareholders for the election of directors if an election of 31 directors had not been conducted for eighteen months or more, and the owners of 32 shares representing at least twenty-five percent of the voting power in the 33 corporation would be entitled to seek court supervision of the dissolution under R.S.
 34 12:1-1430(A)(4). In any case, because the corporation is dissolved, the board would 35 be required to deal with the assets or claims as contemplated by R.S. 12:1-1405.

36 PART 15. FOREIGN CORPORATIONS

37 [Reserved.]

38 Comment - 2014 Revision

39 Chapter 15 of the Model Business Corporation Act deals with the 40 qualification of foreign business corporations to do business in a state. A separate 41 model act, the Model Nonprofit Corporation Act, deals with the qualification of 42 foreign nonprofit corporations. Because existing Chapter 3 of Title 12 of the 43 Revised Statutes covers the qualification of both forms of foreign corporation, the 44 existing Chapter was retained, and Chapter 15 of the Model Act was omitted from 45 this Act.

1 PART. 16. RECORDS AND REPORTS

2 SUBPART A. RECORDS

3 §1-1601. Corporate records

4 A. A corporation shall keep as permanent records minutes of all meetings of 5 its shareholders and board of directors, a record of all actions taken by the 6 shareholders or board of directors without a meeting, and a record of all actions 7 taken by a committee of the board of directors in place of the board of directors on 8 behalf of the corporation.

9 B. A corporation shall maintain appropriate accounting records.

10 C. A corporation or its agent shall maintain a record of its shareholders, in 11 a form that permits preparation of a list of the names and addresses of all 12 shareholders, in alphabetical order by class of shares showing the number and class 13 of shares held by each.

14 D. A corporation shall maintain its records in the form of a document, 15 including an electronic record, or in another form capable of conversion into paper 16 form within a reasonable time.

17 E. A corporation shall keep a copy of all of the following records at its 18 principal office:

19 (1) Its articles or restated articles of incorporation, all amendments to them 20 currently in effect, and any notices to shareholders referred to in R.S. 12:1-120(L)(5) 21 regarding facts on which a filed document is dependent.

22 (2) Its bylaws or restated bylaws and all amendments to them currently in 23 effect.

24 (3) Resolutions adopted by its board of directors creating one or more classes 25 or series of shares, and fixing their relative rights, preferences, and limitations, if 26 shares issued pursuant to those resolutions are outstanding.

27 (4) The minutes of all shareholders' meetings, and records of all action taken 28 by shareholders without a meeting, for the past three years.

1 corporation to provide such information does not affect the validity of action taken 2 at the meeting.

3 C. A shareholder of at least five percent of any class of the issued shares of 4 a corporation for at least the preceding six months is entitled to inspect and copy, 5 during regular business hours at a reasonable location specified by the corporation, 6 any and all of the records of the corporation if the shareholder meets the 7 requirements of Subsection D of this Section and gives the corporation a signed 8 written notice of the shareholder's demand at least five business days before the date 9 on which the shareholder wishes to inspect and copy the records. A shareholder of 10 less than five percent of a corporation's issued shares may exercise the rights 11 provided in this Subsection if the shareholder delivers to the corporation, either 12 before or along with the written notice of demand, written consents to the demand 13 by other shareholders who, in the aggregate with the shareholder making the 14 demand, own the required percentage of shares for the required period.

15 D. A shareholder may inspect and copy the records described in Subsection 16 B of this Section only if the following conditions are satisfied:

17 (1) The shareholder's demand is made in good faith and for a proper purpose.

18 (2) The shareholder describes with reasonable particularity the shareholder's 19 purpose and the records the shareholder desires to inspect.

20 (3) The records are directly connected with the shareholder's purpose.

21 E. The right of inspection granted by this Section may not be abolished or 22 limited by a corporation's articles of incorporation, bylaws, unanimous governance 23 agreement, or any other agreement.

24 F. This Section does not affect either of the following:

25 (1) The right of a shareholder to inspect records under R.S. 12:1-720 or, if 26 the shareholder is in litigation with the corporation, to the same extent as any other 27 litigant.

28 (2) The power of a court to deny the right of inspection as to confidential 29 matters, or to place restrictions on the use or distribution of records as provided in 30 R.S. 12:1-1604(D).

1 G. For purposes of this Section, "shareholder" means a record shareholder, 2 a beneficial shareholder, and an unrestricted voting trust beneficial owner.

4 Comments - 2014 Revision

5 (a) This Section amends Model Act Subsection (c) to retain the rule in prior 6 law that limited inspection rights to shareholders who, by themselves or together 7 with other cooperating shareholders, owned at least five percent of a class of the 8 corporation's shares for at least six months. The prior law's reference to 9 "outstanding" shares has been replaced in this Section with a reference to "issued" 10 shares because "issued" shares is the correct term under this Chapter for what prior 11 law called "outstanding" shares. Under prior law, an issued share that was owned 12 by a third party was called an "outstanding" share, to distinguish it from an issued 13 share that had been reacquired by the corporation, and not canceled, which was 14 called a "treasury" share. Under R.S. 12:1-631, shares that are reacquired by the 15 issuing corporation do not retain their issued status as treasury shares. Rather, they 16 return to the status of unissued shares. The five percent ownership requirement 17 under Subsection C of this Section applies only to inspections of "any and all" 18 records under that Subsection. Any shareholder may exercise the inspection rights 19 provided by Subsection A of this Section.

20 (b) This Section drops the separate and higher percentage ownership 21 requirement, twenty-five percent, that was imposed under prior law on shareholders 22 who were competitors of the corporation. A higher percentage requirement could 23 interfere arbitrarily with the legitimate inspection rights of shareholders who happen 24 to be competitors, while still failing to protect the corporation adequately against the 25 inspection of records for improper purposes by competitors who happen to own the 26 required percentage of shares. This Section deals with inspections by competitors 27 in two ways. First, all inspections under Subsection C of this Section are subject to 28 the requirements of Subsection C of this Section, which include the requirement that 29 the demand for inspection be made in good faith and for a proper purpose. Second, 30 the court is given the power under Subsection F of this Section to deny the inspection 31 of records concerning confidential matters.

32 (c) This Section also changes the rule in prior law that multiple shareholders 33 could "jointly" exercise an inspection, to avoid any suggestion that jointly-held 34 inspection rights might somehow have to be exercised differently from those held 35 by just one shareholder. This Section does not require that the inspections 36 themselves be conducted jointly, but only that a group of shareholders owning the 37 required percentage of shares for the required period consent to the inspecting 38 shareholder's demand for inspection.

39 (d) This Section retains the rule in prior law that allowed a shareholder to 40 inspect "any and all" records of the corporation, and not merely those records 41 specifically listed in Model Act Subsection (c). It omits the reference in prior law 42 to "accounts" because accounting records are included in the records that may be 43 inspected under this Section.

44 (e) This Section deletes Model Act Paragraph (f)(2), which preserved the 45 power of a court to compel the production of corporate records independently of the 46 Section. The statement was deleted as unnecessary to preserve any such power and 47 to eliminate the risk that the statement of preservation could itself be construed as 48 an implicit recognition of some unspecified additional authority.

49 (f) This Section uses Paragraph (F)(2) of this Section to retain the rule from 50 prior law that permits a court to deny inspection rights as to confidential matters.

1 The court's power to deny inspection exists in addition to its authority to restrict the 2 use or distribution of inspected items under R.S. 12:1-1604(D). A court should deny 3 the inspection of confidential items only if it concludes that the restrictions that the 4 court may impose on the use or distribution of the inspected records under R.S.
 5 12:1-1604(D) are not sufficient to protect the corporation's interests in the 6 confidentiality of the records.

7 §1-1603. Scope of inspection right

8 A. A shareholder's agent or attorney has the same inspection and copying 9 rights as the shareholder represented.

10 B. The right to copy records under R.S. 12:1-1602 includes, if reasonable, 11 the right to receive copies by xerographic or other means, including copies through 12 an electronic transmission if electronic transmission is available and requested by the 13 shareholder.

14 C. The corporation may comply at its expense with a shareholder's demand 15 to inspect the record of shareholders by providing the shareholder with a list of 16 shareholders that was compiled no earlier than the date of the shareholder's demand.

17 D. The corporation may impose a reasonable charge, covering the costs of 18 labor and material, for copies of any documents requested by the shareholder. The 19 charge may not exceed the estimated cost of production, reproduction, or 20 transmission of the records.

21 Source: MBCA §16.03.

22 §1-1604. Court-ordered inspection

23 A. If a corporation does not within a reasonable time allow a shareholder 24 who complies with the applicable provisions of R.S. 12:1-1602 to inspect and copy 25 any records required by that Section to be available for inspection, the district court 26 of the parish where the corporation's principal office or, if none in this state, its 27 registered office is located may by summary proceeding order inspection and 28 copying of the records demanded. If the court determines that the shareholder was 29 entitled to inspect and copy the demanded records under R.S. 12:1-1602(A), then the 30 court shall order the corporation to provide copies of the demanded records at the 31 corporation's expense.

32 B. [Reserved.]

1 director is also entitled to the corporation's payment of expenses, and to the 2 corporation's provision of copies at the corporation's expense, on the same basis as 3 a shareholder under R.S. 12:1-1604, regardless of whether the director is a 4 shareholder or holds the percentage of shares specified in R.S. 12:1-1602.

6 Comments -2014 Revision

7 (a) This Section modifies the procedural terminology in Model Act 8 Subsection (b) to make it consistent with the Code of Civil Procedure.

9 (b) This Section also adds a second sentence to Subsection (b) to extend to 10 a director the same expense-reimbursement and free-copy rights as a shareholder 11 under R.S. 12:1-1604, regardless of whether the director owns the shares required 12 to obtain those rights in his or her capacity as a shareholder.

13 §1-1606. Exception to notice requirement

14 A. Whenever notice would otherwise be required to be given under any 15 provision of this Chapter to a shareholder, such notice need not be given if either of 16 the following conditions are met:

17 (1) Notices to the shareholders of two consecutive annual meetings, and all 18 notices of meetings during the period between such two consecutive annual 19 meetings, have been sent to such shareholder at such shareholder's address as shown 20 on the records of the corporation and have been returned undeliverable or could not 21 be delivered.

22 (2) All, but not less than two, payments of dividends on securities during a 23 twelve-month period, or two consecutive payments of dividends on securities during 24 a period of more than twelve months, have been sent to such shareholder at such 25 shareholder's address as shown on the records of the corporation and have been 26 returned undeliverable or could not be delivered.

27 B. If any such shareholder shall deliver to the corporation a written notice 28 setting forth such shareholder's then-current address, the requirement that notice be 29 given to such shareholder shall be reinstated.

1 Comments - 2014 Revision

2 (a) This Section deletes the Model Act references to annual reports by 3 foreign corporations because those are governed by Chapter 3 of this Title. As a 4 result of those deletions, this Section applies only to corporations incorporated under 5 the provisions of this Chapter, making the Model Act references to "domestic" 6 corporations, as distinguished from foreign corporations, unnecessary. This Section 7 applies to a "corporation," a term that means the same thing as "domestic 8 corporation" when it is used without any other descriptive words. See R.S.
 9 12:1-140(4).

10 (b) This Section deletes two of the items that the Model Act requires to be 11 included in an annual report: a description of the business of the corporation and a 12 statement of the number of authorized shares. It also modifies the required 13 statements concerning a corporation's registered office and registered agent to reflect 14 the rejection by this Section of the Model Act rule that the address of a registered 15 agent has to be the same as the address of the corporation's registered office. See 16 R.S. 12:1-501.

17 (c) This Section replaces the Model Act rule that annual reports be filed in 18 the first quarter of each year with the rule from prior law that reports be filed on or 19 before the anniversary of each corporation's date of incorporation.

20 (d) This Sections adds a new Subsection E that requires a dissolved 21 corporation to continue filing its annual reports until the corporation's existence is 22 terminated. A dissolved, non-terminated corporation continues to exist, continues 23 to be subject to management by or under the supervision of its board of directors, and 24 continues to be subject to claims by creditors. Under those circumstances, the 25 information provided by an annual report should continue to be publicly available.
 26 A dissolved corporation that fails to file its annual reports is subject to administrative 27 termination in the same way as any other corporation.

28 §1-1622. Reporting obligation of corporation that contracts with the state

29 A. A corporation that contracts with the state shall deliver for filing to the 30 secretary of state a statement that acknowledges the contract. The statement shall 31 include the names and addresses of all persons or entities who hold an ownership 32 interest of five percent or more in the corporation or who hold by proxy the voting 33 power of five percent or more in the corporation and, if anyone holds stock in his 34 own name that actually belongs to another, the name of the person for whom held, 35 including stock held pursuant to a counterletter.

36 B. This Subsection does not apply to any of the following:

37 (1) Any agreement entered between the state and a corporation for electric 38 or gas service.

39 (2) Publicly traded corporations.

40 (3) State-chartered banks.

1 Comment - 2014 Revision

2 This Section is not part of the Model Act. It was added to this Part to retain 3 the substance of former R.S. 12:25(E). In prior law, the reporting requirement was 4 included as part of the provision that described the requirements for incorporating 5 a business. The requirement was moved to the reporting provisions of this Chapter 6 because the duty to file the required statement is triggered by a contract between the 7 corporation and the state, and not by the act of incorporating a new company.

8 PART 17. TRANSITION PROVISIONS

9 §1-1701. Application to existing domestic corporations

10 This Chapter applies to all domestic corporations in existence on its effective 11 date that were incorporated under the laws of this state for a purpose or purposes for 12 which a corporation might be formed under this Chapter.

13 Source: MBCA §17.01.

14 Comment - 2014 Revision

15 Under Model Act Section 17.01, this Chapter would apply to all corporations 16 for profit formed under a general statute of this state providing for the incorporation 17 of a corporation for profit. This Section modifies the description of the existing 18 corporations to which it applies to those corporations formed for a purpose for which 19 a corporation could be formed under this Chapter. The narrower description is 20 designed to prevent the application of this Chapter to special forms of for-profit 21 corporations, such as banking and insurance corporations, which are governed by 22 separate statutes.

23 §1-1702. Limited applicability to foreign corporations

24 Except where express reference is made to foreign corporations, this Chapter 25 does not apply to foreign corporations.

26 Source: R.S. 12:75.

27 Comments - 2014 Revision

28 (a) Because this Chapter omits Model Act Chapter 15, concerning the 29 qualification of foreign corporations to do business in this state, it also omits Model 30 Act Section 17.02, concerning the transition rules applicable to already-qualified 31 foreign corporations. Chapter 3 of Title 12 continues to govern the qualification of 32 foreign corporations in this state, without any change by this Chapter.

33 (b) This Part utilizes R.S. 12:1-1702 to retain the substance of former R.S.
 34 12:175, which rendered the predecessor statute generally inapplicable to foreign 35 corporations. R.S. 12:1-1702 states that the Chapter does not apply to foreign 36 corporations except where it makes an express reference to foreign corporations.
 37 Examples of express references to foreign corporations include the reference to the 38 names of qualified foreign corporations in R.S. 12:1-401(B) and the references to 39 foreign corporations in Parts 9 and 11 of this Chapter.

1 §1502. Actions against persons who control business organizations

2 A. The provisions of this Section shall apply to all business organizations 3 formed under the laws of this state and shall be applicable to actions against any 4 officer, director, shareholder, member, manager, general partner, limited partner, 5 managing partner, or other person similarly situated. The provisions of this Section 6 shall not apply to actions governed by R.S. 12:1-622, 1-833, 1-1407, or 1328(C).

8 §1601. ~~Definitions~~ Conversion of domestic business entities

9 ~~As used in this Chapter, the following terms and phrases shall have the~~ 10 ~~meaning ascribed to them in this Section, unless the context clearly indicates~~ 11 ~~otherwise:~~

12 (1) ~~"Conversion" means the continuance of a domestic entity of one type as~~ 13 ~~a domestic entity of another type.~~

14 (2) ~~"Converted entity" means an entity resulting from a conversion.~~

15 (3) ~~"Converting entity" means an entity as the entity existed before the~~ 16 ~~entity's conversion.~~

17 One form of domestic business entity may convert to another form of 18 domestic business entity as provided in the Business Corporation Act. This 19 authorization of domestic entity conversions does not limit the other forms of 20 transaction authorized by the Business Corporation Act.

21 Comments - 2014 Revision

22 (a) The original version of Chapter 25 of Title 12 was enacted in 2006 to 23 authorize the conversion of one form of domestic unincorporated business entity into 24 another. In 2014, the Chapter was revised extensively in connection with the 25 adoption in Louisiana of the Model Business Corporation Act, now Chapter 1 of 26 Title 12, which contains its own provisions on entity conversion.

27 (b) Although the basic concept of entity conversion was similar under the 28 Model Act and former Chapter 25, the two approaches differed in several respects:

29 (1) The Model Act applied only to conversions in which a domestic business 30 corporation was either a converting or surviving entity, but permitted conversions 31 that included as parties foreign corporations and domestic and foreign 32 unincorporated entities, such as partnerships and limited liability companies.
 33 Chapter 25 of Title 12, in contrast, applied only to conversions in which both the 34 converting and surviving entities were domestic, but was not limited to conversions 35 that included domestic business corporations as parties.

1 (2) The Model Act rules on the content, execution and filing of the relevant 2 documents were part of a larger model structure, widely adopted in other states. The 3 analogous Louisiana rules were designed to work within the older structure 4 established by Louisiana's 1968 business corporation statute.

5 (3) Chapter 25 of Title 12 addressed two issues on which the Model Act was 6 silent: the need to file "short period" tax returns for the converting entity and the 7 treatment of government-issued licenses held by the converting entity.

8 (c) The two approaches to entity conversion were reconciled in three ways:

9 (1) The scope of the Model Act conversion provisions was expanded to 10 include the types of non-corporate conversions covered by former Chapter 25 of 11 Title 12.

12 (2) The provisions of former Chapter 25 of Title 12 concerning the content, 13 execution and filing of the required conversion documents were repealed and 14 replaced by a cross reference to the Model Act provisions on conversion.

15 (3) The substance of the tax-return and government licensing rules in 16 Chapter 25 of Title 12 was retained.

17 (d) Neither this Chapter nor the Business Corporation Act authorizes the 18 conversion of a nonprofit corporation into a business corporation. Former R.S.
 19 12:165, which permitted a nonprofit corporation to "reincorporate" as a business 20 corporation if the provisions of the Nonprofit Corporation Law "no longer appl[ied]," 21 was not retained as part of the current Business Corporation Act. It was not clear 22 how the former reincorporation provision could ever be satisfied, as it required the 23 Nonprofit Corporation Law "no longer [to] apply" to an existing nonprofit 24 corporation. And if the former provision could indeed be satisfied, it appeared to 25 provide an unjustified means of circumventing the prohibition in the Nonprofit 26 Corporation Law against the distribution of profits. See R.S. 12:210(F). The 27 Nonprofit Corporation Law does permit a nonprofit corporation to merge or 28 consolidate with a business corporation. R.S. 12:242(A). But a nonprofit 29 corporation that is not permitted to distribute its net assets to its members upon 30 dissolution may be merged only with another corporation that is subject to the same 31 limitation. R.S. 12:242(C).

32 §1602. ~~Conversion of domestic entities~~ Definitions

33 ~~A. Any domestic limited liability company, business corporation, partnership~~ 34 ~~in commendam, or partnership may convert to another type of domestic business~~ 35 ~~entity by submitting a conversion application to the secretary of state. The owners~~ 36 ~~or members of the converting entity must approve the conversion in the same manner~~ 37 ~~provided for by law and by the document, instrument, agreement, or other writing~~ 38 ~~governing the internal affairs of the converting entity and the conduct of its business.~~

39 ~~B. An entity may not convert under this Chapter if an owner or member of~~ 40 ~~the entity, as a result of the conversion, becomes personally liable, without the~~ 41 ~~consent of the owner or member, for a liability or other obligation of the converted~~ 42 ~~entity.~~

1 Terms that are defined in the Business Corporation Act have the same 2 meaning in this Chapter as in that Act. As used in this Chapter:

3 (1) "Allowed update rule" means a rule of a licensing body allowed by 4 R.S.12:1604(B) or (C).

5 (2) "Business entity" means any of the following business organizations: 6 business corporation, limited liability company, partnership, partnership in 7 commendam, and registered limited liability partnership.

8 (3) "Converting entity" means a domestic business corporation or domestic 9 unincorporated entity as it exists before the effective date of an entity conversion 10 under the Business Corporation Act.

11 (4) "Domestic business entity" means a business entity that is incorporated, 12 organized, or formed under the laws of this state.

13 (5) "License" means any license, permit, or certificate issued by any board, 14 commission, or agency of the state or any of its political subdivisions.

15 (6) "Licensing body" means the board, commission, or agency of the state 16 or any of its political subdivisions that issues a license.

17 (7) "Publicly traded entity" means a business entity that is the issuer of 18 shares, ownership interests, or other securities that are listed on a national securities 19 exchange or regularly traded in a market maintained by one or more members of a 20 national securities association.

21 (8) "Surviving entity" means a domestic business corporation or domestic 22 unincorporated entity as it exists immediately after the consummation of an entity 23 conversion under the Business Corporation Act.

24 §1603. ~~Conversion application~~ Tax filing requirements

25 ~~A. The application shall set forth the following:~~

26 ~~(1) The name of the converting entity and the converted entity.~~

27 ~~(2) A statement of the type of the resulting converted entity.~~

28 ~~(3) A statement that the converting entity is continuing its existence in the~~ 29 ~~organizational form of the converted entity.~~

1 ~~(4) The manner and basis of converting the ownership or membership~~ 2 ~~interests of the converting entity into ownership or membership interests of the~~ 3 ~~converted entity.~~

4 ~~(5) The fact that the conversion has been authorized and approved in~~ 5 ~~accordance with this Section.~~

6 ~~(6)(a) The information required in the articles of organization if the~~ 7 ~~converted entity is a limited liability company, along with an attached initial report.~~

8 ~~(b) The information required in the articles of incorporation if the converted~~ 9 ~~entity is a corporation along with an attached initial report.~~

10 ~~(c) The information required in a contract of partnership if the converted~~ 11 ~~entity is a partnership or a partnership in commendam.~~

12 ~~B. The application shall be signed on behalf of the converting entity in the~~ 13 ~~following manner:~~

14 ~~(1) In the case of a limited liability company, by any member if management~~ 15 ~~is reserved to the members or by any manager if management is vested in one or~~ 16 ~~more managers pursuant to R.S. 12:1312.~~

17 ~~(2) In the case of a corporation, by any officer.~~

18 ~~(3) In the case of a partnership or partnership in commendam, by any general~~ 19 ~~partner.~~

20 Short period tax returns shall be filed for the converting entity as required by 21 Title 47 of the Revised Statutes if the surviving entity's tax classification is different 22 from the converting entity's tax classification.

23 Comment - 2014 Revision

24 This Section operates strictly as a cross-reference to the controlling rule in 25 Title 47 of the Revised Statutes. The obligation to file the short period return is 26 governed by Title 47 itself.

27 ~~§1604. Filing and recording conversion application; issuance and effect of~~ 28 ~~certificate of conversion~~ Continuation and updating of professional or other 29 license

30 A. ~~The conversion application, and initial report if applicable, shall be filed~~ 31 ~~with the secretary of state and may be delivered in advance, for filing as of any~~

1 ~~specified date, within thirty days after the date of delivery. A converting entity that~~ 2 ~~holds a license immediately before a nonprofit conversion or entity conversion~~ 3 ~~continues to hold the license as a surviving entity unless the surviving entity fails to~~ 4 ~~comply with an allowed update rule, or is not a form of business entity that may hold~~ 5 ~~that kind of license. The continued holding of a license under this Subsection does~~ 6 ~~not affect the expiration date or any of the terms or conditions of the license. The~~ 7 ~~license continues to be held, and may be suspended, restricted, or revoked, as if the~~ 8 ~~conversion had not occurred.~~

9 B. ~~If the secretary of state finds that the application and initial report, if~~ 10 ~~applicable, are in compliance with the provisions of this Chapter, and after all fees~~ 11 ~~have been paid as required by law, the secretary of state shall record the application~~ 12 ~~and initial report, if applicable, in his office, endorse on each the date of filing~~ 13 ~~thereof with him, and issue a certificate of conversion that shall show the date of~~ 14 ~~filing of the application with him and the effective date of the conversion. A~~ 15 ~~duplicate certificate of conversion issued by the secretary of state shall, within thirty~~ 16 ~~days after issuance of the certificate, be filed for record in the conveyance records~~ 17 ~~of each parish in this state in which the entity has immovable property, title to which~~ 18 ~~will be transferred as a result of the conversion. The rules of a licensing body may~~ 19 ~~require a surviving entity to update its licensing information by delivering a copy of~~ 20 ~~any of the following documents to the licensing body within ninety days after the~~ 21 ~~effective date of the conversion, or by a later date set by those rules:~~

22 (1) The articles of entity conversion, acknowledged as filed by the secretary 23 of state as provided in the Business Corporation Act.

24 (2) The license being updated.

25 (3) A bond or certificate of insurance in the name of the surviving entity for 26 any coverage required for the issuance of the kind of license being updated.

27 (4) An amendment or amended version of any contract or other agreement 28 required for the issuance of the kind of license being updated, naming the surviving 29 entity as a party to the required contract or agreement.

1 a continuing license, while withholding an updated license that would have 2 retroactive effect only if issued. The former language also allowed the agency to 3 refuse to issue an updated license if the entity, presumably either before or after the 4 conversion, owed any unpaid fees or had been "cited or charged" with a violation of 5 the law that the agency was empowered to enforce. This power to withhold an 6 updated license based merely on a charged or cited violation of law, or for any 7 unpaid fee, suggested that the licensing agency could revoke an entity's license in 8 practical effect on grounds that would not have supported license revocation under 9 normal revocation procedures.

10 (c) As modified, this Section does not merely instruct the licensing body to 11 recognize a surviving entity's license. Rather, it continues the license by operation 12 of law, as if the conversion had not occurred, subject to two limitations: (a) the 13 license terminates immediately on conversion if the surviving entity in the 14 conversion is not the kind of entity that may hold that kind of license, and (b) the 15 license terminates at the end of an "update" period of at least ninety days if the 16 surviving entity fails to comply by the end of the update period with any update rules 17 permitted this chapter and adopted by the agency. Otherwise, subject to any 18 enforcement actions that may be pending or that could be initiated against the 19 licensee in the absence of the conversion, the license of the surviving entity in the 20 conversion continues for any period remaining in the term of the continued license.

22 ~~§1701. Judicial review; removal of officers, members, managers, and partners~~ Filing

23 Methods

24 ~~A. Should any officer, member, manager, or partner of any corporation,~~ 25 ~~limited liability company, or partnership have his name removed from any document~~ 26 ~~or record filed with the secretary of state in violation of state law or in contravention~~ 27 ~~of any document of creation, organization or management of such business entity,~~ 28 ~~the aggrieved party may file suit against the party who caused the aggrieved party's~~

 31 ~~entity is domiciled.~~

32 ~~C. The secretary of state shall be made a party to the suit.~~

33 ~~D. The court shall conduct a hearing within ten days after service of process~~ 34 ~~of the suit on all parties.~~

35 ~~E. Should the court find that the name of the aggrieved party was improperly~~

 37 ~~the court shall order the secretary of state to replace the name of the aggrieved party~~

4 electronic or facsimile transmission. All electronic filings authorized by this Title 5 shall include an electronic or digital signature.

6 (2) "Digital signature" means a type of electronic signature that transforms 7 a message using an asymmetric cryptography system such that a person having the 8 initial message and the signer's public key can accurately determine both of the 9 following:

21 the original document, and contains the signatures required by this Section.

22 C.(1) Internet filing. The secretary of state is authorized to implement and 23 establish procedures and systems for secure Internet-form filing for the filing of any

27 instrument is filed and signed electronically as provided in Paragraph (A)(3) of this 28 Section by a person authorized to sign the instrument.

29 D. In-person filing. Any provision of this Title requiring that an instrument 30 filed under this Title shall be subscribed or acknowledged before a notary public may 1 be dispensed with if the instrument is signed, by the person authorized to sign, in the 2 presence of the employee of the secretary of state receiving the instrument for filing 3 and the employee verifies the identity of the person signing the instrument.

4 §1702. Electronic mail addresses and short message service numbers; 5 confidentiality

7 or captured by the secretary of state pursuant to the provision of this Title shall be 8 confidential and shall not be disclosed by the secretary of state or any employee or 9 official of the Department of State.

10 §1703. Electronic notification of status changes

11 The secretary of state shall notify any person who subscribes to the secretary 12 of state's electronic mail or short message notification service and who is an officer 13 of a corporation, member or manager of a limited liability company, or partner in a

22 the aggrieved party may file suit against the party who caused the aggrieved party's 23 name to be removed from such document or record.

24 B. Such suit shall be filed in the district court of the parish where the 25 business entity is domiciled.

26 C. The secretary of state shall be made a party to the suit.

27 D. The court shall conduct a hearing within ten days after service of process 28 of the suit on all parties.

29 E. Should the court find that the name of the aggrieved party was improperly 30 or fraudulently removed from the documents and records of the secretary of state,
