EXPENDITURE EXPLANATION

This proposed legislation may result in an indeterminable increase in the workload and costs in FY 17 within the State Plumbing Board of LA (Board) as a result of developing an examination as well as any other tests of qualifications required to issue gas fitter licenses. The proposed legislation requires the Board to test and license gas fitters and master gas fitters as well as regulate businesses that engage in natural gas or liquefied petroleum gas fitting services. Presently, gas fitting services are not subject to license or regulation. It is indeterminable as to how many individuals will be licensed or how many businesses will be regulated under this measure. However, if the number of individuals seeking gas fitter licenses cannot be absorbed within the workload of existing staff, an addition position would be required at a cost of $58,538 for salaries and related benefits.

REVENUE EXPLANATION

Proposed legislation will result in an indeterminable increase in fees and self-generated revenues for the State Plumbing Board. Under the proposed legislation, the Board is required to impose the same license fees and charges on gas fitters that is imposed on journeyman plumbers. The following license fees and charges are currently imposed on journeyman plumbers: a temporary permit fee of $75; a examination fee of $125; an initial licensing fee of $40; and a renewal fee of $40. It is speculative as the number of individuals that will seek a gas fitter or master gas fitter license; therefore, the amount of licensing fee revenue is indeterminable.
