2016 Regular Session

Havard

Abstract: Adds criminal charges as possible penalty for misstatements or suppression of facts in applications for alcoholic beverage permits.

Present law provides that the misstating or suppressing of facts in applications for an alcoholic beverage permit may result in the denial, withholding, or suspending of the permit, but does not provide the possibility of criminal charges.

Proposed law adds the filing of criminal charges in addition to the denial, withholding, or suspending of an alcoholic beverage permit if an applicant misstates facts or suppresses facts in the application process.
