CHAPTER 32. ~~LAFAYETTE PARISH BAYOU~~

VERMILION DISTRICT

§9201. Creation of district; limits and jurisdiction

The ~~Lafayette Parish~~ Bayou Vermilion District, hereafter referred to in this Chapter as the district, is hereby created as a political subdivision of the state of Louisiana. The territorial limits of the district shall be coterminous with the boundaries of the parish of Lafayette and jurisdiction of its authority shall extend throughout the parish of Lafayette. For the purposes of this Chapter, any and all references to Bayou Vermilion shall include that body of water known as either Bayou Vermilion or Vermilion River within the boundaries of Lafayette Parish, Louisiana.

§9202. Purposes

The ~~Lafayette Parish Bayou Vermilion District~~, hereinafter referred to as "~~the district~~" district, is created for the following purposes:

* * *

§9203. Board of Commissioners; qualification of members; appointment; terms; vacancies; removal of members

A. The governing authority of the ~~Lafayette Parish Bayou Vermilion District~~ district shall be a board of commissioners which is hereby created and which is hereinafter referred to as "the board". The board shall be composed of nine voting members who shall be citizens of the United States residing within the limits of the district during their term of office. The members of the board shall serve without compensation.

* * *

§9206. General powers and duties of the board

In addition to the power and authority granted elsewhere in this Chapter, the board shall have all powers necessary and convenient for carrying out the purposes of the district enumerated in R.S. 33:9202 including the following:

* * *

(11) Undertake, as otherwise provided by Paragraph (10) of this Section, any work that it deems necessary and proper to improve water quality and to remove obstructions to natural water flow in Bayou Vermilion within Lafayette Parish, Bayou Carencro, and Evangeline Canal. No political subdivision of the state shall restrict public access to Evangeline Canal unless the restriction is approved by the House Committee on Natural Resources and Environment and the Senate Committee on Natural Resources.

HB Draft

2015 Regular Session

Abstract: Authorizes the Lafayette Parish Bayou Vermilion District to perform public works on specified bayous and provides relative to restrictions on access to Evangeline Canal.

Present law creates the Lafayette Parish Bayou Vermilion District to improve water quality and beautify Bayou Vermilion to promote the bayou as a recreational and cultural asset and to create and control an economic development adjacent to the bayou. Provides that the jurisdiction of the district is coterminous with Lafayette Parish. Provides for governance and powers and duties of the district. Proposed law changes the name of the district to the Bayou Vermilion District.

Present law authorizes the district to make or construct any works of public improvement within the geographic limits of the district that may be necessary or useful for the business of the board by purchasing machinery or materials and equipment for performing such work and supervising the work or by making and constructing such works through contracts with others, all subject to laws applicable to public works contracts.

Proposed law authorizes the district to undertake, as otherwise provided in present law, any work that it deems necessary and proper to improve water quality and flow in Bayou Vermilion within Lafayette Parish, Bayou Carencro, and Evangeline Canal. Prohibits any political subdivision from restricting public access to Evangeline Canal unless the restriction is approved by the legislative natural resources committees.
