1 degree to which each aligns with state content standards. The department may review
2 textbooks and instructional materials in other subject matter areas as it deems 3 necessary or upon request of a public school governing authority.

4 (b) The department may review textbooks and other instructional materials 5 at such times as it deems necessary and appropriate but shall review textbooks and 6 other instructional materials in the core subject areas of English language arts, 7 mathematics, science, and social studies at least every six years.

8 (2) The review process for textbooks and other instructional materials 9 submitted to the department for review shall be conducted entirely online. Every 10 aspect of the process, including the textbooks and instructional materials under 11 review and any and all comments submitted by reviewers, parents and other 12 members of the public, and publishers and other content providers, shall be posted 13 online and made readily accessible to all interested parties.

14 (3) The review process shall, at a minimum, provide for the following:

15 (a) Guidelines and timelines for the submission, review, comment, and 16 evaluation of textbooks and other instructional materials.

17 (b) Establishment of review panels composed of Louisiana public school
18 educators, some of whom shall be classroom teachers currently employed in schools 19 in the state, and Louisiana content experts who have knowledge of curriculum and 20 the subject matter under consideration.

21 (c) Evaluation criteria and procedures to determine the extent to which 22 textbooks and instructional materials submitted for review align with state content 23 standards.

24 (d)(i) The opportunity for parents and the public to view and submit 25 comments on all textbooks and instructional materials under review. A copy of all 26 student edition textbooks and instructional materials under review shall be made 27 readily available online for this purpose. Reasonable safeguards against unauthorized 28 use, reproduction, and distribution shall be provided.

29 (ii) The opportunity for publishers and other content providers to submit 30 comments in response to any review committee evaluation. Publishers and content

1 providers shall be given the opportunity to review any evaluation prior to its posting 2 online and shall be given at least ten business days to respond and make any 3 correction to the content that they deem necessary.

4 (iii) All comments submitted in relation to a reviewed textbook or 5 instructional material shall be posted online for ready access by any interested party.

6 (e) A requirement that all print textbooks and print instructional materials 7 submitted for review be supplied in an electronic format that meets the National 8 Instructional Materials Accessibility Standard, as consistent with the Individuals
9 With Disabilities Education Act of 2004 (20 U.S.C. 1474(e)), and can be converted 10 into specialized formats for children with disabilities and from which braille and 11 large-print textbooks can be produced for blind and visually impaired students.

12 (4)(a) The state Department of Education shall provide the governing 13 authority of each public elementary and secondary school with a list of all textbooks 14 and other instructional materials reviewed by the department which includes 15 information indicating the degree to which each aligns with state content standards.
16 Such list shall also be posted online.

17 (b) The list of reviewed textbooks and other instructional materials shall 18 include textbooks and instructional materials for each core subject at each grade 19 level that are fully aligned with state content standards.

20 (c) Any list of reviewed textbooks and other instructional materials prepared 21 by the department shall contain a statement to the effect that the textbooks and 22 instructional materials contained therein were reviewed for the sole purpose of 23 determining the degree of alignment with state content standards and that it is the 24 responsibility of each public school governing authority to determine if their use is 25 appropriate to meet the educational needs of its students.

26 (d) Nothing in this Section shall be construed as prohibiting a public school 27 or school district from purchasing or otherwise acquiring textbooks and instructional 28 materials that are not included in the list of reviewed textbooks and instructional 29 materials prepared by the state Department of Education, provided the use of such

1 textbooks and instructional materials is not prohibited by the policies of the 2 governing authority of such school or school district.

3 C.(1) The governing authority of each public elementary and secondary 4 school shall adopt policies and regulations for the adoption and use of textbooks and 5 other instructional materials that sufficiently support the needs of all students in 6 meeting state content standards.

7 (2) The purchase and use of electronic textbooks, instructional materials, and 8 other media or content shall be maximized to the extent practical.

9 (3)(a) For the adoption of textbooks and instructional materials that have not 10 been reviewed by the state Department of Education pursuant to this Section, such 11 policies and regulations shall provide for the establishment of review committees 12 composed of classroom teachers and other educators, all of whom shall be 13 employees of Louisiana public schools, parents of students enrolled in Louisiana 14 public schools, and other educational stakeholders in Louisiana who have interest in 15 or knowledge of curriculum and the subject matter under consideration.

16 (b) Parents and other members of the public shall be afforded the opportunity 17 to review and provide input relative to the textbooks and instructional materials 18 under consideration prior to final adoption.

19 (c) The governing authority of each public elementary and secondary school 20 shall include on its website a link to the website on which the state Department of 21 Education conducts the online review process pursuant to Paragraph (B)(2) of this 22 Section.

23 (4) Textbooks and instructional materials adopted for use in public 24 elementary and secondary schools shall accurately reflect the contributions and 25 achievements of people of differing races and promote an understanding of the 26 history and values of the people of the United States and Louisiana, including the 27 free enterprise system, private property, constitutional liberties, democratic values, 28 and traditional standards of moral values.

1 (5) The governing authority of a public elementary or secondary school may 2 establish the price and sell any textbook or library book no longer in use to any 3 person or entity for private use.

4 D.(1) The state Department of Education shall support public school
5 governing authorities in achieving maximum cost efficiencies and reducing 6 regulatory burdens in the purchase and acquisition of textbooks and other 7 instructional materials by providing for bulk purchasing through state contracts,
8 whenever possible and feasible, and by encouraging publishers and other content 9 providers to make their textbooks and other instructional materials available through 10 the central depository.

11 (2) The governing authority of a public elementary or secondary school may 12 purchase textbooks and other instructional materials through a state contract or 13 through the central depository or may contract directly with a publisher or other 14 content provider.

15 (3) Each contract between the state or the governing authority of a public 16 elementary or secondary school and a publisher or other content provider for 17 textbooks and instructional materials shall:

18 (a) Be awarded on a competitive basis in accordance with applicable state 19 law.

20 (b) Provide that the publisher, distributor, wholesaler, or retailer shall not 21 charge the governing authority of a public school a purchase price, rental fee, or 22 other fee for the purchase, lease, or use of a textbook or instructional material that 23 exceeds the lowest price or fee charged to a school governing authority in any other 24 state for the same textbook or instructional material.

25 (c) Provide that upon the request of a public school governing authority, a 26 publisher or other content provider shall allow the governing authority to purchase 27 textbooks and other instructional materials through the central depository.

28 E. The state Department of Education shall provide for a central depository
29 for textbooks and other instructional materials that are aligned to state content

1 ~~shall select the same school books and other materials of instruction as are adopted~~
2 ~~by the state board.~~
