HB 135 Engrossed

2016 Regular Session

Terry Landry

Abstract: Requires certain state agencies to report all information in its case files on persons who may be prohibited from possessing a firearm.

Proposed law requires the Dept. of Health and Hospitals and the office of elderly affairs to report to the La. Supreme Court any information in its possession on any adult which may be prohibited from possessing a firearm. That information shall be provided upon request of the court and in a reasonable time period.

Provides that proposed law does not violate any present law provisions regarding client confidentiality.
