

2016 Regular Session

SENATE BILL NO. 94

BY SENATOR COLOMB (On Recommendation of the Louisiana State Law Institute)

CIVIL PROCEDURE. Enacts Louisiana Uniform Adult Guardianship Protective Proceedings Jurisdiction Act. (8/1/16)

1 AN ACT

2 To amend and reenact Code of Civil Procedure Arts. 10(A)(3) and (4) and 4556 and to enact 3 Chapter 24 of Title 13 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, to be comprised 4 of R.S. 13:4251.101 through 4251.505, relative to adults in need of care; to provide 5 relative to courts and judicial procedure; to provide relative to jurisdiction and 6 procedures for actions brought pursuant to the Louisiana Uniform Adult 7 Guardianship Protective Proceedings Jurisdiction Act; to provide for ancillary 8 interdiction procedures for protected persons; to provide a short title for the 9 Louisiana Uniform Adult Guardianship and Protective Proceedings Jurisdiction Act; 10 to provide certain definitions, terms, procedures, conditions, requirements and 11 effects; to provide for international application of the Chapter; to provide for 12 communication between Louisiana courts and courts of other states; to provide for 13 cooperation between Louisiana courts and courts of other states; to provide for taking 14 testimony in another state; to provide for exclusive basis; to provide for jurisdiction; 15 to provide for special jurisdiction; to provide for exclusive and continuing 16 jurisdiction; to provide for appropriate forums; to provide for jurisdiction declined 17 by reason of conduct; to provide for notice of proceedings; to provide for

1 proceedings in more than one state; to provide for transfer of guardianship or 2 conservatorship proceedings to another state; to provide for accepting guardianship 3 or conservatorship proceedings transferred from another state; to provide for 4 registration of guardianship orders; to provide for registration of protective orders; 5 to provide for the effect of the registration of such orders; to provide for uniformity 6 of application and construction; to provide relative to the Electronic Signatures in 7 Global and National Commerce Act; to provide for transitional provision; and to 8 provide for related matters.

9 Be it enacted by the Legislature of Louisiana:

10 Section 1. Chapter 24 of Title 13 of the Louisiana Revised Statutes of 1950, to be 11 comprised of R.S. 13:4251.101 through 4251.505, is hereby enacted to read as follows:

12 CHAPTER 24. LOUISIANA UNIFORM ADULT

13 GUARDIANSHIP AND PROTECTIVE PROCEEDINGS

14 JURISDICTION ACT

15 LOUISIANA PREFATORY NOTE

16 Louisiana's version (the Louisiana Act or the Act) of the Uniform Adult 17 Guardianship and Protective Proceedings Jurisdiction Act (UAGPPJA) establishes 18 mechanisms for sorting out jurisdictional and related issues in what might be called 19 "adult in need of care" cases (what, under Louisiana domestic law, would be called 20 cases of "interdiction" or "continuing tutorship") that exhibit contacts with more than 21 one state. As such, the Louisiana Act forms part of that set of legal meta-rules known 22 collectively as "the law of conflict of laws." The Act does not, then, form part of that 23 set of ordinary legal rules known collectively as the "local law" (also called the 24 "domestic law").
 25

26 Recalling this distinction between the law of conflict of laws and the 27 domestic law and, further, recognizing that Louisiana's version of the UAGPPJA 28 falls on the "conflict of laws" side of the dividing line between the two are vital for 29 a proper understanding not only of what the Act does do, but also of what it does not 30 do.
 31

32 What the Act most certainly does not do is to create within Louisiana 33 domestic law a new "third way" of protecting adults in need of care alongside of the 34 existing "two," that is, interdiction and continuing tutorship. From at least as far back 35 as 1808, Louisiana domestic law has recognized these two - but only these two - 36 means of providing such protection. The enactment of this Act does not change this 37 facet of Louisiana law in the least. Consequently, even after the Act goes into effect, 38 if someone, suspecting that some adult might be in need of care, were to wish to seek 39 protection from a Louisiana court for that adult, the concerned person would have 40 to file, depending on the circumstances, a petition styled either "petition for 41 interdiction" or "petition for continuing tutorship." There would remain no other 42 alternatives. It would be entirely out of place - indeed, contrary to law - for the 43 concerned person to file a petition styled "petition for guardianship" or "petition for 1 conservatorship." Similarly, even after the Act goes into effect, if a Louisiana court, 2 upon receiving a petition of this kind, were to conclude that the petition should be 3 granted (a determination that the court would have to make and could make only by 4 consulting Louisiana's domestic law of interdiction or continuing tutorship, as the 5 case might be) and, for that reason, were to order the appointment of someone to 6 superintend the affairs of the adult in need of care, the court's order would have to 7 refer to this superintendent as either a "curator" or a "tutor", who would enjoy only 8 those rights, powers, and other prerogatives that are established for curators or tutors 9 under Louisiana domestic law. Again, there would remain no other alternatives. It 10 would be entirely out of place - and, again, contrary to law - for the court to issue an 11 order appointing a "guardian" or a "conservator" in haec verba.

12

13 What the Act does do is to create new mechanisms within Louisiana's law of 14 conflicts of law for sorting out various difficulties that could arise when, because an 15 adult-in-need-of-care case has contacts with not only Louisiana but also some other 16 state, it is conceivable that the case might be handled either by a Louisiana court, as 17 an interdiction or continuing tutorship case, or by a court in this other state, as a 18 guardianship or conservatorship case. One such difficulty is that of jurisdiction:
19 which court - that in Louisiana or that in the other state - should handle the matter?
20 Resolution of this kind of difficulty is governed by Part 2 of the Act. If, under the 21 rules set out in that Part, it is determined that the Louisiana court has jurisdiction, 22 then the case will proceed before that court as either an interdiction or continuing 23 tutorship case. Another difficulty is that of the transfer of adult-in-need-of-care cases 24 to or from a Louisiana court for reasons of forum non conveniens. After an 25 adult-in-need-of-care case has been initiated in some other state (where it was styled 26 a "guardianship" or "conservatorship" matter), circumstances might change such that 27 the adult's needs will be more adequately and efficiently addressed by a Louisiana 28 court and, further, the adult's out-of-state guardian or conservator might, for that 29 reason, wish to have the case transferred to the Louisiana court. Resolution of this 30 kind of difficulty is governed by Part 3. If, under the rules set out in that Part, it is 31 determined that the case should be transferred, then the Louisiana court will assume 32 jurisdiction over the case, which, from that point forward, would be handled as (one 33 might even say "converted into") either an interdiction or a continuing tutorship case.
34 Still another difficulty is that of the recognition in Louisiana of out-of-state 35 judgments of guardianship or conservatorship. Resolution of this kind of difficulty 36 is governed by Part 4. If, under the rules set out in that Part, the recognition of such 37 a judgment is accomplished, then the out-of-state guardian or conservator, who, for 38 purposes of actions he might take in Louisiana, will at that point be referred to as a 39 curator or a tutor, will enjoy all (but only) the rights, powers, and other prerogatives 40 enjoyed by curators or tutors under Louisiana domestic law.
41

42 PART I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

43 §4251.101. Short title

44 This Chapter may be cited as the Louisiana Uniform Adult 45 Guardianship and Protective Proceedings Jurisdiction Act.

46 §4251.102. Definitions

47 In this Chapter:

48 (1) "Adult" means an individual who has attained eighteen years of age 49 or who is an emancipated minor.

50 (2) "Conservator" means a person appointed by the court to administer

1 the property of an adult, including a person appointed as a curator in a full 2 interdiction; as a curator in a limited interdiction, but only insofar as the 3 curator is given power over the care of some or all of the property of the 4 interdict; or as a tutor in a continuing tutorship.

5 (3) "Guardian" means a person appointed by the court to make decisions 6 regarding the person of an adult, including a person appointed as a curator in 7 a full interdiction; as a curator in a limited interdiction, provided that, and only 8 insofar as, the curator is given power over the care of some or all aspects of the 9 person of the interdict; or as a tutor in a continuing tutorship.

10 (4) "Guardianship order" means an order appointing a guardian.

11 (5) "Guardianship proceeding" means a judicial proceeding in which an 12 order for the appointment of a guardian is sought or has been issued.

13 (6) "Incapacitated person" means an adult for whom a guardian has 14 been appointed.

15 (7) "Party" means the respondent, petitioner, guardian, conservator, or 16 any other person allowed by the court to participate in a guardianship or 17 protective proceeding.

18 (8) "Person", except in the term incapacitated person or protected 19 person, means an individual, corporation, business trust, estate, trust, 20 partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture, public 21 corporation, government or governmental subdivision, agency or 22 instrumentality, or any other legal or commercial entity.

23 (9) "Protected person" means an adult for whom a protective order has 24 been issued.

25 (10) "Protective order" means an order, issued by a court of another 26 state pursuant to the law of that other state, appointing a conservator or 27 relating to management of an adult's property.

28 (11) "Protective proceeding" means a judicial proceeding in which a 29 protective order is sought or has been issued.

1 records, and other administrative matters without making a record.

2 2016 Louisiana Comment

3 Section 1041.104 of the Louisiana UAGPPJA includes the "optional" part of 4 Article 104 of the model UAGPPJA that appears in "brackets." The explanation for 5 this is to be found in the third paragraph of the Official Comment, which reads in 6 part as follows: "[T]he language is bracketed because of a concern in some states that 7 a legislative enactment directing when a court must make a record in a judicial 8 proceeding may violate the doctrine on separation of powers." In Louisiana, there is 9 no such concern.

10 §4251.105. Cooperation between courts

11 If a court of another state in which a guardianship or protective 12 proceeding is pending requests assistance under a provision of law similar to the 13 previous R.S. 13:4251.104, a court of this state has jurisdiction for the limited 14 purpose of granting the request or making reasonable efforts to comply with the 15 request.

16 2016 Louisiana Comment

17 The provisions of Article 105 of the model UAGPPJA that detail the various 18 kinds of assistance that a Louisiana court may render a court of another state upon 19 the latter's request have not been reproduced in Section 4251.105 of the Louisiana 20 UAGPPJA. The reason for this is simply that it is self-evident that a Louisiana court 21 may render to a court of another state any and all of the various kinds of assistance 22 that are enumerated in Article 105. For that reason there is no need for such a 23 detailed enumeration.

24 §4251.106. Taking testimony in another state

25 A. In a guardianship or protective proceeding, in addition to other 26 procedures that may be available, testimony of a witness who is located in 27 another state may be offered by deposition or other means allowable in this 28 state for testimony taken in another state. The court on its own motion may 29 order that the testimony of a witness be taken in another state and may 30 prescribe the manner in which and the terms upon which the testimony is to be 31 taken.

32 B. In a guardianship or protective proceeding, a court in this state may 33 permit a witness located in another state to be deposed or to testify by telephone 34 or audiovisual or other electronic means. A court of this state shall cooperate 35 with the court of the other state in designating an appropriate location for the 36

1 deposition or testimony.

2 C. Documentary evidence transmitted from another state to a court of 3 this state by technological means that do not produce an original writing may 4 not be excluded from evidence on an objection based on the best evidence rule.

5 PART II. JURISDICTION

6 §4251.201. Definitions; significant-connection factors

7 A. In this Part:

8 (1) "Emergency" means a circumstance that likely will result in 9 substantial harm to a respondent's health, safety, or welfare, and for which the 10 appointment of a guardian is necessary because no other person has authority 11 and is willing to act on the respondent's behalf.

12 (2) "Home state" means the state in which the respondent was physically 13 present, including any period of temporary absence, for at least six consecutive 14 months immediately before the filing of a petition for a protective order or the 15 appointment of a guardian; or if none, the state in which the respondent was 16 physically present, including any period of temporary absence, for at least six 17 consecutive months ending within the six months prior to the filing of the 18 petition.

19 (3) "Significant-connection state" means a state, other than the home 20 state, with which a respondent has a significant connection other than mere 21 physical presence and in which substantial evidence concerning the respondent 22 is available.

23 B. In determining under Section 4251.203 and Section 4251.301(E) 24 whether a respondent has a significant connection with a particular state, the 25 court shall consider:

26 (1) The location of the respondent's family and other persons required 27 to be notified of the guardianship or protective proceeding.

28 (2) The length of time the respondent at any time was physically present 29 in the state and the duration of any absence.

1 (3) The location of the respondent's property.

2 (4) The extent to which the respondent has ties to the state such as voting 3 registration, state or local tax return filing, vehicle registration, driver's license, 4 social relationship, and receipt of services.

5 §4251.202. Exclusive basis

6 This Part provides the exclusive jurisdictional basis for a court of this 7 state to appoint a guardian or issue a protective order for an adult.

8 2016 Louisiana Comments

9 (a) In conformity with Article 202 of the model UAGPPJA, Section 4251.202
10 of the Louisiana UGAPPJA provides the exclusive jurisdictional basis for a 11 Louisiana court to "appoint a guardian or issue a protective order for an adult." This 12 jurisdictional rule applies as much to purely "in state" cases (cases in which all of the 13 incapacitated or protected person's relevant contacts are in Louisiana) as it does to 14 "interstate" cases (cases in which the incapacitated or protected person has some 15 contacts with Louisiana but other contacts with one or more other states). For that 16 reason, pertinent provisions of Article 10 of the Code of Civil Procedure - those that 17 grant jurisdiction over status in cases involving interdiction and continuing tutorship 18 - have been modified accordingly. The result of these changes is that the jurisdiction 19 of Louisiana courts over all cases involving interdiction and continuing tutorship is 20 now governed by the provisions of this Part including the key provision, Section 21 4251.203. It is possible - indeed likely - that this change will have the effect of 22 expanding the jurisdiction of Louisiana courts over such cases.

23
24 (b) This Section is jurisdictional only. It changes neither the domestic 25 substantive law nor, except as to jurisdiction, the domestic procedural law of 26 Louisiana regarding the protection of adults in need of care. Under that law, there are 27 and, notwithstanding the enactment of this Act, will remain two - and only two - 28 modes of protecting adults in need of care, namely, curatorship ("interdiction") and 29 continuing tutorship. Consequently, in any case over which a Louisiana court asserts 30 jurisdiction on the basis of this Section, all documents produced by that court in 31 connection with the case, including court orders and written communications, should 32 use terms drawn from one or the other of those two domestic legal institutions. For 33 example, the parties and the court, in drafting these documents, should designate the 34 proceeding as one of "interdiction" (or "curatorship") or "continuing tutorship" (as 35 opposed to one of "guardianship" or "conservatorship"), as the case may be; should 36 refer to the adult in need of care as an "interdict" or "person with intellectual 37 disabilities" (as opposed to an "incapacitated person" or a "protected person"), as the 38 case may be; and should refer to the superintendent of that adult as a "curator" or a 39 "continuing tutor" (as opposed to a "guardian" or a "conservator"), as the case may 40 be. See Louisiana Prefatory Note.

41 §4251.203. Jurisdiction

42
43 A court of this state has jurisdiction to appoint a guardian or issue a 44 protective order for a respondent if any of the following apply:

45 (1) This state is the respondent's home state.

46 (2) On the date the petition is filed, this state is a significant-connection

1 state, and:

2 (a) The respondent does not have a home state or a court of the 3 respondent's home state has declined to exercise jurisdiction because this state 4 is a more appropriate forum; or

5 (b) The respondent has a home state, a petition for an appointment or 6 order is not pending in a court of that state or another significant-connection 7 state, and, before the court makes the appointment or issues the order:

8 (i) A petition for an appointment or order is not filed in the respondent's 9 home state.

10 (ii) An objection to the court's jurisdiction is not filed by a person 11 required to be notified of the proceeding.

12 (iii) The court in this state concludes that it is an appropriate forum 13 under the factors set forth in Section 4251.206.

14 (3) This state does not have jurisdiction under either Paragraph (1) or 15 (2), the respondent's home state and all significant-connection states have 16 declined to exercise jurisdiction because this state is the more appropriate 17 forum, and jurisdiction in this state is consistent with the constitutions of this 18 state and the United States.

19 (4) The requirements for special jurisdiction under Section 4251.204 are 20 met.

21 §4251.204. Special jurisdiction

22 A. A court of this state lacking jurisdiction under Section 4251.203(1) 23 through (3) has special jurisdiction to do any of the following:

24 (1) Appoint a guardian in an emergency for a term not exceeding ninety 25 days for a respondent who is physically present in this state.

26 (2) Issue a protective order with respect to immovable or corporeal 27 movable property located in this state.

28 (3) Appoint a guardian or conservator for an incapacitated or protected 29 person for whom a provisional order to transfer the proceeding from another

1 state has been issued under procedures similar to Section 4251.301.

2 B. If a petition for the appointment of a guardian in an emergency is 3 brought in this state and this state was not the respondent's home state on the 4 date the petition was filed, the court shall dismiss the proceeding at the request 5 of the court of the home state, if any, whether dismissal is requested before or 6 after the emergency appointment.

7 §4251.205. Exclusive and continuing jurisdiction

8 Except as otherwise provided in Section 4251.204, a court that has 9 appointed a guardian or issued a protective order consistent with this Chapter 10 has exclusive and continuing jurisdiction over the proceeding until it is 11 terminated by the court or the appointment or order expires by its own terms.

12 2016 Louisiana Comment

13 This Section is concerned exclusively with what might be called "interstate" 14 disputes regarding continuing jurisdiction in guardianship or conservatorship 15 matters, that is, cases in which, after a court in some other state has already assumed 16 jurisdiction over such a matter, a court of this state is petitioned to take some action 17 with respect to the person to whom that matter pertains or his property. This Section 18 has no application to "intrastate" disputes of this kind, that is, cases in which the 19 question of which court has jurisdiction involves two different Louisiana courts. To 20 the contrary, such intrastate disputes are governed by other Louisiana legislation, for 21 example, in the case of continuing jurisdiction in interdiction matters, by Code of 22 Civil Procedure Article 4553.

23 §4251.206. Appropriate forum

24 A. A court of this state having jurisdiction under Section 4251.203 to 25 appoint a guardian or issue a protective order may decline to exercise its 26 jurisdiction if it determines at any time that a court of another state is a more 27 appropriate forum.

28 B. If a court of this state declines to exercise its jurisdiction under 29 Subsection A, it shall either dismiss or stay the proceeding. The court may 30 impose any condition the court considers just and proper, including the 31 condition that a petition for the appointment of a guardian or issuance of a 32 protective order be filed promptly in another state.

33 C. In determining whether it is an appropriate forum, the court shall 34 consider all relevant factors, including:
35

1 (1) Any expressed preference of the respondent.

2 (2) Whether abuse, neglect, or exploitation of the respondent has 3 occurred or is likely to occur and which state could best protect the respondent 4 from the abuse, neglect, or exploitation.

5 (3) The length of time the respondent was physically present in or was 6 a legal resident of this or another state.

7 (4) The distance of the respondent from the court in each state.

8 (5) The financial circumstances of the respondent's estate.

9 (6) The nature and location of the evidence.

10 (7) The ability of the court in each state to decide the issue expeditiously 11 and the procedures necessary to present evidence.

12 (8) The familiarity of the court of each state with the facts and issues in 13 the proceeding.

14 (9) If an appointment were made, the court's ability to monitor the 15 conduct of the guardian or conservator.

16 §4251.207. Jurisdiction declined by reason of conduct

17 A. If at any time a court of this state determines that it acquired 18 jurisdiction to appoint a guardian or issue a protective order because of 19 unjustifiable conduct, the court may do any of the following:

20 (1) Decline to exercise jurisdiction.

21 (2) Exercise jurisdiction for the limited purpose of fashioning an 22 appropriate remedy to ensure the health, safety, and welfare of the respondent 23 or the protection of the respondent's property or prevent a repetition of the 24 unjustifiable conduct, including staying the proceeding until a petition for the 25 appointment of a guardian or issuance of a protective order is filed in a court 26 of another state having jurisdiction.

27 (3) Continue to exercise jurisdiction after considering:

28 (a) The extent to which the respondent and all persons required to be 29 notified of the proceedings have acquiesced in the exercise of the court's

1 jurisdiction.

2 (b) Whether it is a more appropriate forum than the court of any other 3 state under the factors set forth in Subsection 4251.206(C).

4 (c) Whether the court of any other state would have jurisdiction under 5 factual circumstances in substantial conformity with the jurisdictional 6 standards of Section 4251.203.

7 B. If a court of this state determines that it acquired jurisdiction to 8 appoint a guardian or issue a protective order because a party seeking to invoke 9 its jurisdiction engaged in unjustifiable conduct, it may assess against that party 10 necessary and reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, investigative fees, 11 court costs, communication expenses, witness fees and expenses, and travel 12 expenses. The court may not assess fees, costs, or expenses of any kind against 13 this state or a governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality of this state 14 unless authorized by law other than this Chapter.

15 §4251.208. Notice of proceeding

16 If a petition for the appointment of a guardian or issuance of a protective 17 order is brought in this state and this state was not the respondent's home state 18 on the date the petition was filed, in addition to complying with the notice 19 requirements of this state, notice of the petition must be given to those persons 20 who would be entitled to notice of the petition if a proceeding were brought in 21 the respondent's home state. The notice must be given in the same manner as 22 notice is required to be given in this state.

23 §4251.209. Proceedings in more than one state

24 Except for a petition for the appointment of a guardian in an emergency 25 or issuance of a protective order limited to property located in this state under 26 Section 4251.204(A)(1) or (A)(2), if a petition for the appointment of a guardian 27 or issuance of a protective order is filed in this state and in another state and 28 neither petition has been dismissed or withdrawn, the following rules apply:

29 (1) If the court in this state has jurisdiction under Section 4251.203, it

1 may proceed with the case unless a court in another state acquires jurisdiction 2 under provisions similar to Section 4251.203 before the appointment or issuance 3 of the order.

4 (2) If the court in this state does not have jurisdiction under Section 5 4251.203, whether at the time the petition is filed or at any time before the 6 appointment or issuance of the order, the court shall stay the proceeding and 7 communicate with the court in the other state. If the court in the other state has 8 jurisdiction, the court in this state shall dismiss the petition unless the court in 9 the other state determines that the court in this state is a more appropriate 10 forum.

11 PART III. TRANSFER OF GUARDIANSHIP

12 OR CONSERVATORSHIP

13 §4251.301. Transfer of guardianship or conservatorship to another state

14 A. A guardian or conservator appointed in this state may petition the 15 court to transfer the guardianship or conservatorship to another state.

16 B. Notice of a petition under Subsection A must be given to the persons 17 that would be entitled to notice of a petition in this state for the appointment of 18 a guardian or conservator.

19 C. On the court's own motion or on request of the guardian or 20 conservator, the incapacitated or protected person, or other person required to 21 be notified of the petition, the court shall hold a hearing on a petition filed 22 pursuant to Subsection A.

23 D. The court shall issue an order provisionally granting a petition to 24 transfer a guardianship and shall direct the guardian to petition for 25 guardianship in the other state if the court is satisfied that the guardianship will 26 be accepted by the court in the other state and the court finds that:

27 (1) The incapacitated person is physically present in or is reasonably 28 expected to move permanently to the other state.

29 (2) An objection to the transfer has not been made or, if an objection has

1 been made, the objector has not established that the transfer would be contrary 2 to the interests of the incapacitated person.

3 (3) Plans for care and services for the incapacitated person in the other 4 state are reasonable and sufficient.

5 E. The court shall issue a provisional order granting a petition to 6 transfer a conservatorship and shall direct the conservator to petition for 7 conservatorship in the other state if the court is satisfied that the 8 conservatorship will be accepted by the court of the other state and the court 9 finds that:

10 (1) The protected person is physically present in or is reasonably 11 expected to move permanently to the other state, or the protected person has a 12 significant connection to the other state considering the factors in Section 13 4251.201(B).

14 (2) An objection to the transfer has not been made or, if an objection has 15 been made, the objector has not established that the transfer would be contrary 16 to the interests of the protected person.

17 (3) Adequate arrangements will be made for management of the 18 protected person's property.

19 F. The court shall issue a final order confirming the transfer and 20 terminating the guardianship or conservatorship upon its receipt of:

21 (1) A provisional order accepting the proceeding from the court to which 22 the proceeding is to be transferred which is issued under provisions similar to 23 Section 4251.302; and 24 (2) The documents required to terminate a guardianship or 25 conservatorship in this state.

26 §4251.302. Accepting guardianship or conservatorship transferred from 27 another state

28 A. To confirm transfer of a guardianship or conservatorship transferred 29 to this state under provisions similar to Section 4251.301, the guardian or

1 conservator must petition the court in this state to accept the guardianship or 2 conservatorship. The petition must include a certified copy of the other state's 3 provisional order of transfer.

4 B. Notice of a petition under Subsection A must be given to those persons 5 that would be entitled to notice if the petition were a petition for the 6 appointment of a guardian or issuance of a protective order in both the 7 transferring state and this state. The notice must be given in the same manner 8 as notice is required to be given in this state.

9 C. On the court's own motion or on request of the guardian or 10 conservator, the incapacitated or protected person, or other person required to 11 be notified of the proceeding, the court shall hold a hearing on a petition filed 12 pursuant to Subsection A.

13 D. The court shall issue an order provisionally granting a petition filed 14 under Subsection A unless:

15 (1) An objection is made and the objector establishes that transfer of the 16 proceeding would be contrary to the interests of the incapacitated or protected 17 person; or

18 (2) The guardian or conservator is ineligible for appointment in this 19 state.

20 E. The court shall issue a final order accepting the proceeding and 21 appointing the guardian or conservator as guardian or conservator in this state 22 upon its receipt from the court from which the proceeding is being transferred 23 of a final order issued under provisions similar to Section 4251.301 transferring 24 the proceeding to this state.

25 F. Not later than ninety days after issuance of a final order accepting 26 transfer of a guardianship or conservatorship, the court shall determine 27 whether the guardianship or conservatorship needs to be modified to conform 28 to the law of this state.

29 G. In granting a petition under this Section, the court shall recognize a 1 guardianship or conservatorship order from the other state, including the 2 determination of the incapacitated or protected person's incapacity and the 3 appointment of the guardian or conservator.

4 H. The denial by a court of this state of a petition to accept a 5 guardianship or conservatorship transferred from another state does not affect 6 the ability of the guardian or conservator to seek appointment as guardian or 7 conservator in this state under Code of Civil Procedure Article 4561, if the court 8 has jurisdiction to make an appointment other than by reason of the provisional 9 order of transfer.

10 2016 Louisiana Comments

11 (a) The provisional order contemplated by Subsection D is interlocutory.
 12 Because there is no legislation that provides for the appeal of such an order, it is not 13 an "appealable judgment" for purposes of Code of Civil Procedure Article 2083. To 14 obtain review of such an order, a party must apply for supervisory writs in 15 accordance with Code of Civil Procedure Article 2201. By contrast, a judgment 16 denying a petition for such a provisional order, inasmuch as it constitutes a "final 17 judgment," is appealable under Code of Civil Procedure Article 2083.

18
 19 (b) The determination of whether "the guardian or conservator is ineligible 20 for appointment in this state," as is required by Subsection (D)(2), is governed solely 21 by Louisiana law. Thus, in making that determination, the court must consider, first, 22 whether the guardian or conservator in question, had he been appointed in Louisiana 23 originally, would have been a "curator" of an interdict or a "continuing tutor" of a 24 "person with intellectual disabilities," as those terms are defined in Louisiana law, 25 and, second, whether the guardian or conservator meets the eligibility requirements 26 established by Louisiana law for that office.

27
 28 (c) In the part of the final order contemplated by Subsection E in which the 29 court purports to "appoint [] the guardian or conservator as guardian or conservator 30 in this state", the court should refer to the person so appointed not as "guardian" or 31 "conservator", but rather as "curator" or "continuing tutor", as the case may be. As 32 is explained in the Louisiana Prefatory Note to the Act and in numerous comments 33 to other Sections of the Act, this Act does not change the domestic substantive or 34 procedural law of Louisiana regarding the protection of adults in need of care; to be 35 more precise, it does not establish any new or additional mode of protecting adults 36 in need of care alongside those of curatorship ("interdiction") and continuing 37 tutorship. Consequently, any orders issued by a Louisiana court under this Act must 38 use terms drawn from one or the other of those two domestic legal institutions.

39
 40 (d) The expression "modified to conform to the law of this state" as used in 41 Subsection F must be understood expansively. The modifications envisioned may be 42 as minor as changing the out-of-state order so that it uses Louisiana legal 43 terminology, for example, changing the terms of a "limited guardianship" to "limited 44 interdiction" or re-naming the former "guardian" as "curator." Likewise possible are 45 more substantive modifications, such as changing a limited guardianship or 46 conservatorship to a full interdiction (or vice versa) if warranted, or naming a 47 different person as the guardian or curator if the person in the out-of-state order does 48 not qualify for that office under Louisiana law.

1 (e) The ninety-day deadline established in Subsection F of this Section is 2 intended to serve merely as a "prompt" to encourage interested parties, sooner rather 3 than later, to examine the guardianship or conservatorship to determine whether it 4 needs to be modified to conform to Louisiana law. The deadline is not intended to 5 serve as a "prescriptive period" after which such modifications may no longer be 6 made. Once a Louisiana court finally accepts a transfer of a guardianship or 7 conservatorship, the court has full discretion to make any modifications necessary 8 to bring it into compliance with Louisiana law, just as it would in a local case of 9 interdiction or continuing tutorship. This is true whether the problem is discovered 10 within the initial ninety-day period or later.

11 12 (f) The term "recognize," as used in Subsection G of this Section, has its 13 everyday, ordinary meaning, that is, "take cognizance of." It follows that the 14 "recognition" of a foreign judgment of guardianship or conservatorship does not 15 require any "formal" court action, such as a judgment or even a minute entry.

 25 copies of the order and letters of office in the mortgage and conveyance records 26 of any appropriate parish of this state.

27 2016 Louisiana Comment

28
 29 The phrase "appropriate parish of this state" as used in this Section refers to 30 the parish (or parishes) where the guardian intends to exercise his authority. For 31 example, if the guardianship order is registered to allow the guardian to commit the 32 adult to the care of some medical or nursing facility, the appropriate parish is the 33 parish where that facility is located.

1 Section 2. Code of Civil Procedure Arts. 10(A)(3) and (4) and 4556 are hereby 2 amended and reenacted to read as follows:

3 Art. 10. Jurisdiction over status

4 A. A court which is otherwise competent under the laws of this state has 5 jurisdiction of the following actions or proceedings only under the following 6 conditions:

7 * * *

8 (3) An interdiction proceeding ~~if the person sought to be interdicted is~~ 9 ~~domiciled in this state, or is in this state and has property herein~~ brought pursuant 10 to the provisions of the Louisiana Uniform Adult Guardianship Protective 11 Proceedings Jurisdiction Act.

12 (4) A tutorship or curatorship proceeding if the minor, ~~interdict,~~ or absentee, 13 as the case may be, is domiciled in this state or has property herein.

14 * * *

15 Art. 4556. Ancillary interdiction procedure

16 A. Upon producing proof of his appointment, a conservator ~~of a ward~~ 17 ~~residing outside Louisiana~~ who was appointed by a court outside of Louisiana may 18 appear in court on behalf of the ward protected person without qualifying as a 19 curator according to the law of Louisiana when no curator has been appointed in this 20 state. In accordance with the authority set forth in his letters, such a conservator may 21 perform acts affecting the ward's protected person's property in Louisiana when 22 authorized by the court of the parish in which the property is located. Once so 23 authorized, the conservator shall act in the same manner and in accordance with the 24 same procedures as a curator appointed by a court in Louisiana. Whenever the action 25 of an undercurator would be necessary, the court shall appoint an undercurator ad 26 hoc.

27 B. In order to take possession of the ward's protected person's property, or 28 to remove any of it from the state, a conservator appointed by a court outside 29 Louisiana shall file a petition for authority to do so in the court of the parish in which 1 any of the property is located. The court shall render a judgment granting the 2 authority prayed for if the foreign conservator alleges in the petition that there are 3 no Louisiana creditors of the ward protected person, or that all such known 4 creditors have been paid, and if the foreign conservator attaches to the petition an 5 irrevocable power of attorney appointing a resident of this state to receive service of 6 process in any action or proceeding brought in Louisiana to enforce a claim against 7 the ward protected person, or against any of the ward's protected person's property 8 located in this state.

10 Section 3. The Louisiana State Law Institute is hereby directed to note where 11 appropriate in the Louisiana Uniform Adult Guardianship Protective Proceedings 12 Jurisdiction Act the uniform commentary and prefatory notes of the Uniform Adult 13 Guardianship Protective Proceedings Jurisdiction Act.

14 Section 4. This Act shall become effective on August 1, 2016.

DIGEST

SB 94 Original

2016 Regular Session

Colomb

Proposed law enacts the Louisiana Uniform Adult Guardianship and Protective Proceedings Jurisdiction Act.

Proposed law provides new procedures, largely drawn from a uniform act, for foreign curatorships and guardianships to be recognized and exercised in Louisiana.

Present law provides that a state court has jurisdiction for an interdiction proceeding if the person sought to be interdicted is domiciled in this state, or is in this state and has property herein.

Proposed law provides that a state court has jurisdiction for an interdiction proceeding brought pursuant to the provisions of the proposed law.

Present law provides that a state court has jurisdiction for a tutorship or curatorship proceeding if the minor, interdict, or absentee, is domiciled in or owns property in the state.

Proposed law denies a state court jurisdiction over a tutorship or curatorship proceeding for interdicts who are either domiciled in or own property in the state.

Present law provides for a conservator, who has produced proof of his appointment, of a ward residing outside of the state to appear in court on behalf of the ward without qualifying as a curator in Louisiana when no curator has been appointed in the state. This conservator can perform acts that affect the ward's property in Louisiana when authorized by the court in the parish where the property is located. If the foreign curator wants to take possession of the ward's property or to remove any of it from the state, then he must file a petition for authority to do so in the court of the parish where the property is located. The court shall render a judgment granting the authority requested if the foreign conservator alleges in the petition that there are no Louisiana creditors of the ward or that all such known creditors have been paid and if the foreign conservator attaches to the petition an irrevocable power of attorney appointing a resident of this state to receive service of process in any action or proceeding brought in Louisiana to enforce a claim against the ward or against any of the ward's property in Louisiana.

Proposed law removes the qualification that the ward reside outside of Louisiana and replaces the term "ward" with the term "protected person".

Effective August 1, 2016.

(Amends C.C.P. Art. 10(A)(3) and (4) and Art. 4556; adds R.S. 13:4251.101-4251.505)
