2016 Regular Session

Connick

Abstract: Authorizes the investigating law enforcement agency to hold property which constitutes obscenity, video voyeurism, or pornography involving juveniles.

Present law requires that any property or material alleged to constitute evidence of obscenity, video voyeurism, or pornography involving juveniles shall remain in the care, custody, and control of the court or the district attorney.

Proposed law adds the investigating law enforcement agency to those authorized to have the care, custody, or control of such property or material.

(Amends C.Cr.P. Art. 718.1(A))
