HOUSE BILL NO. 620

BY REPRESENTATIVE STOKES

TAX/AD VALOREM TAX: (Constitutional Amendment) Phases-in over a four year period an exemption for items constituting business inventory

A JOINT RESOLUTION

2	Proposing to add Article VII, Section 21(M) of the Constitution of Louisiana, to provide
3	with respect to ad valorem property tax; to exempt certain items constituting
4	business inventory; to prohibit the loss of revenue associated with this exemption
5	from impacting the calculation of millage rates by taxing authorities; to require
6	taxing authorities to absorb the loss of revenue resulting from the exemption; to
7	prohibit the reappraisal and valuation of property for purposes of millage adjustment
8	under certain circumstances; to provide for effectiveness; to provide for submission
9	of the proposed amendment to the electors; and to provide for related matters.
10	Section 1. Be it resolved by the Legislature of Louisiana, two-thirds of the members
11	elected to each house concurring, that there shall be submitted to the electors of the state of
12	Louisiana, for their approval or rejection in the manner provided by law, a proposal to add
13	Article VII, Section 21(M) of the Constitution of Louisiana, to read as follows:
14	§21. Other Property Exemptions
15	Section 21. In addition to the homestead exemption provided for in Section
16	20 of this Article, the following property and no other shall be exempt from ad
17	valorem taxation:

2	marketing and distribution activities, referred to hereinafter as "property", shall be
3	exempt in accordance with the following:
4	(a) For taxes payable in 2015, the value of the exemption shall be equal to
5	fifty percent of the assessed value of the property.
6	(b) For taxes payable in 2016, the value of the exemption shall be equal to
7	sixty-five percent of the assessed value of the property.
8	(c) For taxes payable in 2017, the value of the exemption shall be equal to
9	eighty percent of the assessed value of the property.
10	(d) Beginning January 1, 2018, the property will be fully exempt from
11	taxation.
12	(2) Notwithstanding any provision of this constitution to the contrary, the
13	property assessment of property for which this exemption has been claimed shall not
14	be treated as taxable property for purposes of any subsequent reappraisals and
15	valuation for millage adjustment purposes under Article VII, Section 23(B) of this
16	constitution. The decrease in the total amount of ad valorem tax collected by a
17	taxing authority as a result of the exemption shall be absorbed by the taxing authority
18	and shall not create any additional tax liability for taxpayers in the taxing district as
19	a result of any subsequent reappraisal and valuation or millage adjustment.
20	Implementation of the exemption authorized in this Paragraph shall neither trigger
21	nor be cause for a reappraisal of property or an adjustment of millages pursuant to

Abstract: Four year phase-in of an ad valorem property tax exemption for items constituting business inventory, and requires that the decrease in taxes associated with the exemption shall be absorbed by the taxing authority, causing neither increases in tax liability for taxpayers nor reappraisal.

Present constitution authorizes local governments and other political subdivisions to levy ad valorem property taxes on movable and immovable property within their jurisdictions. Further, those taxes are subject to a variety of exemptions provided by the present constitution.

Proposed constitutional amendment adds an exemption to be phased in over four years (50%, then 65%, then 80%, then 100%) beginning Nov. 1, 2015 for items constituting business inventory including goods which are held for sale, goods in production or for ultimate consumption in the production of goods or services for sale, and goods utilized in marketing and distribution activities.

Proposed constitutional amendment further provides that notwithstanding any other provision of the present constitution, valuation of the property exempted by the proposed constitutional amendment shall be excluded from valuation in the parish assessment, and the decrease in the total amount of ad valorem tax collected by a taxing authority as a result of the exemption shall be absorbed by the taxing authority, with no increase in tax liability for taxpayers. Additionally, implementation of the exemption shall neither trigger nor be cause for a reappraisal of property, or an adjustment of millages pursuant to the provisions of the present constitution.

Provides for submission of the proposed amendment to the voters at the statewide election to be held October 24, 2015.

Effective October 24, 2015, if and when the proposed amendment of Article VII of the Constitution of La. contained in the Act which originated as House Bill No. ____ of this 2015 R.S. of the Legislature is adopted at a statewide election and becomes effective.
