DIGEST 2016 Regular Session

Peacock

Present law provides for requirements relative to certain appropriations.

Proposed law retains present law and provides that except as otherwise provided by the Constitution of Louisiana, money shall be drawn from the state treasury only pursuant to an appropriation made in accordance with law.

Present law provides that money designated in the official forecast as nonrecurring shall only be appropriated for certain purposes.

Proposed law retains present law and specifies that nonrecurring revenue shall be appropriated only for retiring or for the defeasance of bonds in advance or in addition to the existing amortization requirements of the state; for providing funding for capital outlay projects in the comprehensive state budget; for providing for the allocation or appropriation for deposit into the Budget Stabilization Fund.

Proposed law adds other constitutional requirements that the legislature shall provide for the payment of supplements to the salaries of full-time local law enforcement and fire protection officers of the state and that no law shall reduce any supplemental payments to full-time law enforcement and fire protection officers.

Proposed law also provides for conditions of eligibility for full-time law enforcement and fire protection officers to receive salary supplements; that full funding shall be equal to the amount required to meet the requirements of law; and that neither the governor nor the legislature may reduce an appropriation except by using means provided for in the Act containing the appropriation, provided that two-thirds of the elected members of each house of the legislature consent to any such reduction in writing.

Present law includes constitutional provisions that appropriations of the legislature from the state general fund and dedicated funds shall not exceed the expenditure limit.

Proposed law retains present law and provides an exception to the expenditure limit for funds allocated by Article VII, Section 4, Paragraphs (D) and (E) of the Constitution of Louisiana relative to mineral royalties and severance taxes.

Effective July 1, 2016.
