

Existing law authorizes certain officials to order an issuing official to issue a marriage license without the applicant submitting a birth certificate when there are extenuating circumstances and the official has found that the parties have complied with all other requirements.

New law retains existing law and adds retired justices of the peace to the list of officials.

Existing law authorizes a judge or justice of the peace authorized to perform a marriage ceremony to waive the 72-hour delay requirement for performance of a marriage ceremony in certain circumstances.

New law retains existing law and adds retired justices of the peace to the list of officials.

Effective Aug. 1, 2014.

(Amends R.S. 9:228 and 242(A))