

2015 Regular Session

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 65

BY SENATOR MORRELL

COMMENDATIONS. Recognizes Tuesday, April 28, 2015, as St. Bernard Parish Day at the Louisiana State Capitol.

1 A RESOLUTION

2 To recognize Tuesday, April 28, 2015, as "St. Bernard Parish Day" at the Louisiana State
3 Capitol and to acknowledge the many contributions of culture, beauty, and economic 4 prosperity made to the state by its citizens.

5 WHEREAS, St. Bernard Parish lies five miles away from downtown New Orleans,
6 Louisiana, and bestows scenic beauty, cultural treasures, bountiful waterways, and tranquil 7 surroundings to the environs of the southeast region of the state; and

8 WHEREAS, St. Bernard is a community of congenial people who have maintained 9 a unique cultural identity since its founding under Spanish colonial rule; and

10 WHEREAS, Canary Islanders, who identified themselves as "Isleños", immigrated 11 to the lower edge of the parish to join French-Acadian pioneers, who settled there in 1720; 12 and

13 WHEREAS, its extraordinary history is commemorated throughout the year as 14 visitors view significant locales such as the Jean Lafitte National Historic Park and Preserve 15 where, in 1815, a young nation, the United States of America, maintained control of the 16 Mississippi River trade route by the defeat of British forces during the Battle of New Orleans 17 at Chalmette Battlefield; and

18 WHEREAS, the historic Malus-Beauregard House, built in the 1830s, is located on

1 the battlefield grounds and serves as a museum and visitors center; and

2 WHEREAS, adjacent to the battlefield is the Chalmette National Cemetery 3 established in 1864; its grave sites recall for visitors the various military conflicts throughout 4 American history from the War of 1812 and the Civil War to the Vietnam War; and

5 WHEREAS, the San Bernardo Scenic Byway follows an ancient estuary that was 6 once a main channel of the Mississippi River; this meandering roadway is festooned with 7 grand architectural wonders constructed in the nineteenth century; and

8 WHEREAS, with an abundance of waterways and wetlands, St. Bernard Parish is 9 well known for its fresh seafood and culinary delights that reflect Creole, African, and 10 Spanish influences; and

11 WHEREAS, navigable water bodies with access to the Gulf of Mexico, such as Lake
12 Borne, the Mississippi River, and Breton Sound, make St. Bernard a "Sportsman's Paradise" 13 for fishing, hunting, trapping, and birdwatching; and

14 WHEREAS, the impact of this cultural cornucopia is evident in year-round activities 15 and festivals that reflect the heritage of this inviting southern community; and

16 WHEREAS, annual festivities include the Battle of New Orleans Commemoration, 17 the Krewe of Gladiators and Knights of Nemesis Mardi Gras Parades, the Irish, Italian, and 18 Isleños Parades, the Los Isleños Festival, the Louisiana Crawfish Festival, the Arts in April 19 Festival, the Tomato Festival, the Sugar Festival, the Chalmette Boat Blessing, the Hook a 20 Kid on Fishing Rodeo, the St. Bernard Salutes America Celebration, the ESPN Redfish Cup, 21 the Blessing of the Fleet, Trick or Trunk, the Oyster Festival, Fiesta de la Concepcion, All 22 Saints Day Mass and Celebration, Isleños Christmas, the Christmas Tour of Homes, the 23 Community Christmas Concert, and Santa on the Bayou; and

24 WHEREAS, ancient oaks, magnolias, and other fragrant flora align with ageless 25 plantation homes and cemeteries where the past and present meet and come alive; and

26 WHEREAS, in the Old Arabi Historic District, several sites are recognized by the 27 National Register of Historic Places that include the St. Bernard Voice, the weekly
28 community newspaper, dating back to 1870; the Old Jail, completed in 1911; LeBeau
29 Plantation, completed in 1854; the Maumus Center, the site of the parish's first high school;
30 the Cavaroc House, built in 1839; and Domino Sugar Refinery; and
