8 (3)(a) Within ten days after the occurrence of a an unexpected vacancy on 9 the flood protection authority board, the board shall ~~advise~~ notify the chairman of the 10 Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority of such unexpected vacancy. For 11 purposes of this Paragraph, a vacancy shall be unexpected whenever it occurs for a 12 reason other than the expiration of a term. ~~Within fourteen days after being advised~~
13 ~~of a vacancy on a board, the chairman of the Coastal Protection and Restoration~~ 14 ~~Authority shall publish notice of the vacancy in the official journal of the state and~~ 15 ~~of each parish within the territorial jurisdiction of the authority.~~ The chairman of 16 the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority shall cause notification of the 17 unexpected vacancy to be published in the official journal of the state and of each 18 parish within the territorial jurisdiction of the authority. Such notification shall be 19 published no later than thirty days following receipt by the chairman of the Coastal 20 Protection and Restoration Authority of notice of the unexpected vacancy.

21 (b) ~~No sooner than thirty days after the latest date of publication in any of~~ 22 ~~the journals set forth in Subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph nor later than sixty days~~
23 ~~after that date, the nominating committee shall meet to determine the nominations~~
24 ~~to send to the governor to fill each vacancy.~~ The nominating committee shall begin 25 meeting to determine the nominations to send to the governor to fill each unexpected 26 vacancy no sooner than thirty days after the latest date of publication set forth in 27 Subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph and no later than ninety days after the latest date 28 of publication set forth in Subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph. The committee shall 29 consider each name submitted to the committee from whatever source and the

1 committee members may propose names of persons to be considered. After review, 2 the committee shall select the nominees for each unexpected vacancy who meet the 3 requirements of this Section. The committee shall submit one nominee for ~~a~~ each 4 unexpected vacancy in a position provided for in ~~R.S. 38:330.1(C)(1)(a)(i) or (b)(i)~~

7 ~~or (b)(ii) or (iii)~~ Item (1)(a)(ii) or (iii) of this Subsection or Item (1)(b)(ii) or (iii) of 8 this Subsection. A majority vote of the total membership of the nominating 9 committee shall be required to nominate persons to positions on the board. The 10 committee shall submit its nominations for each unexpected vacancy to the governor 11 for consideration no later than ~~ninety~~ one hundred and twenty days after the 12 ~~occurrence~~ notification of the chairman of the Coastal Protection and Restoration
13 Authority of the occurrence of such unexpected vacancy. The governor shall appoint 14 one of the nominees submitted by the committee within thirty days of submission of 15 the nominations for any unexpected vacancy and submit such appointee to the Senate 16 for confirmation within forty-eight hours following the appointment, regardless of 17 whether the legislature is in regular session.

18 (c) If the nominating committee fails to submit a nominee within ~~ninety~~ one 19 hundred and twenty days after ~~the occurrence of a vacancy~~ notification of the 20 chairman of the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority of the occurrence of 21 such unexpected vacancy, the governor shall appoint a person meeting the 22 requirements of this Section within thirty days of the expiration of such time and 23 submit such appointee to the Senate for confirmation within forty-eight hours 24 following the appointment, regardless of whether the legislature is in regular session.

25 (d) In the event that the Senate fails to confirm an appointment made 26 pursuant to this Paragraph by taking no action at all or voting not to confirm an 27 appointee in open session by the end of a regular session, the position shall be 28 considered as having an unexpected vacancy and the process required by this 29 Paragraph shall occur until such position is filled. Any appointee the Senate fails to

1 confirm shall not be appointed to the same position during any recess of the 2 legislature.

3 (4)(a) Each July first, the board shall notify the chairman of the Coastal 4 Protection and Restoration Authority of any vacancy which will occur on a board in 5 the following year due to expiration of a term, hereinafter in this Paragraph referred 6 to as "expected vacancy". The chairman of the Coastal Protection and Restoration 7 Authority shall cause notification of each expected vacancy to be published in the 8 official journal of the state and of each parish within the territorial jurisdiction of the 9 authority. Such notification shall be published no later than thirty days following 10 receipt by the chairman of the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority of notice 11 of an expected vacancy.

12 (b) The nominating committee shall begin meeting to determine the 13 nominations to send to the governor to fill each expected vacancy no sooner than 14 thirty days after the latest date of publication set forth in Subparagraph (a) of this 15 Paragraph and no later than ninety days after the latest date of publication set forth
16 in Subparagraph (a) of this Paragraph. The committee shall consider each name 17 submitted to the committee from whatever source and the committee members may 18 propose names of persons to be considered. After review, the committee shall select 19 the nominees for each expected vacancy who meet the requirements of this Section.
20 The committee shall submit one nominee for an expected vacancy in a position
21 provided for in Item (1)(a)(i) or (b)(i) of this Subsection and shall submit two 22 nominees for each expected vacancy in a position provided for in Item (1)(a)(ii) or 23 (iii) of this Subsection or Item (1)(b)(ii) or (iii) of this Subsection. A majority vote 24 of the total membership of the nominating committee shall be required to nominate 25 persons to positions on the board. The committee shall submit its nominations for 26 each expected vacancy to the governor for consideration no later than thirty days
27 prior to the start of regular session. The governor shall appoint one of the nominees 28 submitted by the committee not later than thirty days after receipt of the nominations
29 and shall submit such appointee to the Senate for confirmation within forty eight-

1 hours afer the appointment is made, regardless of whether the legislature is in regular 2 session. If confirmed, the appointee shall take office the day after the expiration of 3 the term of the board member whose term is expiring.

4 (c) If the nominating committee fails to submit a nominee for an expected 5 vacancy thirty days prior to the start of regular session, the governor shall appoint 6 a person meeting the requirements of this Section. The governor shall submit such 7 appointee to the Senate for confirmation within forty-eight hours after the 8 appointment is made, regardless of whether the legislature is in session. If confirmed, 9 the appointee shall take office the day after the expiration of the term of the board 10 member whose term is expiring.

11 (d) If the event that the Senate fails to confirm an appointment made 12 pursuant to this Paragraph by taking no action at all or voting not to confirm an 13 appointee in open session by the end of a regular session, an unexpected vacancy 14 shall occur the day after the expiration of the term of the board member whose term 15 is expiring and such unexpected vacancy shall be filled in the manner set forth in 16 Paragraph (3) of this Subsection. Any appointee whom the Senate failed to confirm 17 shall not be appointed to the same position during any recess of the legislature.

18 ~~(4)~~(5) Each appointment made to the board shall be subject to confirmation 19 by the Senate.

HB 1149 Original

2016 Regular Session

Leger

Abstract: Changes the nominating and appointment process for the boards of commissioners for the Southeast Flood Protection Authority-East and Southeast Flood Protection Authority-West Bank and provides relative to the powers and duties of such authorities.

Present law provides a process by which the board of commissioners of the Southeast Flood Protection Authority-East and Southeast Flood Protection Authority-West Bank are nominated and appointed.

Proposed law changes present law in that it provides for a process to be followed for a vacancy which will occur due to the expiration of a term (expected vacancy) and a vacancy which occurs for any other reason (unexpected vacancy).

Proposed law requires the nomination process for an expected vacancy to begin one year prior to the occurrence of an expected vacancy.

Proposed law requires the nominating committee for such boards to provide nominations to the governor for appointments for expected and unexpected vacancies in a certain time frame.

Proposed law requires the governor to make appointments within a certain time frame for expected and unexpected vacancies and submit such appointments to the Senate for confirmation within 48 hours of making such appointments.

Proposed law requires the governor, in the event that the nominating committee does not provide nominees to him in a certain amount of time, to make such appointments and submit such appointments to the Senate for confirmation within 48 hours of making such appointments.

Present law provides that all commissioners appointed, except a commissioner appointed to fill an unexpired term, shall be appointed as provided in present law for staggered terms of four years and that no member shall serve more than two consecutive four-year terms.

Proposed law adds that a former board member may be reappointed to the board after sitting out four years from the completion of his last consecutive term.

Present law provides that notwithstanding any other provision of law, all persons who are appointed to a position on a board, commission, committee, or district, which requires Senate confirmation, including persons appointed to a partial term shall be subject to reconfirmation as follows:

- (1) The service of each appointee appointed to a term concurrent with the appointing official or at the pleasure of the appointing official expires at the end of the appointing official's term as provided for in Article IV, Section 3 of the Constitution of Louisiana or as otherwise provided for by law.

The appointee may continue to serve until the end of the second regular session of the Legislature following the beginning of the legislative term at which time the position will become vacant unless the appointee is reappointed to the position and has been confirmed by the Senate prior to the end of the second legislative session.

- (2) The service of each appointee appointed to a fixed term shall expire at the end of the term to which the appointee was appointed.

The appointee may continue to serve until the end of the second regular session of the Legislature following the expiration of the term.

Proposed law provides that notwithstanding present law no person shall serve on the board of commissioners beyond the expiration of a term unless reappointed to a position on the board by the process required by proposed law.

Present law provides that a majority of the commissioners of the board shall constitute a quorum to do business.

Proposed law specifies that a majority of the sitting commissioners of the board shall constitute a quorum to do business.

Present law provides that a vacancy created by reason of death, resignation, expiration of term, removal, or any other cause shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment.

Proposed law provides that a vacancy created by reason of death, resignation, removal, or any other cause other than the expiration of a term shall be an unexpected vacancy to be filled according to proposed law pertaining to unexpected vacancies.

Proposed law provides that after Jan. 1, 2018, the authority or any levee district within the territorial jurisdiction of the authority may divest itself of any drainage or pumping responsibilities that would otherwise fall to the responsibility of a parish governing authority.

(Amends R.S. 38:330.1(C)(3) and (4), (D)(2), (E), (F), and (H); Adds R.S. 38:330.1(C)(5) and (D)(3) and 330.2(A)(2)(c))
