TAX/EXCISE OR +$5,000,000 GF RV See Note Page 1 of 1
 Levies an automobile rental tax (Item #25)

Current law no longer imposes a state-level 3% excise tax on short-term auto rentals, as of FY13. A state-level tax was in affect for 22 year from FY91 through FY12. The state portion of that tax was a 2.5% levy and the local portion was 0.5%. The Department of Revenue collected the entire 3% levy and distributed the local portion back to the parish of rental.

Proposed law re-imposes the 3% levy. All other conditions of the tax are retained.

Effective April 1, 2016.

EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

Collection and distribution processes had been in place for some 22 years, before the tax was allowed to expire in FY13. While the Department of Revenue should be able to re-institute those processes, some costs will still be incurred. These costs are typically estimated as several thousands or even tens of thousands of dollars of staff time for programming changes and handling taxpayer inquiries and education.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

The bill re-imposes the total 3% levy, retaining the 2.5% rate as state tax and the 0.5% rate for distribution to local entities. This tax was in place for some 22 years (FY91 - FY12), and in its last few years was generating approximately $6 million per year in total receipts before its expiration in FY13; $5 million for the state and $1 million for local entities. That level of annual collections would be expected again upon it's re-imposition in FY17 and beyond.

While the bill is effective April 1, 2016, it is likely to take some time to ramp up the collections process and taxpayer knowledge and remittances. Only two months of collections are assumed during FY16; roughly $800,000 for the state and $160,000 for local entities.
