Constitutional Amendment) Removes governor’s authority to veto line items in an appropriation bill.

The current constitution provides that the governor may veto any line item in an appropriation bill; or use means provided in the bill so that total appropriations for the year shall not exceed anticipated revenues for that year. The proposed constitutional amendment removes the governor’s authority to veto line items in an appropriation bill. The proposed constitutional amendment shall be submitted to the electors at the statewide election to be held on October 24, 2015.

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental expenditures as a result of this measure since it repeals the provision authorizing the governor to veto any line item appropriation. The Department of State budgets for up to 10 constitutional amendments for the fall statewide elections as regular practice and any costs associated with this proposed constitutional amendment will be absorbed within the agency’s budget.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

There is no anticipated direct material effect on governmental revenues as a result of this measure.
