HB 1126 Original

2016 Regular Session

Chad Brown

Abstract: Clarifies that the office of risk management, the Self-Insurance Fund, and certain insurance providers are not subject to the Louisiana Insurance Code.

Present law establishes the office of risk management within the division of administration.

Proposed law retains present law, but clarifies that the office, the Self-Insurance Fund, and, with respect to insurance policies provided to the state only, commercial underwriters, insurers, and brokers are not subject to the provisions of the La. Insurance Code.
