Requires the review of tax credits

Proposed law requires the review of numerous tax credits by the House Ways and Means Committee and the Senate Revenue and Fiscal Affairs Committee prior to 9/1/15 to determine the economic benefit compared to the loss of revenue. The committees must make a specific recommendation by 3/1/17 to continue or terminate the credits.

Proposed law repeals expired credits including the qualified recycling equipment credit, employer credit for alcohol and substance abuse treatment programs, tax credit for those failing to file an inventory tax credit from 1999 through 2003, tax credit for conversion or acquisition of trailers to haul sugarcane, and the apprenticeship tax credit.
