

Commends the La. Dept. of State Civil Service, under the leadership of the State Civil Service Commission and director of state civil service, Shannon Templet, for performing extensive research and examination of the needs of state agencies relative to consideration of criminal history information in the context of hiring procedures and for beginning the process of removing questions about criminal history from its initial application form for certain positions.