SB 86 Engrossed DIGEST Perry
2015 Regular Session

Present law prohibits a member of an agency head's immediate family from working at his agency.

Present law provides an exception for local school boards. Any local school board may employ any member of the immediate family of any board member or of the superintendent as a classroom teacher if such family member is certified to teach.

Present law provides that a public employee may continue employment and normal promotional advancement only if they have been employed by their agency for at least one year at the time their immediate family member becomes the agency head.

Proposed law removes the one year employment requirement for employees of local school boards who is in the immediate family of a school board member or superintendent.

Effective August 1, 2015.
