DIGEST

SB 152 Engrossed

2016 Regular Session

Claitor

Present law provides that any person entering an alcoholic beverage outlet by the fact of such entering is deemed to have consented to a reasonable search of his person for any firearm by a law enforcement officer or other person vested with police power, without the necessity of a warrant. However, in the case of Ringe v. Romero, 624 F. Supp. 417, 418-19, 425 (W.D. La. 1985), the court held that the warrantless search authorized by present law was unconstitutional.

Proposed law repeals statute held unconstitutional.

Effective August 1, 2016.

(Repeals R.S. 14:95.4)
