

---

DIGEST

The digest printed below was prepared by House Legislative Services. It constitutes no part of the legislative instrument. The keyword, one-liner, abstract, and digest do not constitute part of the law or proof or indicia of legislative intent. [R.S. 1:13(B) and 24:177(E)]

---

HB 193 Original

2016 Regular Session

Hunter

Abstract: Relative to the ex parte legislative continuance, extends the 15-day period prior to and following legislative sessions and constitutional conventions to a 30-day period, and includes "travel" as an activity subject to the automatic continuance.

Present law provides that a member of the legislature and a legislative employee shall have peremptory grounds for continuance or extension of a criminal case, civil case, or administrative proceeding.

Present law provides that the peremptory grounds for continuance are available:

- (1) Any time between 15 days prior to the original call to order and 15 days following the adjournment sine die of any legislative session.
- (2) Any time between 15 days prior to convening and 15 days following adjournment sine die of any constitutional convention.

Proposed law retains present law but extends the 15-day period to a 30-day period for any session of the legislature and any constitutional convention.

Present law also provides that when such person is engaged in activities in connection with or ordered by: (1) the legislature; (2) any legislative committee or subcommittee appointed by the president of the Senate or the speaker of the House of Representatives; (3) any committee or commission appointed by the governor or other person authorized to make such appointments; or (4) any constitutional convention or commission.

Proposed law retains present law and adds "travel" as an activity subject to the automatic continuance.

(Amends R.S. 13:4163(C)(1))