AMENDMENT NO. 3

On page 1, delete lines 11 through 14 in their entirety and insert the following:

"Section 1. Legislative intent and history. In the 2006 Regular Session of the Legislature, the legislature overwhelmingly adopted Act 621 to merge the courts and clerks of court of Orleans Parish into a single reformed structure. That Act was supported by twenty-nine Senators and ninety-six members of the House of Representatives and signed into law by Governor Blanco. In 2012 via Act 474 the legislature repealed those provisions before they were allowed to go into effect. The legislature recognized in Act 621, and affirms today that:

There should be effective, efficient, and economic administration of governmental services at all levels. It is the intent of the legislature that the public interest is best served by the elimination, to the fullest extent practicable, of the duplication of effort within local government in order to expend public funds more efficiently and wisely and to meet more effectively and conveniently the needs of the people who provide the revenues for its operations, particularly in the wake of devastation wrought by hurricanes Katrina and Rita and in the wake of the large deficits and unprecedented financial crisis the City of New Orleans currently faces.

It is the public policy of this state to ensure that all courts, officials, and offices enumerated in Article V of the Louisiana Constitution of 1974 are structured in a manner which is responsive to the needs of the people, operated efficiently, and consistent with the funds available. The state, as well as the city of New Orleans and its citizens, now have limited resources with which to support the number of judges and judicial offices it did previously. The legislature finds that the structure of the judiciary in Orleans Parish is fragmented and inefficient and must be fundamentally changed if the city/ Orleans Parish is to flourish. The costs of operating one district court and one clerk of the district court will inherently be less due to economies of scale. The legislature recognizes that the city of New Orleans is of economic, historical, and cultural significance to this state and to this nation and that efficiency of its judiciary and offices comprising the judiciary is fundamental and that the legislature should provide the best framework for its future. The consolidation of the courts and officers covered by this Act is critical to the future financial stability of the city and will ultimately lessen the financial burden to the citizens of the city of New Orleans and this state. The legislature recognizes that a judicial system founded 200 years ago is unrealistic and not viable in the 21st century. The legislature does hereby enact these provisions in accordance with the authority granted in Section 32 of Article V of the Louisiana Constitution of 1974.

Section 2. There are three judicial districts larger than the Parish of Orleans. The states most populated parish and judicial district is East Baton Rouge Parish. It also has a noticeably higher caseload than the Orleans Parish courts. The 19th Judicial District has fifteen judges, the East Baton Rouge Family Court has four, and the East Baton Rouge Juvenile Court has two. The state's largest parish elects the equivalent of twenty-one district judges. It also elects four appellate court judges. The Parish of Orleans elects ten appellate court judges and thirty-one trial court judges (Civil, Criminal, and Juvenile).

The legislature finds that there is no reason that Orleans should have more judges than larger parishes with a higher caseload, but to facilitate transition to a proper number has decided to make this reduction that still leaves Orleans with twenty-two judgeships which is still the most district judgeships in the State of Louisiana. Therefore, the following judgeships are abolished effective January 1, 2027: Divisions E and F of the Orleans Juvenile Court, Divisions A, I, and J of the Orleans Criminal District Court, and Divisions C, L, M, and N of the Orleans Civil District Court are abolished effective December 31, 2026. The Secretary of State shall not include those offices in the 2026 fall elections nor authorize qualifying for those judgeships.

Section 3. The clerk of the civil district court shall become the clerk of court of Orleans Parish. The property, employees, and duties of the clerk of the criminal district court and of the clerk of the Orleans Parish juvenile court shall be under the control of the clerk of court of Orleans Parish effective December 31, 2026. The clerk of the criminal district court shall be authorized to finish their current term at the same salary and maintain responsibility for elections until the end of their term and may utilize employees of the clerk of court for that purpose.

Section 4. R.S. 13:1137(B), 1302, 1312(A) through (C) and (D)(1), 1335, 1337(A) and (B), 1343(A), 1344(A) and (D), 1347(A)(3) and (B) and (C), 1381(introductory paragraph), 1383, 1384, 1595, 2151(D), 2151.4(D), and 2492(A)(1) and (5) and (6) are hereby amended and reenacted and R.S. 13:474.1, 477(41), 621.41 through 621.45, 714.1, 714.2, 1312(E) and (F), and 2492(A)(8) are hereby enacted to read as follows:

TITLE 13. COURTS AND JUDICIAL PROCEDURE
CHAPTER 1. JUDICIAL OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES, IN GENERAL

PART I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

§1. Duties of the minute clerks of courts of Orleans Parish

The minute clerks of the court of appeals and of the civil and criminal district courts of the parish of Orleans Forty-First Judicial District Court shall attend the sessions of the court for which they are appointed, and shall, under the supervision of the judge or judges of the courts, keep the minutes of the court, issue all notices, copies of rules and orders entered on the minutes, which are required to be issued, and make due entries on the dockets of the causes and of the proceedings therein, and shall perform such other duties as the judges may direct.

§474.1. Judicial depository

A. The bank or banks so designated as fiscal agent for such funds shall furnish adequate security, satisfactory to the judges, to secure the return and payment of any such deposited funds.

B. It shall be the duty of the judges to endeavor to receive interest on all monies so deposited, and if, for any reason, the fiscal agent, or agents, so designated are unable or unwilling to pay interest on such deposit, the judges of the district court are hereby authorized to purchase certificates of deposit, and other forms of certificates of indebtedness bearing interest, or they may purchase short-term United States bonds, treasury notes, or certificates.

C. Any and all interest received on all such monies so deposited, or from any certificates of deposit, certificates of indebtedness, or United States bonds, treasury notes, or certificates, shall be distributed in the following manner:

(2) The ultimate recipient of any of said funds so deposited in the registry of the court shall receive interest on such sum received by him, to be calculated on the following basis, to wit:

(b) Interest shall be paid such recipient on the same percentage of such sum he receives as the total amount of such registry funds invested with interest bears to the total of such funds held in the registry of the court during the preceding year.

(c) In determining the amount of such registry funds invested with interest, and the total of such funds held in the registry of the court, as provided in Subparagraph (b) of this Paragraph, the basis for such determination shall be the average daily balance of the total funds invested and the average daily balances of the total funds held in the registry of the court fund during the period that the funds being disbursed were on deposit in the registry of the court fund.

D. In the event it becomes necessary to disburse funds which have been deposited in the registry of the Consolidated Judicial Expense Fund, in accordance with a duly rendered court order, in excess of the amount held by the fiscal agent of the fund, in its noninterest bearing account, the presiding judge or the acting chief judge of the Forty-First Judicial District Court, on an order issued by the majority of the judges of the district court, sitting en banc, shall have the authority to borrow such funds so needed for disbursement from the fiscal agent, or others, at the then prevailing interest rate for loans of this character, using as collateral to secure any such loan an amount of bonds, or certificates of deposit, or certificates of indebtedness in which funds have been invested, and, if required so to do by any such lending agency, to execute any note or other form of agreement to repay such loan.
