
DIGEST

The digest printed below was prepared by House Legislative Services. It constitutes no part of the legislative instrument. The keyword, one-liner, abstract, and digest do not constitute part of the law or proof or indicia of legislative intent. [R.S. 1:13(B) and 24:177(E)]

HB 444 Original

2016 Regular Session

Nancy Landry

Abstract: Includes in the crime of unlawful residence or presence of a sex offender, a sex offender who is present or within 1,000 feet of a residential home used for approved home study purposes.

Present law provides for the crime of unlawful residence or presence of a sex offender when the offender is present or within 1,000 feet of school property or in any motor vehicle or other means of conveyance owned, leased, or contracted by such school to transport students to or from school or a school-related activity.

Present law further includes in the crime of unlawful residence or presence of a sex offender an offender who establishes a residence within 1,000 feet of any public or private elementary or secondary school or child care facility.

Present law provides a penalty of a fine of not more than $1,000, imprisonment with or without hard labor for not more than one year, or both.

Proposed law retains present law and includes in the crime of unlawful residence or presence of a sex offender, a sex offender who is present or within 1,000 feet of a residential home used for approved home study purposes.

Proposed law defines "residential home used for home-school purposes" as any private residence where parents, guardians, or other adults conduct a home study program approved by the State Board of Elementary and Secondary Education.

(Amends R.S. 14:91.2(A)(1) and (2) and (C)(1) and (E)(6); Adds R.S. 14:91.2(E)(7))